Game 1 SATURDAY, 1/11/20 KPP5 Mike and Gary

PLAYING IN A 1/11 GAME WITH 11 GUYS ON EACH TEAM = EVERYONE WON, WON ,WON

THE MONTHLY STREAK IS AT 106
IN GAME 1, MIKE SP MAKES A 1-DERFUL THROW AT THE PLATE TO CUT DOWN A VITAL RUN AND GARY W MAKES A 1-DERFUL GRAB OF IT TO TAG THE RUNNER.

THE 1-DERFUL JOE SINENO DRIVES HIMSELF HOME WITH A 1ST AT BAT HOMER, TO THE EAST MEADOW END OF THE FIELD.

THE GARRULOUS AND GRAZY, GARY Z GIVEZ UP JUST 5 IN A BOX OF A DOZEN INNINGS, AS HE HOPES HIS RAVENS WILL QUOTH NEVERMORE.

It was nice to be able to continue the streak on a 65 degree day in January. The Z's outlasted the Louies 7-5 in 12 innings. Big extra base hits were the difference, home runs by Super Joe and guest Fran, triples by Mike, Rich L and Luis. Web gems at 2b by Rich L with a great running catch. Defensive play of the day, with 1 out and two on, base hit to right, Dave G scooped it, threw it to Mike who threw it to Gary W and nailed the runner out at home to preserve their lead.

I ALSO SPIED POWERFUL HITS FROM LUIS, RICH L, STEVE F, AND RICH C, APOLOGIES FOR THE THINGS WE MISSED.

Game 2 SUNDAY, 1/26/20 KPP5 BY DAN
RELAYED TO YOU FROM OUR CITY OF SUNRISE, FLORIDA OFFICES, 32 FEET ABOVE SEA LEVEL OVERLOOKING HOLE 7.

On a cool bright Sunday morning 16 Great Neck Softball Stars played a 10 inning classic. The Visiting Bobbies took a 4 run lead in the top of the first on a bases clearing double by Marc L. The Home Bruces bounced back with 2 in the bottom of the first and 2 more in the bottom of the 4th to tie the game. They would have had more but Mark L made a stop on smash and then turned the potential hit into a double play. Meanwhile, the Judge pitched 6 straight scoreless innings until the eighth when Bobby himself had a key hit that gave the Visitors a one run lead. The Visitors added 5 more in the top of the ninth for a 10-4 lead. The Homies retaliated with 3 but their rally was ended on a web gem. Hugh grabbed a liner to right center fired it to Rich who fired it to Mike S to get the third out at the plate.

Key defensive plays were made by Mike S who was catching for the first time in Great Neck, Mario, Hugh, and others. Gary Z pitched a solid game.

Next game should be Saturday - Keep the streak alive.

KUDOS TO ALL THE BRAVE YOUNG MEN WHO DEFEATED OLD MAN WINTER, YET AGAIN, TO BRING OUR STREAK UP TO 107 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS OF OUTDOOR PLAY. I'M NOT SHOCKED BUT I AM IN AWE.

Game 3 Saturday, KPP5, 2.1.20 by Dan
The game was something like 10-5. Gary Z was the winning pitcher then too. Luis ripped a liner to right that might have hurt anyone unlucky enough to catch it. I left early so I don't have all the highlights

Game 4. Sunday, KPP5, Feb 2,2020 (02.02.2020) By Dan with Commissionerial input

To owe is not a good thing. An 02 count is not a good thing but to play on 02.02.2020 is a great thing.

The second Feb game featured 18 stalwarts as the Judge faced the Z man for the second day in a row on a bright chilly day. The Z men took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first. built it to 5-0 and held on for a 6-5 victory.
The Homies under the direction of Bobby were paced by bullet hits by Johnny V, both Matts and Mario. Matt the teacher had a triple and Mark L a double. Mark also turned some stellar double plays at second base. Gary Z had 2 hits and 2 grabs of hot smashes in addition to his pitching.

The Visitors had multi-hit games from Roy, Hugh, Gordon, Rich and Lee. Lee made a great play on a potential Texas League Double and turned it into a double play,

Kudos to Bobby and Jack who organized another 1 run game that ended with the go ahead run at the plate.

Game 5. Sunday, School Yard. Feb 9, 2020 By Dan

On a chilly but sunny Sunday at the schoolyard the softball turnout was 17 as the Bobbies faced the Bruces with His Johner facing Luis. The Bruces took an early 4-0 lead as Arik homered over the fence but the Bobbies tied it at 4 with a rash of liners from Hugh, Pete, Gordon, Bobby, Jack, Rich and Rob. The rally gave the Judge a 12 -6 lead. The Bruces fought back powered by a drive off the fence by Matt SP and drives by Matt the Teacher, Mario and others. Luis ripped one over the fence.

Plays you won't see in the majors were made by Bruce who made a sweet scoop in the first inning while playing for the other team. Someone hit a drive the hit the chain link fence so hard it got stuck in it.

The final was 14-10 in favor of the Bobbies with the Judge picking up the W.

For those who remember Crazy Eddie, see bargain Bruce for a deal that is insane on some special products.

Game 6 SUNDAY, 2/16/20 AT THE BEACH BY BRUCE

Under gray winter skies with wind chills hovering around 32 degrees, 17 hale and hearty men-boys shivered in their softball finery to play the game that they all love.

A neutral field had to be chosen as home fields have come under additional scrutiny because of the Astros sign stealing debacle.
The seaside field in Port Washington was chosen for this epic game.
His honor pitched against a cruise quarantined escapee, whose AKA is the Z-man. The dual went back and forth until it was tied 14-14 in the 8th inning.
The 9th inning saw the Judge's team take the lead and held it over the Z-man's team to gain a well deserved W.
Hits there were plenty, runs there were many and errors were very scarce.
We had 2 over the fence ground rule doubles, several gappers and plays at the plate.
At the end of the game the sun was shining and the grins were blinding.

Sunday, Game 7 Hempstead Harbor Beach Field by Bruce

Today's day at the beach saw unseasonably warm temperatures.

It saw a plethora of web gems:

Fantastic play by Bobby backing up the play at first base and cutting down the batter trying to stretch a single into a double.

Several great stops by Lee at SS and Francis at 3rd base.
Terrific slides by Hugh.

His honor pitched a close to perfect game giving up no earned runs.

Only 1 (Francis) over the fence ground rule double.

Great to have Barry, again.

After spotting the Z's 3 runs in the top of the 1st, the Avila's scored 13 unanswered runs to win the game 13-8 in 10 innings. Lots of hitting by the Avilas, led by Jonny and Francis setting the table with multiple hits each and then multiple bombs by Mike and Luis. It the return of the king day, Lenny visiting from California. The west coat has done wonders for him and he hit and fielded well all day. Luis pitched a great game and then Cousin Brucie came in to save the game in relief! Fine web gem in CF by Jonny and Francis at 2b.

Sunday, March 8 Game 10 by Dan
On a cool, crisp, sunny Sunday, twenty two Great Neck/Port Washington softball stars gave their fans a battle to remember. Gary Z's Homies topped Luis' Visitors in an 8-7 thriller. Defense won the day as was clear in the top of the first when with first and second nobody out, Fran L turned a screeching bullet into a double play. It was the first of several gems by Fran. Other gems included a play at the plate when a runner was out after a great relay throw from the outfield to catcher Pete the Rock . Lennie pulled in from the west coast to make a key stop at third to end a rally.
> The offense attacks were led by Mark L who tripled and doubled for the Home team.
> Roy had at least 4 hits to 4 different spots for the Visitors.
> The pitchers also helped themselves. Gary Z winning pitcher for the Homies doubled over the leftfielder's head. Luis homered over the fence to bring his visitors to within one but it wasn't enough .

> Next game Saturday. See you there.

Saturday, Game 11 KPP5 by Bruce and John Hunt Combined

Saturday's Corona Bowl was a tale of 3 chapters:
Chapter 1 was the over arching story of the Corona virus.
Chapter 2 was the tale of the first 5 innings.
Chapter 3 was the story of innings 6 thru 10.

Chapter 1:
Under Clear blue skies and the cloud of Corona Virus.
Twenty disinfected players came together to play ball.
Necessary precautions were taken by all and the games went on.
We had many players bring their own catcher's masks as well as other items to protect themselves and others.

Chapter 2:

The Z's battled the Judges (not Biblical) to 6-6 ties.
Great plays by Noah T. (Made Daddy Lee proud) and Francis & Doug C.

Chapter 3:
The Judges pulled ahead to win the tournament 14-7.
Superior hitting by Luis, Doug, Rich L. and others.

The weather was fine.
The field was fine.
And the game was great.

By John
What I recall is that both teams included a number of players who've been migrating to our game during the winter, including Luis Avila, Rich Luzardo, Fran and others. Lee brought his son, who I think plays varsity ball at Bayside HS. He certainly looked and played the part. He runs faster than I can drive.

Saturday's game was very well played, with some phemomenal individual fielding efforts including several sliding outfield catches, as well as one, heretofore unseen, flying, horizontal catch by Fran in which he raced from a normal second base position, dove and caught a ball in mid-air that was about to fall just fair along the short right field foul line. A truly phenomenal catch.

In addition to the fielding heroics, there were plenty of hard line drives but I don't recall the specifics.
I believe the final score was 14-7 but you should check with Bruce on that.
I won on Saturday -- Gary Z. won on Sunday 9-7 on a Mark Lederhosen two run homer in the bottom of the 9th. Both games were played at KPP5.

Sunday 3.15.20 Game 12 KPP5 by Bruce

“Beware the Ides of March“
Great Neck Weekend Softballers do not agree.
Twenty ball players including two eminent MDs said today was a great day to play softball.

Once again, it was a very tightly contested game between his honor the judge, and the Z-men. The Judge’s team was managed by Bobby and the Z-men team was managed by me. It was tied at the end of nine innings but the day was so glorious that we decided to play two more innings. The final was 9 to 7 in favor of the Z-men.

It was great to see Ziggy on the field again after his recent surgery.
Mark Leder homered over the center fielder‘s head.
Many great plays and many great at bats but mostly a great day in the fresh air.

Saturday, Game 13 KPP5 by Mike Spiel

Great Neck Softball is back! It was great to see 28 guys show up on Saturday with masks, for the return of our softball game. I'm glad we can start a new streak. We had a terrific 12 inning game that ended in a 4-4 tie, Bruce is happy. Great pitching by Gary Z, Steve, Doug and Mark L. Big hitting day by Kono, Kenny, Mike, Juan and Vinny. There were nice web gems by Gary C, with a sliding catch in RF to save a couple of runs. Mike S grabbed a hard liner at SS from John V to end a rally. Doug caught a hard liner on the mound with the bases loaded. But the catch of the day was made by Vinny Batteria in LCF, chasing down a long drive hit by Mark Leder and making the catch over his shoulder. I hope to see more guys out there next weekend. Stay safe!

Best Regards,
Michael Spiel

FROM THE SIDELINES, BECAUSE I'M TEMPORARILY SIDELINED, I OBSERVED MANY FINE PLAYS AND SMASH HITS. CONSIDERING THE 4.5 MONTH HIATUS, IT WAS MOST IMPRESSIVE. SO IMPRESSIVE IN FACT THAT I CAN'T RECALL ANY OF IT. I TAKE THAT BACK. MARIO HIT A HOME RUN AND DOUG BECK HAD A COUPLE OF BIG HITS.
CHUCK THE FAN, CAME TO WATCH SO ALL IS ONCE MORE RIGHT WITH THE WORLD. HE BROUGHT HIS SECOND SHOULDER REPLACEMENT, TO MATCH UP WITH HIS 2 HIP REPLACEMENTS.

TWO ROOKIES PLAYED AND PAID. PLEASE WELCOME STEVE HERSHON (FOUND US ON THE WEB) AND JAY DIENES(FRIEND OF MARIO).

SINCE WE WERE NOT LEGALLY ALLOWED TO PLAY FROM MID-MARCH UNTIL AUGUST 1, OUR STREAK HAS BEEN LEGALLY REINSTATED. WE HAVE NOW PLAYED IN 109 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS. THERE IS PRECEDENCE FOR THIS. CAL RIPKIN STILL GOT CREDIT FOR HIS CONSECUTIVE GAMES DESPITE THE BASEBALL STRIKE. ANYONE WHO SAYS OTHERWISE, YOU HAVE MY PERMISSION TO BLANK HIM IN THE BLANK. AND I'M NOT A VIOLENT MAN.

THEY STAGED PARADISE AND PUT UP A PARKING LOT ON THE "B" FIELD.

So this is what I put on the great neck Park District's Facebook Page under their notice about last Saturday's Concert which was canceled.

Gary Leventhal They staged paradise and put up a parking lot!!! Pure Instant karma. Imagine putting up a stage in the middle of a softball field to disrupt the game that's been going on amongst Great Neck residents for 30 years. Softball player's lives matter too.
I think the park district staff is fabulous and I'm always complementary, however this time someone made a a poor error in judgment. Boo. Mark it E1, if you're scoring.

The "B" field #3 will not be available for a month. They were supposed to tell me last Friday whether we could play on the middle field # 4. (To call it a field at all is ridiculous). I'm still waiting for an answer. If not, they wanted us to use field 1 on Steamboat, which would be an organizing nightmare. Wire you congressman. I'm sure they could have picked another venue for this. If we had/have our usual 40 guys on a Saturday, we'd be f&4#'ed

Also this could effect our annual Home Run Derby.

Saturday, Game 15AB mix KPP5 by Mike Spiel

Saturday

Lots of runs today as the Feinsteins beat the Z's 13-7. The F's hit from top to bottom, big hitting from John V, Mike, Hugh, Rich, Vinny Bats as well as Dan H, Gary W and newcomer Steve H with his first hit in Great Neck Softball. For the Z's, good hitting day for Driller, Matt Sv, Harlan and newcomer Dan K, who had 3 hits including a bomb to LCF. Blast of the day goes to Dave G, who's shot one hopped the fence in LCF. Great job by Jeff B who caught the whole game and made a nice catch on a foul pop up that Fran would NOT have caught, because he was home instead of at home! Mark Kono made in impact defensively catching several would be hits in SCF.

Game 16 Allenwood by Mike Spiel

I can't believe it's 2 years since Steve Jurist passed away, (Aug 9, 2018) http://www.gnsoftball.com/forever-in-our-thoughts.html)nbut I'm sure he was smiling at our back and forth game that ended in a 12-12 tie. Big hitting day for Barry who had 6 hits including the hit that tied the game in the top of the 11th with 2 outs! Mike and Kenny had 4 hits each for the Hunts. Mario also hit well. Driller and Matt S, also multiple hits for the Leders. Web gems, Mike Smolens made a nice catch on a line drive, but then was robbed by Mike Spiel in his next at bat on a hard hit one hopper to SS. Driller not only hit well, but made several nice plays at 3B. Bruce made a nice play on a hard hit ball to 1B.

A dozen to a dozen, it dozen get any better.

Brian and Jack both got hurt in the OF, with injuries to their fingers. We hope it's not serious and wish you guys a speedy recovery!

Best Regards,

Saturday GAME15AB, 8/15, KPP5 BY Mike Sp

The Becks topped the Z's 12-8. Big hitting day for Kenny who had a monster HR to RF and 3 hits. Mark L, Dave G and Rich C, also had 3 hits and Seth added a 2 run single to help seal the win. Web gems by Russell, Rich C and Rich L all at 3b and Mike at SS.

LIKE A FRACTURED FAIRY TALE!
RATHER THAN SITTING ON HIS TUFFET, JACK IS BACK ONLY 2 WEEKS AFTER FRACTURING HIS FINGER TIP.
SO HE HAS ONE LESS GOOD TIP FOR YOU.

Saturday GAME18A, 8/22, KPP5 BY Mike Sp

The Z's beat the F's 10-5 in our first Saturday where we had 2 games at once. Two run triples hit by both Jack and Kono were the big hits for the Z's victory. Dave G and Scott each added 3 hits. Despite his limited range at SS, Mike flashed some leather, twice in the hole and once up the middle, which was the first of 2 DP's he turned with Scott. One for each team. Corey made a couple of nice running catches in CF as did Lee. Dave G made a nice scoop at 1b on an errant throw.

Saturday, Game 18C, 8/22, KPP4, By Bruce

The outlook wasn't brilliant for the home team today.
>> The score stood 10 to 6 with 3 outs left to play.
>> Then Leder smashed a triple to the wall
>> With Alan Z's bleeder the 7th run did fall.
>> A straggling few got up to go in deep despair, the rest

>> Clung to the hope which springs eternal in the human breast:
>> They thought if only Driller could get but a whack at that->> We'd put even money, now, with Driller at the bat.
>> Juan & Newbie Neil (whose hits with astounded graces)
> when Gordie joined them on all the bases
>> With the winning run approaching the plate >> masked Driller addressed the ball.
>> Oh, somewhere in this favored land the sun is shinning bright
>> The band is playing somewhere and somewhere hearts are light.
>> And somewhere men are laughing and somewhere children shout:
>> For there is joy in Great Neck as Driller hit it out.
>> With apologies to Ernst Thayer
>> Winning Pitcher: Mark Leder
>> Losing Pitchers: Daniel K, Scott E & Bruce B.
>> Big Hitters Driller, Russ, Leder, Gordon, Scott E. & New Comer Neil.
>> Web Gems: Russ, Seth C & New Comer Neil.

IF YOU WERE A NARCISSIST WATCHING OR PLAYING THE GAME TODAY YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED THE FOLLOWING

SUNDAY GAME ALLENWOOD BY MIKE SP
The Avilas beat the Becks 19-7. Lapses in defense led to the lopsided score. Big hitting today from Barry, Luis, Kenny, Pete and Lee for the Avilas. For the Becks, nice hitting by Ziggy, Dave G and Mario. There were some bombs for extra bases by Mario, Luis, Dave, Pete, Mike and Luis. The Avilas turned 3 dp's and almost turned 5 in the 9 inning game, The highlight was Mike picking up a heard shot from Dave and turning it with Lee and a nice scoop from Rich at 1b. Nice grab in LF by Kono and Mario made a great play at 3b.

Because you were too busy lashing out at others blaming them for your failures. Saying the most heinous things about your opponents after receiving criticism.

SUNDAY GAME ALLENWOOD MAKESHIFT

IF YOU WERE A NARCISSIST WATCHING OR PLAYING THE GAME TODAY YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED

RUSSELL'S TWO DOUBLE, A TRIPLE AND 4 HIT DAY

BECAUSE YOU WERE TOO BUSY LOOKING AT CELL PHONE CAMERA SELFIE'S

AND YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED DAN K'S 2 RUN IN 10 INNINGS PITCHING PERFORMANCE AND HIS 3 EXTRA BASE HITS, BECAUSE YOU WERE TOO BUSY WORRYING ABOUT HOW YOUR WRINKLES APPEARED TO OTHERS IN THE EXTREMELY HARSH GLARE OF TODAY'S SUN.

AND YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED JOHN VITALE'S MONSTER HOME RUN OVER THE LEFT FIELDER'S HEAD, DOWN THE DEATH KNOLLS OF ALLENWOOD PARK BECAUSE YOU WERE TOO PREOCCUPIED

WITH WATCHING THE NUMBER OF LIKES YOU WERE GETTING FOR YOUR NEWLY POSTED FACEBOOK PROFILE PIC.

AND YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED HARLAN'S FINE PLAY IN THE OUTFIELD BECAUSE YOUR WERE TOO BUSY TELLING OTHER HOW WONDERFUL YOU ARE.

AND YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED DRILLER'S 3 HIT, INCLUDING A DOUBLE, DOUBLE DAY, ABNER BECAUSE YOUR WERE BUSY LOOKING AT YOUR OWN REFLECTION IN A NEARBY PLAYER'S SUNGLASSES

AND YOU WOULD HAVE MISSED THE RETURN OF ELIE COHEN BECAUSE HE SIMPLY WAS NOT YOU.

TODAY'S GAME BETTER THAN FINE WINE DINING.

As it was 9 ON 9, WITH THE SCORE TIED 9-9 WITH TWO OUT IN THE 9TH, THE ZEES PULL OUT A COME FROM BEHINDER AFTER BEING DOWN 9-7, GOING INTO THE INNING. IF ONE WERE TO RATE THIS GAME, IT WOULD DEFINITELY HAVE GOTTEN A 9 OUT OF 10.
HERE'S WHY.
GARY CHARNEY CHARRED 3 HITS AND PLAYED A FINE DEFENSIVE RIGHT FIELD DESPITE THE BLINDING SUN.

HUGH HAD A HUGH-GE DAY CRUSHING 5 HITS, INCLUDING A DOUBLE.

KONO MADE AN IMPOSSIBLE, I-KON-OC, SLIDING CATCH IN LF AFTER RUNNING IN FOR A HALF MILE.

VINNY BATTERIA SLUGGED 3 HITS AND DEFINED FINE PLAY WITH HIS D IN CF.

MIKE SP GEMMED AT SS AND CAME UP WITH 3 VERY LONG AND HARD CLUTCH HITS.

GARY Z, NOT ONLY TOILED FOR 9 INNINGS ON THE MOUND TO GET THE COME FROM BEHIND W, BUT HELPED HIS CAUSE, WITH 2 BIG HITS.

MIKE SM CRUSHED A GAPPER FOR BAGS OF THRICE.

JOE P BACK FROM SUNNY FLA. FINE PLAYED A SCORCHED LINE DRIVED ATOM BALL TO 1B PREVENTING CERTAIN IRREPARABLE HARM TO HIS TEAM AT A CRUCIAL TIME.

More from Mike.
Nice comeback by the Z's who scored 3 runs in their last at bat for a walk off 10-9 victory over the Feinsteins. Jack's future son in law Corey, had a big hitting day and made some nice plays at 2b. Rich also had a big hitting day with 4 hits. There were web gems all around by Gary Ch, Barry and Kono in the OF. A nicely turned DP by Mike, Corey and Dave G on the IF. Gary Z had 2 hits on the day.

MANY THANKS TO JEFF B AND DOUG B (NO RELATION) WHO CAUGHT AND UMPIRED THE ENTIRE GAME, NO EASY TASK. THANKS GUYS.

The Bruce led Homies took leads of 1-0 in the first and 7-0 around the fifth. Their attack was paced by Russel, Driller, Joe Sineno, Scottie and Steve who all had multi-hit games.
The Visitors closed it to 7-5 before the Homies added 10 "tack on" runs to seal the win. Key plays included a triple by Bobby W, a web gem by Seth at second, and a sliding catch by Mike K. As usual more happened but I forgot it. Bulletin just in - Steve H had 3 hits. Driller brought Jason who also played well

22 SUNDAY GAME 9.6.20 ALLENWOOD DIRT BY MIKE SP

HOWIE RETURNS FROM HIATUS

The Becks hammered the Z's 17-5. The top 3 guys in the lineup for the Becks, Barry, Ziggy and Mike combined for 14 hits. Howie returned and he brought his glove. He made several dazzling stops at 3b. Mike robbed Smolens of a hit deep in the hole at SS. Mario continued to hit well with multiple hits for the Z's. Doug B pitched a great game.

22 SUNDAY 9.6.20 GAME ALLENWOOD MAKESHIFT

MAN OH MANFRED MANN, THIS GAME WAS A REAL DO WAH DITTY. YOU'LL NOT SEE NOTHING LIKE THE MIGHTY GORDO AND THE MIGHTY JOE P IN A LONG WHILE. THEY EACH PRODUCE A MIGHTY QUIN-TUPLET OF HITS, SHOWING WHY THEY ARE QUINTESSENTIAL SOFTBALL PLAYERS.

GORDO ALSO COMES UP WITH 2 ALMOST IDENTICAL SHOE STRING CATCHES. (I-CLONE-IC CATCHES?) TOO BAD I COULDN'T CATCH THEM IPHONE-ICALLY.

MANY THANKS TO GARY W, PETE, AND JEFF (WHO CAUGHT AND UMPIRED, NO EASY TASK. THANKS GUYS.

DRILLER HAD HIMSELF QUITE A DAY WITH NOT ONLY 4 HUGE RUN PRODUCING BLASTS BUT A DEFENSIVE GEM FOR THE AGES. WITH THE BASES JUICED, HE FIELDS A GROUNDER, TAGS THE RUNNER OFF 3RD, STEPS ON 3B AND THROWS ACROSS TO 1B FOR A TRIPLE PLAY!

ROB SHOWS SOME ROB-O-POP WITH A LOADED BASES DOUBLE-POP TO DRIVE IN 3.

LEDER CRACKS 2 DOUBLES TO ACCOMPANY HIS FINE 2K PITCHING VICTORY.

PLATA, PELE, JOEL, AND ELIE EACH HAVE A MULTI-HIT GAME.
JOEL ALSO
WALKED TWICE, ONE OF WHICH PRODUCED AN RBBI. (RUN BASE ON BALLED IN) AND HIT AN UNTRIPLE. HIS MONSTEROIDAL HIT WENT ONTO THE OTHER FIELD BUT BECAUSE THE FIELDER WAS INADVERTANTLY BLOCKED FROM GETTING TO THE BALL JOEL WAS GIVEN A DO-OVER.

RUSSELL MUST HAVE TAKEN GUN CONTROL PILLS BEFORE THE GAME BECAUSE HE MADE A PERFECT THROW TO THE PLATE TO GUN DOWN WHAT LOOKED TO BE A SURE RUN.

Game 23 Allenwood Dirt Monday 9.7.20 by Mike Sp

The Avila's blanked the Leders 13-0. Big hitting day for Rich, Juan, Lee and Kenny. But the big hero was Luis. Not only did he pitch a shutout, but he had multiple hits including a HR over the fence. He did not allow a runner to reach 3b! He was backed by stellar defense. Lee made several terrific plays at 2b, including a nice DP with Mike. Bobby played liked Clemente in the OF with several nice grabs.

Game 23 Allenwood Grass Monday 9.7.20 by Dan

BOBBY U AND RICH COY RETURN AFTER LONG LEAVES. IT WAS SO GREAT TO SEE THEM HEALTHY AND BACK IN ACTION!

In a Labor Day classic the visitors and homies batted to a 7-7 tie which ended on a double play turned by the defensive star of the weekend, Driller, with the bases loaded. Bothe Dan K and Gary Z pitched brilliantly and added key hits to help their own causes. Russell and Gordon pulled web gems and Joe Sineno played his usual solid Dimaggio like defense. Pete caught a masterpiece and Jeff sacrificed his body to block some blazing fastballs thrown by Z man,

As usual more happened but that's all I remember.

Errata: In the 2020 Home Run Derby report, 2019 winner Rob Wurtzel beat Mike Spiel, not Joel. Mike has been beaten by both Wurtzels! But tied with Joel one year.

AGAIN THANKS TO ALL THE HOME RUN DERBY VOLUNTEERS WHO STAYED TO FIELD BALLS, PITCH, LINE JUDGE, MEASURE DISTANCES, KEEP SCORE AND LEND SUPPORT. GNSB IS LUCKY TO HAVE YOU. MUCH APPRECIATED.

SEE EVERYONE TOMORROW

✡✡✡✡✡ HAPPY NEW YEAR. ✡✡✡✡✡

Game 27 Allenwood Sunday 9.20.20 by Dan H

The Mikes vs the Bruces went 4 and one half scoreless innings before the Mikes blasted the new ball in the bottom of the fifth for five runs and added one more in sixth to take a 6-0 lead. Key hits were provided by Pete (5 for 5) both Mikes and Superior Mario (a homer).

The Bruces rallied for 4 in the top of the seventh. They were paced by Scooter and Howie with 3 hits. Scooter and

Gordon starred on defense with Gordon making the play of the day by throwing the tying run out at the plate to end the game. The Bruces had finally taken the lead 9-8 in the top of the 10th.

A great game on a great day with more highlights than I can remember.

See you next week.

28A SATURDAY GAME 9.26.20. KPP5 Mike Sp

The Becks beat the Tannenbaums 10-5 in a fun 14 player game. It was the Gary and Gary show. Gary Charney had 3 hits including a triple to LCF and a spectacular catch in RF. Gary L, the commish, showed us that age is a state of mind. He blasted a triple and had multiple hits on the day. His defense was truly the stuff of legend, with several running grabs in LF and an awesome diving catch. Big hitting day for Mike Smolens who had 4 hits and turned a nice DP with Mike. Kono and Lee also banged out multiple hits on the day.

28B SATURDAY GAME 9.26.20. KPP3 By Bruce

Saturday 9/26 saw the Great Neck Park Department's return of our beloved KPP3, also known as the "B" field.
It was just in time for the game of the ages (or aged).
15 players whose total ages equals 853 were divided into Team Dan (not to be confused with Captain Dan) which had 8 players (440 years, average age 55) and,
Team Bruce with 7 players (413 years, average age 59).
Team Dan took a commanding lead with 4 runs in the first, 3 runs in the fourth and a final 3 runs in the seventh.
Team Bruce could not get the timely hits and so it was 10 to 3 going into the ninth and final inning. It was then that the Brucies mounted an attack for the ages.
Scoring 11 unanswered runs and winning the game 14 to 10.
Winning pitcher: Gary Z (73)
Losing pitchers: Dan K (59), Dan H (72) and Mark L (55)
Web gems: Bruce (72), Jason (23), Barry (69) and many more that I do not remember.
Hitting stars: everyone.

29 SUNDAY GAME 9.27.20. ALLENWOOD

HIS JOHNER ALLOWS ZERO RUNS EMISSIONS IN 7 OF 11 INNINGS TO GET THE VICTORY AS HIS PITCHING IS BLAMED FOR A HITTING DROUGHT.

MARIO'S 2 CONSECUTIVE WEB GEMS AT 3B ON TOXIC LINE DRIVE SMASHES, SAVES WASTED POTENTIAL ENERGY, BY BY PREVENTING EXCESSIVE RUNNING OF THE BASES. RIGHT AFTERWARDS IN KEEPING WITH BASEBALL/SOFTBALL KARMA, HE LEADS OFF THE INNING AT THE PLATE. HE THEN VIOLATES EPA CLEAN AIR STANDARDS BY POLLUTING THE ATMOSPHERE WITH 2 BIG DIRTY HITS, ONE OF WHICH IS AN RBI TRIPLE. HE ALSO MAKES SEVERAL OTHER FINE PLAYS AT 3B AFTERWARDS. PLEASE MARK HIM DOWN ON BIODEGRADABLE PAPER, AS TODAY'S MVP.

MIKE SPIEL KNOCKS A HOLE FAR INTO IN THE OZONE (OUTFIELD ZONE) LAYER WITH HIS MONSTER 2 RUN HOMER BLAST TO CF, WITHOUT THE AID OF ANY WIND ENERGY AT ALL.

PLATA THOUGH USING A REUSABLE BAT, LITTERS THE FIELD WITH 3 HITS AND INCREASES HIS CARBON FOOTPRINTS AROUND THE BASES.

KENNY'S SLIDING CATCH OF A LINE DRIVE IN CF DISTURBS THE ECO SYSTEM BY KILLING HUNDREDS OF BLADES OF GRASS.

JOHNNY V POLLUTES THE SCOREBOARD WITH RUNS RESULTING FROM A NON EXTINCT MAMMOTH DOUBLE.

ZIGGY, SETH K, AND MARK LEDER REMOVE THE GREAT NECK BALL CATCHERS OFF THE ENDANGERED SPECIES

LIST, AS EACH COMES UP WITH A WEB GEM, THAT PREVENTS FLOOD OF RUNS.
SETH SHOWS CONCERN FOR THE RUN CONSERVATION MOVEMENT, AS HE SNAGS A SCORCHED EARTH GROUND BALL BETWEEN 1ST AND 2ND.
MARK SNATCHES A FOSSIL FUELED BULLET TO THE MOUND.

ZIGGY CAUSES PLAYERS TO GO GREEN, WITH ENVY AS HE OUTRUNS A FOUL POP DOWN THE 1B LINE.

JOE SINENO VIOLATES EPA CLEAN AIR STANDARDS, LAUNCHING LIFE THREATENING EXTRA BASE HITS INTO THE ATMOSPHERE, AS HE POLLUTES THE SCOREBOARD WITH 3 RBI ON A DOUBLE AND A SINGLE. THEN HE RECYCLES THE BASES WITH ANOTHER DOUBLE. ONE MIGHT SAY HE HAD A DOUBLE, DOUBLE DAY, ABNER.

ARGUMENTS OVER WHETHER AN OUTFIELDER MADE A CLEAN CATCH OF THE BALL CAUSES EXCESSIVE NOISE POLLUTION WITH NOXIOUS GASES.

YOUR FAVORITE ENVIRONMENTAL CASE. I APOLOGIZE IF YOU THINK MY HIGHLIGHT EMISSIONS STANDARDS ARE BELOW WHAT THEY SHOULD BE.

OUR ASTERISKED STREAK REACHES 110 CON-SECUTIVE OUTDOOR MONTHS!!!

30A SATURDAY GAME 10.3.20.

DEBATABLE HIGHLIGHTS.
PROS AND CONS OF TODAY'S GAME, OF WHICH, THERE WERE MANY.

HIS JOHNER BECOMES THE UNDEBATABLY, CON-FIRMED WINNER ON THE PITCHING PODIUM, AS HE DEBATS DE BATS OF HIS RIVALS AND HOLDS THEM TO JUST A SEXTET IN 10 INNINGS. AS HE RETIRES THE 1ST CON-SECUTIVE SEVEN BATTERS, IT WAS IF HE PUT PRO-PHYLACTICS AND CON-DOMS ON THEIR BATS TO PRO-HIBIT THEM FROM PRO-DUCING HITS.

LEETEE WINS THE GAME BY CON-NECTING WITH A WALK-OFF PRO-JECTILE, OVER THE HEAD OF THE CENTERFIELDER, IN BOT 10, WITH THE GAME TIED AT 6

SETH K SHOWS THAT HE'S BOTH A PRO AND A CON. HE LOOKS PROFESSIONAL ON SEVERAL FIELDING PLAYS AT 3B, STEALING 2 HITS, ONE A SCREECHING LINER DOWN 3RD, THE OTHER A SPECTACULAR 1ST TO 3RD DOUBLE PLAY IN A CLUTCH SITUATION, HENCE THE CON. HIS CON-FABULOUS FIELDING PAIRS WITH A MULTI HIT DAY.

SPEAKING OF PROS AND CONS, RICH CON-NORS DISPLAYS TREMENDOUS PLATE PRO-FFICIENCY WITH A 4 HIT GAME, INCLUDING CON-NECTING WITH A CON-TEST

TYING, MONSTER TRIPLE IN THE TOP OF THE TENTH, MAKING HIM ANOTHER MVP CANDIDATE FROM MY PRO-SPECTIVE.

SPEAKING OF MVP CANDIDATES, WHAT ABOUT BRIAN S, THE PRO-LIFIC HIT MAKER, WHO CON-TRIBUTED BIG TIME WITH 4 JET PRO-PELLED HITS, INCLUDING A GAME TYING 2 RUN TRIPLE IN TOP 8?

THE ZEE-ITY PITCHES VERY WELL, BOTH INTENTIONALLY AND UNINTENTIONALLY. HE ALSO SNAGS AN INDISPUTABLY LIFE THREATENING PRO-JECTILE LAUNCHED AT THE MOUND.

MIKE SMOLENS PRO-VIDED LOTS OF THRILLS. HE PRO-DUCED 4 CON-FIRMED LASER LIKE HITS, ONE OF WHICH IS A TRIPLE IN THE LAST INNING, WHICH BECAME THE WINNING RUN IN BOT 10. IN CON-JUNCTION WITH THIS, HE MAKES A WEB GEM ON A PLAY BY 2B TO PRO-TECT HIS TEAM'S LEAD. MAKING HIM ANOTHER MVP CON-TENDER.

THERE WAS CON-TROVERSY AND PRO-TESTS OVER THE PRO-HIBITION OF INTENTIONAL WALKS BUT THE RULE WAS CON-FIRMED AND CON-SERVED WITHOUT CON-CILLIATION.

CON-GRATULATIONS TO MIKE SPIEL WHO MADE VERY CON-GRUENT SIDES, WITHOUT CON-SULTATION.

30B SATURDAY GAME 10.3.20. BY DAN

The second consecutive game on the B game pitted the Dan Hs against the Bruces. The managers were also the starting pitchers. The Bruces jumped to a 5-0 lead behind key hits by Neil,

Juan. and Hugh. Bruce turned a base hit into an out by grabbing a screaming liner up the middle. Gary W made a great running catch on a tweener narrowly avoiding a crash into Hugh.

Dan's Homies bounced back with 5 runs in the bottom of the fourth. Key hits were produced by Neil, Gordon, Alan, and Mike L. Scottie had 2 extra base hits to go with some nice plays at short, The Homies added 6 in the bottom of the fifth as they spanked the new ball around park then added another 5 in the sixth. Nice plays were made by Seth, Neil and a host of others.

Plata and Mike L came in to pitch the eighth, ninth and tenth. Joe, Alan and Bruce combined on a rare 5-3-2 double play to squelch a eighth inning rally. Final score 19-9.

As usual more happened but I forgot what it was. Tune in tomorrow for more fun at Allenwood.

Game 31 Sunday, Oct 4,2020 Allenwood Park. Pro-se by Dan

On one of the top 3 weather days of the year 21 Great Neck stars played outstanding ball that resulted in a 12-12 10 inning tie between the Bobbies and the Brucies. The Judge faced Mark L and Eric in a game that featured mega hitting. Gary W went 6 for 6 with 2 doubles to pace the Brucies. There were 2 Brians who were both stars in hitting and fielding. One of the more amazing plays for the Brucies was a grounder that was headed up the middle deflected off a glove only to bounce off second base right to Bryan B, the second baseman. Rich Connors ran down a drive by the Judge to turn a hit into an out. Howie had his usual number of walks and added a triple and defensive gems to his achievements.

The game started out with the visiting Brucies taking a 3-0 lead in the top of the first. The Homies chipped away, took the lead, were caught by the Brucies, took the lead again. They were tied in the top of the 10th.
in the bottom of the tenth the game ended with the winning run on third.

Counted in the multi hit parade were Bobby, Mike S, Rich C, Gary Ch., Gordon, Joe S. Mario and Mark L, (one of which was a triple) and many others. For the defense Bruce made some key grabs and scoops at first. Mario made a gold glover on a liner to third.
As usual the old man did not see it all but there is always next week.

Kudos to Bruce who produced a 12-12 tie. As I've written for probably the 12th time, "It dozen get any better." BTW 12 is my address, my Admiral number, my Anniversary, and my age mentally.

Dan

32B SATURDAY GAME 10.10.20. KPP3 by Dan H

On a crisp sunny October day 19 Great Neck greats faced off for a Fall Classic. The Visitors began the scoring when Jolting Joe Sineno homered on the first pitch of the game from Mike Levine. The lead lasted until the bottom of the 10th when the Homies scored their 16th run. The Visitors ace Gary Z retired the last hitter on grounder and the game ended in a sweet 16-16 tie.

The Visitors were fueled by a three run over the fence blast by the Driller, four hits by Scooter, and at least 2 each by Jeff and Barry D.

The Homies had contributions at the plate from Steve H, Gary W, Bruce, Juan and Hugh. Seth put on a show with 3 hits, and a double in addition to a few nice defensive plays.

Golden glove defense was provided by Mark L with an over the shoulder grab. Mike L turned 2 back to the pitcher liners into outs. Scotty and Driller made some nice scoops.

Give Bruce his due for organizing a side makers dream, a time game after which everyone got a trophy and kissed his sister.

Game 33 Sunday 10.11.20 Allenwood by Mike Spiel

The Hunts beat the Leders in an exciting 10-9 11 inning game. There was a ton of hitting going on, led by Mike Sp"s 2 triples and 5 rbi's, which was matched by Luis who also had multiple hits and a bomb of a triple and 5 rbi's. Three hit games by Kenny, Rich "the hit man" Connors for the Hunts, Brian and Super Joe for the Leders. Web gems by Mark L on the mound, saving his life on a liner back at him. Kono made several nice catches in LCF and a great throw to Rich Connors back on a relay, LOL. Mike Spiel turned a nice 6-6-3 dp and Eric made a bunch of plays at 3b. The Judge not only was the winning pitcher, but contributed 2 hits to start run scoring rallies

35B SATURDAY GAME 10.24.20. KPP3 BY DANGEROUS DAN
What do you get when you have three Levines on the same team - an 11-7 win with key contributions by Mike, Ira and Andrew. The Levine clan had about 6 hits and some clever base running by Ira. The Homies took a 2-0 lead in the first on an over the fence dinger by Danny K who showed that he is more than a song and dance man. The Visitors bounced back and took the lead for good with a 6 run fourth. The Tampa Bay like Visitors pitching staff featured an opener (Dan H), middle reliever (Mike L) and closer (Juan Plata). Hugh and Joe G flashed some leather to keep the Homies threat alive. Scooter had a three hit day. Gary W made two key tags at the plate to end rallies.

Another good job by Bruce that created a tight game. As usual a lot happened that I forgot.

KONO MAKES A PRICELESS SLIDING CATCH IN CF RIGHT AT THE START OF

THE GAME. HE LATER CASHED IN ON 4 HITS.

ZIGGY BUSTED A HOME RUN. IT WAS A FARTHING, PLUS HE BROKE OUT OF THE BOX SO QUICKLY, THAT HE EASILY CIRCLED THE BASES BEFORE THE THROW HOME.

BRYAN B, ON A SMASH AT 2B DOES COME UP EMPTY HANDED, AS HE PULLS OUT A GEM

LUIS MAKES TWO WEB GEMS IN CF IN ONE INNING, ONE A SLIDNG CATCH SHOWING EVERYONE HOW TO GET DOWN AND OUT. THE OTHER WAS, A RUNNING GROUNDLESS ATTACK OF A LASER LIKE BLAST, PROVING THAT YOU MAY NOT CARE TOO MUCH FOR MONEY, BUT MONEY CAN BUY YOU GLOVE. LUIS WAS ALSO FAR FROM BEING POVERTY STRICKEN AT THE THE PLATE WHERE HE ATE UP 4 PITCHES AND SPIT THEM OUT AS HITS.

DANGEROUS DAN H MAKES AN IMPOSSIBLE PICK OF A BALL AT FIRST BASE TO WIPE OUT A BATTER'S DREAM OF A HIT.

GARY CH BANKRUPTS FOR 4 HITS AND A WALK, ADDITIONALLY HIS RIGHT FIELD WEB GEM LEAVES THE OPPOSITION BEREFT OF ANY RUN EARNINGS.

LEDER'S ACCURATE PITCHING LEAVES OPPOSING BATS HIT DEPLETED AND DESTITUTE FOR RUNS. FURTHERMORE HE PUSHES THE HOME BOYS FURTHER IN THE RED WITH HIS 4 HITS AT THE PLATE.

MATT S PUTS THE VISITORS BEHIND THE 8 BALL IN THE FIRST INNING WITH HIS SLIDING DOUBLE. HE LATER SCORES. HE ALSO BANGS OUT 2 MORE HITS.

MIKE S'S BATTED BALLS DIDN'T TRAVEL UP TO THE HILL OF BEANS, BUT HE MASS PRODUCES YET ANOTHER BIG 4 HIT DAY.

FACING EACH OTHER ON THE MOUNDS IN GREAT NECCO SOFTBALL TODAY, WERE LUIS AND LEDER. BOTH WERE NONPAREILS. LUIS SERVED UP A STEADY DIET OF ATOMIC FIREBALLS WHICH MADE BATTERS LOOK LIKE SWEDISH FISH OUT OF WATER, TO GET THE VICTORY.

HE HELPED HIS OWN CAUSE HITTING A BABY RUTHIAN BLAST FOR A DUBBLE BUBBLE OVER THE RCF FENCE, BEYOND THE MILKY WAY. HE ALSO NESTLES CRUNCHED ANOTHER DUBBLE BUBBLE PLUS LOLLIPOPPED DUBBLE SINGLES.

SETH K'S HITS WERE GOOD AND PLENTY-FUL. HE HAD A DUBBLE BUBBLE PLUS 2 SINGLES.

THE M&MS WERE REAL TREATS TODAY.
BOTH MARK AND MARC
AND MIKE AND M-IKE MADE THEIR TEAMS JOLLY RANCHERS DUE TO FINE HITTING AND FIELDING PERFORMANCES.
MARC KONO, WAS A BIT OFF THE WALL TODAY HONEY, AS HE BLOW POPPED 2 CONSECUTIVE BLASTS OFF THE RCF WALL.

MARK L HIT THE BALL OFF THE CANDY BUTTON SEVERAL TIMES FOR HITS WORTH 100 GRAND,

IT WAS SO GOOD TO SEE ANDY BACK IN ACTION AFTER HIS SHOULDER SURGERY HIATUS BECAUSE ANDES MINT.

DAN H USED HIS LICORICE STICK, TO TWICE GIVE THE BALL LICKS FOR HITS.

IT WAS GOOD TO SEE BRIAN STAR BURST ONTO THE SUNDAY SCENE TODAY. HE PLAYED WELL AS USUAL

IT WAS A VERY WELL PLAYED GAME WITH VERY FEW PLAYERS HAVING BUTTERFINGERS. FOR EXAMPLE:

DAVE GERBER MADE A COUPLE OF VERY HARD CANDY CATCHES IN RCF WHICH HE HANDLED SO WELL THAT

HE MADE THEM LOOK LIKE CANDY CORNS.

MIKE SPIEL'S IMPOSSIBLE OVER THE HEAD GRAB OF A BALL LOLLIPOPPED INTO SHORT LF, WAS A REAL LIFE SAVER FOR HIS TEAM. HE ALSO HAD A QUITE A GEM LAST WEEK ON A LASER AT SHORT, WHICH FOR SOME REASON WAS OMITTED BY THE HIGHLIGHT WRITER. SORRY FOR BEING SUCH A SLO POKE AND HAVING TO WRITE ABOUT IT NOW AND LATER.

THE RED HOT GARY W SAID TOOT TOOT TOOTSIE ROLL GOODBYE TO A BALL HE HERSHEY KISSED GOODBYE OVER THE HEADS OF THE OUTFIELD WITH THE BASES JUICEDY FRUITED UP, TO DRIVE HOME 2.

JOHNNY V, BLACK JACK, AND MATT S WERE ALSO GOOD LUCK CHARMS FOR THEIR TEAMS, AS EACH CANDY WRAPPERED MULTI-HITS.

IN SUM, I THINK A VERY GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL WITH LOTS OF CHUCKLES AND SNICKERS. EVERYONE WAS CHERRY CORDIAL TO ONE ANOTHER. THERE WERE ONLY 2 CANDY CANE MUTINIES. AT LEAST I KNOW ALMOND JOY.

38B SATURDAY GAME 11.7.20. KPP3 BY DANGEROUS DAN

THE DANKEES SLAY THE ZEES

On a perfect day for a game, Joe Sineno tripled in the bottom of the first to set the tone of a 9-7 game that ended with the winning run at the plate. Also in the triples club were Mike Levine and Danny K. The Scooter made 3 put outs at short in one inning to go with 3 hits for the day. Gary W had another multi-hit game including a double. Defensive gems were provided by Mike K who was guilty of Patricide when he made a great play to rob his father of a hit. Barry D, Steve H, Joe G and Gary C made solid defensive plays greatly appreciated by the pitchers Gary Z and Danny K. Soccer Jeff performed nimbly behind the plate. In addition to several hits Gordy turned a nifty dp with Gary C and Bruce, in addition to organizing the game had a personal high 5 times on base in one game..

Give the W to Danny K and tune in tomorrow for more action.

39 SUNDAY GAME 11.7.20.ALLENWOOD by Mike Spiel

THE GOLDEN AGE LASTS FOR ONE INNING.
A LIVE GOLD BALL ERROR GIVES WAY TO A REINSTATED DEAD BALL ERA.

It was a GOLDen day, with lots of sunshine. The Hunts battered the Becks for 12 runs in the 1st inning hitting with the controversial

GOLD ball. Then went on to a 7-1 (19-1) victory. The Judge must have had a GOLDen ticket pitching a great game and contributing a clutch hit and 2 perp walks. Big hitting from Juan who had 4 hits for the Hunts, helped by 3 hits and Homer from Mike Smolens and Mark Leder. Jack, Kenny and Mike Spiel also had the 3 hits each for the victors. GOLDen slumbers for the Beck's bats, except for Bryan, who had multiple line drives hits. Lots of GOLDen web gems to go around. Dan and Bruce both flashed some leather at 1b. Jack made a nice running catch in LF. The GOLD glove infield of the Hunts were on display. Mike Smolens made a terrific play at 3b, Mike Spiel went deep in the hole twice to rob a couple of hits and Rob Wurtzel made a couple of GOLDen nuggets flashing leather at 2b. Gary W hit a triple for the 2nd consecutive day. They're calling it a double triple homicide.

SOMEONE SNUFFED OUT A SURE EXTRA BASER IN THE LCF GAP. WHO WAS THE CULPRIT? JACK WITH A RUNNING NAB. TOO BAD HE DIDN'T DO IT WHEN THE CLINCHER GOLD BALL WAS IN PLAY, HE COULD HAVE BEEN NICKNAMED THE GOLDEN RETRIEVER.

MURDER HE WROTE.

GAME 40 VETERANS DAY, WEDNESDAY 11.11.20.
Pa-ll-enwood By Dan and Gary

TO ALL VETS:

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE.

ON 11/11 WITH 11 ON EACH SIDE IN OUR 111* CONSECUTIVE MONTH THE SCORE WAS NOT 11-11

SCOREBOARD WATCHERS AND BALL OBSERVERS VET THE GAME TO MAKE SURE NO HI-JINX, MONKEY BUSINESS OR FUNNY STUFF TAKE PLACE, HOWEVER THEY COULDN'T STOP THE FUNNY STUFF.

MIKE SMOLENS SMOKES 2 HOME RUNS TO CENTERFIELD IN HIS FIRST 2 AT BATS AND ALMOST RUNS HOME BUT DOESN'T RUN FOR OFFICE, AS 58 OTHER PAID UP MEMBERS DID. IN HIS 3RD AB, HE HAS TO SETTLE FOR A SINGLE. THEY ARE STILL COUNTING UP HIS RBI TOTALS IN 2 STATES.

ITS A NEW KIND OF FRAN-DEMIC OUT THERE, AS NEW FRAN ROCKETS LIFE THREATENING BALLS OFF HIS BAT, WITH RED GLARE, ONE OF WHICH IS FLAGGED DOWN BY HIS JOHNER, AS HE HEROICALLY SAVES HIS TEAM FROM CERTAIN ANNIHILATION IN THE 3RD INNING.

GORDO PREVENTS A SPIEL-UNKER FROM FINDING A WAY THROUGH THE OUTER CAVES AND POSSIBLY REACHING HOME RUN DAYLIGHT. HE ALSO SKILLFULLY LAUNCHES A COUPLE OF SAFE LANDINGS FROM THE BAT CAVE.

JOE SINENO ALSO PROBABLY HAD A GOOD GAME, BUT NOBODY WAS PAYING ATTENTION.

OH GEE CAN YOU SEE? ZEE THREE RUNS THE VEES.

On an overcast but pleasant day Gary Z set the visitors down Len Barry style - 123 in the first. Mike Smolens then homered against the Judge to give the Homies a 1-0 lead which started them off on the way to a 10-3 win.

Mike Smolens hit another homer and went 5 for 5 for a perfect day. Luis had a homer for the visitors and the Judge avoided a trip to the ER by stabbing a liner Fran sent directly at the jurist's head.

The Scooter went 3 for 3 and made several nice plays at second.

More happened but my mind is an old age wasteland. - Dan

To all:
Sorry for the overlap of the highlights. If it makes you feel better have someone do an overlap dance for you.

Please note that for the next two weekends, we have to stick with the 7:45 start time, due to conflict with youth groups.

WITH THE HARD RAIN FALLING THE DAY BEFORE, IT TOOK HARD WORK THAT SOME CALLED FOOLHARDY BUT WE FOUND A SUITABLE FIELD FOR A HARD TO PLEASE GROUP, THANKS TO DAVE G AND A FOLLOW UP INSPECTION BY DAVE S, THOUGH SOME FELT THAT PARKING AND BATHROOMING MIGHT BE HARDSHIPS. BUT THEY WEREN'T. AS A RESULT, YOU'D BE HARD PRESSED TO FIND A BETTER GAME. A 9-8 FINISH WITH THE TYING RUN ON 2ND,THE WINNING RUN ON 3RD THE RUN ON TOILET PAPER ENDS WITH THIS RUN ON SENTENCE.

ZEE GETS THE HARD EARNED VICTORY DESPITE GETTING HIT HARD IN THE LEG ON A ROCKET COMEBACKER.
LEE TANS A HARD LINER DOWN THE 3B LINE FOR A HOME RUN

ROOKIE STEVE H GOES TO THE NEW SCHOOL YARD OF HARD KNOCKS, A WEEK AFTER HIS 60TH BIRTHDAY, FOR A HARD KNOCKED TRIPLE OVER THE RF'S HARD HEAD.

THOUGH IT WAS A HARD ACT TO FOLLOW BOBBY W DOES A HARD COPY OVER THE RCFS HEAD FOR B2B 3B'S.

HARD CORE PLAYER MIKE SPIEL MAKES ANOTHER HARD TO FATHOM, OVER THE HEAD GRAB OVER SS INTO SHORT LF AND CONVERTS IT TO A DP BECAUSE THE RUNNER EXPECTED A SURE HARD LANDING OF THE BALL. HE ALSO GIVES THE OPPOSITION A HARD TIME WITH HIS TRIPLE DURING A TIME WHEN THE BASES WERE ALL HARD LIQUORED UP.

SO AS NOT TO PRODUCE HARD FEELINGS IT ALSO MUST BE MENTIONED THAT VINNY, MATT SP, BRIAN S, LUIS, MIKE SM, DAVE G, AND DRILLER HAD SOME NICE HARD HITS AS WELL.

JACK'S BLAST PLAYS HARD TO GET, AND ROLLS TO THE WALL FOR RBI TRIPLE.
IT WAS HARD LUCK FOR A RUNNER TRYING TO SCORE ON JACK WHO THREW A PERFECT STRIKE FROM LF TO NAB HIM AT HOME.

THE HARD TO PLEASE GORDO, WHO HARDLY EVER COMPLAINS, DRIVES A HARD BARGAIN, BUYING 4 HITS IN 4 AT BATS

KONO'S DOUBLE TRAVELS LIKE A HARD BALL TO THE OUTFIELD DEPTHS.

SCOOTER E GIVES THE DEFENSE A REAL HARD TIME, AS HE HARD DRIVES 3 MEN HOME WITH A SINGLE AND A DOUBLE.

GAME 42 SUNDAY SCHOOL YARD 11.15.20

THERE WAS SOME HARDY BOYS OUT THERE TODAY IN THE COOL WEATHER BUT NOT A TRACE OF FRANK OR JOE.

LEDER DOES NOT GET HIT VERY HARD AT ALL. GIVES UP JUST 6 IN 10. AS A BATTER HE DISOBEYS THE GOLDEN RULE BUY HTTING THE BALL HARD 4 TIMES FOR 4 BASE HITS INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND SEVERAL RBI.

THE HIGHLY RATED LUIS, HITS THE BALL HIGH AND HARD OVER THE FENCE FOR A HOME RUN
HE ALSO SINGLES, DOUBLES, MAKES A RUNNING WEB GEM IN RCF AND ACCOUNTS FOR MANY RBI.

ON ANOTHER HIGH NOTE MIKE SMOLENS BANGS HITS AND WEB GEMS ON 2 LINERS TO 3B.

MARIO WEB GEMS ON HARD DRIVES TO 3B, AND SMASHES A COUPLE OF HITS, ONE OF WHICH WAS HIGH AND FAR OFF THE RF FENCE.

KENNY HITS A SKY HIGH AND HARD DOUBLE OFF THE TOP OF THE RF FENCE TO GO ALONG WITH 2 MORE HITS.

THE HIGHLY THOUGHT OF ROB WURTZEL SMASHES A COUPLE OF NICE HITS.

GIVE A HIGH FIVE TO MIKE SPIEL WHO MAKES ANOTHER OVER THE HEAD GEM AT SS AND THROWS OUT A RUNNER AT 3B ON A RELAY FROM THE OUTFIELD.

DAN H CAN HOLD HIS HEAD UP HIGH AFTER GEMMING ON A RUNNING CATCH OF A POP BETWEEN 1ST AND 2ND.

JOHNNY V, SHOWS WHY HE'S HELD IN SUCH HIGH REGARD AFTER

CRASHING 3 HITS INCLUDING A RUN PRODUCING DOUBLE.

JACK SINGLES AND SACS, BUT ALSO GOT ON HIS HIGH HORSE GEMS IN LF TO BRING DOWN A LINER THAT STARTED KNEE HIGH BUT WAS FLYING HIGH AND RISING.

THE HIGH AND MIGHTY GORDO, MAKES A FINE PLAY CUTTING OFF A BALL THAT WAS DESTINED FOR THE GAP. HE MUST'VE SAID, "I'M GOING TO GET TO THAT BALL COME HELL OR HIGH WATER."

DAVE GERBER HAD TO BE FLYING HIGH AFTER HAVING A COUPLE OF GOOD HITS AND MAKING SOME NICE CATCHES.

ZIG MAINTAINS HIS PLACE IN HIGH SOCIETY AS A HITTER OF THE HIGHEST MAGNITUDES WITH HIS MULTIPLE HIT DAY.

IT WAS HARD FOR SCOOTER TO ESCAPE HAVING A HIGH PROFILE AFTER DOUBLING OFF THE RCF FENCE AND GETTING 2 MORE RBI HITS

PETE CONTINUES TO BE HELD IN HIGH ESTEEM, ESPECIALLY AFTER SMACKING 3 HITS WHICH PRODUCES MULTIPLE RBI

SOFTBALL HIGHER UP BOBBY W, SHOULD BE RIDING HIGH, AFTER TRIPLING FOR THE 2ND DAY IN A ROW, DURING A MULTI-HIT, MULTI-RBI

DAY. IN ADDITION HE MAKES A BACKUP GEM FROM SCF.

BRUCE MAKES A PICK GEM AT 1B OF THE HIGHEST ORDER

I HOPE SOME OF YOU ARE SAYING HAR, HAR, HARDY HAR, HAR, AFTER READING THIS. CAN HARDLY WAIT FOR NEXT WEEK.

43A SATURDAY GAME NO-VEMBER 21.20 - KPP5 BY MIKE SP

A great game on a beautiful day. The Z's topped the Hunts 8-6. Big hitting day for Ralph, a guest, with 5 hits, Kono who hit line drives all day and Z who had 2 hits for the victors. The Hunts attack was led by Luis who had multiple hits. Defense was the name of the game and Jon Z made several nice catches in CF. Mike flashed some leather at SS, Ralph had some nice grabs in RF, Lee sparkled at 2b and Steve F made several great plays at 3b.

43B SATURDAY GAME NO-VEMBER 21, 2020 KPP3
GORDON HAD AN EXTREMELY NOTEWORTHY DAY.
HIS 6 HITS, MANY RBI, AND HIS -NO WAY I'M GOING TO LET THIS BALL FALL - ATTITUDE, ON 7 RUNNING POP UPS, MAKES HIM A NOMINEE FOR BOTH MVP AND THE KING OF POP…UPS.
THE NOTORIOUS MARK LEDER GOT THE NOD AGAINST

THE NO-NONSENSE DAN KRYGER. BOTH PITCHERS PERFORMED EXTREMELY WELL AND CONTENDED FOR THE NO-BALL PRIZE BECAUSE THEY THREW MOSTLY STRIKES. DAN STRUCK OUT 2 BATTERS IN A ROW, A RARITY IN GNSB AND GOT THE WIN. IT WAS NO PICNIC TO BAT AGAINST HIM. HE ALSO SLUGGED 4 POWERFUL BASE HITS.

THE NOBLE RICH COY HIT THE BALL ON THE NOSE 4 TIMES FOR BASE HITS AND MADE A NOTABLE RUNNING WEB GEM IN RF.

MARK LEDER HIT THE BALL ON THE NOGGIN 4 TIMES FOR BASE HITS INCLUDING A SOLO, NO LO CONTENDRE, NOBODY'S GONNA CATCH THIS ONE, HOME RUN OVER EVERYONES HEAD IN CF.

ITS IMPORTANT TO NOTE THAT HUGH HIT THE BALL ON THE NOSE 4 TIMES FOR BASE HITS

THE NOBLE JUAN PLATA WAS NOTICED FOR HIS 3 HITS.

NOVICE STEVE HERSHON BELTED 3 SINGLES TO ADD 3 MORE NOTCHES TO HIS HITTING BELT.

SUPER JOE SINE-NO COULD DO NO WRONG. HE MADE A NO. OF RUNNING CATCHES AND CAUGHT THE NO. 4 TRAIN TO HITSVILLE, USA.

JOHNNY V PERFORMED NOBLEY AT SHORT MAKING SEVERAL FINE PLAYS THAT DIDN'T SEEM POSSIBLE, INCLUDING A SINENO-VITALE RELAY THROWOUT OF A RUNNER AT THE PLATE, BRUCE AT 3B SAYS NO WAY, NO HOW ANYTHING'S GOING TO GET BY ME TODAY AND COMES UP WITH 3 SPECTACULAR WEB GEMS.

THE GAME ENDED WITH THE BASES LOADED IN THE 12TH WITH THE TYING RUN ON 2B AND THE WINNING RUN ON 1B. KUDOS TO BRUCE FOR MAKING SUCH EVEN SIDES, ONCE AGAIN.

UNFORTUNATELY, BECAUSE OF CO-VID, WE HAD TO "JUST SAY NO TO HUGS" AND HIGH FIVES AFTER THE GAME.

44 SUNDAY GAME NO-VEMBER 22, 2020 ALLENWOOD BY MIKE SP

It was a tale of two games. The Leders jumped out to a 10-0 lead, only to be caught by the Hunts and ending in an 11-11 tie. I know Bruce likes ties, cause he likes kissing his sister. The Leders bats were hot early with back to back HR's by Mike Spiel and Luis. Both of them had 3 laser hits each. Kenny and Bobby both chipped in with multiple hits. The Hunts comeback was led by Ziggy and Barry with 4 hits apiece. Driller, John V and Joe had multiple hits as well. Bryan had a clutch, 2 out, game tying hit.

Despite the score, there was a lot of defense being played. Bryan Black made a terrific catch on a soft liner to 2b. Marc Leder snagged a liner back to mound, which probably saved his life. Driller had a couple of hot grabs at 3b. John V made all the plays at SS. Gary W made a nice catch on a foul pop up behind the plate, that Fran would not have caught. Lee scooped up a grounder at the mound and made the play that few of our pitchers, if any, would have made. The law firm of Spiel, Tannenbaum and Hershon turned a nice 6-4-3 DP. Mike Spiel made several nice plays at SS, one on a pop fly down the LF line and another on a grounder up the middle, taking a hit away from Mario. Jack was a defensive star today. With several great catches in LF, including a game saver off the bat of Lee.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING EVERYONE.

GET READY FOR A FOUR DAY IRON MAN WEEKEND.
REMEMBER WE START WINTER TIMES BEGINNING THIS THURSDAY (THANKSGIVING) 8:45 TO 10:45 AM

IN INNING NO. 1 BOTH MIKE SPIEL AND LUIS AVILA SAY NO TO NO OVERHEAD AND BLAST MONSTER SUPER NOVA, BACK TO BACK, BELLY TO BELLY, HOME RUNS, OVER THE HEADS OF OUTFIELDERS INTO THE NO MANS LANDS OF ALLENWOOD. THEIR NEXT TIME UP, THEY HIT COPYCAT LONG LINE DRIVE SINGLES.

JACK SAYS NO NUKES AS HE RUNS DOWN AND DIFFUSES 4 NUCLEAR BOMBS HEADED TO 3 DIFFERENT COUNTRIES, NO. LEFTFIELDIA, LEFT NO. CENTERFIELDIA, AND NO RIGHTCENTER FIELDIA.

BRYAN PUTS THE NO IN SNO-CONE AS HE LITERALLY WEB GEMS A DRIVE HIT HIGH OVER 2B. HE CAUGHT ONLY 10% OF THE BALL AFTER A FINE LEAP, BUT THE OTHER 90% REMAINED ATTACHED.

Gary Charney was a stud running down balls all over the OF and had 2 or 3 hits in our losing cause Saturday…

Thanks. I'll work it into this weekends highlights. I didn't play on that field last weekend so I didn't know.

46B SATURDAY GAME 11.28.20 - KPP STEAMBOAT BY BRUCE

The beauty of the B game.
Today, 19 men joined together to play a softball game.
This is not unusual in itself but it was the factors of who and where that made this game unusual.
Because of the recent inclement weather KPP 3 & 4 were unplayable and so the B game had to be played at Steamboat field. I was later informed that GNSB started out it's journey at Steamboat, so for some it was a homecoming game.
I saw two junior high school buddies playing together after 30 odd years.
I saw two men in the legal system figure out where they know each other from and who they know in common.
I saw a father and son play together with such joy and pleasure.
I saw a selfless player make both the first out and last out for two different teams. Maybe a first for GNSB.
I saw a pitcher who has mobility issues playing a flawless first base.
I saw a sciaticly challenged player struggle to do his best.
I saw ethnic, racial & religious diversity playing together without rancor and divisiveness.
I saw a foul ball heading for a parked car and someone yelling "car" as if the car could duck.
The score was irrelevant.
The number of hits was unimportant.
The fact that we were playing a game of softball outside during a pandemic on November 28th: Says it all.

Here's the highlights of Christmas
Because all thru my house not a creature is stirring,
Not even my spouse

There was rain on the field
It was piled up high
Throughout the morn
It would drop from the sky

But echoes past spoke to me
Allowing me to tell you How it would have, turned out to be

A big home run would make a big splash
An impossible grab following a mad dash.
A throw to the plate, had the runner dead in the water
He should'a stayed, as the coach said he ought'a

A claim for sure the ump was out to sea
Though 2020, he still cannot see
He must have contracted water on the brain
And should'a stayed home, because of the rain

But blue wouldn't listen to all of the squawks
So on the water, the batter did walk

Though in hot water, he got out of the frame
As the contest continued, he did more of the same.
And despite calls to start a new game.
His team caught up, to show they weren't that lame.

STREAK GROWS TO 113!

Kudos to all the hardy boys who played on hard surfaces on all 3 days of the New Years Weekend in 3

Dare I say, "Har,har, hardy har, har?

First Game of Year: FRIDAY 1.1.21 - PS213 As relayed by Bruce

ON 1/1 ITS A WIN, WIN SITUATION FOR ALL THOSE PARTAKING IN A 1-DERFUL GAME

23 players
Pitchers Z (Hunt (W)
10-9 10 innings
Firstly the Game was won in the bottom of the 10th.

A first among equals Luis, went 4 for 4
The first class Steve H, went 3 for 4
Mark Leder hit 2 monster triples, the first cut being the deepest.
The first rate Ralph, hit 2 doubles.
John V committed first degree murder on a ball that he struck so hard that he was charged with a triple.
Hunts team came back from 8-4, tied it gave back lead, tied it & won on a walk off single by Pete.
Web gems:
Gordon at SS made a play of the first order
Mario at 3rd made a provided first aid to his team with a gem at 3B
Bobby made 4 or 5 put outs in short center field but he doesn't read emails, so no need to waste a first cliche on him
The return of Dr E playing a flawless RF. It was the first time he's played in a while.
Connors left with a calf muscle pull.
Eric dressed in a uniform the put Egon von Furstenbeg to shame, brought pre-stamped post cards address to John Howe with the photoshopped John on the cover of the book Unbroken so that everyone could write words of encouragement to John.

Since I had no first hand knowledge of the Saturday and Sunday Games, Mike Sp provided both with some input from Bobby and Bruce

Game #2 Saturday 1.2.21 at Old Schoolyard since PS 213 was occupied as relayed by Mike Sp

It was a back and forth game with the Leders scoring 6 runs in their last at bat to overtake the Z's 18-13. Led by big hitting from Lee who drilled a triple to fence in left and had 5 hits. Luis also banged out a couple of extra base hits. Multiple hits for Jack, Brian and Leder led them to victory. Seth had multiple hits including a big rbi single late in the game to start the comeback. For the Z's, Mike had 5 hits including a shot off the fence in left and a triple through the opening in the fence in center. Hugh had 3 hits along with Dave who knocked one off the tree in center and on over the fence in right. Web gems, Bryan made a couple of gems at 3b, Mike grabbed a grounder up the middle and threw Bobby out at first, Bobby made a nice running catch in RF and Dave also made a nice running grab in RF.

Game #3 Sunday 1.3.21 at Old Schoolyard as relayed by Mike SP

The later game time worked perfectly."Game over. Pictures taken and rain started. It doesn't get any better than this." - Bruce

First off, Lee goes schoolyard with the shot of the day, a hr. About the 4th pole, after the drop.

The Hunts came back with multiple runs in the last inning to beat the Z's, 13-12, I think. Lee led the way with multiple hits including a homer over the CF fence. Driller had a big hitting day with several bombs, including a bases loaded double in the last inning to take the lead. Ralph also had several hits for the victors. Barry led the way for the Z's with 6 hits. Mario blasted a double to the fence in LF and Mike had several hits including a ball over the fence in right and was awarded the first base after first base.(Double)

Web gems: Lee made a great play at SS, charging in and throwing a laser to first to get the out. Mike threw out 2 runners at home on relays from Ed and Leder. Rob made a terrific scoop at first base saving a run. Bryan made a couple of gems at 3b on a busy day.

Have a good weekend everyone. Full disclosure: This was not my first draft of the highlights and so thankful that the first amendment allows me to babble on like this.

Game #4 Sunday 1.17.21 at Old Schoolyard by Bruce

This report was found in an hermetically sealed mayonnaise jar on the front porch of Funk & Wagnall's.
What began as a completely overcast and frigidly breezy Sunday morning, ended in a partially overcast and semi-breezy late morning.
24 men and boys returned to the "Old Schoolyard" to play a softball game where many had learned the game as children. They had mostly learned this amazing game on the asphalt fields of the New York City public school system.
It was a very evenly balanced set of teams lead by team managers Bobby & Bruce
The pitching chores were handled ably by John (Der Judge) Hunt who went all the way pitching 13 innings against Gary (The Z) Zwetchkenbaum (12 innings) and Mark (The Lederhosen) Leder (1 inning).
The great pitching was matched by great fielding with too many web gems to mention, as well as great hitting.
The final out occurred in the 13th inning with the tying run at bat. Gamed ended with an 8 to 5 victory for the Bruce's. It does not get any better than this.
When asked to place their highlights on the scoreboard, these men and boys were too humble to toot their own horns. It was a great game in the true spirit of Great Neck Softball.

Monday Highlights: By Bruce

Final score 8 to 5 in 10 innings with the tying run at bat.
Deja Vu all over again.
Winning pitcher (again) was John (Der Judge) Hunt who pitched all 10 innings.
The losing pitchers (again) were Gary (the Z) Zwetchkenbaum (8 innings) and Mark (the Lederhosen) Leder (2 Innings).

Losing team Highlights:
Alexander (14 year old son of Vinny Bats) joined his dad in the outfield.
The kid moves like a young Daryl Strawberry and hits like him as well.
Vinny "Bats" played a great game both offensively and defensively.
Gordon hit the ball solidly every at bat, unfortunately most of them ended up in Mario's glove. He was the author of several web gems at short stop.
Bryan who started a non-sugar diet played with grace and ease and no signs of sugar withdrawal.
Mark Leder acquitted him self well both behind the plate as well as in front of it. He played catcher, pitcher and as a hitter.
Gary Z snagged a line drive smashed towards the pitcher's mound that shows he still has the reflexes of a 40 year old.

Winning team Highlights:

Sunday by Bruce: Final Score 8-5 WinningTeam Pitcher-John Hunt - Losing Team Pitcher-Gary Z.  1) Luis-4 Hits Including One Home Run. Also Game Ending Web Gem Catch down the Leftfield line. 2) Mario 3 Hits and 2 Web Gem Catches at Third Base. 3) Scooter 3 Hits -One a Long Double to Leftfield and 2 Web Gem catches at Shortshop. 4) Driller 3 Hits and Web Gem Catch on Short Hop at First Base. 5) Hugh had 3 Hits and some nice base running. 6) Alan Zamchick had a RBI Hard Single to left & some nice baserunning. 7) Gary W. played well defensively behind the plate @ Catcher and some nice base running as well. ****

IN THE 10TH HOUR, OUR STREAK IS PRESERVED!!! KUDOS TO ALL THE FINE YOUNG MEN OF GREAT NECK WEEKEND SOFTBALL THAT MADE THIS HAPPEN, NOT ONLY BY SHOWING UP AND BRAVING THE ELEMENTS BUT BY BRINGING SNOW SHOVELS, AND WATER PIKS TO MAKE THE FIELD PLAYABLE

Game #6 Sunday 2.28.21 at Old Schoolyard by Gordo

Twas a gloomy last day in February. The Great Neck Softball league streak of never missing an entire calendar month of playing (except for the pandemic) was in jeopardy and the black top was still partially covered in snow and ice. How would the faithful respond? Would they choose the cowardly route of sitting by a pool in Florida or would they get to the field en masse an hour before game time, outfitted with shovels, ice picks and brooms to clear the field and keep this most sacrilegious streak in tack? (COMMISSIONER'S NOTE: *In my own defense you should know that sitting poolside or walking along a beach on 85 degree days are no walks in the park.)

It is with an enormous sense of pride that I can report that the warriors of softball took the high road. Even Joe Sineno showed up! And after making the field playable, albeit with some changes to ground rules to accommodate the conditions, the show went on. And what a show it was, although the start was should we say, bumpy.

A searing line drive that his honor tried to snare with his cheekbone and the promise of the moment quickly turned ominous. But, heroically, the Great Hunt said give me the ball and away we went. The visitors were able to scratch a run only to be temporarily thwarted by the home sides three spot. Key to the rally were consecutive singles by Brian, Hugh, Ralph, Johnny V, Eric and Mario before the visitors were able to quell the onslaught.

Maintaining advantage, the home side kept the visitors off the board until the fifth when with the bags full, Mark Leder went opposite way on a 3-1 count for a bases clearing triple.

The lead was short lived as the home side again put up a three spot behind powerful hitting from Ed, Pete, Bruce and an inspired Judge, who lashed a ball as hard as he used to lash guilty defendants.

In the top of the sixth, with the addition of Luis, who decided that the 8:00 a.m. start didn't apply to him, the visitors put up five. Leading the way were back to back triples from Lou and Joe.

Undaunted, Seth Cohen lashed a drive to center which plated Eric all the way from first. And once again, we had a nail biter.

But the veteran hurler Gary Z., with uncharacteristically good control, pitched brilliantly and behind deft fielding including smooth play at short by Gordon and at third by Bryan, frustrated the home side.

When the final inning was played, the score stood 12-8 for the Z's over the Huntsmen. But make no mistake; there were no losers in this epic contest. The streak endures.

OUR STREAK March-es on to 115 consecutive months of outdoor play!*
KUDOS TO ALL!

Game #7- Sunday 3.7.21 at Old Schoolyard by Gordo

Under a bright late morning late winter sun, the boys of all seasons triumphantly extended the consecutive months streak to 115 (tempered only by a global pandemic). The 10 a.m. game time was a departure from the norm but it didn't dampen the enthusiasm of the invigorated group of 22. The two sides were assembled with the Z's squaring off against his Honor.

The home team scratched out a run in the bottom of the first led by Hugh's fleet feet and Leder's hosen the ball all over the park. But their efforts were quickly and decisively rebuked by the visitors who put a 7 spot on the board in the top of the second. Z's return to midseason form wasn't enough to offset the questionable defense and timely hitting. The rally started with the Judge, Juan and Bobby at the bottom of the order. Around to the top and Ziggy back in form, Brian, Barry and the Big Gerbowski lashed the balls with alacrity. Mario, Jack, and Ed all followed suit with Rob W closing the onslaught.

The home team caught their stride and posted a four pack in the bottom of the third. That man Leder drove in a pair before Gordon went left fence (thanks to Lou's swatter) for a bases clearing two bagger.

But when the visitors added two more in the fourth and then three in the eighth, it was all over but the dancing. His Honor hurled 7 straight scoreless innings all while getting endorsement offers from cup companies throughout the tri-state area.

The noon whistle ended the lopsided affair but no one with the exception perhaps of Barry had any reason to not share in the camaraderie of the day. The streak lives.

Do I see a Great Neck Park field in the not too distant future? Stay tuned…
By Gordon

Thank you to Gordon, Bruce , Bobby, and Jack for keeping things going.

PS For those coming down to Florida this month, I have Monday-Wednesday Pickup Game for you in Fort Lauderdale. Be well and stay safe everyone. See you in April.

Game #9 Saturday 3.13.21 KPP 3 by Gordon

OPENING DAY (who knew?)

Owing to an unseasonably warm week in early March, the Great Neck Park District gave the league last minute approval to use the fields on Red Brook Road. And an enthusiastic group of players showed up ready, willing and able. The only problem was that field 5 was still covered in ice! No matter. The softball warriors picked up and staged combat on the B field. And what a game it was!

The visitors surged ahead in the top of the first with strong hitting by Brian, Rich, Mike Spiel, Vinny, Lee and capped by a bases clearing blast to right center by Gordon. The home side, undaunted, quickly responded with a three pack of their own; With the power surge supplied by the heart of the order; Arik, Lou and the Great Gerbowski.

Two scoreless innings ensued until Gary W unleashed a bomb and the visitors plated two more were on the board. Single runs were added and it appeared that the Judges crew would prevail when the ball was handed over to Ralph to quell the fire. But it was not to be.

Ralph was nearly unhittable. In both a good and bad way. He set a GNSB league record of record of recording both four k's as well as four free passes in three innings of work. But it wasn't the cagey knuckleballers elusiveness that did the visitors in, it was the bat speed of Arik's son Seth who turned on a fastball to turn a one run deficit to a one run lead! Add to that, an outstanding diving catch by the swift left fielder and the visitors were done. Not even the eventful play of the right fielder who thought that the best course of action after dropping a fly would be to gun the ball across the outfield to the left center fielder would be enough to prevent the Z's from owning the day.

Scouting report: Spiel – twisted knee is listed as day to day (but aren't we all)

Game #9 Piday 3.14.21 KPP 3 by Gordon

A slight warming trend was enough for the second game of the opening weekend to be played on the A field. The warm air was very much needed as the springing of the clock to daylight saving time meant a low morning sun.

From the outset, it appeared that the home Z's didn't get the memo about an earlier game time as poor pitching and sloppy fielding pitted against strong hitting and the visitors were leading 9-0 before the crowd had settled into their seats. The hitting was balanced and everyone on the visitors contributed. The first inning onslaught featured strong hitting by Mike, Joe, Mark, Bryan and a red hot Rob. The second time around, the side maker Cousin Brucie and the Judge provided the spark. It left some of Z's teammates hurling vindictives!

And it looked hopeless for the home side until The ZIG came to town. Lashing a bases clearing triple to cut the lead in half and drawing a critical walk from the shell shocked magistrate in the pivotal seventh inning and the naysayers were left with nothing to say other than wow, what a great comeback. Productive hitting by Pete, Juan, Z to help his own cause and Mario complimented the speed and agility from the top of the lineup. The top three Seth, Jack and Johnnie V were dynamite as the home team squeaked to a one run lead. And it would have been more had there not been "Rob"bery committed in right field on a sinking line drive by Rob himself.

The visitors had one last chance to tie the score when Joe Sineno, at one time one of the fastest guys around, failed to advance from first to third on a crisp single. Perhaps he thought leaving the bat in the volatile hands of Mr. Leder would be the prudent move. But it was not to be. Mighty Marko was bested by an inside heater from the Z, the comeback was aborted and the final score revealed a comeback for the ages.

Opening weekend was a success with special kudos for the Brucemeister for making such evenly balanced squads.

Commissioner's note: From somewhere near Pi-ami to Long Pi-land. Thank you Gordon and Bruce for keeping everything going with such high quality.

To be noted: Bruce sends me photo of the scoreboards when I am not there. Upon seeing yesterday's I immediately commented that there must have been complaints and calls for a new game with new sides. I wonder how I knew that would happen? Any theories?
The game of course was continued with the team that was trailing 9-0 in the 2nd, winning. Gar

Game #12 Saturday 3.27.21 KPP Written by Mike Spiel

It was a well played game with the Hunts beating the Z's 7-5. For the Z's a big hitting day for Roy, Joe and his nephew Vinny with 3 hits each. Mark Leder and Joe each hit booming triples for the Hunts. Web gems by Z on a screaming liner back to the mound. Bryan made a couple of nice plays at 3b, as did New Fran at 3b and SS. Lee pitched 2 inning is relief and fielded his position well. Joe made a nice running catch in LCF. Matt made a nice catch in RF. Vinny had the defensive play of the day running in a long way to catch a fly in LF.

Game 13 Sat. KPP 5 4.3.21 by Gordon

A stunning morning marked the return of regularly scheduled 8 A.M. games. And the conditions couldn't have been more delightful. Yet for some unknown reason, this grand opportunity to play was lost on several who seemed to be intimidated by the early morning chill. These late cancelations left a determined group of sixteen to square off in an 8 against 8 contest. And it was one for the ages. So engaging was the match that after ten hard fought innings and no winner declared, an extra frame was added stretching the morning game time to two and one half hours!

His Johner's boys started off with a two spot, anchored by Jack who was a hitting machine all day. The next four frames were quiet until the Z's get ontrack, platting 5 in the bottom of the third. Solid hitting by Brian, Jon Z and John V bamboozled the opponents. And with the tail end of the order, Gary, Bruce and Z providing clutch at bats, the contest turned around in a hurry.

The visitors came back strong as Joe, Bryan and Vinny delivered and the visitors were within one. In their following turn, his Johner's team batted thirteen! And plated 8 to put the visitors ahead by seven. Jack again delivered with a critical two run double which started the fireworks. But it was the normally pull hitting Jeff who doubled into rightcenter that delighted the visitors. The rally was finally thwarted thanks to some nifty defense by the Great Brucinzki who snared a screaming line drive.

Left for dead, the Z's came back with a vengeance. With Gary, Bruce and Z setting up the top of the order, the tandem of Jon and John smashed the ball and when the dust had settled, four runs for the home side. John's triple was the big hit and it put the Z's back in the game.

Four seemed to be their magic number as the Z's added 4 more in the bottom of the 8th. The key hit was a moon shot by Mark Leder that scared the nesting indigenous Kings Point Park warblers in deep right field and another by Jon Z that scared the left field fowl. After being down by 7, the Z's led by a run. What a comeback.

But Joe said not so fast as he rattled Z's jowls with a moon shot of his own and just like that, tie game. Well, said Brian, one good rip deserves another and just like that the Z's were up by one. Game on!

In the top of the tenth, Jeff led off and roped one down the line and the judge came up and hit a bouncer that resulted in an errant throw. When the dust had settled, Jeff had made it all the way home and his honor stood on second with the top of the order coming to the plate. And then the play of the game:

Angry at his transgression, John V. stuck his glove out and snared Joe's screamer that was heading up the middle and in one motion tagged out the stunned runner who was looking to bring home the go ahead run! Rally over and on to the bottom of the inning.

A determined group strode confidently to the plate and with runners on the corners and Mark at the plate, the visitors elected to pitch rather than walk to set up a force at home. That is the way to play fellows! You got to bring some to get some and that's what Mr. Leder did. A rip to right and the game went to the Z's.

To all that came, congratulations. To all those that bailed, congratulations to all that came.

Game 14 Sun. A-wood 4.4.21 by Mike Sp

We know Bruce likes it when all games end in a tie. It looks like on Sunday, Bruce was kissing his sister. The Avilas rallied with 4 runs in the bottom of the 12th, aided by a missed call on a tag play at 3b that would have ended the game. Otherwise, Andy Paul did a great job umping this 10-10 tie. The Leders jumped out to the lead behind multiple hits from Joel and Mark Leder. The Avilas came back behind the bomb that Kenny hit down the RF line for a homer. A 3 hit game for Doug and a clutch 2 out single from Matt to tie the game. Matt also made a terrific running catch in deep LCF to rob Bryan of an extra base hit. There were many web gems on the day. The infield of the Leders seem to make all the plays with Rob at 1b, Mike at ss and Jon S who was Juanderful at 2b. Newcomer Junior made a nice running catch in RF. Jack and Gary W made several plays in SCF in turning would be base hit into force outs at 2b. Mario flashed some leather at 3b.

Thank you to Gordon and Mike Spiel for taking the time and doing the Highlights and to Andy Paul who travelled all the way from Brooklyn just to umpire. Excellent above and beyond jobs.

Game 15 Sat. KPP 5 4.11.21 by Mike

The game started out in heavy rain and ended in sunshine. The Hunts beat the Z's in 11 innings 7-6. With a 4-0 lead, Gary Z had a no hitter going into the 8th inning, when the Hunts put together 3 hits and a walk to claw back into the game 4-2. Everyone knew Z had the no-no going and it was jinxed by someone verbally mentioning it. Sure enough, the next inning, the no-no, was gone, as was the shut out and soon the enough the W. The Hunts rallied for 5 runs in the top the 11th to win the game. They had 2nd and 3rd with 2 outs when the Judge drew the 9th walk of the game for the Hunts. Jon Z came up clutch with a two run single to take the lead. Mike and newcomer Eddie, blasted a double and triple in the bottom of the inning, but Eddie, the tying run, was left stranded at third.

For the Hunts, not much hitting today, I think Leder had 2 hits. Mike led the Z's with 3 hits and a Sac fly. Guest Jonas blasted a triple over the RF's head and Hugh had a couple of hits. To have a no hitter going that deep, there must be web gems. Joe made a great diving catch in LCF. Hugh tracked down a long drive in RCF, Jonas grabbed a hot liner in SCF. On the infield, Mike gobbled up all the grounders to SS, including a nice 6-6-3 DP and a bare handed catch on a force out at 2b. Steve made a bunch of plays at 3b. For the Hunts, Bruce made a nice stop and throw at 2b, Leder turned a nice DP and Seth made a couple of nice running catches in RCF.

Game 16 Sun. A-wood 4.12.21 by Gordon

The weather forecast for Sunday April 11th 2021, was ominous. Rain was predicted all day starting with light showers somewhere around 9 a.m., increasing in intensity to a heavy rain, which would subsequently curtail all outdoor activities, including the Mets game scheduled that afternoon. From the outset, the weather was suspect with a heavy fog evident from the break of dawn. What to do?

Using the latest in weather technology, ranging from radar to tide charts to temperature to wind charts and availing themselves of the greatest technology in the history of mankind, including but not limited to the Mars Integrity, the Large Hadron Collider, CRISPR (which as we all know stand for, Clustered regularly Interspace Short Palindromic Repeats) and dozens of other state of the art scientific tools, it was decided to go ahead with the game. But what kind of a game would it be?

That was answered on the first pitch when Barry lifted what was certain to be a Texas leaguer into short left field, only to have his effort snatched by Gordon with an over the shoulder grab. GAME ON! And so it was. With that, into the box strode Mr. Kono who promptly launched a lunar probe that nearly started the clouds to erupt. It would be the first of two four baggers for the wily veteran. Matt, Mark, Bryan and Jack also supplied offensive firepower providing the visiting Leders to take the lead.

Eric' home side would not go quietly. Super Joe, who seemed to be on base more times than Bugs Bunny, promptly led the homies back into contention. Timely hitting by Eric, Gordon, Mario, Gary Ch., Rob and Bobby gave the home side the advantage 6-4 heading into the fourth.

The fourth inning was the only inning that was scoreless. But it was then, that it became clear that we would get the game in as the rain was holding up nicely. In the bottom of the fifth, the homeside added a pair and it looked like the 8-4 advantage would hold up, particularly after Gary Ch. made the catch of the day. Ranging to his right from his left field position, he dove and snared a scorching line drive that was a cinch four bagger had he not made the play.

The three goose eggs put up by Leder's visiting side would not continue however. Getting 3 in the 6th, and two in the 7th put them up by a run. Key hits were provided by Mark Leder who continues to drive the ball like Hideki Matsuyama, Matt who slaughtered a screamer into the ionosphere and Gary W. who blasted a triple.

Down by a run, Eric's home side got going and plated five to seemingly put the game away. Gary Ch added to his day with five hits and great base running. Going into the eighth, this and one more, the home side went OFF! Eight runs later and the home side looked worse than one of Barry's gold glove opponents. Great hitting by the entire lineup which started with Barry and then Kono, Matt, Leder, Bryan, Jack, Pete and Gary W. and going into the bottom of the eighth it was Leder's boys 17, Eric's Vikings 13.

Not so fast. A gutsy three spot started by Gordon's triple and clutch hitting by Mario, Gary, Rob, Bobby, Joe and Erick and the home side was down by a single run.

After a scoreless top of the ninth, the home side was down by one in the bottom of the ninth. Mario flied to left before Gary Ch was clutch yet again and lashed a full count single up the middle to keep home alive. Rob then came up and bounced into a fielder's choice but great hustle by Gary put the pressure on the defense and the home side had men on first and second. Bobby, under pressure from Barry, was unable to advance the runners. That left the fate of the free world up to Joe Sineno. Joe had been hammering the ball all day and the outfield had to play a no doubles defense. As fate would have it, this decision would be the determinant of the day's events.

Joe lifted a bloop into short center field. Matt, whose glove had been nothing short of spectacular all day, raced forward to make the catch. Time slowed down. Would he get there or would it fall. Matt reached valiantly and it appeared that the game would end in the webbing of his glove. But it was not to be. The ball dropped inches from Matt's forward lean. And with Matt on a full sprint, when the ball landed, he could do no better than run past it. Without hesitation and with blazing speed, Rob circled third just as Matt recovered. The throw, the catch, the play at the plate….SAFE and the home side takes the game 18-17.

Kudos to Bruce who played first for both sides and filled out the lineup card. He almost got himself another tie!

Thank you Mike and Gordon for providing such enjoyable highlights.

See everyone next weekend

Game 17 Sat. KPP 5 4.11.21 by Mike

The Hunts put a beatdown on the Z's 16-6 in a game involving 30 players. Rotating players in this game was a full time job. John Hunt was the star, throwing strikes and did not allow an earned run. Big hitting for the Hunts, led by Lee and his 3 hits. Also big hitting from Jon Z, and Mike. Bryan blasted a double to LCF, Leder hit a bomb to RF and Vinny had multiple hits. Web gems start with the highlight of Steve F grabbing a hot liner at 3b and stepping on third for a double play, killing a rally. Hugh made a nice sliding catch in RCF. Jon Z had a nice catch on a shallow hit to LCF. New players Jamie and Dee joined in the fun. Jamie had a nice hit knocking in a run and Dee made a great effort on a flyball to RF, showing she can put the Dee in defense

Game 18 Sun. KPP 3 4.18.21 by Mike

The Becks pounded the Leders 19-10 on a rare Sunday game at KP5 B field. Rich Connors led the way with 5 hits and a bases clearing bomb. Multiple hits for almost everyone on the Becks. Bryan and Matt both hit homers, Bryan to LCF and Matt to RF. For the Leders, Mark hit a homer to RF that is still going! Eddie continues to impress with multiple line drive hits. Web gems start with Doug Beck, who pitched well, but fielded his position even better. With multiple assists on hard grounders and grabbing several popups. Bryan, Eric and Matt turned a nice 5-4-3 dp and Mike turned a 6-6-3 dp. He also robbed Ziggy of a hit on a one hop liner in the hole. For the Leders, Pete made a couple of nice plays at 2b, including a stop on a one hop liner from Kenny.

Game 19 Sat. KPP 5 4.24.21

IT ISN'T QUITE MAY, BUT PLAYERS WALKED AWAY VERY MERRY ANYWAY, PARTICULARLY THE VISITORS, WHO WERE DOWN 6-3 GOING INTO THE 10TH, BUT REFUSED TO LAY DOWN. THEY MADE HAY FROM A COUPLE OF BREAKS TO SCORE 5 RUNS AND TAKE AN 8-6 LEAD.
MEANWHILE HIS JOHNER HELD THE HOME TEAM AT BAY, AFTER THEY LAUNCHED A MINI-RALLY IN THE BOTTOM OF THE 12TH, ONLY TO FALL SHORT A RUN.

HELPING THE VISITOR'S CAUSE WERE FANTASTIC DEFENSIVE PLAYS, LIKE 3 FROM DOUG BECK AT 2ND BASE WHO SAID NAY TO OPPOSING BATTERS TRYING TO GET HITS, ONE OF WHICH TURNED A CERTAIN BASE HIT INTO A DOUBLE PLAY.

A LEDER TO LEE RELAY THROW CUT DOWN A RUNNER AT THE PLATE AND PROBABLY MADE THE DIFFERENCE IN THE GAME.

MIKE SPIEL TURNED A DOUBLE PLAY BY TAKING A THROW WITH HIS BAREHAND AT 2B AND FIRING IT TO FIRST.

ALSO SAY YAY TO GEMS ON THE HOME TEAM FROM JACK IN SCF, THROWING OUT A RUNNER AT 2B ON A FORCE PLAY ON WHAT NORMALLY WOULD HAVE BEEN A BASE HIT.

GARY Z SAVED HIS OWN LIFE TWICE BY SNAGGING 2 LINE DRIVE, LASER RAYS HIT RIGHT TO HIS MID-SECTION. ONE MIGHT SAY HIS GEMS SAVED HIS JEWELS.

HAVING THE BIGGEST PAYDAY AT THE PLATE TODAY WAS MARK LEDER WHO HAD 2 SINGLES, A DOUBLE, AND A TRIPLE. HE THEN LEFT TO WITNESS A DEDICATION TO NAME A STREET AFTER HIS DAD ROBERT. LEDER IN THE BRONX. IT WILL BE CALLED ROBERT LEDER WAY. DETAILS AND PHOTOS TO FOLLOW.

BARRY AND RICH CONNORS BOTH HAD REASON TO FEEL GAY TODAY, IN THE OLD FASHION SENSE OF THE WORD,OF COURSE. BOTH HAD BIG 4 HIT DAYS. RICH'S HITS INCLUDED A TRIPLE WAY OVER THE LFS HEAD.

ABNER WOULD HAVE BEEN PROUD TO SEE DOUBLE DAYS FROM JACK, LEE, JOE SINENO, JUAN PLATA, AND DAVE G. NOT TO MENTION HUGH AND GORDO EACH OF WHOM HAD 2 ADDITIONAL HITS.

SEE EVERYONE FOR MAYDAY. PRAY FOR GOOD WEATHER, SO OUR STREAK CAN REACH 117 CONSECUTIVE OUTDOOR MONTHS. PLEASE BE GROOMED PROPERLY FOR THE PHOTO :) OKAY?

Game 22 Sat. KPP 5 5.8.21 Guest Writer: Gordon Charlop

It was a grey Saturday morning when the intrepid softball warriors braved a light but steady drizzle to bring their unrelenting determination to the diamond. On one side, Gary Z and his pranksters were the home team, aiming to stake a claim to the begrimed pitch. Pitted against them were the Huntsmen who were ready, willing and waiting to do whatever it would take to achieve victory on this remote and turbid piece of Kings Point real estate.

The visitors got off first, early and often, platting one in the first, two in the second and three in the third. The offense was balanced with particular acuity being shown by the lower half of the lineup, namely cousin Bruwsky and Your Johner. Back around to the top and Brian, Kenny, Vinny and the LederMan lashing wicked trajectories to parts unmanned.

The visitors responded with a run in the bottom of the third until the inflection point of the game presented itself. Mike Spiel carrying the heavy aluminum and striding to the plate with a couple on and two out, lashed a missile into left center field. It was at that moment that it was all but a foregone conclusion that the lead would be cut in half and the rally would be on. But there was one who saw it differently. Vinny, (aka the people's champion because of the way the home run derby was stolen from him by the corrupt governing body that exploits its own people) sprinted straight to the spot where Mike's projectile was certain to land. Showing courage and reckless abandon, Vinny lunged forward and managed to corral the sinking line drive just before it touched the turf. This unbelievable play not only ended rally but crushed the resolve of team Z as they were only able to muster a single run the rest of the way.

Bolstered by this incredible feat, the visitors relaxed and started pounding shots all over the yard. Mike G, Lee, Gary CH, Jack, Alan Z., and Jeff all took turns supplying the explosive offense and when it was all said and done, your honor took the honor of a 12 inning 12 to 2 victory.

Two other notable occurrences that need mention are: it was the ninth consecutive Saturday where one side or both had 14 players on its team. This meant that once again, about an hour and a half between at bats. But rather than dwell on the incompetence of the Commissioner and his staff, let it be known that in one inning, a total of six pitches were needed to record six outs. First Z got three in a row and then Mark Leder in relief matched the feat. Congrats to the two pitchers for the unprecedented effort. May this memory serve as an inspiration to all pitchers to throw strikes and keep the game moving. Also, a special shout out to Steve who after a fifteen year hiatus crushed a double down the left field line.

Game 3 Sun Allenwood 5.9.21 Guest Writer: Gordon Charlop

Sunday: A Mother's Day Sunday found the boys of all seasons at Allenwood Park. The field was in fine shape and the rain wasn't forecast until later that afternoon. Play Ball!

Today's event pitted the stylings of Doug Beck's bombers against Mark's Leaders. Leder and company struck first as the visitors. A seeing eye double by Barry led to a run but regrettably also caused the wily batsman to pull up at second holding his hamstring. Inspired by his heroism, the visitors added four in the fourth. The middle of the lineup did the damage. Jack, Matt and Mario strung together a few hits and Dan, newcomer Eric, Juan and Bobby supplied enough savvy to give the visitors a five run lead heading to the bottom of the fifth.

It looked like the home side would come right back when Lee lashed a two out rope with two men on between Right and Left Center that looked like it would get through the outfield. And with Lee's speed, likely a game changing three run homer but Gordon reached and grabbed to ball on one hop and fired to third. A stunned runner could only try to dodge the tag with the inevitable outcome.

A few innings later, the home side plated two more. Gary Ch. who had three hits, led the rally. Pete and Bruce also delivered clutch hits. With the score now at 5-3, it was game on. But Mr. Ed had other ideas and absolutely crushed an inside pitch to deep left field. Dave Gerber is still looking up at the sky to try to find it. And now it was 6-3 heading to the last two innings.

The home side was undeterred and scored five times or more specifically Lee scored five times as a repeat "courtesy" runner. But that's fine; if you're not cheating you're not trying. Combining his feet with the bats of Eric, Dave, Bryan, Doug and Rob, the home side took a one run lead.

Big Joel Wurtzel led off the visitors half and with one mighty wallop tied the game. Gordon followed and hit a 1-0 pitch sharply to the right side. But the home sides defense made a strong play and he was retired. However, somewhere between his running down the baseline and returning to the dugout, the score was changed so that a tie game now showed the visitors trailing by a run.

The game ended in this manner. So to celebrate and commemorate this brilliant display of bush league antics, it has been decided that at each and every Mother's Day game going forward, the league will supply everybody with whiteboard markers to doodle, change the score, draw pictures, or do whatever to express their motherly sensitivities.

Game 24A SAT. KPP5 5.15.21 BY MIKE SPIEL

Well, we are finally back to two games on Saturday. The Z's beat the Hunts 12-3 behind the return of Howie and Jon P. Howie did not miss a beat, hitting 2 bombs for triples on the day. Mike and Doug each hit doubles to ignite big innings for the Z's, but Kenny was the hitting star of the day with 4 hits. Newcomer Chris smacked a triple to RF and almost lapped the baserunner. There were plenty of web gems on the day. The Z's turned 5 dp's on the day, a new Great Neck Softball record. Bryan turned a nice dp from 3b on a hot shot. Brian Star was a star in the OF, making a terrific catch and later throwing out a runner at 3b. Catch of the year was made by Kono. Marc the magnificent made a diving catch in CF to rob a would be extra base hit away from Bryan.

A great game on a beautiful day. The Becks beat the Tannenbaums 10-8. Corey and Rich led the way with 4 hits each. 4 OLD FAN FAVORITES ARE DE-ACTIVATED FROM THE COVID RESERVES AND REJOIN GNSB AFTER ALMOST 2 YEARS:

STEVIE SCHWARTZ
DOUG KOCH
SCOTT SMITH
BARRY Z

CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR PLAY 118 IS ACHIEVED DESPITE LACK OF PHOTOGRAPHIC EVIDENCE.

Game 29A SAT. KPP5 6.5.21 BY MIKE SPIEL

Great game today, the Hunts beat the Z's 7-5. The Hunts jumped out to a 7-0 lead behind the hitting of Bryan who led the team with 5 hits. Lee blasted a triple in the RCF gap and Jon Z added 3 hits. For the Z's they made a strong comeback getting within 2 runs, but hitting into 2 dp's in the last 2 innings ended their rallies. Mike started both dp's, the last one on a line drive, then doubled off the runner on first. Steve F had a big day with 4 hits and stellar defense at 3b, including a diving stop of a grounder and getting the force at 2b. Jon P had a couple of nice running catches in CF. Seth had a big 2 out hit knocking in 2 runs, but the Z's could not get even.

Game 29B SAT. KPP5 6.5.21 BY GORDON

It was an absolutely glorious first Saturday in June. Despite the drenching rains of the previous two days, the infield was in spectacular shape. The outfield, however, was entirely something else. So our review today starts with an acknowledgement of the brave men and women who gave life and limb to swim after fly balls.

In what was a jocular affair that saw the reemergence of Steve Smith, Doug K., Barry Z. and Schwartzie. There was an extra surprise as we were joined by the husband/wife duo of Wandy and Marilyn. Additionally, we saw a wonderful pair off of Dee vs Dinah, the first time that these two female warriors went head to head. Dee was with Smith/ Koch and Dina was with the Leders. And the day was all the more glorious without the intimidating glare of the no show Commissioner.

The visitors struck first. Led by Joe, Vinny and Mark, they pounded out three runs. Not to be outdone, the bottom of the order did them one better by plating a four spot in the top of the second. Alan, Steve and Gary got things rolling. And rolling it was or rather sliding as Gary W made a fabulous slide into home. Barry, Dinah, Bruce and Barry Z., also provided additional offensive firepower.

And while this was happening, the home side could muster next to nothing. Recognizing that Joe S. was in left Center and Bruce was in left, the home side did everything they could to take advantage of others in the outfield. But try as they might, they kept hitting the ball to Bruce who looked like Roberto Clemente and Willie Mays rolled into one. With over the head grabs and basket catches a plenty, the home side could do nothing but gaze in wide wonder.

At long last, the home side got going thanks to a blast by Wandy that went into the second deck or should I say the picnic area in Left field to get the home side going. But Leder retorted, "not in my house" and when he wasn't slugging two triples, he went yard with an easy four bagger.

The home side's resolved was shattered when the call came in from the bullpen and Bruce came in from left field to pitch. Or should we say field. He continued his incredible display, snatching ball after ball and robbing batter after batter. Finally the home side plated a six spot to make it a game but the man of the day, Bruce put the fire out for a well played and hard earned 13-8 victory.

The only blemish on what was one of the friendliest games in GNSB history was when a simple fly was launched to Dina in short center and Russ, showing his true colors, essentially pushed her into a puddle so he could make the catch. Disgraceful. But Dinah showed him, as it was her grab of a wicked liner that provided the last out of the game. Take that Russ!

Game 30 SUN. A-WOOD D-DAY.21 DE-BRIEFING

GREAT DEFENSE DEFUSES BATS, DEJECTS BATTERS, DEPRESSES HITTERS AND DEFLATES RUN PRODUCTION.

EXAMPLES:

- MIKE SPIEL GOES DEEP INTO SS HOLE TO GUN DOWN AND DENIES A HIT TO A DESERVING BATTER
- MIKE GOLFEDER AT SS DEFIES GRAVITY WITH A LEAPING GRAB OF A BULLET.
- ERIC B DEPLOYED AS A SHORT CENTERFIELDER, DEDUCTS A HIT FROM A BATTERS STATS, WITH AN IMPRESSIVE CATCH WITH HIS GLOVE HAND, THEN DEPRIVES ANOTHER BATTER OF A HIT, BY THROWING OUT THE FORCED RUNNER AT 2B FROM SCF.
- THE ALWAYS DEPENDABLE ROB WURTZEL, DEMORALIZES THE OPPOSITION BY DECLINING TO PERMIT 2 HITS TO SCF, BY MAKING 2 FINE, LINER GRABS, PLUS DELETED A RUNNER AT 2B WITH A FINE TOSS.

PITCHERS LEE AND LEDER DETER BATTERS WITH DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

BY DELIBERATELY THROWING STRIKES, THEY DEBILITATE AND DEFANG OPPOSITION BATS. ITS A SHAME THAT ONLY ONE COULD BE DECLARED THE WINNER OF THIS VERY CLOSE, 6-5 GAME.

FOR THE FIRST 11.5 INNINGS THERE COULD BE NO DEBATE THAT THE HIT OF THE GAME WAS A BOMB DEPOSITED DEEP INTO THE DEMILITARIZED ZONE IN RIGHT FIELD, FOR A DENNY'S GRAND SLAM HO-MERSAND, OFF THE BAT OF KENNY MERSAND. HAD THERE BEEN A FOREST THERE, IT WOULD HAVE BEEN DEFOLIATED, DEFORESTED AND DESTROYED. THE BLAST AT THE TIME, PUT HIS TEAM UP 5-0 WHICH SEEMED LIKE AN INSURMOUNTABLE LEAD. THE HOME TEAM WAS DETERMINED TO COME BACK. THE DEPRAVED DECEIT, AND DEMONIC DEVIOUSNESS OF LEE MADE IT DIFFICULT, BUT DEVOUT NOODNIK, MARK LEDER, DENUDED THE VISITORS OF RUNS FOR THE FINAL 6 INNINGS WITH HIS HARD TO DECIPHER WORDS AND PITCHES. IN THE MEANTIME THE HOME TEAM REFUSED TO BELIEVE THAT THEY WERE ON THE EVE OF DESTRUCTION AND CHIPPED AWAY. THEN IN THE BOTTOM OF THE 12TH, RICH CONNORS WITH 2 MEN ON, LAUNCHED A MISSILE THAT COULDN'T BE DETECTED FOR A 2 RBI, COME FROM BEHIND, GAME WINNING, WALK OFF BASE HIT AND THUS THE DEMISE OF THE VISITORS!!!

ALSO HAVING BIG HITTING DAYS WERE BOTH WAH-WAH SISTERS, JOE (3 HITS) AND GORDON, ROB W, KONO, ZIGGY, AND OTHERS.
THOUGH THE VISITORS WERE DETHRONED, THERE WERE NO DEMANDS FOR A SCORE RECOUNT.

ON MEMORIAL DAY AT THE SCHOOL YARD A JETS BENCH PAD WAS LEFT. ON SATURDAY ON WATER BOTTLE WAS LEFT. LET ME KNOW IF ITS YOURS. MORE DETAILS TO FOLLOW.

DESPITE BEING DOWN 8 RUNS, THE VISITORS REFUSED TO THROW IN THE TROWEL AND PLANTED 3 RUNS IN THE TOP OF THE 12TH BUT DOUG K STEMMED THE TIDE.

Game 31B SAT. KPP5 6.12.21 YOUR GORDON VARIETY HIGHLIGHTS BY GORDON

It was a cool late June morning when Scott S. led the home squad on the field against Dan's visiting team. The cool weather did little to cool the bats and the visitors struck with two in the top of the first. Russ, Hugh and Joe S. led off matters and handed it over to the clean up hitter, Steve H. Steve rewarded this placement by driving a laser into right field. Shwartzie (I can't use Steve S., it has already been taken) kept it going and passed it along to Dee, who crushed a shot to left. Gary W. and Barry Z. continued the onslaught only to be extinguished by solid defensive play that left the bases full.

The home side, undaunted, came to bat and with Andrew aboard, Wandy went yard for his second blast in consecutive games. Inspired by this show offense, the home side added two more, led by Ben, Gordon, Scott S, helping his own cause and the wile veteran Joe G. And at the end of one, the score was 4 to 2 in favor of the home side.

The visitors refused to yield and after loading the bases, Joe S. hit a shot in the gap that spun between the center fielders. When the dust had settled, the bases were empty except for Joe standing on second. Visitors 5 Home Side 4.

In the bottom of the frame, the home side scratched across the tying run. Clutch hitting from Alan, Dina and Ira set the table for Barry D. and Marilyn.

Things calmed down for a scoreless third but the 5-5 tie was broken when Joe S. hit a moonshot to deep right center for a two run dinger and the visitors led by two. The lead did not last long. In the bottom half,

Andrew ripped a double followed by singles from Wandy and Ben it was a tie game yet again.

With Dina flashing leather, the home sides defense stiffened and when they came to bat, the game swiftly changed. Scott S. and Joe G. set the table for Alan and then Dina and Ira and the home side had a two run lead. And it stayed that way until the bottom of the eighth when Alan, Dina and Ira again handed it over to Barry D., and the rapidly improving Marilyn and the home side added two more to take a commanding 11-7 lead.

The visitors had other ideas and when Bruce, Dan and Barry Z. were done, it was 11-9. This and one more came the call from Captain Bruce. But the home side responded with a pair and held the visitors scoreless in the top of the tenth to preserve the 13-9 victory. With, once again, the shortstop, this time Gordon, essentially shoving Dina out of the way to grab a simple pop up. Will wonders never cease?!? But just like last week, the game ended in Dina's glove as she calmly corralled the final out. Yet again, the girls showing the boys how to do it.

Game 33A SAT. KPP5 6.TEENTH.21 BY MIKE SPIEL

The Z's beat the Koch's 9-6. Big hitting day for Josh, a guest, who had 4 hits including 2 bombs, a double and triple. Dave G had 2 triples in the game. Mike Sp.led the Koch's with 4 hits and Juan had 3 hits. Zo hit a blast to LCF for a double. Lots of great defensive plays in the game. Kono made a great sliding catch in LF, Jon P flashed his leather in LCF robbing an extra base hit with a great catch. Steve H made a couple of great plays at SS, including a diving stop to get a force at 2b. Jon Spiel made a great play at 2b, diving for a ball and throwing the runner out at 1b.

Game 33B SAT. KPP5 6. TEENTH.21 BY GORDON

It was a glorious final Saturday of the spring for the intrepid cast of Great Neck Community Softball. Pitted against the visiting Scott's were the men and women of Lederville.

The visitors started well, led by Russ, Hugh and the power couple Wandy and Marilyn. But outstanding defense thwarted the visitors. And when the home side came to bat, the power was turned on, piling up 13 runs in four at bats. The onslaught was led by Joe S., Gary Ch., Alan, Ben and Dee. But it was Scooter who blew the game wide open with a laser to right center that rolled and rolled on the dry June pitch. Leder, Dan and Steve H also provided clutch hitting.

When the dust had settled after five, the score stood 13 to 1 and it was decided to start a second game. The squads were adjusted and this time, it was the visitors who ruled the battlefield. The destruction was led by Vinny (who actually showed up this time), Barry D., Bruce, Gary W. and in a show of strength, Marilyn drove in her first run of the season. Wow. The hits kept coming and coming. And the battery of Beck and Beck was tremendous, both offensively and defensively.

A shaken Mark L., rediscovered his control and supported by outstanding DEE fense, the home side was unable to plate a single marker. Al Z. is still wondering how his smash between short and third ended up in Gordon's glove!

When it was all said and done, the cumulative score of the combined games was 13 for the home side and 13 for the visitors. It was not a conventional way to get there but after further review, it was ruled a tie with everyone getting a participation trophy except Joe S. who refused it on ethical reasons.

Game 34 SUN. Allenwood 6.20.21 BY GORDON

Sunday's contest was a see-saw binary affair as the scoreboard consisted of zeros, ones and twos. This tight contest was leaning the way of the Huntsmen who managed to put up runs in five of the first six innings. The offensive firepower was supplied by Lee who went yard, and Dave Gerba who hit not one, but two triples. Bryan also lent some of his power with a triple of his own.

COMMISSIONER'S CAUTION: The next paragraph, also written by Gordon, contains insulting material, which the stacked Supreme Court has allowed, citing free speech, but GNSB has not given it, ITS EXPRESS WRITTEN consent due to the fact that the decision by the official scorer of whether it was actually an error, has not been decided due to the fact that there is no official scorer, hence some sensitive, inciteful, by the author, words have been bleeped.*

Joe S., obviously still reeling from Saturday's events was uncharacteristically out of sorts. The normally unflappable one, made a critical #%%*% and the final &$% of the game, along with a $#! hopper to the pitcher. He was offered a participation trophy anyway. Gordon, Jack, Eric and Scooter combined with Pete, Gary W., and Bruce to offer tough competition to the visiting Leders.

But when it was all said and done, Father's day belonged to the visiting side. Zig powered with a two run homer, while Kono, Mike S, Connors and Ken provided a powerful top of the lineup. When Barry, Matt and Leder in his own cause got going, the game went to the bottom of the tenth with the visitors nursing a one run lead. It looked like the home team would break through but the tandem of Mario, Doug B., Eric and Bob were strong enough to hold on for the victory in this tense down to the wire contest.

The play of the game however belongs to Dan, who worked a walk in a critical late inning at bat to propel the visitors into the lead. It was obvious to all that the Judge had to pitch around Dan in that spot rather than face the wrath.

Sadly, a couple of tweaks to the calf of Scooter and the hamstring of Ed, put a small damper on the affair. But most importantly, Dave G., who was running like a demon all game, took a bad fall in a bold attempt to snare a fly in right field. We all wish Dave a full recovery and hope to see him with us as soon as possible. Get well Mr. Gerba!

THE SUNDAY-ALLENWOOD PLAYER LIMIT OF 24 HAS BEEN REINSTATED. IT WAS LIFTED FOR FATHER'S DAY ONLY DUE TO POPULAR DEMAND A SECOND BATCH OF JERSEYS WILL BE ORDERD. PLEASE INFORM BRUCE IF YOU WANT ONE OR MORE. $10 PER PAID UP PLAYER.

Game 35B SAT. 6.26.21 KPP3 GORDON

A glorious late June Saturday was the scene of the weekly KPP "B" game. On one side were the visitors led by hurler Mark Leder. Opposing them was the home side led by the cagey southpaw, Scott.

Instantly, the game rose from the mundane to the sublime as Al Z. made not one but two sensational fielding plays at second base. Inspired by this example, the home side got on the board first with Dee driving in the first of her two RBI's.

The visitors also flashed some spectacular leather when Russ made a fabulous play to lead his team back into the game. And the visitors also showed what they could do with the lumber. The big hit offensively was provided by Mark Leder who blasted an opposite field ground rule double. Others who contributed to the offensive outburst were Jeff, Doug and in a sensational return, Kent. Dina and Steve H. rounded out the hitting prowess and it looked like the visitors would claim the victory.

But hold on screamed Joe S.! As he laced a critical RBi double. But the major blast came off the bat of Mike Levine, who crushed an RBI double into the gap. With Scott providing a single that drove in a run coupled with contributions by Juan, Andy, and Barry D. the home side led by two going into the top of the last inning.

It looked like it was all over save the dancing until Russ came to bat with a runner on first and one out in the top of the last inning. Russ drove Scott's outside corner fastball deep to right center field. And when the relay throw was off line and started rolling towards third base, Russ turned on his afterburners to tie the score. But hold on there said Ira Johnnie on the Spot Levine! Ira alertly tracked the errant throw and gunned a bullet to Juan who easy as you please and in one fell motion tagged the beleaguered Russ to preserve the one run victory.

Two evenly matched teams that fought courageously to the end, that is what Great Neck Community Softball is all about!

Game 37 Sunday 7.4.21 Schoolyard by Gordo Charlop

This year's Independence Day Ironman weekend got off to a soggy start. After the rains forced a cancellation of Saturday's games, the Allenwood field was determined to be unplayable so a quick call by the brain trust and off to the schoolyard we went for Sunday's affair.

The two combatants were led by on the cement hill by Mark Leder vs. the Judge. And it started with a bang. Leder's visitors got off early, sporting a four spot in the top of the frame. With Zig leading off, Gary Ch, Joel, Bryan and Gordon all laced screamers and set the stage for the hitting exploits of the aforementioned Mr. Leder. The Leder bomb cleared the way and with Vinny , Rob, the new Grandfather Dan and Bobby in the rear, the game was leaning heavily for the visitors.

After a few quiet innings, the visitors plated two more with the big blow coming from Zig who blasted a fourth of July bomb deep to left field. The home side, however displayed some fireworks of their own. Joe S. smashed a shot over the fence in right center and Kenny continued his blazing hitting, with another of his six hits on the day. The home side looked primed to seize control of the game as Lee, Mario, Eric the U, Barry and Gary W. all sent off bottle rockets in advance of the cagey veterans Bruce and His honor. But the play of the game turned it back in the visitors favor.

With the bases loaded a ball was tipped and landed just in front of home plate. Rather than waiting for the spin to into foul territory, the ever alert Bobby jumped up from behind the dish and snagged the ball, concurrently stepping on home plate for a force out. Fireworks extinguished.

Others who displayed fabulous defensive prowess were Joe S and Vinny who made a sensational grab of a Ziggy blast. Ziggy is still to this moment wondering how in the &%$ did you catch that?

But in the end, it was two much offensive behavior from Leder and company. Joel put one onto the school, Brian slammed four hits and Leder had a two rbi double.

Of note, the game featured two 5-2 double plays, one engineered by Mario and the other by Brian. The final count was 10-5 and the beleaguered Judge could only ask to be sequestered when it was all said and done.

Game 38A Monday, KPP5 7.5.21

LOST TO THE AGES.

NO PHYSICAL, PHOTOGRAPHIC, OR WRITTEN EVIDENCE THAT A GAME WAS EVER PLAYED. ("If a tree falls in a forest and no one is around to hear it, does it make a sound?")

Game 38B Monday, KPP3 7.5.21

Monday was the official celebration of July fourth and the B game was one for the ages. Playing nine against nine, the combatants featured were Leder's visitors vs. Scott's home team.

Scott pitched brilliantly and held the visitors off the scoreboard for the first five frames. In the meantime, the home side was nickel and diming runs every inning. First one, then two, then one and then three, a scoreless frame and then one, one and two respectively. This propensity to nibble was facilitated by a balance hitting attach that featured, Russ, Gary Ch., Scott, Gordon, Scooter, Andy, Juan, Alan Z. and Gary W. Russ started the onslaught by getting three hits in his first three at bats. Andy had a ground rule double, Gordon hit a long triple to left center and Scooter hit an opposite field homer. Add to the fine hitting, an unassisted double play by Alan Z. and you had the ingredients for a one sided affair. But alas, it was not to be.

In the top of the eleventh, playing twelve, the visitors went bionic. Everyone contributed in the entire lineup that featured Joe S, Vinny (looking sharp in his return to action), Marco, John V., the aforementioned Mr. Leder, Big Ira, Jeff B. and Bruce. But the day belonged to Barry D.

Not only did he make catch after catch in right field, his bases clearing blast to deep right that went for a triple was the game changer. As the visitors scored TEN runs in one inning to take a two run lead.

Bloodied but unbowed, the home side got a two out double from Scooter that drove in two and tied the score. Which set the stage for a dramatic final inning.

With one out and Leder on third, Gary Ch. ranged over in left field to snag a fly ball. Leder tagged up and arrived just a moment before the ball. SAFE was the call and the visitors took a 14-13 lead into the bottom of the twelfth.

Yet the home side would concede nothing. And when clutch hitting Gary Ch. came up with two out and runners on the corners, the homeys were feeling confident. More so after Gary Ch laced a screamer between first and second. But the jubilation went to the visitors as Bruce made a spectacular lunge and backhanded the ball just before it hit the ground and carried into right field. Game Set Match.

A holiday spectacular for the ages…

Game 39 Saturday 7.10.21 KPP5 by Gordo Charlop

Saturday July 10th saw a single game played on Kings Point Park's field number five. The previous days rains had "abatted" and the field was in good condition, good enough for the resounding call of Play Ball.

The game pitted the visiting Z's against the pitching duo of Leder and Beck. But it wasn't the pitching that carried the day. Starting off the top of the first, the visitors plated a three spot. Leading off things with a double was man about town, Joe S. He was followed by Gary Ch, Roy, Steve H., Gordon and Bryan. And when the dust had settled, the visitors had staked their claim.

The home side waited an inning to get started but the bottom of the second saw them tie the score. It was the bottom of the order that made it happen. Mike G., Mario, Leder, Doug, Juan and big Al thumped their way back into things. Alan's two RBI's were the catalyst.

Each side scratched both a single run a and then two more making the score 6 apiece until the bottom of the seventh when controversy reared its ugly head. A tactical misinterpretation of the rules and incredible hitting from Seth K., Marcos, Kenny and John V. followed by J Paisner set the stage for Marios's 3 rbi triple. And just like that the home side was up by four.

The visitors though, came back with a vengeance and got two triples by Joe and a clutch 2 rbi double by Bobby and some fancy hitting from Dee who had a couple of hits and an important RBI and the home side was looking at a three run deficit.

The homeies got single runs in the eighth and ninth and after a scoreless tenth, helped by a miraculous catch at short by Steve H., they were facing a single run deficit going into their final at bat. And as fate would have it, it was then that the most unlikely of heroes emerged.

Bruce led off with a walk, a smart decision by Z. and was followed by a sharp single by Wandy. With runners on first and second, a determined Marilyn strode to the dish and with the game pinned on her success, promptly roped a seeing eye infield single to load the bases.

The next batter laced a one hopper to third and a force out and throw out tag play at the plate and the no out bases loaded scenario became Marilyn on second with the tying run and Marcos with the winning run. To the plate came John V., who lofted a Texas leaguer that fell just beyond the fielders reach and just inside the left field line. Marilyn raced home with the tying run and Marcos with the winner.

The final score was Marilyn and the gang 14, the visitors 13. However, owing to the controversy regarding a blown call, the game was appealed to Joe Sineno. Joe ruled the game a tie and called for everyone to get a participation trophy except himself as he disdains such ephemera.

MARK LITER (LEDER): WHO SAID "SOME SAY INTOXI-CANT BUT I SAY, INTOXI-CAN," LACED 3 TEQUILA SHOTS (ENOUGH TO KILL A MOCKING BIRD) FOR A KEG FULL OF RBI, INCLUDING 2 DOUBLES, ONE OF WHICH WENT OVER THE FENCE, THROUGH THE TREES AND HIT GRANDMOTHER'S SCHOOLHOUSE DOOR.

BOBBY W: WHO PLASTERED A STINGER OFF THE RF FENCE AND BUZZED ANOTHER FOR A 3 RBI DAY.

BRYAN BLACK: WHO HIT A FIRE BALL FOR A RBI AND DISTILLED THE SPIRITS OF A BATTER WITH HIS GEM PLAY OF A 3B LINER IN FOUL TERRITORY

IN ADDITION WITH THE BASES ABSOLUT-LY LOADED, VINNY BATT'S SAID "THIS IS MAI TAI-ME" AND UNCORKED A VERY HARD

LIQUORED UP SHOT TO CF AND WAS THE CHOSEN DESIGNATED DRIVER IN OF 2 RUMMERS.

DEFENSIVELY:
DAN H MADE A TOP DRAWER PLAY AT 1B ON AN ABSOLUT-E STINGER
JACK GUNNED DOWN A RUMMER AT 2B, AT A CRUCIAL MOMENT, DETOXIFYING A POTENTIAL BIG INNING BY THE OPPOSITION.
MARK LITER SCARFED DOWN 3 LIFE THREATENING SHOOTERS TO THE MOUND.
A NICE MARIO TO GORDO TO BRUCE DP PUT OPPOSITIONAL HOPES ON THE ROCKS.

WHEN THE BAR CLOSED DOWN, THE TEETOTAL WAS 17 FOR THE GUESTS AND 9 FOR THE HOSTS.

THE BEST THING OF ALL WAS THAT YOU DIDN'T HEAR ANY BOOS TODAY. IN OTHER WORDS THERE WERE NO COMPLAINERS, MEANING, NO BOO-ZERS.

WOW! I THINK I'M GETTING BUDWEISER WITH AGE.

REMINDER: WHENEVER YOU GET TO THE BOTTOM OF A FIFTH YOU MUST REPLENISH WITH A NEW BALL.

SEE EVERYONE NEXT WEEK. HOPEFULLY THE NEW CORONA DELTA STRAIN WON'T IMPACT ANYTHING.

HIGHLIGHTS INSPIRED BY THE RECENT JEFF BEZOS SPACE TRIP

Game 43A Saturday 7.24.21 KPP5 BY DAN HEGARTY

On a perfect day for some hot summer softball, Scott's Visitors faced off against Bruce's Homies. After Scott and Dan K dueled for 2 scoreless innings. Mark L blasted one almost to the C field that was matched by an over the picnic area blast by Andrew. The Homies took a one RUN lead in the bottom of the fourth that lasted until the top of the eighth when a two spot gave the Visitors a one run lead. The game featured some fancy fielding by Bruce at third, Dynamic Dee in center, Mikey K in left and Joe S in center. Offensive blasts were provided by Eric B, Hugh, Harlan, Steve H, Marco and Al Z.

The game turned in the bottom of the ninth when a five run rally put the Homies ahead for good.

The drive of the day was a triple by Ben during that ninth inning rally. Defense of the day was provided by three outfielders - Ben, Andrew and Omid- who all moved to the infield and starred.

There was more but I forgot. NEXT game tomorrow

Game 47A Saturday 8.14 .21 KPP5 BY BRUCE

In a scene reminiscent of the original and recently recreated "Field of Dreams", our own Mark Leder emerged from the dense forest in left field's foul territory carrying an errant Debeers F12 Clincher softball. The game would go on.

In a classic Great Neck tradition, the home team Jackies swept to an early lead of eight to nil against the visiting Lee's by the fourth inning. Again, in another GN tradition, the grumbling of whom made these sides that are so unfair and unbalanced could be heard in the land. This was followed by a third GN tradition of the game ending with the Jackies winning by one run in 11 innings. The final at bat for the Lee's looking for one run to tie and two runs to go ahead ended with bases loaded but no runs to be had. This lead to the fourth GN tradition of complimentary things said about the side makers Lee & Jack.

Hitting for 3/4 of the cycle was Vinny “Bats” Batteria. Getting clutch hits was Vinny Bove, Corey & the aforementioned Mark Leder.

Pitching was handled admirably by Gary Z (winner with only a few whines) and taking the close loss was Doug K.

The game was played in 2 hours and 10 minutes under an azure blue sky with a heat index of 99 degrees.

The players stayed hydrated and fed by Gatorade and snacks brought by Bruce (who got 3 well-placed hits and a walk).

Game 47B Saturday 8.14 .21 KPP3

WHILE MOST GREAT NECK RESIDENTS WERE DREAMING THEIR LIVES AWAY, DAN “SPECIAL K” KRYGER WAS LIVING THE DREAM. HE TURNS OUT A SURREAL PITCHING PERFORMANCE AT ALLENWOOD, ALLOWOODING JUST 3 RUNS IN 9 INNINGS, WITH CLOSING HELP FROM BORN AGAIN ROOKIE FROM THE PAST, BOBBY G.

MEANWHILE DAN K’S SON MIKE, TURNS OUT TO BE A BAD DREAM FOR THE OTHER TEAM, AS HE COMES OUT OF THE CORNFIELDS TO DELIVER A CORNUCOPIA OF RUN PRODUCING BOUNTY, INCLUDING A 2 RUN HOMER, A SAC FLY, AN RBI BASE ON BALLS (RBBI), PLUS 2 MORE HITS.

ALSO HAVING A-MAIZE-ING GAMES WERE:

- BOB G WHO CORN POPPED A TRIPLE.
- DAN SPECIAL-K WHO WITH AN ETHANOL BASE-D HIT THAT DRIVES HOME TWO GUYS SITTING ON A CORNFLAKE WAITING FOR THE VAN TO COME.
- ED I WHO’S BIG RBI BASE HIT ALLOWED HIM TO HAVE SWEET DREAMS THIS WEEKEND.
- JOE G WHO MADE A WEB GEM ON AN ACORN CAP’N CRUNCHED DOWN 3RD BASE.
- BEN WHO HAD A DOUBLE THAT WAS HIT AS HIGH AS AN ELEPHANT’S EYE THAT LOOKED LIKE IT WAS CLIMBING CLEAR UP TO THE SKY.

- ALAN Z WHO GOT HIS KIX BY STOMPIN ON OPPOSER'S DREAMS, AS HE MADE AN IMPOSSIBLE WEB GEM AT 2ND BASE

Game 48 Sunday 8.15 .21 ALLENWOOD

LONG TIME VETERAN AND PLAYER FAVE, RON "BURN BABY BURN" BERNSTEIN RETURNS WITH 2 OLD ADULT KNEES AND 1 BRAND NEW KIDNEY (PROVIDED BY HIS DAUGHTER.) TO UMPIRE TODAYS GAME. THANKS RON. IT WAS FANTASTIC TO SEE YOU.

MARIO, MAKES DAY DREAM BELIEVERS OUT OF EVERYONE WITH HIS 3 HIT PERFORMANCE, INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND TRIPLE. PLUS HE MAKES A WEB GEM PLAYING THE HOT CORN-ER.

CEREAL BALL KILLER, MIKE SPIEL HAS ANOTHER 3 HIT GAME.

KONO CORNSTALKS DOWN A BALL THAT WOULD HAVE LANDED IN THE CORNFIELDS, HAD THERE BEEN CORNFIELDS, IN RIDICULOUSLY DEEP CENTER FIELD ON A LUIS-IAN BLAST.

ED H MAKES A FINE RUNNING GRAB OF A BALL, AS IF HE WERE A CORNERBACK INTERCEPTING A 90 YARD PASS THROWN INTO THE END ZONE.

LUIS PLAYS THE ROLE OF DREAM CATCHER IN RF, MAKING SEVERAL DIFFICULT CATCHES LOOK LIKE CANS OF CORN. HE ALSO CRACK -CORNS A DOUBLE AT BAT AND I DO CARE.

MATTHEW R AND ZIGGY MAKE CORNSECUTIVE GEMS AT SCF AND SS.

ROOKIE DANE'S RUNNING CATCH IN LF WAS WORTHY OF A PARADE OF 76 TROMBONES WITH 110 CORNETS RIGHT BEHIND.

BOTH LEE AND LEDER HAVE FINE PITCHING PERFORMANCES. THEY HAVE BECOME CORNERSTONES OF GNSB

PLEASE FORGIVE MY CORNBALL HUMOR. THOUGH I ANTICIPATE THAT IT WILL BE MET WITH A LOT OF SCORN

SEE EVERYONE TOMORROW.

Game 50A Saturday 8.28 .21 KPP5 BY Dan H

Here are this morning's highlights. Conditions were actually pretty good. The clouds cut down sun glare and several close calls were handled well. Please add anything else you might remember.

When the rain finally stopped, Lee divided 18 A and B Great Neck Weekend Softball Stars into such well matched teams that the final score was 5-4 and the game ended with the tying run in scoring position. The Visitors gave Gary Z a 2-0 lead in the top of the first due to excellent base running by Seth K. The Homies got 1 in the second and 2 in the third to take the lead. Once again superior baserunning ignited the comeback as Jon Paisner and Elmer zoomed around the bases. Mark L made his usual assortment of super stabs to turn potential line drive doubles into outs. Bruce and Lee turned some web gems in the middle infield while Brian made playing outfield look easy.

Key hits by Lenny - who just flew in from LA - and Rich kept the game close. Rookie Cliff figured out Gary Z's hesitation pitch made the score 5-3 going into the 10th. The Visitors got one more run before Lee caught a pop up to end a thoroughly enjoyable game.

Multi-hit performances were turned in by Hugh, Vinny Bats and a few others. Nice job by Bruce on handling the site and time changes.

Game 51 Sunday 8.29 .21 Allenwood by Bruce

"It was the best of times, WE GOT TO PLAY SOFTBALL.
It was the worst of times, WE HAD TO SWITCH FIELDS.
It was the age of wisdom, ALLENWOOD CREW WAS ABLE TO READY THE FIELD.
It was the age of foolishness, WE HAD AN ARGUMENT BETWEEN ADULTS.
It was the epoch of belief, WE THOUGHT THAT WE COULD PLAY.

It was the epoch of incredulity, THEY THOUGHT THAT WE WERE CRAZY.
It was the season of light, THE SUN MADE AN APPEARANCE.
It was the season of darkness, WE HAD AN ARGUMENT AMONG ADULTS.
It was the spring of hope, WE HOPE THAT THESE ARGUMENTS WILL END.
It was the winter of despair, WE KIND OF THINK THEY WILL NOT….."

Sunday's game was a nail biter of 6 to 5, if you deducted the 12 run 5th inning.
It was during the 5th inning when the fireworks erupted on the losing team and even though cooler heads prevailed, the Mike-Lee team could not get overcome the 12 run 5th.
They did beat the Bruce's in the second half by 5 to 4.
I guess it was the tale of two games….

Winning pitchers were Leder & Bruce v. Z & Lee.

Outstanding hitting by Kono, John V., Gary Ch. and many more…

Webbies go to Sineno, Mario and others…..

Birthday catering provided by Ziggy & Eric "the uniform".

Game 52A Saturday 9.4.21 KPP5 BY MIKE SP

We haven't had such a high scoring game in months! But the Avilas/ Z's outslugged the Becks 17-14. Luis was the star of the day getting a win in relief and pounding out 5 hits, including a laser over the LF fence for a homer. Dave Blitz banged out 4 hits including a triple to the RF fence. Vinny Bats had 3 hits for the Avilas as well. Long extra base hits by Rich and Mike Spiel. As well as Mike G and Howie, who had 3 hits each on the day for the Becks. Web gems by Z on the mound, Ed in CF, Mike at SS and multiple gems by Howie, who was busy at 2B.

Game 52B Saturday 9.4.21 KPP3

SUPER JOE SINENO HITS 2 HOMERS, ONE TO BOR-A BOR-A, THE OTHER TO BOR-NEO. HE ALSO SINGLES, DOUBLES AND HITS A SAC FLY

HARLAN'S RUNNING WEBGEM IN LF OF A SU-BOR-BITAL LINE DRIVE, A-BOR-TS A RALLY, THEN HE HITS A GAME TYING TRIPLE OUT OF THE KPP3 NEIGH-BOR-HOOD TO GO ALONG WITH 2 OTHER HITS.

ANDY P BECOMES A BOR-N AGAIN SUPERSTAR COLLECTING 4 HITS AND SNAGGING A BOR-SCHT BELTED SCREAMER THAT HE TURNED INTO A DOUBLE PLAY WITH THE BASES LOADED AND ONE OUT IN THE BOTTOM OF THE LAST, WHICH SAVED THE GAME.

OMID, GARY CHARNEY, AND ELMER ALL BOR-E RESEMBLANCES TO TY COBB, CRASHING 3 HITS APIECE.

ED IP BOR-E RESEMBLANCE TO OMAR VIZQUEL AS HE GUNNED DOWN A POTENTIAL LEAD RUN AT THE PLATE

GARY W'S DEEP SAC FLY IN THE BOTTOM OF THE 9TH WHICH STAYED AIR-BOR-NE FOR A LONG TIME, DRIVES IN THE GO AHEAD RUN

Game 53 Sunday 9.5.21 Allenwood
THROUGH 8 FULL INNINGS PITCHERS ERIC T AND DOUGB HELD THE SCORE TO ONE-ZIP BY THROWING A SMORGAS-BOR-D OF MOUTH WATERING STRIKES.
IT WAS A FAST PACED GAME THAT ALLOWED FIELDERS TO BE ON THEIR TOES AND MAKE AN INCREDIBLE AMOUNT OF GREAT DEFENSIVE PLAYS. SUCH AS:

- MATT RICE WHO BOR-ROWED A PAGE FROM THE "SAY HEY KID" IN THE FIRST INNING AND MADE AN ABSOLUTE WILLIE A-MAYS-ING, OVER THE HEAD AND SHOULDER CATCH, IN UBER RIGHT FIELD, ON A BALL DESTINED TO LAND BEYOND THE AURORA BOR-EALIS, OFF THE BAT OF MARK LEDER. ALL PRESENT AGREED IT WAS ONE OF THE TOP CATCHES SEEN IN ALL OF GNSB HISTORY.
- ED H WHO DARINGLY DOVE THROUGH THE AIR WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE TO SNARE A CERTAIN EXTRA BASE GAPPER, HEADED FOR THE NON-AR-BOR-ETUM IN LEFT FIELD.
- KONO WHO MADE A SLIDING GRAB IN LCF AS HE STUB-BOR-NLY REFUSED TO LET THE BALL FALL.
- RICH C WHO BOR-E A RESEMBLANCE TO JOE DIMAGGIO WITH CLASSIC SHOE STRINGER IN LF
- MIKE SPIEL WHO BORE A RESEMBLANCE TO THE WIZARD OF OZZIE WITH AN OVER THE SHOULDER GRAB FROM SS, RUNNING INTO CF
- ARIK, BACK FROM KNEE SURGERY, WHO BOR-E A RESEMBLANCE TO BROOKS ROBINSON, MAKING TWO AMAZING GEMS AT THE HOT CORNER.

BESIDES GOLDEN GLOVES MAKING MISSILES MISS THEIR TARGETS, AN ARMS RACE AROSE ON BOTH TEAMS TO PREVENT MUTUAL DESTRUCTION VIA RUN PRODUCTION.

KENNY WHO BORE A RESEMBLANCE TO ROCKY COLAVITO THROWING OUT A RUNNER AT THE PLATE FROM RCF IN THE 10TH INNING AT A CRUCIAL TIME.

BARRY AT A KEY TIME WHO BOR-E A RESEMBLANCE TO ROBERTO CLEMENTE THROWING OUT A RUNNER AT THE PLATE FROM RF IN THE 8TH WITH THE BASES JUICED.

RICH C WHO BOR-E A RESEMBLANCE TO CARL FURILLO THROWING OUT A RUNNER AT HOME. NICE TAG ON THE PLAY BY LEDER

AN IMPRESSIVE LEE (SS) TO JACK (2B) TO ROB (1B) DP BOR-E RESEMBLANCE TO KUBEK TO RICHARDSON TO SKOWRON.

OFFENSIVELY
MARK LEDER HITS A 3 RUN HOMER THAT ALMOST REACHES THE INTER-BOR-OUGH PKWY. IT NOT ONLY GETS HIS TEAM OFF AN 8 INNING SCHNEID, BUT ALSO PUTS THEM IN THE LEAD FOR GOOD. HE ALSO HAD A SINGLE IN A GAME WHERE HITS WERE SCARCER THAN A-BOR-IGINES PLAYING SOFTBALL IN LICHTENSTEIN.

ALSO HAVING MULTIHIT GAMES WERE MIKE SPIEL, WHOSE TRIPLE ALMOST LANDED IN THE NY HAR-BOR AND LEE WHO SINGLED AND DOUBLED AND DROVE IN 2.
RICH C HAD A 10TH INNING BASE HIT AND RBI

Game 54A Monday 9.6 .21 KPP5 BY MIKE SP
Mondays game was historic. It was the first time that I can recall where we had 3 homers over the fence. Those bombs were hit by Arik, Joel and Luis. The Z's beat the Becks 15-14. Arik and Joel each had 4 hits and Brian and Rich contributed 3 hits for the Z's. The Becks were led by Dane and his 4 hits and Lee had 3 hits. Despite all the hitting, there were some Web gems. Ed made a nice sliding catch in CF, Howie made a nice running catch in RF, Mike robbed Barry of a hit, deep in the hole at SS and newcomer Alex had a great running catch on a popup to short LF. He also hit some rockets, including a triple to LCF. A nice debut for the youngster!

The play of the day was made by Vinny, with a superb over the head running catch in LF with his back to the hitter, a la Willie Mays. He thought it was a meatball parmigiana hero!

Game 54B Monday 9.6 .21 KPP

ON 9/6 THE SCORE IS 9-6

Alan Z, FROM THE BOR-OUGH OF MANHATTAN, COMES UP WITH 7 ASSISTS AT 2B, INCLUDING 3 IN ONE INNING!

THERE WERE 2 IMPRESSIVE DOUBLE PLAYS MADE.
ANDY (P) TO AL (2B) TO DAN H (1B) AND ED I (3B) TO MIKE L (2B)TO STEVE H(1B). SHOWING GREAT DEFENSIVE COLLA-BOR-ATION.

ELMER, FROM THE BOR-OUGH OF QUEENS MAKES SEVERAL FINE DEFENSIVE PLAYS AND GETS A KEY BASE HIT.
ANDY WHO DRIVES IN FROM THE BOR-OUGH OF BROOKLYN, DRIVES IN 3 RUNS WITH A MULTI-HIT DAY

MARIO CRACKS 3 HITS AND IF I MAY ELA-BOR-ATE, ALSO MAKES A FINE WEB GEM AT 3B.

ED I DOUBLES OVER THE LF'S HEAD AND IF I MAY ELA-BOR-ATE AGAIN, ALSO MAKES A WEB GEM AT 3B

JOE SINENO WHO PRODUCED MORE WHINES THAN THE ENTIRE REGION OF BOR-DEAUX, FRANCE, BOR-E HOLES THROUGH THE OUTFIELD DEFENSE SYSTEM 3 TIMES, FOR HITS.

ALSO GETTING BIG HITS TODAY WERE MATT R, JOHNNY V, BOBBY U, GARY CHARNEY WITH A DOUBLE AND THE ALWAYS INSU-BOR-DINATE GORDON.

AND LEDER CONTINUED HIS HOME RUN JAM-BOR-EE WITH HIS 3RD HOMER (2 RBI) IN 3 GAMES.

HIGHLIGHTS TOO BOR-ING? FOR ME, I WAS EXCITED AS A VIRGIN GOING INTO A BOR-DELLO, TO WRITE THEM.

WHILE OTHERS STAYED HOME PLAYING SOL-ITAIRE:

Game 55A Saturday 9.11.21 KPP5

ROOKIE ALEX MAKES THE OPPOSING FIELDER OB-SOL-ETE AS HE HOMERS OVER THE FENCE AND TRIPLES. HE ALSO MAKES SEVERAL GOOD PLAYS IN THE OUTFIELD.

ARIK SHOWS A WHOLE LOTTA GLOVE AT 3B WITH SEVERAL MAGNIFICENT FIELDING GEMS, NOT TO MENTION HE GETS 4 HITS. (IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN MORE BUT NOBODY ON THE "A" COUNTS THAT HIGH.)

LEE WITH AN OVER THE SHOULDER CATCH AT SS, ADDED GA-SOL-INE TO HIS TEAMS DEFENSIVE ENGINE.

LEDER BLASTED ONE TO THE RF FENCE FOR A DOUBLE, LEAVING THE DEFENSE FEELING DE-SOL-ATE

GNSB PAYS TRIBUTE TO THE VICTIMS OF 9/11 WITH 4 MOMENTS OF SILENCE AS SIRENS BLARE.

OH SOL-O MIA! BRUCE, WHO HAS SOL-D SEVERAL DOZENS OF OUR USED BALLS TO DEFRAY GNSB COSTS, MAKES A SPECTACULAR PLAY TO SAVE A RUN, BUT THE OFFICIAL SCORER RULES THAT IT CAN'T BE CONSIDERED A WEBGEM. INSTEAD ITS A SOL-EGEM BECAUSE HE STOPPED THE BALL FROM GOING INTO THE OUT OF PLAY WITH HIS FOOT! ITS THE SOL-E, SOL-EGEM EVER AWARDED. (GNSB - WHERE YOU SEE THINGS THAT YOU JUST DON'T SEE IN THE BIGS.)

THE SOL-ID BUT SOUL-ESS JOE SINENO, EARNS THE TITLE OF SUL-TAN OF SWAT AS HE DOUBLES THRICE, TRIPLES, AND DRIVES IN MOST OF HIS TEAMS RUNS. INCLUDED WERE 2 GROUND RULE DOUBLES, ONE THROUGH THE LF GATE THE OTHER A GNSB DOUBLE THAT GRAZES OFF THE PITCHER'S MITT, THEN SPIN OFFS INTO THE OUT OF PLAY AREA. (GNSB - WHERE YOU SEE THINGS THAT YOU JUST DON'T SEE IN THE BIGS.) HE WAS QUITE THE SOL-O ACT TODAY.

GARY Z IS RE-SOL-UTE ABOUT NOT GIVING UP HITS OR WALKS TODAY AS HE LIMITS OPPOSING BATS TO JUST 7 RUNS. HIS CON-SOL-ATION WAS A VICTORY

GARY CHARNEY IN RCF, DIS-SOL-VED HOPES OF HITS FOR SEVERAL BATTERS, MAKING NUMEROUS FINE PLAYS, INCLUDING THE NABBING OF A RUNNER AT 3B TRYING TO TAG, FOR A DP. HE ALSO HAD A COUPLE OF FINE HITS AND MULTIPLE RBI'S.

STEVE H GOT HIS SCORELESS TEAM OFF THE SCHNEID WITH AN RBI BASE HIT, WHICH HE DUPLICATED A FEW INNINGS LATER. FOR THAT HE'S AB-SOL-VED OF ALL CRIMES THAT HE'S COMMITTED.

MARCOS SLUGS AN AB-SOL-UTE LAZER FOR A TRIPLE THRU THE CF GATE.

THERE WAS A VERY NICE DOUGB TO GARY W TO STEVE H DOUG-BLE PLAY IN THE FIRST INNING.

Game 56 Sunday 9.12.21 A-wood

24 GOOD SOL-DIERS CAME TO PLAY DESPITE NEAR PERFECT WEATHER.

HIS JOHNER RETURNS, BACK FROM HIS HAMPTONS FORTRESS OF SOL-ITUDE. IT WAS GOOD TO SEE HIM BACK ON THE DIAMOND ON THE SOLE-S OF HIS SHOES.

KONO MUST HAVE SOL-D HIS SOUL TO THE DEVIL, BECAUSE HE GOT A HIT ALMOST EVERY TIME UP THIS WEEKEND. INCLUDING AT 5-6 DAY TODAY.

ED H HITS SAYS BYE, BYE, FAREWELL, SO L-ONG TO THE BALL, WITH A 2 RUN HOMER, THAT WAS HIT SO L-ONG THAT IT SHOUTED SEE YOU IN SEPTEMBER 22. THIS WAS IN ADDITION TO HIS 2 OTHER HITS AND RBI. PLUS HE STEALS A CERTAIN EXTRA BASER, WITH SUCH A SPECTACULAR CATCH, THAT THE OTHER TEAM WANTS HIM LOCKED UP IN SOL-ITARY CONFINEMENT.

BRYAN PAINTED THE SCOREBOOK BLACK 3 TIMES WITH 1Bs SOLE-LY BECAUSE HE'S A FANTASTIC HITTER.

RICH CONNORS HITS THE BALL TO WHERE THERE WAS NOT ANOTHER LIVING SOUL IN SIGHT, 3 TIMES, INCLUDING A DOUBLE FOR 3 RBI. HE ALSO MAKES A FINE RUNNING GEM IN LF. THE BATTER WAS INCON-SOL-ABLE ABOUT IT.

DOUG BECK SOL-IDIFIED HIS TEAMS DEFENSE WITH A GEM AT 2B ON A VERY HARD SMASH.

DON'T TELL A SOUL ABOUT THIS, BUT MARCOS UNMERCILESSLY RUNS DOWN A BALL IN RCF SHOWING NO R-E-S-P-E-C-T FOR THE COMMISHUGANA.

THE QUESTION OF HOW TO GET ZIGGY OUT REMAINS IN-SOL-VABLE FOR PITCHERS. HE COLLECTS 4 HITS INCLUDING A 2 BAGGER.

3 TIMES ARIK HIT THE BALL INTO DESOLATE AREAS OF ALLENWOOD FOR 3 HITS, PLUS A WALK ON A PITCH THAT LANDED IN A DE-SOL-ATE AREA OF HOME PLATE. ON " D" HE SNAGS A BULLET DOWN THE 3B LINE ON HIS KNEES, THEN GETS UP AND RETURNS FIRE WITH A BULLET OF HIS OWN ACROSS THE DIAMOND TO NAB THE RUNNER. THE OPPOSITION BELIEVES THAT THIS TYPE OF THIEVERY PUNISHED WITHOUT AB-SOL-UTION.

MARIO'S BAT MUST HAVE BEEN ENHANCED WITH SOL-AR POWER, BECAUSE HE RIPS 3, MAYBE 4 HITS AGAINST HIS INSOLENT RIVALS.

OTHER MULTIPLE HIT GUYS WERE LEE, LEDER, MARCOS, AND SUPER JOE, WHO BRAVELY PLAYED WITHOUT HIS SOUL SISTA, GORDON.

SEVERAL NICE DPS WERE PERFORMED TODAY.

while others stayed home with their heads on their pillows, here's the blow by blow account:

2 blowouts today!

game 57A saturday 9.18.21 kpp5

gary z, with the help of his fellow teammates, disallows all but a handful of shallow hits and runs to the opposing clowns in victory.

arik has a mind blowing 8 hits including 2 triples and a double kono, amps up his kilowattage by using a lighter bat to slug 6 hits including 2 extra bases.
leder is aglow today going 4 for 5 including a double.
to bryan b, ed h, and scott d, the ball looks likes a giant marshmallow as each blast 3 hits.

several balls were mashed way past the old cut down willow tree but were swallowed up with stupendous catches by corey, ed h, and jon z.
mike spiels bro jon Spiel, spectacularly dove and swallowed up a ground ball smash up the middle by 2b.

lee, despite an early exit made 2 take your self dps at ss to flower potential rallies. He also hit an early game triple.
rich connors hit a mighty blow to lcf for a triple.

luis upon hearing that our numbers were low plowed thru the traffic in nj for the good of the game. thanks luis! it allowed us to have decent numbers and 2 good games. That beats all highlights.

game 57b saturday 9.18.21 kpp3 by dan h

Today's B Battle pitted the Visitors behind Scott against the Homies behind Dan and Bruce. The Homies took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first when Joltin' Joe Sineno homered. Each team plated 2 runs in the third and went back and forth until the ninth and tenth inning when when the homies added 9 runs to ice the victory - final score 17-8.

It was a big offensive day as Harlan, Mike G, and Hugh had multiple extra base hits. Howie, Barry, Gary W, Gary Ch and Eric B ripped some killer liners.

Defensively, play of the day goes to Jeff who survived a crash at the plate to end a rally. Additional web gems were provided by Mike G, Seth and Joe S who stole a homer with a running catch. Bruce put an end to the festivities with three fine plays to end the game. More happened but my 70+year old hard drive couldn't hold it.

PS. Mike G hit one over the fence and Gordon peppered the outfield with base hits.

Tune in tomorrow for more fun.

game 58 sunday 9.19.21

here's the low down at the hallowed grounds of allenwood park:

leder goose eggs the opposition from innings 2 thru 9, allowing his fellow mates to come back after a couple of geese had flown the coop in bot 1, as the first 3 men in the order, zig, kono and mike sp lead with 3 consecutive doubles. but his johner is not too shabby either, deflowering bat after bat. Both pitchers have fine control and don't wallow in high pitch counts. His johner closes the game by shutting out his low life opponents in the last 6 frames and leaves them to go searching over at lowe's for better lumber. he also comes up with the most heroic play of the game. it is the 1st defensive triple we've ever had. in fielding a ball, he trips 3 times, then falls but somehow, some way, in the midst of all that, he manages to throw the ball to 1b for the out. hopefully he'll be ok.

A rare triple play prevents an overflow of runs.
A ground ball is hit to johnny v on the ss side of 2b. He steps on 2nd, tags the runner coming off 2b, then fires to first to get a runner who's no slowpoke. 6-6-3.

johnny also gemmed on a bullet hit deep into the ss hole by kono, who's not slow. adding to his resume johnny v had 2 laser hits over 3b.

gary charney glows at the plate with 3 hits and as you can see his name is hollowed out here in the lowlights.

the mellow, but not yellow, rob wurtzel out glows all hitters with 3 hits including a double and he drives in 2 of his team's 3 runs.

despite the oppressive sun glow, the low-keyed ed l. makes a scintillating, running catch on a ball to rf .

the low profiled marcos, makes a fine running catch in deep lf, which I didn't see, but heard.

andy makes several fine picks at 1b, including knocking down a killer laser, hit below the belt and outracing the runner to 1b there was a low bar for hits today, but besides those mentioned above, I'll mention those who got more than one, below barry, bryan, kenny, bono, Andy, ed i, leder, rich, marcos, jack, and zig the deathblow is definitely mike spiel's walk off home run as he sings "Swing low sweet chariot coming for to carry me home." that had flown way over shallows in rcf, in the bottom of the 12th to send the visitors to the gallows. it is definitely the blow of the day and something to bellow about.

gar
sorry for setting such a low bar for these lowlights.

WHETHER ITS AN EQUINOX OR AT ANY OTHER TIME, SIDE-MAKERS TRY TO MAKE TEAMS GIVING EACH SIDE AN EQUAL NUMBER OF KNOCKERS, JUST LIKE THERE ARE EQUAL HOURS OF DAYLIGHT AND DARKNESS. HERE ARE THE RESULTS:

Game 59A Saturday 9.25.21 KPP5 by Mike Sp

There was no shortage of runs today as the Z's beat the Koch's 14-13. The Z's were led by Vinny Bats who had 5 or possibly 6 hits in the game. Mike and Ed each had 4 hits. The big inning for the Z's was a 7 run, extra base hit explosion, Rich, Mike, Bryan, Vinny and Jon S, smashed doubles and triples one after the other. Doug had a case of whiplash after the game. Kono and Jack led the Koch's with 3 hits apiece. Jon P and Ed both made sliding catches in CF for web gems. Gary Z ate his Wheaties before the game and had 3 hits.

WE CALL THIS A NOXEMA GAME BECAUSE AT 14-13 IT WAS A CLOSE SHAVE AND THE CLOSER YOU SHAVE THE MORE YOU NEED NOXEMA
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ho9XNfy6JBM

DANGEROUS DAN KNOCKS 3 TIMES ON THE GRASS CEILING FOR BASE HITS AND DRIVES IN RUNS TWICE ON THE PIPES.

DINA THE DYNAMO MAKES SURE THERE ARE NO KNOCKS IN HER TEAM'S DEFENSIVE ENGINE, AS SHE MAKES 9 ASSISTS PLUS A PUT-OUT AT 2B, WITHOUT A SINGLE MISCUE. SHE ALSO SINGLES AND DOUBLES AND DRIVES IN A RUN.

GORDO KNOCKS THE TAR OUT OF THE BALL 5 TIMES FOR HITS, INCLUDING 3 DOUBLES!

GARY W KNOCKS THE STUFFING OUT OF THE BALL 4 TIMES FOR HITS, INCLUDING 2 HITS THAT WERE STUFFED INTO IN ONE INNING.

VINNIE F, MUST HAVE GONE TO THE SCHOOL OF HARD KNOCKS BECAUSE HE KNOCKS THE BALL HARD 4 TIMES FOR HITS, INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND A HOME RUN THAT WAS HIT SO FAR THAT YOU NEEDED BI-KNOCK-ULARS TO SEE IT.

MIKE G MAKES A DIVING WEB GEM AT SS THAT WOULD KNOCK YOUR WET SOCKS OFF. BTW HE ALSO KNOCKS THE CRAP OUT OF THE BALL TWICE FOR BASE HITS.

KNOCK. KNOCK. WHO'S THERE? CLIFF. CLIFF WHO?
CLIFF HANGER. DETERMINED NOT TO MAKE THE GAME A CLOSE CLIFF HANGER, CLIFF SLAMS 2 HITS INCLUDING A DOUBLE TO RF

STEVE HERSHON, KNOCKS THE OPPOSITION FOR A LOOP WITH A VERY NON-LOOPING, ROPE TO RF FOR A BIG DOUBLE.

JOE SINENO, AFTER RECEIVING HIS 2021 GNSB HOME RUN DERBY CHAMPIONSHIP MUG, HITS A SINGLE, A DOUBLE, AND A TRIPLE, BUT NO HOME RUN. MAYBE HE DIDN'T WANT TO KNOCK HIMSELF OUT RUNNING THE BASES.

SCOTT SMITH KNOCKS 'EM DEAD WITH 2 HITS INCLUDING A RBI TRIPLE.

WHEN THE OPPORTUNITY COMES KNOCKING TO BRUCE HE TAKES IT BY DRAWING A RBBI (RUN BASE ON BALLED IN) WALK. HE ALSO DRIVES IN ANOTHER RUN WITH A BASE HIT.

JEFF BASKIN LAUNCHES A KNOCK-CLEAR BOMB DOWN THE LEFT FIELD LINE FOR A MONSTER TRIPLE.

ON THE "B," BEEKEEPER LEDER, RIPS 2 STINGING HITS INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND KNOCKS THE OPPOSING OFFENSE OFF OF THEIR PERCHES, WITH A FINE PITCHED GAME.

IN ADDITION. THERE WERE 3 VERY SPIFFY DOUBLE PLAYS MADE:
BARRY D>MIKE G>STEVE H
SCOTT S>GORDO>DAN
DINA>GORDO>DAN

Game 60 Sunday 9.26.21 Allenwood

IN AN ALLENWOOD PARK KNOCK DOWN DRAG OUT BATTLE, MORE GOLD GLOVE PLAYS THAN FORT KNOX ARE SEEN:

- MARIO MAKES AN IMPOSSIBLE GEM AT 3B ON A POSSIBLE GE-NOC-IDAL MISSILE
- ARIK RUNS INTO AN UNI-NOC-ULATED AREA OF ALLENWOOD TO NAB A VERY FOUL BALL AND SAVE HUMANITY.
- GARY CHARNEY FABULOUSLY, SLIDES INTO THE U-NOC-CUPIED TERRITORY OF ALLENWOOD LEFT FIELD TO STEAL A HIT.
- MARK LEDER SNAGS A LASER ON BOOSTER-STEROIDS ON THE MOUND THAT WOULD HAVE KNOCKED A LESSER MAN ON HIS ARCE.

- MIKE SP MAKES A 6-6-3 DP
- ZIG MAKES A 4-4-3 DP

BATTING: HOW ABOUT THESE KNOCKERS?

- MARC KONO LAUNCHES A KONOCKULAR BOMB DEEP INTO RIGHT FIELD FOR A 2 RUN HOMER IN THE VERY 1ST INNING.
- MATT REISS SMASHES A HOME RUN THAT TRAVELED SO FAR OVER THE OUTFIELDERS, IT MIGHT AS WELL HAVE LANDED IN KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE
- ZIGGY HAS A MULTI-HIT DAY INCLUDING A HOMER AND A SINGLE, KNOCKING IN 3 RUNS.
- ARIK HAS A 4 HIT DAY INCLUDING A 2B THAT COULDA BEEN A 4B, HAD HE NOT HAD A NEW KNEE.
- BOBBY W PROVES TO BE VERY NOC-UOUS TO HIS RIVALS. HE HAS A HUGE DAY HITTING FOR THE TRICYCLE A SINGLE, DOUBLE, AND TRIPLE.
- MIKE SPIEL TRIPLES PAST A NONPI-NOCHLE PLAYING RC FIELDER.
- SUPER JOE, DOING A CHEAP KNOCK-OFF OF JOE DIMAGGIO, BANGS OUT 3 HITS INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND MAKES SEVERAL FINE DEFENSIVE PLAYS BUT HIS FINE FOR COMPLAINING TOPS $150. ($0.67 PER COMPLAINT).

- THE BATTING STAR OF THE GAME IS DEFINITELY BRYAN BLACK, WHO HAS 3 SINGLES, A TRIPLE AND A HOMER THAT HE KNOCKS UP THE KNOLL IN LEFT. HE IS A REAL KNOCK AND KNOLLER TODAY.

I HAVE TO KNOCK OFF NOW, BUT I JUST WANT TO MENTION THAT BARRY AND MARK LEDER HAVE MULTI-HIT DAYS.

APOLOGIES TO ALL THOSE WHOSE HEROICS I DIDN'T CATCH. SEE EVERYONE NEXT WEEK.

122 CONSECUTIVE MONTHLY BOTTLES OF BEER ON THE WALL HAVE FALLEN AND PLAYERS ARE VERY HOPPY

61A SATURDAY GAME 10.2.21 KPP5 BY MIKE SP.

FACING EACH OTHER ON THE

61B SATURDAY GAME 10.2.21. KPP3

IT LOOKED AS IF THE VISITORS WERE GOING TO LOWENBRAU BEAT THE HOME BREWED CREW BUT THE HOMIES MANAGE TO MAKE IT RESPECTABLE SCORING A 6 PACK IN INNINGS 5 AND 6. AS A RESULT, THEY ARE ONLY OUTNUM-BEER-ED BY 4 RUNS IN A 12-8 GAME. MARK LEDER FROM THE MOUND, CALLED FOR PROHIBITION ON ANY BEER RUNS ATTEMPTED IN MOST INNINGS.

JEFF BASKIN MIGHT HAVE PUT HIMSELF IN THE GUINNESS BOOK OF RECORDS AS HE THROWS OUT 3 RUNNERS FROM THE OUTFIELD, TWO AT SECOND BASE, ONE AT THE PLATE FOR A DP.

THERE WERE 3 OTHER STELLA DPS:

JOHN V TO DINA TO DAN 6-4-3
JOHN V TO DAN 6-6-3
MARK TO DINA TO STEVE 1-6-3

JOHNNY V AT SS, ALSO THROWS A RUNNER OUT AT THE PLATE ON A RELAY 10-6-2

GORDON MAKES A RHEINGOLD-EN GLOVE PLAYS IN RCF WITH A RUNNING CATCH.

SMACKING BALLANTINE BLASTS TODAY ARE:

THE BEER-LY COHERENT, MARK LEDER WHO USUALLY ACTS AS IF HE'S CONSUMED A LEDER OF BEER BEFORE RACH GAME SERVES AS A ROLE MODELO TO FELLOW PLAYERS, WITH A 2 RUN HOMER, TO GO ALONG WITH 2 OTHER HITS.

OMID WITH A 3 RUN HOMER DESERVES TO GET A PABST BLUE RIBBON

BLOW THE SCHAFFER FOR SUPER JOE, WHO CLOB-BEERS 2 TRIPLES AND 2 OTHER BASE HITS, FOR A 3 RBI DAY.

GORDO WITH A TRIPLE AND 3 OTHER HITS FOR A 3 RBI DAY HAS HIS OPPONENTS FOAMING AT THE MOUTH. YUENG LING I SAW THE WHOLE THING.

DAN, STEVE H, GARY W , AND COUSIN BREWSKY EACH HAVE 3 HITS TODAY. ONE OF BRU-SKI'S WAS A DOUBLE.

ERIC BEERMAN GETS A BIG HIT TO SHOW WHY HIS NAME IS WORTHY OF TODAY'S THEME.

BARRY D MAKES THE MILLER HIGHLIGHTS WITH A CLUTCH SINGLE AND SAC FLY.

62 SUNDAY GAME 10.2.21. A-WOOD
GORDO, PLAYING THE GAME THE WAY IT SHOULD BE PLAYED, BUDWEISER-LY PICKS OFF THE GAME'S IST RUNNER AT 1B, AFTER HE LEISURELY STROH-LS BACK TO THE BASE. THE RUNNER COULD BARLEY BELIEVE IT.

ZIG RETURNS THE FAVOR BY PICKING OFF A RUNNER GOING PAST 2B

MATT REISS GUNS DOWN A RUNNER AT 2B FROM FAIRLY DEEP RF, LEAVING THE BATTER BEER-EFT OF A BASEHIT.

KONO MAKES A TYPE OF CATCH THATS SEEN ONCE IN A BLUE MOON, IF THAT, IN LCF, RIGHT BEHIND A LEAPING LEFT FIELDER.

J-RO WHO'D BEEN IN HI-BEER-NATION FOR A WHILE, HAS A GAME TO BE REMEM-BEER-ED. HE SLAPS 4 HITS THRU THE INFIELD.

WHAT'S A GOOD WAY TO FORGET WHAT ALES YOU? DO WHAT HEINEKEN-NY MERSAND DID, SMACK 4 HITS INCLUDING A HOMER AND A TRIPLE TO DRIVE HOME 4 RUNS.

DOUG BECK SHOULD HAVE A BEER NAMED FOR HIM, AFTER HITTING A MASSIVE DOUBLE AND MAKING A WEB GEM ON A ONE HOPPER AT 2B.

I HATE TO BE A BLABBEER MOUTH BUT BOBBY AND GORDO GO BEER-ZERK AND HAVE A BREW HA HA IN THE 7TH INNING. I CALL IT THE 7TH INNING KVETCH

LEDER REALLY RAISED THE BAR TODAY. DESPITE SERVING AS A PITCHER OF BEER FOR 10 INNINGS, HE DELIVERS A LEDER'S WORTH OF HITS-5 IN ALL. (3 SINGLES, A DOUBLE AND A HOMER FOR 4 RBI). I AMSTEL IN AWE OF THAT GUY.

PETE TAPS THE PITCHER TO DELIVER A BREW-SING BLOW WITH A MONSTER TRIPLE OVER EVERYONE'S HEAD .

ONE OF THE BIG CHAI-LIGHTS OF TODAY BELONGS TO THE SOMEWHAT ORTHODOX HEBREW ROB, WHO JEWISH STARRED TODAY WITH 4 SMASH HITS.

ALSO HAVING MALTI-HIT GAMES TODAY WERE:
ZIGGY, JACK, MARCOS, BOBBY, GORDO, ARIK AND GARY CH. BUT THIS IS NO
A-BEER-ATION FOR THESE GUYS.

JACK'S WALK OFF BASE HIT IN BOT 10, HAS HIS TEAMMATES EXU-BEER-ANT BUT LEAVES THE VISITORS CRYING IN THEIR BEERS.

FYI I GOT MY BOOSTER SHOT. I CALL IT MY CORONA EXTRA VACCINE. HOPE TO SEE ALL YOU BUDS NEXT WEEK.

Game 63A Saturday 10.9.21 KPP5 BY Mike Sp

The Leders beat the Z's 17-10 in another high scoring affair. It was bombs away! As Alex and guest Hickory hit HR's over the fence. It was Howie's last game before moving the FL and he was the star. Smashing 3 hits in his first 3 at bats and making several web gems out in RF, before he hurt his hamstring and had to leave the game. The Leders were led in hitting by Marc himself, who singled, doubled and tripled in his first 3 ab's. Hickory, Rich and Jon Z also had 3 hits each for the victors. For the Z's Doug B had a great day at the plate with 4 hits, also Jon P, Alex, Corey and Ed had 3 hits apiece.

Web gems, Hick made a nice running catch in LF, both Jon P and Jon Z in CF and Ed made a diving catch in RF.

Game 63B Saturday 10.9.21 KPP3

FROM THE YELLOW NOTEPAD, HERE ARE THE HIGHLIGHTS THAT WE SEE.

DAN K ABSOLUTELY HYP*NOT*IZED BATTERS AS HE GAVE UP JUST 2 RUNS IN 11 PITCHED INNINGS WITH HIS TOP*NOT*CH PITCHING.

HE WAS HELPED MOST *NOT*ABLY BY A DEFENSE THAT TURNED 5 DPS, 4 OF WHICH WERE "TAKE IT YOURSELF" DP'S, FROM JOHNNY V TO STEVE H. (6-6-3). IT HAPPENED SO OFTEN, THAT IT BECAME MO*NOT*ONOUS. DINA TURNED THE 5TH DP.

BUT A*NOT*HER KRYGER PLAYED HERO ON OFFENSE, MIKE K SMACKEROOED 4 HITS, INCLUDING A DOUBLE AND A TRIPLE (THAT BECAME A HOMER ON AN ERRANT THROW) FOR 4 RBI.

WE CAN*NOT* OVERLOOK MIKE G OR BRYAN B EACH OF WHOM WHO HAD A TRIO OF HIT INCLUDING DOUBLES.
IT SHOULD BE VERY NOTED THAT BOTH PLAYERS, FOR THE GOOD OF THE GAME, CAME OVER TO PLAY ON KPP3, AS DID DOUG KOCH. NOTHING TRUMPS THIS AS A HIGHLIGHT. THANKS GUYS!!!

ALSO TAKE NOTE THAT JOE SINEO DITTOED BRYAN AND MIKE G AT BAT, BUT HE ALWAYS PLAYS ON KPP3. THAT ACT SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN FOR GRANTED.

STEVE HERSHON NOTICEABLY DONNING A CAPTAIN AMERICA OUTFIT, SEE ATTACHMENT, BANGED 2 HITS AGAINST A SHIFTY DEFENSE. ITS NOTE WORTHY THAT GARY W MADE 2 CATCHES ON HIM IN RF, ON 2 OTHER OF HIS HARD HIT LINERS.

I ALSO FEEL OBLIGATED TO NOTIFY YOU THAT BIG HITS CAME OFF THE BATS OF HUGH WITH A TWO BAGGER, VINNY BATTS WITH A 3 BAGGER AND THAT BARRY D HAD A SAC FLY AND GEMMED AT SECOND BASE ON A LASER GROUND BALL.
THERE ALSO SHOULD BE NOTIFICATION OF DAN H'S VERY UNFLINCHING, NONCHALANT CATCH OF A BULLET TO 1B.

GAME 65 MONDAY/COLUMBUS DAY/ INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY 10.11.21. A-WOOD

The teams played on, notwithstanding the early drizzle today.

THIS WEEKEND HAD NO TRUE IRON MEN, BUT THERE WERE 7 WHO WERE 97% IRON MEN. THEY WERE:
GARY CHARNEY, GARY WEINSTOCK, JOE SINENO, GORDON CHARLOP, MARK LEDER, BRYAN BLACK AND BRUCE BLATTBERG.
IF I HAVE TIME, I'LL RECONSTRUCT THEIR UNTAKEN PHOTO FROM MEMORY. IT WON'T BE PRETTY!
BALLS WERE NOT HIT OUT OF THE ALLENWOODS YET, BUT ALL SHOULD TAKE NOTE OF THE FOLLOWING PRE-SIXTH INNING EVENTS:
SUPER JOE LEAD OFF BOT 1, WITH A TRIPLE
FLASH PAISNER TRIPLED FOR AN RBI
ZEE DOUBLED WITH THE BASES LOADED FOR 3 RBI
BARRY HAD 2 HITS AN A RBI BEFORE INNING 6
MARK LEDER DITTOED BARRY
CHARNEY AND E THE U HAD BIG HITS
ED H MADE AN IMPOSSIBLE RUNNING CATCH IN CF ON A BALL WAY OVER HIS HEAD TO STEAL AWAY A CERTAIN HOMER. MAKING HIM A "MAN OF STEAL"

GORDON BECAME THE HIGHLIGHT CLOSER, BUT MOST OF HIS WRITING HAD TO BE CENSORED DUE TO ITS INFLAMMATORY

NATURE. WHISTLE BLOWERS HAVE COME FORWARD SAYING THAT HE HAD SENT THEM IN WITH THE FULL KNOWLEDGE OF THEIR POTENTIAL HARM. THOSE PARTS HAVE BEEN REDACTED. THE REST REMAINS IN TACT.
"Rough fielding day for XXX at XX. Apparently, when he was asked if he'd like to play XXXXXXXXX, he meant he wished he had the ability. Sort of like the fellow who cuts his finger and asks the doctor if he'll be able to play the violin.

Joe continued his XXXXXX XXXX XX production.

XXXX X seemed to misunderstand that getting the XXXX XXXX XXX XXXXX did not refer to the North American XXXXXXXX XXXXX.

Barry D. hit wonderfully,

Gordon stroked a 2 rbi lazer (Editor's note SP. Laser)and gunned out XXXX XX at home from right field.
Visitors mashed the ball when they weren't XXXXX XXXXXX or helped by XXX'X "XXXXXXX". Ed had a monster home run. The entire team lashed the ball."

Game 66A Saturday 10.16.21 KPP5

BRUCE STRIKES A HAPPY MEDIUM BETWEEN TEAMS ON BOTH DIAMONDS.

WITH THE VIZ-ZEES LEADING 2-0 IN TOP 5, THE HOMESTERS STRIKE BACK TO STRIKE A 2-2 BALANCE IN BOT 5, BUT THEY THEN STRIKE TERROR INTO THE VIZ-ZEES IN BOT 6, WITH 2 MORE. HOWEVER THE VIZ-ZEES REMAINING WITHIN STRIKING DISTANCE, STRIKE BACK AND TIE IT AGAIN 4-4 IN BOT 6. THEY THEN STRIKE BLOWS IN TOP 8 AND 10 TO STRIKE DOWN THEIR OPPONENTS 6-4. THOUGH THERE WERE NO STRIKE OUTS, GARY Z WAS HUGE ON THE MOUND, HOLDING THE MIGHTY HOME-STERS TO JUST 4 RUNS WITH ONLY 3 OUTFIELDERS.

STRIKING GOLD ON DEFENSE IS

- A GARY Z SNAG OF A LIFE THREATENING BULLET TO THE MOUND TO HELP HIS OWN CAUSE BEARING A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO BOBBY SCHANTZ
- A RUNNING, DIVING CATCH BY MATT SP IN CF BEARING A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO TRIS SPEAKER.
- A BRYAN SS TO LEDER 2B TO SCOTT DP 6-4-3 IN A CRUCIAL SPOT BEARING A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO KUBEK TO RICHARDSON TO SKOWRON.
- A CLUTCH LUIS TO SCOTT DP 5-5-3 BEARING A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO NETTLES TO CHAMBLIS

STRIKING PAY DIRT WITH WEB GEMS FOR THE HOMESTERS:

- KONO MAKES A RUNNING DIVING CF CATCH BEARING A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO KEN GRIFFEY JR.
- DOUG BECK MAKES AN OUTSTRETCHED GRAB OF A LUIS UBER-LASER ON HYPER-STEROIDS AT 3B, WHICH COULD HAVE EASILY PULLED HIS ARM OUT OF ITS SOCKET, A STRIKING RESEMBLANCE TO BROOKS ROBINSON

STRIKING FEAR INTO THE HEARTS OF THE DEFENSES TODAY:

- DID DOUG BECK STRIKE A BARGAIN WITH THE DEVIL? HE CRACKS 4 HITS INCLUDING 2 DOUBLES.
- KONO, BRYAN, AND MATT SP, LIKE RUBY BEGONIA, STRIKE A FAMILIAR NOTE, WITH 4 HITS APIECE, INCLUDING A 2B.

- VIN BATTS, BRIAN STAR, AND LEDER WITH 3 HITS EACH.
- SCOTT, BRYAN'S BRO-IN-LAW, MADE AN IMPRESSIVE DEBUT STRIKING SEVERAL VERY HARD HIT BALLS.

WE DID NOT STEEE-RIKE THE SATURDAY "B" GAME FROM THE RECORD! THREE VETERANS, INDEPENDENTLY, CAME THRU IN THE CLUTCH. HERE ARE THEIR INTERPRETATIONS OF GAME 66B.

Game 66B Saturday 10.16.21 KPP3 BY NO ONE, THEN BY GORDON, THEN BY BRUCE, THEN BY DAN.
LSMFT BUT I'M NOT SURE IF I'M ALLOWED TO WRITE THAT BUT I GOT NOTHING ELSE.

Game 66B Saturday 10.16.21 KPP3 BY NO ONE, THEN BY GORDON, THEN BY BRUCE, THEN BY DAN.
LSMFT BUT I'M NOT SURE IF I'M ALLOWED TO WRITE THAT BUT I GOT NOTHING ELSE.

BY GORDON

It was a beautiful early October morning. The sun was strong and the changing leaves brilliant surrounding the field at Kings Point Park. Equally as brilliant was the side-making of Captain Bruce who divided up the 15 combatants for what turned out to be a spirited affair.

The hill was populated by two cagey veterans, the Danimal vs. the southpaw Bruce. It also featured the return of the venerable Marty, playing for the first time since his replacement. And his return was magnificent as he crushed a line drive to left in his first at bat. This stroke of genius was pivotal as the Danimals took an early lead. But the Brucemeisters would not be denied, led by an explosive display of hitting by Mike G. who launched not one, not two but three four baggers including a laser to the left field parking lot.

But the Danimals were dogmatic and when Jeff put the Bash in Baskin, two runners were plated and the Basher stood on second. Couple that with Al Z.'s five hits and the rest of the firepower unleashed by Barry D, Cliff, Joe, Gordon and Dan, all the Brucesters could do was try to stay close. And they did. Steve had multiple hits including a moon shot over the right fielder's head. And Gary Ch. stroked five hits. Hugh, Dina, Bruce and Eric also pounded the stuffing out of the ball but in the end, the Danimals prevailed.

10 D / 12 B in 11 innings by Bruce

The best highlight of the game was the return of Big Marty from knee replacement surgery. Marty K. who wore a knee brace but didn't seem to need it as he peppered the ball to all fields and played a flawless first base.

The star of the game for slugging of Mike G. who hit 3 home runs.

The defensive stars were Dina and Joe S. as usual.

From this reporter's point of view, the best thing about this game was the joy of playing a short-handed 7 on 8 game. The level of cooperation needed to pull this off was tremendous. Thanks to everyone who showed up.

By Dan

Additional highlights include a drive with an exit velocity of 200 by Bruce that nearly decapitated Dan. Jeff made a great play on a potential Texas Leaguer by Mike G to finally get him out. Barry starred at second base for both teams.

Game 67 at Allenwood 10.17.21 reinvented by Gordon
In addition to the previously sent Sunday highlights, Gordon writes: "He (the Commishugana) states that there were 7 players and then names 6. Who does he leave off? Yes sir, give that man a cigar. I'm surprised since I (Gordon*) carried the team with a triple, homer, 6 hits in 6 at bats"

Commishugana's comment: Hopefully delusions are not catching. However umpiring catchers are often delusional.

Game 68A Saturday 10.23.21 KPP5 HANDED IN by Mike Spiel

A LOW RUN, 3-2, PITCHER'S DUEL THROUGH 7, BUT THEN HOMIES GAIN THE UPPER HAND AND WIN QUITE HANDILY.

It was a close game for a while, when the Koch's erupted for 10 runs in the bottom of the 8th that turned a 4-2 deficit into a 12-4 lead. They went on to beat the Z's 15-6. 3 hit games by Marc L, Alex, Mike G, Jack and Jon P for the Koch's. Kono led the Z's with 3 hits. Multiple web gems by Mike G at 3b, Alex made a great play up the middle at SS taking away a hit. Mike S turned 3 nifty 6-6-3 double plays at SS. Lee made a terrific play on a tough hop grounder at 2b. Matt made two nice one hop picks on errant throws at 1b.

Game 68B Saturday 10.23.21 KPP3

EVERYONE PUT YOUR HANDS TOGETHER FOR DINA, WHO SLUGGED 5 STRAIGHT HARD, CLEAN, LEGITIMATE HITS IN HER FIRST 5 AT BATS!

SING RETURNS FROM NORTH CAROLINA FOR A VISIT. HE HAS NO TROUBLE FINDING THE FIELD. HE KNOWS IT LIKE THE BACK OF HIS HAND.

GIVE A HAND TO ALAN Z, WHO QUIETLY BANGED 4 HITS.
HUGH LENT A HUGE HELPING HAND TO HIS TEAM'S CAUSE, WITH 5 HITS, INCLUDING A HOMER.

HANDS DOWN THE BEST WEBGEM OF THE GAME WAS A RUNNING CATCH BY GORDO, WHO WANTS TO TRY HIS HAND AS GN PARK COMMISSIONER, IN LF. I HANDED OUT THE NOMINATION PETITION ON SUNDAY FOR HIM.
HE ALSO COLLECTS 4 HITS, THE MOST BY ANY PARK COMMISSIONER. WILL HE BE A HANDS ON COMMISSIONER? THAT REMAINS TO BE SEEN.

YOU HAVE TO HAND IT TO GARY CHARNEY ONCE AGAIN. HE HAD A GREAT DAY WITH 4 HITS, 3 WALKS AND SEVERAL FINE PLAYS IN LF.

IF WE HAD CHEERLEADERS THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN DOING HANDSTANDS OVER THE OFFENSIVE DAYS THAT LEFT-HANDERS STEVE HERSHON AND CLIFF HAD, EACH CRASHED 4 HITS. ON THE OTHER HAND THE CHEERLEADERS WOULD ALSO HAVE BEEN DOING HANDSTANDS OVER THE OFFENSIVE 4 HIT DAY THAT RIGHT-HANDERS ERIC B AND GORDO HAD, INCLUDING A DOUBLE EACH.

SUPER JOE, WHO CONTINUES TO BITE THE HAND THAT FEEDS HIM, HANDS IN HIS USUAL NICE PIECE OF WORK, WITH 3 HITS INCLUDING A SELF IMPOSED DOUBLE AND A HOME RUN.

JEFF BASKIN AT SS, HAD A HAND IN MAKING 2 DPS AT SS. ONE A TAKE IT YOURSELFER 6-6-3. THE OTHER A 4-6-3 ER.

HE ALSO STOPPED A BULLET FROM GOING THROUGH TO THE OF AND RICOCHET-ED IT PERFECTLY TO 2B WITH HIS SOCCER TALENTED FOOT, (HANDS ARE SO YESTERDAY) TO GET THE OUT.

ANDY P HAD A MULTI-HIT DAY AND HANDLED MANY CHANCES WITH CARE, HANDILY AT 2B.

ALTHOUGH I WAS THERE TO SEE THE ACTION FIRST HAND, I PROBABLY MISSED A FEW THINGS. APOLOGIES ANYTHING OMITTED, BUT I WASH MY HANDS OF ALL BLAME FOR ANY MISTAKES THAT I MADE

IT TURNED OUT TO BE A GOOD, FAIRLY LOW SCORING, COMPETITIVE GAME, THANKS TO THE FINE UNDERHANDED PITCHING BY DAN AND BRUCE

WITH ALMOST ALL HANDS ON DECK, (23 of the signed up 24) A GAME THAT SEEMED TO HAVE GOTTEN OUT OF HAND WITH A 11-3 SCORE GOING INTO BOT 7, BECOMES A CLASSIC GNSB COMEBACK, AS IF THERE WAS SOME GUIDING HAND DIRECTING THE OUTCOME. BUT YOU REALLY HAVE TO GIVE THE HOME TEAM CREDIT FOR NOT THROWING THEIR HANDS UP IN DEFEAT AFTER AN EARLY GAME FLURRY OF MISCUES AND MISPLAYS, WHICH IS LIKE GIVING HANDOUTS TO THE OTHER TEAM, MINUS THE OUTS. ROB, ZIGGY, KENNY, AND KONO EACH SLUGGED 3 OR MORE HITS. GORDO HAD A BIG 2 RBI BLAST AND J-RO HAD A HUGE 2 RBI TRIPLE EARLY IN THE GAME. JACK MADE A WEBGEM IN RF FOR THE OTHER TEAM AND HIS JOHNER WEB-GEMMED BY OUTSTRETCHING HIS GLOVE HAND ON A MISSILE LAUNCHED TO THE MOUND. BUT HANDS DOWN, IN A PERFORMANCE THAT MIGHT BE IMPOSSIBLE TO RE-PETE, THE MVP-ETE WAS PETE, THE TOR-PETE-O, WITH 4 HITS AND 7 RBI, INCLUDING A 2 RUN HOMER AND A CLUTCH LATE GAME, GRAND SALAMI WHICH BROUGHT THE HOME TEAM ALL THE WAY BACK AND SET THE STAGE FOR STEVE HER-O-SHON TO DRIVE IN THE WINNING RUN WITH A RBI WALK-OFF LASER TO RF.

EXCITEMENT AND GNSB JUST GO HAND IN HAND.

GORDON WHO BIKED OVER TO THE FIELD, WHICH MEANT HE USED HAND BREAKS AND HANDLEBARS, MAY RUN FOR PARK COMMISSIONER. PLEASE ARRANGE WITH ME TO SIGN HIS NOMINATION PETITION. HE NEEDS TO GET IT IN REAL SOON. YOU HAVE TO BE A GNPD RESIDENT.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO BRUCE WHO SUPPLIED US WITH HEALTHIER SNACKS. IN FACT, HE TOOK THE DO OUT OF DONUTS TO PROVIDE MANY PACKETS OF NUTS, WHICH WASS THE RIGHT THING TO DO.

YOUR VERY HANDSOME COMMISSIONER.
ANY COMPLAINTS? TALK TO THE HAND.

LUIS PROVED TO BE A GRAVE YARD SMASH WITH HIS UNEARTHLY 6 HITS INCLUDING A MONSTER MASH TO CF THAT ALMOST FELL OFF THE DEEP END IN CF PLUS A DOUBLE ALMOST AS FAR.

KONO'S BLOOD CURDLING 6 HITS WERE ALSO SOMETHING TO SCREAM ABOUT.

THERE WERE 2 SPOOKTACULAR, GHOUL-DEN GLOVE DP'S MADE. A ROB W AT 2B, TAKE IT YOURSELFER 4-4-3 TO STEVE H AND A LEDER TO BRYAN B TO BRUCER 1-6-3

GOURD-ON TORMENTED THE OPPOSITION WITH SEVERAL GHOUL-DEN GLOVE SPIDER WEBGEMS, IN FRONT OF THE MONOLITHIC, CEMENT TOMBSTONE IN CF.

ZIGGY PROVED TO BE A DREADED, CURSE FOR THE OPPOSITION AS HE CARVED OUT 4 HITS TO RF

MARIO PROVIDED MORE CHILLS AND SPILLS WITH A BIG 2 RBI DOUBLE, DEEP INTO DEAD CENTER

LEDER, NOT ONLY PRACTICED EVIL, PITCH-CRAFT AND PARALYZED BATS WITH FEAR, BUT HE CONTINUED HIS ASSAULT ON THE RF FENCE AND THE ENEMY DE-FENCE WITH OFF-THE-FENCERS, OVER-THE- FENCERS AND FOR THE FIRST TIME EVER, A STUCK- TO- THE FENCER FOR 3 DOUBLES. I'M NOT SURE IF WE CAN CALL THE LAST ONE A GROUND RULE DOUBLE SINCE IT NEVER HIT THE GROUND.

Big thanks to Juan Plata for coming out to umpire while recuperating from his LURKING injury. HE SHOULD BE A ROLE MODEL TO ALL.

THANK YOU TO BRUCE FOR ALERTLY TAKING THE FENCE CLIMBING PHOTOS.

SEE EVERYONE NEXT WEEKEND FOR OUR RECORD SETTING 123RD CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR PLAY

NOTHING PREVENTS THE FLOW OF CONSECUTIVE, OUTDOOR, MONTHS TO GNSB PLAY AS MONTH 123 WAS DELIVERED WITHOUT DISRUPTION TO THE GN BALLFIELDS.
WE ALSO BROKE THE RECORD, THIS WEEKEND, FOR PAID UP GNSB PLAYERS, IN A SINGLE SEASON. WE NOW HAVE 111. AS WE WELCOME ROGER KASS AND MARK KAROW TO THE GNSB FAM.

Game 72 A/B mix Saturday 11.6.21 KPP3
SHORTAGE OF PLAYERS FROM THE SUPPLY CHAIN CAUSES AN A/B BLEND SEVERAL PLAYERS REPORTED TO HAVE STAYED HOME DUE TO A SHORTAGE OF DEGREES AND NO SHORTAGE OF BLUE FROST ON THE FIELD. (SEE ATTACHMENTS)

THERE WAS NO SHORTAGE OF HITS IN THE SUPPLY CHAIN FOR MIKE SPIEL, JON PAISNER OR BRYAN BLACK, ALL OF WHOM HAD 3 FOR THE WINNING CAUSE.

OTHER BIG TIME IMPORTANT CLUTCH HITS WERE SUPPLIED, WITHOUT ANY DISRUPTION, BY:

GORDO WITH AN RBI 3B AND A 1B
MATT WITH AN RBI 1B
ROOKIE MARK K WITH A RBI 1B
HIS JOHNER, MARK L, HUGH, MIKE G AND MARIO.

THERE WAS NO SHORTAGE OF AGED PLAYERS. EXACTLY 50% WERE OVER 60!

THERE WAS A LOW SUPPLY OF RUNS AND LOADED BASES SITTING IN SHIPPING CONTAINERS NEVER MADE IT ONTO THE FIELD THANKS TO THE PITCHING OF HIS JOHNER, WHO ALLOWED JUST 5 RUNS TO THE HOMEO-PATHETICS.

SEVERAL DEFENSIVE WEB GEMS CAUSED A SHORTAGE OF RUNS
DINA MAKES A GEM AT 2B ON A LINER THAT WOULD HAVE SUPPLIED MORE RUNS TO THE VIZZIES.
JACK GUNNED DOWN A RUNNER AT HOME WITH JEFF MAKING THE TAG.

HUGH MADE A SENSATIONAL GRAB IN RF WHILE COLLIDING WITH JACK IN A SCARY SCENE.

ALAN Z MADE MANY FINE PLAYS AT 2B CAUSING LOADS OF RUNS TO BE STRANDED ON OFF-SHORE HIT BAR-RA-GES

PLAYERS MADE ME PROMISE THAT I WOULD SUPPLY A REPORT STATING THAT I MADE A GOOD PLAY IN LF, THUS I MADE A DECENT PLAY. BUT I WON'T GIVE MY NAME.

Game 73 Sunday 11.7.21 Allenwood

FINE PITCHING BY HIS JOHNER AND MARK LEDER, PLUS A SCARCITY OF ERRORS CAUSED LOW RUN PRODUCTION DESPITE THE INTENSE DEMAND.

A GLUT OF WEB-GEMS ARE FOUND AT THE ALLENWOOD MINES, WHICH HAVE NEGATIVE EFFECTS ON RUN PRODUCTION.

ED I SNARED A FROZEN ROPED, DEATH RAY TO 3B WITH A MAJESTIC, SNO-CONE-ER.
JACK IN RF, ZAPPED A RUNNER AT 2B. CONVERTING A SURE BASE HIT INTO A FORCE OUT.
BRYAN TOOK A RUN OUT OF CIRCULATION WITH A SNAG AT A BALL DEEP IN THE HOLE AT SS ACCOMPANIED BY A BULLET THROW TO 1B.

GARY CHA, CHA CHASED DOWN A BALL, OVER HIS HEAD IN SHORT CF IN A CRUCIAL SITUATION.

ERIC THE RED UNIFORM STOP A FLIGHT RISK OF A MISSILE IN MID-AIR AT 2B.

MIKE SP RAN WELL BEHIND 3B FROM SS TO SEND BACK A HIT AND EXCHANGE IT FOR AN OUT.

LEDER SHIPPED A BALL TO DEEP SPACED CF, ONLY TO HAVE BARRY SEND IT BACK AS AN OUT.

THE HIGH DEMAND FOR RUNS WAS ALLEVIATED BY:
- SAC FLIES FROM KONO AND ERIC THE RED UNIFORM.
- A HOME RUN AND RBI B-HIT FROM BRYAN, WHO'S B. AVG WAS ONCE AGAIN KEPT HIS TEAM IN THE BLACK.
- A MARIO TRIPLE.
- MULTI-HIT GAMES FROM ZIGGY, ROOKIE ROGER, AND J-RO
- HITS FROM BARRY AND MIKE

BUT THE HIGHEST PRICED HITS CAME FROM:
- ROB W, WHO TIED THE GAME AT 5-5, WITH A SMASH TO RCF.
- GORDON, WHO GLUTTED THE RUN AND RBI MARKET WITH 4 HITS INCLUDING A HOME RUN TO RF AND A MONSTER TRIPLE UP THE PEAK IN LF, THAT COULD'VE BEEN A HOMER, AND TWO SIZZLING SINGLES. CREDIT HIM WITH TODAY'S IMAGINARY MVP AWARD. JOHN HUNT OBSERVED THAT "RODE TO THE GAME ON HIS BICYCLE AND ALMOST HIT FOR THE CYCLE."
- JACK WHO WON THE GAME WITH A WALK-OFF BASE HIT UP THE MIDDLE AS AN OVERABUNDANCE OF TENSION AND EXCITEMENT LAY STOCKPILED IN THE DUGOTS

A SHORTAGE OF SHORT-AGED PEOPLE WAS OBSERVED! LONG AGED PLAYERS GREATLY OUTNUMBERED THEM. 17 OF 23 WERE OVER 60 YRS. OLD. WHAT UP WITH THAT YOUNGSTERS?

WE OLDIES, ALWAYS HAVE A DOC STOCK PILE OF APPTS.

THE WAS NO SHORTAGE OF COMPLAINTS, OF COURSE.

THOUGH THIS WEEKEND, WE SEEM TO HAVE RUN OUT OF RUNS, ITS BETTER THAN HAVING TOO MANY CASES OF THE RUNS.

STEVE HERSHON LEFT HIS 1ST BASEMAN'S MITT AT THE SCHOOLYARD LAST SUNDAY. IF YOU KNOW OF ITS WHEREABOUTS PLEASE LET US KNOW!!!

I APOLOGIZE FOR ANYTHING THAT I MISSED DUE TO A VERY SHORT SUPPLY OF MEMORY CHIPS LEFT IN THE GARY, GRAY MATTER.

INTEREST IN A VETERAN'S DAY GAME THIS THURSDAY? 2 PLAYER SHAVE INQUIRED. I'LL PUT IT UP ON TEAMCOWBOY TONIGHT. IF WE HAVE A VIABLE 18 OR MORE, WE'LL PLAY.

Game 75 A/B mix Saturday 11.13.21 SCHOOLYARD

RISING SEA LEVELS ON KPP FORCE GAME TO BE PLAYED ON HIGHER PLAYGROUNDS.

HOME TEAM IS IN A WINNNG CLIMATE FOR THE FIRST 8 INNINGS, BUT THEN THE CLIMATE CHANGED.

MEANWHILE HIS JOHNER DEDICATES INNINGS 1,2,4,6,7,8,9 AS 0-8,9 AS 0-ZONES, WHILE HIS TEAMMATES' BATS BECOME HOTTER THAN A CALIFORNIA WILDFIRE. BUT THE CLIMATE ALMOST CHANGED BACK AGAIN WITH TYING RUN AT THE PLATE IN THE FINAL INNING.

MIKE GOLDFEDER, MIKE GOLDFEDER.
HE'S DOUBLED UP BECAUSE HE DOUBLED IN 3 OF HIS UPS.

TOP PLAYER, BRYAN BLACK FLOODS THE BLACKTOP WITH 3 HITS AND A SAC FLY

LUIS LAUNCHES A 2 RIBBY, HEAT SEEKING, GLACIER MELTING, HOME RUN OVER THE CF FENCE.

ARIK'S BAT EMISSIONS DO NOT DIMINISH, AS HE FOSSIL FUELS A 2 RIBBY, ICE SHEET MELTING, HOME RUN OVER THE CF FENCE.

VIN, THE LATE-Y BUG, CONTRIBUTES TO GLOBAL WARMING, WITH HIS HIT PRODUCING, RED HOT BAT.

LEE AND MATT R EACH BIOFUEL THEIR TEAM'S OFFENSE WITH DOUBLES.

Game 76 Sunday 11.14.21 SCHOOLYARD

THE CLIMATE CHANGES 5 TIMES AS THE LEAD SWITCHES BACK AND FORTH.
DESPITE ATTEMPTS TO KEEP BAT-TEMPS COOL, THEY RISE, AS MANY PLAYERS ON BOTH TEAMS HAVE 4 HIT DAYS.

ARIK SOLAR-POWERS A SOLO HOMER HIGH OVER THE FENCE AND THEN CONTINUES TO HIT FOR THE CYCLE, JUST TO CUT DOWN ON GREENHOUSE GASSES.

ED I. SLUGS 4 SINGLES PLUS MAKES A LEAPING WEB GEM AT 2B HIGH ABOVE THE RISING SEA LEVELS.

J-RO HAS 4 BIG HITS WELL OUT OF REACH FROM THE RANGE FREE OUTFIELDERS

MARIO LEFT HIS CARBON FOOT PRINTS ALL OVER THE FIELD AS HE FOOT SPRINTED AROUND THE BASES FOR TWO TRIPLES AND A DOUBLE.

DEMONSTRATING RENEWABLE ENERGY, ROB, BOBBY, JACK, MATT R, AND GORDO, ALSO HAD BIG MULTI-HIT GAMES PROVING THAT 60+ YEAR OLDS AIN'T EXTINCT YET.

NICE GUY BRYAN BLACK MAKES THE CASE THAT SHRINKING NICE-BERGS ARE A MYTH AS HE COOLY PLAYS A NICE SS, HAS A FEW NICE HITS AND HIS 2ND SAC FLY OF THE WEEKEND, MAKING HIM GNSB'S SAC-SIEST MAN OF THE WEEKEND.

STEVE HERSHON HAD A NUMBER OF SOLID SMACKS AND THREW OUT A RUNNER AT HOME TO TURN A DP

LEE HAD A MULTI-HIT DAY WHICH INCLUDED A TRIPLE TO THE MELTING POLAR ICE CAP IN CF.

LEDER COOLED OFF HOT BATS WITH HIS 1ST HALF, BUT NOT HALF ASSED, PITCHING PEERFORMANCE, WHICH INCLUDED STARTING A 1-3-2 DP. THEN WHEN SWITCHED TO RCF HE MADE 8 PUTOUTS IN THE 2ND HALF. PLUS HE THREW OUT A RUNNER AT 2B!
IN ADDITION, THE SNEAKER COLLECTOR, AKA THE BEE-COLOGIST, HAD A MULTI-HIT GAME, INCLUDING AN OFF-THE-POLE-FENCER IN RCF.

THERE WERE NO OIL WELLS IN SITE TO WARM THE PLANET BUT THERE WERE A FEW WELL OILED DOUBLE PLAYS.
ARIK TO PETE 5-5-2
ARIK TO BRUCE TO ALAN 5-4-3
LEDER TO STEVE H TO JOE R 1-3-2
LEDER TO BRYAN 9-6 ON A FLY BALL

NO TREES WERE CUT DOWN IN THE MAKING OF THESE HIGHLIGHTS BUT A FEW WERE BADLY DAMAGED BY BATTED BALLS.

CORRECTION FROM LAST SUNDAY: STEVE HALPERIN SHOWED WHY HE WAS THE QUINTESSENTIAL HITTER IN THE VETERAN'S DAY GAME AS HE DELIVERED A QUINTET OF HITS.

Special recognition to Pete and Joe R, who caught all game for their teams today, despite being over 60.

Reminder: We start playing at 9am for the rest of the year into Spring this coming weekend 11/20.

Save the date: April 10, 2022. We will be playing BEEPER BALL vs. a team of blind players called the BOMBERS in a very publicized game. It will take place right after our usual game @ Memorial Field IN GREAT NECK. The press will be present.

Game 77 A/B MERGE Saturday 11.20.21 KPP5

HIGHLIGHTS AS SEEN IN THE REAR VIEW MIRROR

24 PLAYERS PUT THEIR CARS IN KP PARK.

WHILE OPPOSING BATS IDLED, THE ZEEITY SHOWING NO SIGNS OF TIRE, STEERS HIS TEAM TO VICTORY AS HE KEEPS THEIR RUNS ON EMPTY FOR 7 INNINGS IN TANDEM. HE YIELDS JUST 2 RUNS IN 11 INNINGS.

IT WAS A CRUSH HOUR FOR BRYAN B AS HE FAN BELTED A LONG DRIVE TO THE OPPOSITE FIELD AND MOTORED AROUND THE BASES BEFORE FINALLY PUTTING ON THE SKIDS AT 3B.

RICH CONNORS GIVES A CLINCHER A TURBO CHARGED, SWEET RIDE INTO DEEP LF FOR A DOUBLE.

ED H COMBUSTS A DOUBLE HIGH OFF THE LFS GLOVE.

WHENEVER IT WAS A HUGH-TURN AT BAT IT WAS HUGHSUALLY PRODUCTIVE.

SIX CHOOSE TO WALK INSTEAD OF TO DRIVE.

WHEN THE GOLD GLOVE COMPARTMENT WAS OPENED, INSIDE WE SAW:

- A GEM BELONGING TO CLIFF IN SCF ON A HIGH OCTANE BLAST FROM ED.
- A LEAPING GEM ON A FUEL INJECTED BULLET TO 2B FROM JON SPIEL
- SEVERAL CLUTCH PLAYS AT 3B BY MIKE G.
- A RUNNING JEWEL BELONGING TO BRYAN, WHILE USING HIS BACK UP CAMERA AT SS ON A POP OVER 3B, WHICH PUT THE BRAKES ON A POTENTIAL BIG INNING.
- A SCENIC 4-6-3 DOUBLE PLAY: JONATHON SP TO BRYAN TO STEVE HERSHON.
- IT WAS HARD TO CURB THE ENTHUSIASM FOR A THROW OUT AT THE PLATE BY MATT R. AT A CRUCIAL TIME

Game 78 Sunday 11.21.21 Gasoline Alleywood

A NEWLY REGERBRISHED DAVE GERBER RETURNS TO ACTION 5 MONTHS AFTER BRAKING HIS LEG. IT WAS GREAT TO SEE HIM BACK!!! HE CAN STILL SHELL-AC THE BALL AS HE DRIVES THEM DEEP INTO THE OUTFIELD, TODAY'S GAME DEFINITELY GETS A TRIPLE A RATING.

THANKS TO AN OILY START, GREAT DEFENSIVE DIVING AND HIGH PERFORMANCE PITCHING, THE GAME GOES 15 INNINGS IN REGULATION TIME, TO SET A NEW GNSB RECORD.
WITH THE SCORE TIED 3-3 GOING INTO BOT 15, BEFORE THE RALLY FLAG HAD A CHANCE TO BE UNFURLED, JON SPIEL SMASHES A FIELDER'S BUMPER, THEN VIA A SERIES ACCIDENTS AND MISHAPS IS GIVEN A FREE TICKET TO RIDE AROUND THE BASES AT 100 MILES PER HOUR TO GET HOME IN TIME FOR WINNER, WALKING OFF IN FRONT OF HIS CHEERING TEAMMATES WHO WERE SITTING IN THE REST STOP, AS HE BURST THE AIR BAGS OF THE VISITING TEAM.

KUDOS TO THE SIDEMAKERS WHO KEPT THE GAME'S TIRES INCREDIBLY IN BALANCE.

KUDOS TO BOTH MARK LEDER AND JOHN HUNT FOR NOT ONLY HAVING ENOUGH GAS IN THEIR TANKS TO PITCH 15 INNINGS, BUT FOR DOING IT EXTREMELY WELL RESULTING IT VERY INTERMITTENT HITTING WITH FEW ENGINE KNOCKS. NO MORE THAN 1 RUN WAS SCORED IN ANY OF THE 30 OFFENSIVE INNINGS. THE REST WERE WINDOW WIPERED CLEAN WITH ZEROS. HIGHLIGHTED BY THE JUDGE'S K OF A BIG TIME SWATTER IN A CLUTCH SITUATION

SEVERAL DPS HELPED.

6-6-3 JOHNNY V TAKE YOURSELFER - DAVE G
4-6-3 ED I - JOHNNY V- DAVE G

THOUGH MOST BATS HAD THEIR MUFFLERS ON, THERE WERE SOME NOISY HITS FROM LEDER (DOUBLE), ROB, GORDON, BARRY, DOUG, BRYAN. TWO SAC FLIES THE LOOMED LARGE IN THIS LOW SCORER. BOTH J-RO AND JON SP DROVE HOME CRUCIAL RUNS WITH LONG DRIVES.

THANKS TO ALL WHO DONATED OLD SNEAKERS FOR MARK L'S CHARITY. HE'LL BE COLLECTING UNTIL 11/24. HIS CELL AN EMAIL ARE ON TC.

Game 80 A/B MERGE Saturday 11.27.21 KPP5
AS MANY LAZY BONES SLUMBERED, HERE'S WHAT TRANSPIRED, ACCORDING TO WHAT WAS REMEMBERED

2O PLAYERS WEATHERED THE WEATHER

THE HOME TEAM WAS IN THE BLACK 3-1, UNTIL TOP 5, BUT FELL INTO THE RED WHEN THE VISITING NURSES REDISTRIBUTED THEIR RUNS AND SCORED 4. THE HOMIES, CROSSED AT BEING RED, TIED UP THE NURSES AND BROKE EVEN IN BOT 5, ONLY TO SEE THEIR RUNS OUTNUMBERED FOR THE REST OF THE GAME AND TO GET CONQUERED 12-7

HIS JOHNER SNAGGED A BALL HAMMERED TO THE MOUND, THAT ALMOST SHEARED HIM IN HALF AND TURNED IT INTO A DP. BOTH HIS JOHNER AND Z DELIVERED BASE HITS TO HELP THEIR TEAM'S CAUSE.

LEE SPREAD BASE HITS ALL OVER THE FIELD. WHEN THE GAME TIME EXPIRED HE A DOUBLE, A TRIPLE, 2 SINGLES AND SEVERAL RBI.

LUIS ABSOLUTELY CLOBBERED THE BALL 4 TIMES FOR SOME HUGE BASE HITS, INCLUDING A 2B AND MANY RBI.

IT WAS A RED LETTER DAY FOR BRIAN S, WHO REACHED BASE SUCCESSFULLY 5 TIMES.

GORDO, WHO AFTER A REDUNDANT AMOUNT OF FOUL BALLS, CAUSING AN INORDINATE AMOUNT OF BAT REDOS, FINALLY READ BETWEEN THE LINES AND WAS ABLE TO READJUST ENOUGH TO HAVE A MULTI-HIT GAME INCLUDING A DOUBLE, AFTER REDOUBLING HIS EFFORTS.

EXTRA, EXTRA READ ALL ABOUT IT. EXTRA BASE HITS WERE ALSO POWERED BY JON SP AND HUGH BOTH WITH 2BS

A PRETTY 4-6-3 DP JON SP TO BRYAN BLACK TO STEVE H REDUCED THE VISITING RUN OUTPUT.

ROLL OUT THE RED CARPT FOR MARK LEDER WHO SCHMEARED A MASSIVE TRIPLE TO LCF

VINNY BATTS GOT REDEMPTION AS HE ROSE TO THE OCCASION AND MADE AN IRONIC RUNNING WEB GEM TO END THE GAME.

17 HARDY BOYS GATHERED AMIDST THE FLURRIES, READY TO PLAY. HERE'S WHAT OCCURRED

PLATA RETURNED AFTER MANY A MONTH, STILL IN HIS 19 YEAR OLD CAMEL HAIRED, THOUGH FAR FROM THREADBARE, MOCHA COLORED, CASHMIRE, DOUBLY LINED FLEECE AND DELIVERED THE BEST LINE OF THE MORNING. UNFORTUNATELY IT MUST BE CENSORED. MORE IMPORTANTLY HE MADE A FINE PLAY IN RF AND LINED A DOUBLE.

PETE IS DECLARED TODAY'S MVP WITH 5 HITS INCLUDING 2 HOME RUNS, WHICH CLEARED THE BASES AND A SAC FLY!

THE GAME ALSO FEATURED FEATS BY:

JACK, WHO PLASTERED BOTH A TRIPLE AND A HOME RUN INTO THE RCF GAPS, BEYOND THE WINGSPREAD OF ANY OUTFIELDER AND THREW OUT RUNNERS AT 2B TWICE TURNING WHAT NORMALLY WOULD HAVE BEEN BASE HITS INTO FIELDER'S CHOICES. BECAUSE OF THAT, 3 WOULD BE HITS TO THE OUTFIELD, BY YOUR COMMISHUGANA IN A ROW, BECAME FIELDER'S CHOICES. IN HIS 4TH TIME UP HE HIT INTO JUST A NORMAL FC. I ONLY MENTION IT BECAUSE ITS PROBABLY A GNSB RECORD.

DAVE GERBER, WHO'S BEEN BACK JUST A COUPLE OF WEEKS, INSPIRED US ALL BY GOING 6 FOR 8 INCLUDING A TRIPLE.

MARIO FIRED 2 MISSILES WHICH SOARED INTO THE SPACES BETWEEN OUTFIELDERS FOR A DOUBLE AND A TRIPLE, AS HIS TEAMMATES CHEERED.

BRYAN WHO IS ALWAYS BLACK AND ALWAYS WHITE, BUT NEVER RED ALL OVER UNLESS HE RUNS THROUGH A FIELD OF 7 FOOT POISIN IVY VINES, BECOMES A SUPER SPREADER OF HITS WITH 4 IN ALL. HE ALSO GEMS AT SS ON A BALL UP THE MIDDLE, TO STEAL A HIT, WHICH WAS A DREADFUL DISAPPOINTMENT TO THE BATTER.

ED I PLAYED A REMARKABLE SS WHICH GREATLY HINDERED THE OPPOSITION'S HIT PRODUCTION AND PREVENTED THE HOMEBREDS FROM GETTING TOTALLY MASSACRED.

GORDON REDACTED A POTENTIAL RUN FROM THE SCOREBOARD WITH HIS THROW TO THE PLATE WHICH GOT THE RUNNER BY A HAIRBREADTH. HE ALSO HOMERED

MATT R AIRED A TRIPLE AND FLARED A COUPLE MORE BASE HITS.

DESPITE THE MCFLURRIES, CLOUDS, AND RELATIVELY LOW TURNOUT, A GOOD TIME WAS HAD FOR SURE. IT WAS A LOW PRESSURED AFFAIR WITH NOBODY GETTING INJURED AND NO ONE CARED IF ANYBODY ERRED.

RED ALERT!!!

PLEASE RED FLAG THESE RED LETTER DATES:

- PARK DISTRICT ELECTION, DECEMBER 14. GORDON WILL HAVE ABSENTEE/EARLY ELECTION BALLOTS.
- BEEPER BALL VS LONG ISLAND BOMBERS APRIL 10, 2022 AT 10:15

TODAY'S THEME IS DEDICATED TO THE GENEROSITY OF MARK "HONEY BOY" LEDER WHO RESEARCHED, BACK -YARD PRODUCED, AND DISTRIBUTED JARS OF HONEY TO PLAYERS LAST SUNDAY

Game 84 A/B Sunday 12.12.21 ALLENWOOD

ZIG HAD A HONEY BUNCH OF HITS - 5 IN ALL, INCLUDING A DOUBLE AFTER WHICH HE SAID HONEY I'M HOME BY TAGGING 2 BASES ON A MONSTER SACRIFICE BY LUIS THAT WAS CAUGHT DEEP INTO THE CF LAND OF MILK AND HONEY.

ED I. FLOATED ONE OVER THE LEFT FIELDER'S HEAD THAT STUNG LIKE A BEE FOR A TRIPLE IN ADDITION TO 2 OTHER HITS. PLUS HE FIRED A BEE-BEE GUN TO CUT DOWN A RUNNER TRYING TO REACH HOME SWEET HOME.

J-RO EXPERIENCED THE TASTE OF BASE HIT HONEY 4 TIMES INCLUDING A RCF TRIPLE. PLUS HE MADE A HONEY OF A RUNNING GEM IN FOUL TERRITORY BY 1B.

JACKIE GLEASON WOULD HAVE DESCRIBED MARIO'S SWING BY SAYING HOW SWEET IT WAS, AFTER SEEING HIM USE HIS BAT'S SWEET SPOT TO BANG OUT 4 HITS.

SWEET LUIS SNAGGED A BALL TRYING TO MAKE A BEE-LINE FOR THE LEFT FIELD LINE.

PLATA, WEARING HIS CLASSIC HONEY COLORED FLEECE, MADE AN UN-BEE-LIEVABLE CATCH IN SCF ON A BALL THAT LOOKED LIKE A BEE GOING TO A HONEY POT.

BRYAN BLACK, INITIALED BEE-BEE, HAD A MULTI-HITTER INCLUDING A TRIPLE TO THE GREAT BEE-YOND.

GORDO PUT SOME HONEY MUSTARD ON SEVERAL BALLS FOR A MULTI-HIT GAME.

LUIS SAW THE BALL LIKE A HONEY DEW MELON AND LAUNCHED A MULTIPLE BALLS OVER THE HONEYMOON FOR 2 HITS PLUS A SAC.

SETH K THREW AWAY THE VINEGAR AND TOOK OUT THE HONEY TO CATCH MORE FLIES THAN ANYONE IN THE OUTFIELD PLUS HAD A POLY-HITTER AT THE PLATE.

ERIC THE UNIFORM WANNA-BEE, STEVE H SLUGGED A HONEY OF A DOUBLE.

LEDER BEE HIVED HIMSELF FOR THE MOST PART, BUT FOR MOST INNINGS HE GAVE UP NUTTIN' HONEY, AS FAR AS RUNS.

DESPITE THE COMPETITIVE SPIRIT BETWEEN THE TEAMS WE DEPARTED IN SUCH SWEET SORROW AT THE END

BIG THANK YOU TO JACK AND BOBBY WHO SCOUTED OUT THE CONDITIONS OF THE DIAMONDS ON THEIR FREE OWN TIME AND ENABLED THE BEST POSSIBLE DECISION ABOUT WHETHER TO AND WHERE TO PLAY THIS WEEKEND.

THANK YOU TO ALL VOLUNTEER UMPIRES, WHO BRAVELY FACE INEVITABLE DISAGREEMENT AND DISTURBING ATTITUDES.

THANK YOU TO SIDE-MAKERS, BRUCE, BOBBY, AND MIKE AND SOMETIMES OTHERS, WHO GET THERE EXTRA EARLY AND ALMOST ALWAYS SUCCEED IN MAKING EXTREMELY EVEN, COMPETITIVE, EXCITING GAMES.

ON BEHALF OF THE 111 GNSB MEMBERS, WE APPRECIATE IT.

Have a good week all. Don't forget to vote tomorrow.

Game 84 Sunday 12.19.21 ALLENWOOD

SOFTBALLGRADA FAMILIA.

23 MACCHU PICCHU MEN. a literal PANTHEON of softball stars, that belong on the Allen WOOD WALK OF FAME, braved the elements and turned out today.

Chuck the fan came to watch and he really saw REALLY SAW AN EIFFEL .

It was MT. CRUSHMORE time for MARK Leder who had a LANDMARK of a day. 5 times he hit the ball so hard that it left MARKS on the LAND. His hits included 2 doubles, and a triple good for 6 RBI.

Gordo SPANISH STEPPED HIMSELF AROUND THE BASES WITHOUT EVEREST-ing, after belting a colossal 2 RBI, drive, that could have rolled to the THE GREAT NECK WALL OF CHINA had it not been stopped by the GOAL-DEN GATE BRIDGE'S internet connection. His goal was to hit a home run and his home run hit the goal. But there's more to the story.

Prior to his blast, Gordon had reached safely every time up. But a heckler from the bench said to him that he was due for a hit. Gordon replied that the only thing more that he could do for the team was to hit the ball over the left fielder's head. And that's exactly what he did ala, Babe Ruth's famous finger pointing call in 1931. Upon hearing the story Alan Zamchik said it was "Charlopian."

He also made a fine running GOLDEN GATE glover in cf, leaving the batter at the WAILING WALL.

Ya gotta Louvre these stories.
Gary W returning after a 3 month broken finger layoff returns and erupts like MT VESUVIAS at the home PENTAGON. He collects 3 hits including a 2 bagger.

Roy Z returned to the diamond after breaking his leg in two places and having rod inserted, back in late September, collected a couple of hits. He's the ROCK OF GIB-ROY-LTER. His son Johnny also played. He slugged a big triple and made several fine plays on scary balls

The new hipster of the future Bobby W, SQUARED OFF 2 TIMES for ball dropping line drive base hits. It was more exciting than seeing a ball drop in TIMES SQUARE

His Johner must have PETRA-fied the pitcher because he walked 3 times.

Matt R, THE MATTERHORN, now know as the BATTERHORN, provided for more hit-roelectric power than NIAGARA FALLS coming up with 3 safe blasts.

Both Ed I. and Bryan played SS better than 99% of all tourists that have visited the PALACE OF ZOILO VERSAILLES

Bryan B smacked a couple of safeties plus a SACRE COUR fly that could have gone over the WASHINGTON MONUMENT and may have been far enough to have jumped the GRAND CANYON.

Mario Ranieri's name is now a larger than MT RANIER due to his 3 hit day including a 2 run double

Rich Con played a fine RCF stopping several fly balls from entering the FORBIDDEN CITY

Rob W crowded 4 more hits into the GN Softball COLOSSEUM. He really should be charging people a dollar and a half just to see 'em.

The game ended when his Johner who pitched a fantastic game, REACHED UP LIKE THE STATUE OF LIBERTY to snag a rocket to the mound that was enroute to the CF DEATH VALLEY and lead the visitors THRU THE ARC D TRIUMPH. Meanwhile the Home team losers had to pass under the BRIDGE OF SIGHS.

Hey all, If things go according to plan I'll be heading down to Florida this week for about 3 months. Of course you know that I will miss you guys, but I'll leave knowing that the game is in extremely capable hands. I'll still be in touch though, as always. Hopefully the weather will cooperate and you'll get in lots of games this winter. Have a great winter season. Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and stay healthy. See you in the Spring. Please do not send me a dues check via mail until April. Venmo though would be fine.

Game 85 Sunday 12.26.21 ALLENWOOD MAKESHIFT BY GORDON

A seasonably warm Boxing Day saw the Great Neck faithful enjoying the cozy confines of Allenwood Park, albeit on the far side owing to muddy conditions. Jack was Johnny on the spot bringing the needed five bases and Bruce brought the measuring tape and new clinchers and it was game on.

The visitors started off strongly with a triple by the Zig who came around to score. His Johner with some deft fielding by Mike, held them to a lone run. The aforementioned Mr. Spiel then grabbed his aluminum lumber and crushed a bomb to right center and as fast or as slow as he could make it around the bases, the score was tied. Two innings of goose eggs followed until the visitors scratched another run thanks to Ed, Bryan, Steve and Joe, who combined to get across the go-ahead run to take a one run lead.

And in the top of the sixth, Hugh belted a seeing eye triple that plated a pair and the Z's, up by three, were looking to pull away. However, despite solid defense by Jack, who made a tremendous over the shoulder, the home team bats awakened. And Z started to feel the pressure and his control became elusive. This set the stage once again for that man about town, Mr Boxing Day himself, Mike S. who sent a deep drive down the left field line for a triple that cleared the bases. Lou followed with his own meteor shot and the tide had turned. Meantime, the home side displayed some outstanding fielding of their own. Barry made two marvelous plays, one coming in on a Texas leaguer and one ranging to his right to rob Big Dave of extra bases. And as hard as he tried to blunder, Gordon actually caught one that he juggled four times before corralling the elusive clincher. Juan also made an outstanding play as catcher, lunging head first to snarl a soft foul pop. In the bottom of the tenth, the home side iced it with a four pack. The rally was started by the Judge who was relentless, getting on base consistently. Clutch hitting by Rob, Lee, Matt, Ed, Bruce and Gary rounded out the attack. Meanwhile, the visitors could not solve the Judge and his court. Five consecutive scoreless innings later, the visitors were vanquished and the scoreboard read Judge and Co. twelve, the Z's four.
By Gordon

Attached is a video by a pickleball player and long time friend Shlomo, who was spying nearby. My eyes are everywhere. He said you guys were very noisy. I'm sure there's no truth at all to that statement.

Special thanks to Gordon and Bobby who checked out the fields this weekend in their free time and to Jack and Bruce for bringing the necessary supplies for and setting up the makeshift field.

Game 86 Friday 12.31.21 KPP5. See for yourself https://www.facebook.com/rich.connors.35/videos/288440099790647

2022 RANG IN WITH AN ERROR. A BALL WAS DROPPED. THIS IS SYMBOLIC, BECAUSE A GNSB FACT CHECKER FOUND AN ERROR PERTAINING TO OUR STREAK HEADING INTO THE NEW YEAR. EVEN THOUGH WE DID NOT PLAY A JANUARY GAME YET:

THE STREAK'S ALIVE AT ONE TWENTY FIVE!!!

NOT 124. HERE'S WHY:
In March of 2020 our streak had reached 108 consecutive outdoor months. Then the GN Park District shut down all facilities, so we were not allowed to play until August, 2020. When we resumed, I had the streak remaining at 108 throughout August, because I didn't know yet whether we were justified in calling it a consecutive month streak anymore. But considering that the streak ended due to no fault of our own and the months in which we were locked out were prime months in the softball season, in which the streak would have easily continued, everyone felt justified in saying the streak was still alive. However when the decision was reached, I did not back track and add the month to August. Thus our streak is now at 125 and if and when the next January game is played we will be at 126. (10.5 years)

It was ere of New Years and a late addition to the schedule saw a spirited contest played at a soft but not soggy KPP 5. The visitors were led by his Johner and the homies had the Z.

The top of the first saw the visitors plate two with the outstanding play being a head first slide into third by the league's MVS, Hugh. Rich C., Lederhosen and the Great Gerberski all had a hand in the rally.

The home side answered with a single run. It would have been more if not for the solid defense of Big Al Z. who snarled a smash with the bases loaded and recorded an unassisted putout to squash the rally.

To the top of the second and the bottom of the order for the visitors. And with two out and the bottom of the order up with the bases full, the home side was confident that they would put out the fire unscathed. But alas, it was not to be, not even close. Roger the artful Dodger stepped to the plate and absolutely launched a lunar shot into right field. It was merely a courtesy that the fleet footed short centerfielder stopped at third with a bases clearing three bagger.

The home side valiantly came through again with bases loaded and were destined to score more than just one when short stop extraordinaire Lee ranged back and robbed a disappointed batsman of a certain two run Texas leaguer.

The visitors plated a solo run in the top of the third and were looking to pull away. But Juantanamo made a dazzling grab and the rejuvenated home side came to bat looking to explode back into it. And the explosion came off the bat of Big Lou who rocketed one off the fence in deep left field. Down by only a pair both sides battled back and forth with the visitors once again getting a big time laser off the bat of that man about town Roger the Dodger and a solid double from Barry. And it looked like it was all over save the dancing.

But the home side were bloodied but unbowed. And the heart of the order of Zig, the two Brians, Vinny B. and Jon Z said not so fast. Add to that Jack, Juan, Bruce and Z and it was game on heading into the final two innings.

Alas, it was all for naught for the home side as Gordon's rope to Left Center eluded a lunging Brian emptying the bases and when the mud had settled, the visitors ended the year with a convincing 12-6 victory. The combination of clutch hitting and balanced fielding by the likes of Barry, Rob, Alan, the Judge and Lee proved too much for the vanquished Z's. So this battle was won but the war rages on…See you all next year!

MVP CREDIT GOES TO BRUCE AND BOBBY FOR GIVING UP THEIR OWN FREE TIME AND CHECKING OUT THE SCHOOL YARD EARLY.

Have a good week guys. Happy New Year to all

Game 1 FIRST TUESDAY GAME EVER! 1.25.22 KPP5 BY GORDON

A LAST MINUTE, EMERGENCY, FIRST TUESDAY EVER, STREAK KEEPING GAME IS PULLED OFF THANKS TO THE EFFORTS OF BRUCE, AND 16 MANLY MEN, DESPITE SEVERAL UNFORESEEN OBSTACLES. IT WAS TRULY MIRACULOUS!

THEY ARE CALLING IT BIBLICAL IN PROPORTION, AS BIG AND AS IMPORTANT AS THE 16 DEGREE PARKWOOD POOL PARKING LOT GAME OF '14

MICAH SMOLENS RETURNS FROM A KNEE REPLACEMENT TO HELP KEEP THE STREAK ALIVE

The streak was in peril. The forecast for the final weekend in which to have a January game was terrible. It appeared all hope was lost and that the no show commissioner's failures would be front and center for all to chastise and castigate. It would take a miracle to salvage whatever reputation he still had. And then, through the brilliance of one man, a man whose heroics loomed larger than life, whose essence must have been touched by the Lord above, the reputation was saved. This man among men, this giant among giants is none other than our own Pete Iannicelli. known affectionately as Three-Pete (basehit basehit basehit).

Summoning up his courage, vision and fortitude, 3Pete contacted the legendary Bruce Blattberg and informed him that Tuesday the 25th would be the last playable day of the month. Armed with this essential information, O Captain, My Captain promptly sent out an SOS and lo and behold, 16 warriors answered the call.

But finding a field would be a daunting task in and of itself. The school uses the schoolyard, so Allenwood was announced. But when the fearless and intrepid warriors arrived, the park staff said no bueno. This prompted man about town Jack Schonhaut to jump in his car and like a batter out of hell, he checked and declared game on at KPP 5. So it was written, so it shall be done.

The contest was lively and hard fought despite the conditions. The outfield resembled the Siberian Tundra, but the gallant outfielders from both sides, Ed, Jack, Gordon, Luis, Mark, Roy braved the frozen turf and ice patches. Kudos as well to the extras that filled in, Rich and Juan. The catcher's box was no picnic either but the duo of 3Pete and Jeff handled the chore and also, the umpiring. The pitching assignments went to Judge and Z who pitched heroically. The shortstop counterparts were Mike and Bryan. Cousin Brucie and Mario flashed leather on the diamond as well.

Of particular note was the participation of Rich Coy who played marvelously and Roy Z. who stepped into the outfield for the first time since his injury late last summer. Without them, there wouldn't have been a game. I guess it was too cold for Joe Sineno although I'm sure the hot air he provides would have helped the field conditions.

Z's visitors got off quickly in the top of the first. Bryan, who crushed the ball all day including two homers, got the home side going. Not to be outdone, Leder drove the ball to the wall in right. Lou stung the ball all day and before the ice had started to melt, it was 3 nil.

The home side wasted no time getting two back. And paradoxically, the hitting star of Your Johner's visitors was the same man that we all owe the credit to for getting the game scheduled. Pete was 4 for 6 including a triple and a home run. In fact, when the visitors were down by two going into the bottom of the sixth, it looked like it was going to be a nail biter. Sorry! Not today! 14 batters came to bat and when the inning was over, 10 runs had crossed the plate. The lineup of Mike, Ed, Mario, Pete, Roy (who also had a homer), Jack, Rich and His Johner proved unstoppable. The visitors clawed back courtesy of a Home Run by Lederhoisen but the home side wound up with a stunning 14-9 victory.

At this point in the season, it is a toss up between Brian and Pete for MVP. But really credit goes to all the guys who had the guts, the fortitude and will to preserve a streak that is now over ten years.

Game 3: SATURDAY 2.19.22 KPP5 BY MIKE SP

The Z's beat the Hunts 14-7 in a shortened game. Led by Gordon and Mike with 3 hits and multiple bombs, the Z's took a commanding lead early and never looked back. The Hunts tried to stay close with Luis hitting lasers all over the field. Plenty of web gems around. Lee made a sparkling play ranging up the middle to rob a hit. The Judge snared a liner back up the middle. Mario also grabbed a hot liner at 2b, leaping about 3 inches to make the play. Ed made a nice running grab in LF to turn an extra base hit into an out. Jeff actually wen to Rf for a base hit in a 6 run inning for the Z's. Gary hit line drives all day, but he was Seaver like on the mound with no walks. Roger had a nice day at the plate with a couple of hits.

Unfortunately the game was cut short due to the frozen ground melting and creating a mud puddle all over the left side of the infield.

Game 4: MONDAY 2.21.22 KPP5 BY GORDON

A glorious Monday found our weathered gladiators battling on the cement field of the schoolyard. A perfect setting to celebrate the occasion of the birthday of the father of our country, George Washington. Interestingly, President Washington was born while the Julian calendar was in use and always referred to his birthday as February 9, 1731 rather than February 22, 1732, as the day was marked on the Gregorian calendar. To honor the event, the father of Great Neck Softball, the legendary Bruce, divided up the participants so evenly that it took a walk-off hit in the bottom of the 12th to settle things.

The gutsy visitors with the brandisher of Justice on the hill, started off with a two spot. Ed, Mark L., Mario and Pete, who had three hits over the day, led the charge. Juan, Dan and His Johner plated a run an inning later and it looked like the home town Z's would be left in the rear view mirror. But then an unprecedented power display off the bat of Lou changed things. He crushed a drive that almost went into the basketball basket at the far end of the park. And on his next at bat, he blasted a drive to the deepest part of center field, the apex of the Polo Grounds, behind the Yankee Stadium monuments. And just like that, the rest of the team caught fire as well. Ed I., Hugh, Mike G., Rob, Roger, Gary and Bruce supplied the power and before long, the home side was one up. If not for the courage of the fearless Mark Leder who made two web gems on screaming line drives to shortstop, the flood gates would have opened.

And it was that same courage that saw the visitors plate four and take back the lead. That man about town, the Chiropractor of dreams, Mark L., nearly broke the home sides back. But not so fast said the home side as they crossed the Delaware to regroup. And then it came down to the bottom of the 12th. Down by a run, the home side sent up the bottom of the order, the hapless Gary Z., who stunned everyone including himself, squared up and lined a single. From there, Ed and Hugh followed with hits which set the stage for Big Lou who crushed a drive into the Left Center Field Gap, and the redcoats were dispatched by the loyal Americans.

Game 5: SUNDAY 2.19.22 KPP5 BY GORDONZOLA

The final weekend in February saw a raucous battle between the home side Johnnies against the visiting ZZZ's played at the Schoolyard of dreams.

The visitors got off first when Seth K launched a shot that landed just inside the right field foul line before curling into the corner. Turning on the jets, the fleet feet touched them all and the visitors led by one.

The Johnnies were led by Jon Zuck, who responded in kind with a double, ultimately scoring on an RBI drive by Hugh before Mike Sp. uncharacteristically was called on strikes by Bruce which led to a pleasant discussion.

And then deuces went wild. For the next five consecutive innings, the ZZZ's scored two runs in each inning as they bolted out to a large lead. The hitting onslaught included everybody from Jack, Mike G, Bryan, Vinny and Bobby, with highlights being provided by Steve H. who drilled one off the fence and Ed R who lashed line drives all over the park. But the most impressive at bat of the day belonged to Luis, who smoked a ball into the dancing ladies of Korea, the farthest part of the park. Luis also barely missed a homer later in the game, instead settling for a two-bagger. Mark L. exhibited his own brand of offensive prowess with he crushed a triple.

And despite the high scoring, there were a number of defensive gems. Mark L., catching foul pops, Jon Z., in front of the water fountain but the catch of the day was made by Vinnie who ranged to his left and snagged a line drive in front of the wall in Right Center with the bases loaded.

But the home side refused to surrender. Led by their own Z's, Jon and Roy, and supplemented by Juan, they pieced together a few runs to keep the visitors within sight, with each of them getting at least three hits. The biggest hit came in the bottom of the eighth when Jon blasted his second homer of the day, a three run shot to cut the lead to two.

A call by umpire Magoo allowed the visitors to tack on a run to make it a three run game but then the unthinkable occurred. With runners on first and second and one out, the Judge bounced a one hopper to the pitcher, who appeared flummoxed and instead of going to second for the sure game ending double play, he threw to first allowing both runners to advance. Clutch hitting by Jon and Hugh, and tough at bats by Mike Sp who smoked a double and the great Gerbaski, and the table was set for Gordon to tie the game. And he promptly delivered a clutch two out game tying single. The ball don't lie!

And there the game ended as the clock ran out. Kudos to the side makers and the players who braved the thirty-degree temperatures and the swirling winds. Forward March!

Thanks to Gordon for the great write-up.

Game 7: SUNDAY 3.20.22 KPP5 BY MIKE SPIEL

Beautiful day back at KP5. The Hunts beat the Z's 8-6. Mike and Barry led the way with 4 hits each and Lee got on base 4 times with 2 hits and 2 walks. The lower part of the order started a big rally with hits by Pete, Roger, Bruce and the Judge. There were plenty of web gems on the day. Eddie I was the defensive star, making several great plays at 2b including a running grab of a pop up in LF! John V turned a nice unassisted DP at SS. Dave G made a nice catch running in down the line in LF. Bryan continues to shine defensively, with several great plays at 3b, liners, grounders and rocket throws to 1B. Bruce and Mike turned a nice 3-6-3 DP. Ziggy tracked down a pop up down the line in RF, turning a base hit into an out.

Best Regards,
Michael Spiel

Game 8: SATURDAY 3.26.22 KPP5 BY GORDO

Allow me to begin the weekend highlights but first apologizing for the inaccurate highlights from last week, which were labeled, It's Finally Springtime. As we all know, our games are played at 9 a.m. and end approximately 11 a.m. Since the spring equinox didn't happen until 11:33 a.m. it is obvious that the game was the final game of winter, not the first game of spring. In the interior of the highlights, the description springlike was used. This is accurate. The rest is flat out wrong.

Now that we have corrected this delusion, let it be known that Saturday March 26, 2022 was the first game of spring. And it was spectacular. I'm not referring to the weather conditions, which were overcast and seasonably cool at KPP 5, but rather the competition itself. And the credit for that goes to the Commander of the High Seas, Captain Bruce, who pitted twelve against twelve with the visiting Z's facing off against the home side Lou's. An assist goes to Mike S.

The bottom of the first saw Fran drive one to left center for a double. Then the veteran tandem of L's; Lee, Lou and Leder provided offensive destruction. Coupled with the smooth hitting of Bryan, Ed and Brian, the home side plated two to take the lead.

The visitors were baffled by Lou's dazzling antics and started with four goose eggs. And Lou aided his own cause by blasting a bases clearing triple to put the home side up by five.

But slowly the worm turned and the visitors got one on the board. Rich, playing on a troubled wheel, sent a triple to the left side and was plated on an infield out. The following inning, Eric the U went deep to left center and he came around to score, cutting the lead to 5-2.

And then the following inning, Rich once again delivered a three bagger which drove in two and when he scored on the next at bat, it was all even at five.

At this point, the Zmeister was finding his groove and held the home side scoreless for five straight innings. But it would not have been that way if Dave hadn't made two sensational catches, first on Leder's bomb to left that saw a Gerbastaire pirouette and then a shoe string catch on a rocket hit by Bryan.

Emboldened by the dramatics, the bottom of the order, which hit the ball squarely all day, gave the visitors their first lead of the game. It was Steve, Roger and the Gary's, W and Z who led the charge.

But one good turn deserves another and Jeff, Matt, Dan and Bruce delivered the tying run in the bottom of the ninth.

But as fate would have it, one of the most popular guys in GNSB history delivered the blast that would bring home the winning run. The writer wishes to recuse himself from mentioning who that player is.

One final note; some suggested that this game was really a tale of two Spiels; one whose absence hurt his team, the other's did not. Sadly, Jon tweaked his shoulder on a relay throw. And as much as he tried to battle through it, he made the prudent decision to withdraw. And it was likely that his missing bat was the real difference. Conversely, in the bottom of the last inning, when Mike abandoned his team, Mike G. made the play of the game. With one out and the tying run on first, a ball was laced up the middle. Mike G., who bravely volunteered to take over the shortstop responsibilities, laid out and snagged the hot smash and flipped it to second for the force. A bedazzled home side could muster no further resistance and the contest went to the Z's 7-6.

Game 9: SUNDAY 3.27.22 SCHOOL YARD BY GORDO

Sunday's game was scheduled for KPP 5 save for a torrential downpour on Saturday afternoon, which caused a last second transfer to the schoolyard. The weather was seasonal, blustery and chilly at points, sunny and delightful when the clouds broke and the wind subsided. As players reacted to the last second announcement and picked up their sneakers, the side makers went at it. Bobby and Lee had to make sides up on the fly as they were unsure who would show up. The start of the game was delayed fifteen minutes as the brain trust had at it.

The visiting Z's got off to a quick start by plating three. Balanced hitting by the top of the order starting with Hugh followed by Ed I., Vin, Luis and Bryan got the show on the road. The big blast was Bryan's rope that took a fortuitous bounce for a two RBI triple.

The home side Leder's got their act together in the second, plating five before the frame ended. Mario, Lee, Ed, Joe and Steve were integral in getting back to the top of the order where Jon, Zig, Ed H., Leder and Gordon held up their end of the stretcher.

The visitors responded with two in the top of the third to tie and after the home side scored one, they responded with a single run to keep matters close. And then the home team's hitting shoes high stepped it all over the field. Hit after hit came off the bats with Lee driving in runs in three consecutive at bats, Mario blasting a triple, Zig and Ed each roping rbi shots.

REMINDER: BEEPER BALL VS THE LONG ISLAND BOMBERS-APRIL 24, 2022 @MEMORIAL FIELD 10:15am

The visitors tried to respond but the defensive work of Jon gunning out a runner at the plate dashed all hope for the beleaguered Z's. Despite four anemic hits by Vinnie, Bobby sending a shot deep to left and Brian hitting a round tripper, the home side was too good. They piled on runs in 8 of the next 9 innings, including an eight spot and when the asphalt had settled, the home side walked away with a lopsided 26-10 victory.

Next week is April and that means 8pril…all games will start at 8 a.m.

Game 10: SATURDAY 4.2.22 SCHOOL YARD BY GORDO

April is a delicate time of year for the GNSB. Their needed and venerated showers are wonderful for the fauna but often leave the faithful in a quandary. And this Saturday's 2022 inaugural 8 a.m. start suffered from such a fate.

On Friday evening, a much heralded but barely heeded foot soldier went to KPP to assess field conditions. His conclusion was that the fields were close and could use an additional hour to dry. Sage wisdom is only valuable if the recipients choose to receive it. Alas, the suggestion was discarded and the original plan was adhered to. I need not tell of the fiasco that followed. Onward and upward to the playground we went, minus nine players who dropped out owing to the last second scheduling change.

The reduced head count produced a spirited contest, sprinkled with fine defense and powerful offense. The sides were made by Bruce and Lee, not Bruce Lee. Lee packed one side with an explosive top of the order and pitted them against a rugged and well-balanced squad.

In the top of the first, the visitors got to work. Hugh, Ed, Leder, Gerb, Vinnie and Bryan lit up the home side for three. But the home side immediately responded with Brian, Lee, Luis, Mike G and Jack returning the favor.

The visitors scratched a run in the top of the inning and when the home side came to bat, the decision of the game was made. Z was having trouble finding his rhythm and the venerable captain Bruce handed the ball to Mr. Leder. Mark threw strike after strike but it was his fielding that proved decisive. Like a cat, he snarled everything hit his way and the beleaguered home side could only muster eight runs in ten innings against a three outfield defense. Even attempts to push through with aggressive base running failed as Gordon pegged to Bruce to tag a darting Lee at the plate to end a rally. And Dave G. grabbed everything hit his way in Right Field including an over the shoulder grab near the fence.

On the other side, the visitors had their hitting shoes on and three was the number, scoring three runs in five of the eleven innings played. The big hitting star was Bruce who crushed a ball against the right field fence and then blasted a triple to the deepest part of the park in Left Center.

Game 11: SUNDAY 4.3.22 A-WOOD BY GORDO

Sunday's game was the first in some time at Allenwood and the conditions were magnificent. The colors of early spring and the spring of the pliant field were perfect. Why it was that some of the players signed up and didn't show up owing to a weather report that predicted rain after the game was over remains stupefying. Nonetheless, another 8 on 8 with three outfielders was played.

The visitors were let by Mark L. pitted against the home side Z's. In the home half of the first, Gordon went yard for the first of his two four baggers. A second two run inning by the home side in the second made the score 4-0. And then the visitors got rocking. Barry, Joe, Jack, Bryan, Mario , Leder, Steve, and Bobby went hog wild and when the inning was over, 11 had crossed the plate. This was the first double digit inning this year. Congratulations to them for that.

The home side went quietly in the bottom of the third and when the visitors put another on the board in the top of the fourth it looked like it was going to be a cakewalk. But then a delayed Ziggy arrived at the field. And whatever magic he brought, it was absolutely infectious.

With two outs, the Ed's I. and H respectively kept a rally alive and Zig drove in a run and all of a sudden the door was open a crack. Then Gordon went Right Center for a three run RBI Home Run and the door was kicked wide open. The home side received offensive contributions from Rob, Juan, Bruce and Z. and when the dust had settled they had scored 9 then 4 then 3 runs to take a 20-12 lead. The visitors scratched a few more runs but the final after ten was 21-11.

Congrats on all the warriors who make GNSB what it is.

OUR FREAKISH STREAK REACHED 129!!! LAST WEEK DESPITE AN OVER ENTHUSIASTIC REPORT. KUDOS TO ALL!

Game 12: SATURDAY 4.10.22 ALLENWOOD BY GORDO

Weekend Highlights:

Saturday's highlights belong to the KPP park staff, which worked diligently to prepare the field for a game. The infield was raked, leveled and the lines were fresh. The outfield was soft and easy on the knees. But alas, the game was called on account of _____ (Please fill in the blank).

Sunday's game at Allenwood was staged on another perfect field for play. The conditions were classic for this time of year, cool when the cloud covered and warm in sunlight. The game was played and well attended, a maximum 12 on 12 affair. Bobby put together a very competitive game that had the two teams either tied or within a single run for eight consecutive innings.

The visiting Z's could muster nothing in the top frame with any chance scoring squelched when Zig was gunned out at third on a beautiful relay to Mike G. who applied the tag.

The energized home side plated three in the opening frame. The Ed's I and H, combining with Mike, Mark, Vinny and Jack all provided solid hitting.

The visitors responded in the top of the second led by Kenny, Mario, Barry, Matt, Rob and Joe who supplied a personal offensive explosion of four hits.

The home side slowed down and when the visitors scored two in the top of the third, the lead changed hands. Dan, Z and Zig who also had four hits, led the charge.

The home side said, not so fast and Doug, Gary W., Steve, a first pitch swinging Judge, Juan and Bobby put the home side back in front by one.

And then the pitchers got stingy. Both the Judge and the Z were firing strikes of all speeds, shapes and sizes. Between the third and ninth inning, there was only one run scored by either side. The only consistent hitting being provided by the Vin, who blasted four hits.

The tying run was sent home on a drive by Gordon that barely eluded the deft fielding Juan at first base. And with the score tied at five the Z kept rolling putting goose eggs up in seven consecutive innings.

With time running short, the top of the tenth proved the Judge and companies undoing. First, Zig led off with a Texas league homer or perhaps a little league homer. Whatever you call it, the swift Zig touched them all and the Z's led by one. But that was only the tip of the iceberg. Kono, Mike S., Kenny, Mario, Gordon, Barry all got hits and then it was Big Matt's turn. And he delivered in a big way, blasting a three run four-bagger to cap the seven run rally.

The visitors gamely threatened in the bottom of the last by scoring two. But the abyss was too wide and the final score of 12-7 doesn't accurately reflect a very close game.

Next weekend is an Ironman weekend. Of course, it remains to be seen if the Commissioner will recognize those that play all the games. I'm sure he'll do what's best….

Game 15: SUNDAY 4.17.22 ALLENWOOD ANOTHER "GNSB STUFF YOU JUST DON'T SEE IN THE MAJOR LEAGUES" AND GNSB FIRST:

THE UN-PIRE

FOR THE 1ST TIME IN GNSB'S RICH 32 YEAR HISTORY, A "DO OVER" WAS CALLED, AFTER ED H SMOKED A MAGNIFICENT LEADOFF HIT INTO RIGHT CENTER FIELD, BECAUSE THE UMPIRING STATION WAS UNMANNED! THUS THE HIT

WAS RULED UNSANCTIONED. HE THEN FLIED OUT ON THE DO OVER. THIS WAS UNCHARTED TERRITORY. IT HAD NEVER HAPPENED BEFORE. AFTER THE GAME YOUR COMMISSIONER CONCLUDED THAT THIS WAS UNFORGIVABLE. BASED UPON THE LOCATION OF THE BATTED BALLS THAT FOLLOWED, A RUN WOULD HAVE SCORED AND THE GAME WOULD BE TIED, AT LEAST. HE THEREFORE, IN AN UNPRECEDENTED, BUT SURELY NOT AN UNCONTROVERSIAL DECISION, PROCLAIMS AN 11-11 TIE FOR TODAY'S GAME. TROPHIES FOR EVERYONE!
(EXCEPT SINENO)
HE DOESN'T LIKE IT WHEN THE SCORES ARE UNEVEN, EVEN THOUGH THEY WERE UNEVEN. EFFORTS TO UNTIE THE SCORE WILL BE UNFRUITFUL, BECAUSE ITS ALREADY IN THE HIGHLIGHTS.

BUT BESIDES ALL THAT, WE HAD ANOTHER GNSB CLASSIC FOR THE AGES. THE HOME TEAM SEEMED UNCONQUERABLE AND LEAD 8-2 UNTIL THE VISITING NURSES UNIONIZED AND SCORED 8 RUNS IN THE 7TH INNING TO TAKE AN 11-8 LEAD.

THE UNPARALLELED ED H ALSO HAS 3 OTHER HITS AND MAKES 2 FINE RUNNING PLAYS IN LCF THAT OTHERS WOULD HAVE FOUND TO BE UNATTAINABLE.

LEE UNDOES A SURE HIT WITH A DIVING PLAY AT 2B AND NOT UNUSUAL FOR HIM, BANGS OUT 3 HITS.

UNSURPRISINGLY BARRY HAS A MULTI-HIT DAY INCLUDING A BIG RBI TRIPLE.

BOBBY W, NOT UNIMPRESSIVELY, CRASHES 3 HITS INCLUDING AN RBI DOUBLE TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE 8 RUN RALLY THAT HIS TEAM HAD UNDERWAY.

NOT TO BE OUTDONE, THE UNFLAPPABLE MIKE SP, AND THE UNCOMPLAINING

GORDO, ALSO HAVE MULI-HIT DAYS.

ED I TURNS A TAKE-IT-YOURSELF DP IN NOT AN UNEXCEPTIONAL MANNER, TO UNDERMINE THE OPPOSITION'S OFFENSE.

NOT UNCOMMONLY, THE OFTEN UNCONVENTIONAL AND UNINHIBITED, MARK LEDER BANGS OUT A TRIO OF HITS. PLUS IN THE LAST INNING, WITH A RALLY MOUNTING, HE INTERCEPTS AND DEFUSES A MISSILE HEADED FOR CENTERFIELD AND TURNS IT INTO A DOUBLE PLAY.

JUAN MAKES 3 UNINTERRUPTED PUTOUTS AT 2B IN 8TH INNING AND OF COURSE, FOLLOWS THAT BY LEADING OFF.

CATCHER GARY W MAKES AN UNDENIABLY FINE PLAY ON A SPINNING POP AT THE PLATE. HE ALSO UNLEASHES A KEY DOUBLE INTO CF TO HELP HIS TEAM BOUNCE BACK FROM A 5 RUN DEFICIT.

THE UNQUALIFIED HITTING STAR OF THE DAY WAS VINNY BATTERIA, WHO HAD 6 HITS, 6 RBI AND SAID IT WAS THE BEST GAME OF HIS UNIQUE LIFE.

MY APOLOGIES FOR ANY HEROICS THAT WENT UNMENTIONED.

THE UNSUNG HERO FOR THIS HOLY WEEKEND WAS GORDON WHO BIKED TO THE DARK SIDE OF KPP AND GOT THE GNPD STAFF TO FIX A DANGEROUS OUTFIELD HOLE. THUS IT BECAME AN UNHOLY WEEKEND.

ALSO A SHOUT OUT FOR MARK LEDER WHO HELPED A FELLOW PLAYER AND FAMILY MEMBER, BIG TIME, THIS WEEKEND.

KUDOS TO THIS 3 DAY HOLY WEEKEND IRONMEN: BRUCE, GORDO, PLATA, LEDER

AND MOI.

I HOPE THAT YOU ALL HAD FUN WITH MY UNPUNS AND THESE UNINSPIRED HIGHLIGHTS INSPIRES YOU ALL TO PLAY. I'M JUST TRYING TO FOLLOW THE GOLDEN RULE OF DOING "UN"TO OTHERS.
UNCLE GARY UNLEVEN-THAL (FOR THIS WEEK ONLY) - TRYING TO KEEP THE UNS IN PUNS BUT MORE IMPORTANTLY HOPING THAT THE U.N. CAN ACHIEVE WORLD PEACE.

IN HONOR OF EARTH DAY

Game 16 SATURDAY 4.23.22 KPP 5

THE ZEITY GREATLY REDUCES THE CARBON FOOTPRINTS OF PLAYERS RUNNING AROUND THE BASES WITH A MAGNIFICENT ONE RUN IN 10 INNING PERFORMANCE.

LEE'S RUNNING WEB GEM BEHIND 1B

PREVENTS SOIL EROSION CAUSED BY THE BALL DROPPING ONTO THE SOFT GROUND.
ARIK AT 3B DOES HIS PART IN SAVING THE PLANET, BY TURNING A SURE BASE HIT THAT WOULD HAVE CRUSHED COUNTLESS BLADES OF OUTFIELD GRASS, INTO A DP.
BOTH THE JUDGE AND THE ZEITY STRIKE TERRA FIRMA INTO THE HEARTS OF THE OPPOSITION BY BANGING OUT IMPRESSIVE HITS.
MIKE G, BRYAN, BRIAN, ARIK, LUIS, JACK AND ED POLLUTE THE OUTFIELD GRASSLANDS WITH MULTIPLE BASE HITS.

Game 17 SUNDAY 4.24.22 ALLENWOOD
EXCELLENT PITCHING PERFORMANCES BY HIS JOHNER AND THE ZEEITY CONTRIBUTE TO A HIT DROUGHT AND PUT RBI ON THE ENDANGERED SPECIES LIST.

GARY CH'S THROW OUT OF A RUNNER AT HOME DEPLETES THE OPPOSITION'S RUN SUPPLY.

BRYAN BLACK'S WEB GEM AT SS WHICH RESULTS IN A DP CONSERVES THE ECOLOGICAL BALANCE BETWEEN THE 2 TEAMS.

LEE'S SURPRISE FAKE OUT AND THEN TAG OUT OF A RUNNER AT SS BIO-DEGRADES AN OFFENSIVE THREAT. GORDO PROVES TO BE A BAT-ANICAL FORCE OF NATURE. HIS WIND POWERED 2 RUN HOMER TO CF ABSOLUTELY DEFOLIATES THE OPPOSITION.

STEVE HERSHON HITS A HARMFUL UV-RAY OVER THE HEAD OF THE RC FIELDER FOR A 2 RECYCLABLE BAGGER.

BARRY HELPS STOP AN OVERPOPULATION OF HITS WITH A MAGNIFICENT BUT NOT A RARE GEM.

NO PLANTS OR ANIMALS HAVE BEEN HARMED IN THE WRITING OF THESE HIGHLIGHTS.

THE BEEP BALL GAME WAS TONS OF FUN AND A BIG SUCCESS. MORE TO COME ABOUT IT. THANKS TO ALL WHO CAME TO PLAY, WATCH, SUPPORT, AND HELP OUT.

BRUCE REALLY SHOWS A LOT OF HEART HANGING ON TO A WICKED 3RD STRIKE FOUL TIP BEHIND THE PLATE FOR A K.

KONO WAS IN A PRO-STATE OF MIND. LET ME EX-SPLEEN: HE COLLECTED 4 HITS.

JON SP TURNS 2 NICE DPS TODAY AT 2B TO HELP KEEP HIS TEAM'S LEAD SUSTAINABLE.

ROGER HAS A VERY PRO-DUCT-IVE 6 FOR 8 WEEKEND.

PLATA DE-DUCTS A HIT FROM A BATTER WITH A GEM ON A SINKING DEATH RAY AND NATURALLY PRESERVES HIS TEAM'S LEAD.

THE ORGAN PLAYED 'WE ARE THE CHAMPIONS' FOR MIKE SMOLENS WHO HAS A DOUBLE, DOUBLE-DAY AND STARS IN THE FIELD. HE MAKES ALL 3 ASSISTS IN

THE 1ST INNING ALONE AT 2B.

6 PLAYERS PEE IN THE BUSHES TODAY. NORMALLY I DON'T RIGHT ABOUT SUCH THINGS, BUT SINCE IT MADE THEIR BLADDERS GLADDER, IT FITS IN WITH THE THEME.

WHILE OTHERS WERE EMPTYING THEIR BLADDERS AND PEEING IN THE BUSHES ZIGGY WAS D-PEEING ON THE FIELD AS HE PLAYS A MAJOR ROLE IN 4 DOUBLE PLAYS, ONE A LEAPING GRAB OF A ROCKET THAT CATCHES A DAZED RUNNER OFF 2B, ANOTHER WAS A BACKHANDED GEM THAT LED THE ORGANIST'S PLAYING OF GOOD G-LOVIN BY THE RASCALS

BOBBY WHO NEEDS NO INTRO-DUCT-TION CRACKS 3 HITS.

DESPITE THE VERY LOUD, VOCIFEROUS, BOISTEROUS AND EXCESSIVE USE OF

PLAYER'S VOCAL CHORDS TODAY, THERE WAS A LOT OF GOOD ORGANIC CHUM-ISTRY AMONGST THE PLAYERS.

NO PRESERVATIVES OR ANTIBIOTICS WERE USED IN THE WRITING OF THESE HIGHLIGHTS. APOLOGIES FOR THINGS MISSED DUE TO A SHRINKING BRAIN.

Game 24 FRIDAY 5.27.22 ALLENWOOD BY GORDO

Great Neck Softball Weekend Softball was treated to a rare four day Memorial Day weekend extravaganza. Owing to huge demand, a Friday game was added at Allenwood Park. The field conditions were perfect; the weather was cool and overcast as the visiting Rodgers faced off against the mighty Z's.

The game started with Mike Smolens belting the first of his three hits. Hugh, Alex and Kono kept hope alive for Barry, Jack, Leder and Mario. When the dust had settled, the visitors had plated three.

The home side was led by Ziggy, who blasted four hits. His first inning single and subsequent offensive behavior by Ed, Bryan and the Great Gerbaski, who slammed three hits himself, led to a run.

The bottom of the order came up for the visitors and Mark K., Jeff, Roger and Bobby answered with a run of their own, putting the visitors ahead by three heading into the bottom of the second. From there, the pace slowed down immeasurably as both Roger and Z seemed to lose their compasses and the first three innings dragged on for close to an hour.

Seemingly lulled into a somnambulistic state, the home side shook off their doldrums when Leder came in and found the plate and went Memorial Day wild by plating 10 runs over the next three innings. The major offense came from Bryan, who shook off the cobwebs from his bat and bashed a bases clearing triple to start the rampage.

The home side then handed the ball to the screwball knuckleball throwing Lou, who promptly dispatched the visitors with holiday efficiency. The visitors did get 3 across in the ninth and one in the tenth but when the curtain came down on game one, the home side basked in a hard fought 12-9 victory.

Game 25A/B SATURDAY 5.28.22 KPP 5 BY GORDO

Saturday saw a shift to Kings Point Park and the second of the four game set. The home side started Gary Z., while the visitors sent Doug B. to the hill. The field was in excellent shape and the sun warmed the field and gave right fielders angst whenever a fly ball was sent in their direction.

It started out as a classic pitcher's duel. Z shut down the visitors with one run allowed through 6 while Doug held the home side to 3 over the same time. But in the 7th, the Memorial day fireworks started. The visitors platted six with a balanced attack featuring Brian and Bryan. Also contributing were Mike G., Lee, Jack, Vinny, Gary Ch., Steve, Jeff and Barry D. Joe Sineno allegedly also hit well, informing this writer that he was five for five. A forensic evaluation of that assertion suggests otherwise.

The home side was undaunted however and responded with three of their own. Marco, Hugh, Mike, Mark, Harlan, Ed, Roger, Bruce, Juan and Bobby all swung with swagger and the score stood 7-6 going into the ninth. Pitchers included Leder/Roger and Bruce. For the visitors, Lee spelled Doug B for a few innings. The visitors scratched one across and then exploded for four more in the tenth. The beleaguered home side could only muster a late inning rally that would fall short. Two days down, two more to go.

Game 26 SUNDAY 5.29.22 ALLENWOOD BY YOUR OUT OF COMMISSION COMMISHUGANA

OH THUS BE IT EVER! ANOTHER GNSB CLASSIC!

VIZZIES TRAILED 13-1 AFTER 2 INNINGS BUT THEY BRAVELY REFUSED TO RAISE THE WHITE FLAG AND AS THE GAME UNFURLED, THEIR COACHES, SO PROUDLY THEY WAVED THEIR RUNNERS AROUND THE BASES TO TIE IT UP!!! WOWZERS WITH UNCLE SAM'S TROWSERS.

HAVING BANNER DAYS WERE:

- DAVE G HIT A GRAND OLD, HIGH FLYING BLAST THAT WENT OVER HILL, OVER DALE AND OVER JOE FOR A 3 RUN HOMER
- BRYAN BLACK MAKES THE OPPOSITION BLUE WITH A BASES LOADED BOMB BURST THAT WENT FOR A TRIPLE
- LEE HAD Q'WHITE A BLAST- A BASES LOADED TRIPLEE TO THE SHORES OF TRIPOLI.
- THE HIGH FLYING JOE SINENO, SHOWING SOME OF HIS OLD GLORY, SMASHED A MIGHTY HOME RUN TO RF
- MARCOS STARRED WITH A LASERED DOUBLE INSIDE THE LF STRIPE
- LEDER TRIPLED, THEN SCORED THE TYING RUN (14-14). THE PLAYER WHO DROVE HIM HOME REMAINS AT LARGE, BUT AUTHORITIES ARE HOPEFUL THAT HE'LL TURN HIMSELF IN.

Game 27A MONDAY5.30.22 KPP 5 BY MIKE SP

Great Memorial Day game! The Z's outlasted the Hunts 13-11. Despite the number of runs scored, it was all hitting. Very few errors in a crisp 8 inning game. Mike and Alex led the way with 4 hits each for the Z's. For the Hunts, Ziggy and Kono crushed 4 hits each and Vinny added 3 hits. Fine defense all around, Mike robbed Kono of a sure hit on a one hop laser in the hole at short. Rob W made a couple of web gems at 2b. Mike G started a nice DP at 3b 5-4-3. Mike Smolens flashed some leather at 3b as well. Z got the win on the mound with Lee picking up a save the last 2 innings and catching a pop up, athletically getting off the mound.

Game 27B MONDAY 5.30.22 KPP 3 BY GORDO

The final day of the four day hootenanny saw a boisterous turnout and two fields were used at Kings Point Park on a warm Memorial Day finale. Field B, which of late seems to be the more popular of the two games as the conduct is far more consistent with ethical behavior, saw the visiting Smitherines vs. the home side Lederettes. And this was a pitchers duel par excellence. The two sides battled in a tight defensive struggle through 11 innings, which saw the home side leading by the score of 5-2. It looked hopeless until Gordon blasted a three run homer to tie the score. Ryan followed with a three run four bagger next inning and it looked like the visitors would have the day.

Not so fast exclaimed the home side. Joe S. (who once again informed the writer of his hitting prowess which seemed hard to substantiate) followed by Harlan, Ed, Leder, Marcos, Mario, Barry, Jeff, Roger, Juan and Dan unleashed a Memorial Day fireworks explosion and despite being left for dead, showed their patriotic form managing to tie the score in the bottom of the thirteenth.

Game 28B SATURDAY 6.4.22 QUEENSPP 3 BY GORDO
A delightful June morning saw the home side Lou's facing off against the visiting Scottsmen. And the boys got into it early. In the top of the first, with the bases loaded, Dan ranged into foul territory to snag a foul pop to end the inning. But Wait! What's this? The umpire "heard" the ball skim a leaf and negated the out, giving the visitors another chance. But Alan said, "not in my house" and made a sensational play on a screaming grounder to put out the fire.

There is an old saying, let sleeping dogs lay. Well, this adage applied to an animated Lou who promptly sent a double deep to right center that plated two. And an inning later, the big Dog went yard, driving in three. A veritable one man wrecking crew.

Staking himself to an 8-0 lead after two, the visitors loaded the bases. But once again were denied by the defensive prowess of the second baseman, the aforementioned Alan Z. By making a tough grab deep in the hole, the visitors were stymied again. And his valuable play was not just with the glove. Alan drove in two the following at bat with a crisp single to left center. The other participants in the three consecutive four run innings included; Russ, Hugh, Ryan (who crushed them from foul line to foul line), Ben, Gary W. and Danimal.

Staked to a 12-0 lead after three, the visitors regained their composure and started strafing bombs of their own. Harlan hit a blast in the fourth and then again in the sixth. Joe, who is finally living up to the moniker Super Joe, drilled the ball with acumen. And as the game headed to the final innings, the lead was cut in half. The balanced hitting, a result of the skill displayed by the likes of Scott, Johnny V.,Juan, Jeff Bashthem, Barry, Steve and Cousin Brucie.

The visitors fought furiously and cut the lead to five but when the home side tacked on a run, the visitors were out of ammo and succumbed to their fate. Final score 13-7.

Game 30A SATURDAY 6.11.22 KPP CON-COCTED BY MIKE SPIEL

The Fighting Tannenbaums beat the Z's 12-9. Jumping out to a big lead early, the T's got hitting from the father and son team Arik and Seth, who by my account, on the only father and son duo to go back to back with a triple. They both crushed the ball all game and backed it up with fine defense. Seth made several sparkling plays at 2b and Arik turned back the clock with a diving stop at 3b. Lee had 3 hits and only walked one batter in 9 innings. Dave G led the way for the Z's with 3 hits. Lots of good defense on the day. Mike Smolens made several nice plays at 3b. Kono tracked down a few bombs in CF with nice running catches. The play of the year goes to Ed, who laid out in a full dive and caught a line drive in LF.

Game 30B SATURDAY 6.11.22 KPP 3 CON-COCTED BY THE CON-COCTER.
SCOTT CON-FUSES OPPOSING BATTERS BY GIVING THEM A STEADY DIET OF BALLS OVER THE PLATE, TO ALLOW ONLY 5 CON-FIRMED RUNS

GORDO THE CON-TRARIAN, CON-TINUES HIS HEAVY HITTING BY CON-NECTING FOR A TRIPLE, A DOUBLE, AND TWO SINGLES, CON-TRIBUTING MIGHTILY TO HIS TEAM'S CON-QUEST OF THEIR FOES.

JUAN PLATA ALMOST LOSES CON-SCIOUSNESS AFTER MAKING A LEAPING ONE HANDED WEB GEM IN RF, THEN FALLING BACKWARDS AND CON-KING THE BACK OF HIS HEAD ON THE GROUND. WHILE STILL HOLDING ONTO THE BALL. FORTUNATELY WE WERE NOT PLAYING ON CON-CRETE AND THERE WAS NO CON-CUSSION, ACCORDING TO CONVENING MEDICAL CON-SULTANTS. PLATA ALSO CON-JURED UP 4 HITS IN THE GAME.

THROW THE CON-FETTI FOR BARRY D WHO CON-FIDENTLY THROWS OUT A RUNNER WO WAS TRYING TO CON-VERT A SINGLE INTO A DOUBLE.

THE CON-SISTENTLY SPECTACULAR ELMER, RIPS 3 HITS INCLUDING A TRIPLE, WITHOUT CON-TRITION

SUPER JOE SHOWED CON-TEMPT FOR A WELL MEANING CLINCHER, AS HE BATTED AND BATTERED ITS BRAINS OUT, WITHOUT CON-SOLATION, 4 TIMES FOR BASE HITS.

IT WAS GREAT TO SEE THE DYNAMIC FATHER AND SON DUO OF IRA AND HIS CON-CEPTION ANDREW, BACK PLAYING IN TODAY'S SOFTBALL CON-TEST AFTER MANY CON-TIGUOUS MONTHS OF HIATUS. BOTH PLAYED WELL IN THE FIELD AND AT BAT. ANDREW CON-FISCATED 2 SURE BASE HITS FROM BATTERS AT SS AND RBI DOUBLED AT THE PLATE.

MARTY KOHN, THE "CON-SULTANT OF SWAT", WHO WE'LL RENAME MARTY CON-E JUST FOR TODAY, WAS ALSO THERE, AFTER MISSING A BUNCH OF CON-SECUTIVE DATES. REVIEWS WERE ALL PRO AND NO CONS UPON SEEING HIM.

ALSO HELPING TO CON-TAIN AND CON-FOUND THE OFFENSIVE WERE DOUG B WHO GEMMED A BULLET TO THE MOUND AND ALAN Z WHO MADE A CON-FECTIONER'S DELIGHT IN RF, A SWEET RUNNING PLAY OF A BALL JUST OVER THE GLOVE OF ANOTHER OUTFIELDER IN FRONT OF HIM.

BUT THERE WERE MORE STARS IN OUR CON-STELLATION. ALSO CON-GRATULATE SCOTT, JOHNNY V, AND ED R, ALL OF WHOM HAD MULTI-HIT GAMES.

THERE WERE 2 RUN CON-SERVING 6-6-3 DPS MADE BY CON-SUMMATE SS JOHNNY V TO STEVE HERSHON AND AN AROUND THE HORNER, FROM THE CON-SISTENT GORDO TO STEVE ON A LINER.

ON ANOTHER NOTE, THE AMOUNT OF TRASH CON-VERSATION FROM THE WAH-WAH CON-SORTIUM WAS SIMILAR TO AN OLD TIME CON-EY ISLAND FREAK SHOW. BUT IN CON-CLUSION A GOOD TIME WAS HAD BY ALL.

Game 31 A-WOOD 6.12.22 CON-FLICT RAINED OUT BY POPULAR DEMAND. DUE TO EXCESSIVE CON-DENSATION AT GAME TIME.

AFTER CAREFULLY COUNTING THE OUTS, IT WAS DETERMINED THAT THERE WAS NO WRONG DOING IN THE TABULATION OF THE OUTS AND SCORES AND THERE WAS A PEACEFUL TRANSITION FROM INNING TO INNING, DESPITE CALLS TO STOP THE CON.
GLARING COMMISSIONER OMISSION FROM LAST WEEKS HIGHLIGHTS: GORDON SELFLESSLY PLAYED AN EXTRA INNING ON KPP5 AFTER HIS GAME ON KPP3 WAS OVER, SINCE A PLAYER WAS NEEDED AFTER ANOTHER HAD LEFT. HE HARDLY PRESSURED ME IN ANY WAY TO GIVE HIM CREDIT FOR THIS. BTW THIS MAKES HIS PPG GO DOWN, THUS HIS COMPLAINT FEE WILL BRING US EVEN MORE REVENUE.

BEFORE THE WAH-WAH SISTERS EVEN SAY IT, THIS CON WILL BE CON-TINUED…

DON'T FORGET TO SIGN UP FOR THE MONDAY, JUNETEENTH GAME.

Game 31A SATURDAY 6.18.22 KPP

A MYSTERY THAT NO ONE COULD HAVE FORETOLD OR HAS YET TO REVEAL. I TRIED TO GET THE HIGHLIGHTS THROUGH THOUGHT TRANSFER BUT MY MEDIUM WAS ON THE DOWN LOW.

Game 31B SATURDAY 6.18.22 KPP3 WITH REPORTS FROM BEYOND (THE 8TH INNING) BY GORDO

ONE NEED NOT BE CLAIRVOYANT TO PREDICT THAT JASON, HUGH, HARLAN, RUSSELL, GARY CH AND GORDON WOULD HAVE 3 HIT DAYS.

GARY W PROVES TO BE A DEFENSIVE SAVANT AT MULTIPLE POSITIONS. HE INTUITIVELY THROWS OUT A RUNNER A 3B AS CATCHER, THEN LATER, BECAME A VISIONARY IN DEFENSIVE POSITIONING AS HE REACHES HIGH TO SNAG A HIGH POWERED BULLET AT 2B.

RYAN K SHOWED HE WAS A SEER OF WHERE THE OUTFIELDERS WERE PLAYING HIM, AS HE BLASTED A HUGE TRIPLE OVER THEIR HEADS.

CLIFF, SEEMING TO HAVE FOREKNOWLEDGE OF WHERE A BALL WAS GOING TO BE, MADE A REAL NICE GRAB OF A FOUL POP BEHIND 3B. IT WAS GREAT TO SEE HIM BACK IN ACTION AFTER A HIATUS DUE TO HEALTH CONCERNS.

Game 32 SUNDAY 6.19.22 A-WOOD

CAPTAIN OF THE FAR-SIDE LEE, WAS THE SUPER-NATURAL TODAY, CRUSHING 2 HOME RUNS, IN ADDITION TO CRACKING 2 OTHER HITS, GIVING HIM 5 RBI ON THE DAY. IT WAS AS IF HE HAD A PREMONITION AS TO WHERE THE DEFENSE WOULD BE POSITIONED.

THE FOREBODING ARIK K, USES HIS SUPER-SENSORY POWERS TO LEVITATE A BALL HIGH UP ONTO THE SECOND GRASSY KNOLL FOR A MONSTER TRIPLE TO GO ALONG WITH HIS 3 OTHER FARSIGHTED HITS.

BOBBY MAKES A RUNNING GEM IN RCF THAT WAS WORTHY OF BEING SHOWN ON ESP-N.

OH MAN! GIVE PETE AND AMEN FOR AN EXCITING SLIDE AT HOME PLATE, BECAUSE THAT COULD'VE BEEN AN OMEN FOR FUTURE PAIN.

MARIO HAD A SIXTH SENSE (AS OPPOSED TO THE NO SENSE MOST OTHERS DISPLAYED) TODAY ABOUT WHERE TO POSITION HIMSELF AT 3B. 3 TIMES IN ROW IN THE VERY FIRST INNING AND TWICE MORE DURING THE GAME, HE FIELDED THE BALL AND STEPPED ON 3B FOR UNASSISTED PUTOUTS.

J-RO WAS PSYCHIC ABOUT WHERE TO HIT THE BALL AS HE STRATEGICALLY PLACED 5 HITS TO PLACES WHERE NO FIELDERS COULD BE FOUND.

PRETTY DP'S WERE PERFORMED BY ARIK TO ROB 5-5-4, AND GORDO TO BRUCE 6-6-3 SHOWING THEY HAD THE FORESIGHT TO KNOW WHERE RUNNERS WERE.

FOUR HIT DAYS WERE ALSO SEEN FROM MARIO, KONO, AND GORDO BUT MOST PLAYERS IN THE KNOW, PROBABLY DIDN'T NEED TO HAVE ANY FOUR-SIGHT THAT THIS COULD HAPPEN.

Game 33 MONDAY JUNETEENTH 6.20.22 KPP5 BY GORDO

It was the final morning of spring, one day before the summer solstice. Additionally, it was the first June Ironman weekend in GNSB history owing to the recently added Juneteenth holiday. And with that as a backdrop, twenty softball warriors faithfully gathered at KPP 5 under a clear sky with seasonably cool conditions, in short, a perfect day to "Play Ball".

The visiting Z's squared off against the home side Johners. And early in the contest, the bats were on fire. Starting with the Paise, followed by Mike Smolens, Lee and big Lou, the home side sprinted off to a quick 2-0 lead.

In the home half, Herr Lederhosen said, let me show you how it's done. And by the time the outfield was able to retrieve the ball in deep right center, the aforementioned Mr. Leder was smiling in the dugout after a monster three run homer.

A scoreless second ensued and then the Z's plated another pair, the big hits being rbi doubles by Lee and Ed I. Undaunted, a riled up Alex crushed an rbi triple and when he was delivered by Mike G., the home side was once again in front by one.

His Johner set down the Z's in the top of the fourth. His effort was rewarded when the home side plated a pair. The big blast to center field coming from Gordon.

It looked like the home side was starting to pull away. But NOOOO. With the bases loaded, Doug B. courageously slammed a 3-0 pitch up the middle and when the dust had settled, the score was tied. With goose eggs on the board for the next two innings, the combatants were settling into a very competitive affair. Until….

"Here's the pitch, and it's a deep drive to Left Center Field, way back, against the fence…" and with that, the fleet footed Alex drilled a three run homer that put the home side in front to stay. Adding more offensive behavior was that man Dan, whose Baltimore chop drove in an insurance run.

With renewed confidence, the rest of the home side got into the act. Ed H., Mario, Scott, Bruce and His Johner all contributed to the offensive display. And it would have been worse if not for a sensational grab by Gary W. who ranged far to his left and snarled a ball along the right field foul line.

With the score now 14-7, even Lou's 2 rbi bomb to the right field fence wasn't enough. The home side emerged with a hard fought 14-9 victory.
GC

I HOPE YOU ENJOYED THESE HIGHLIGHTS, ALTHOUGH I KNOW THEY WERE PRETTY TELEPATH-ETIC

THANK YOU TO ROGER FOR VOLUNTEERING TO UMPIRE THIS WEEKEND DESPITE BEING INJURED.

Game 34A SATURDAY 6.25.22 KPP5 by Gordon

The June 2022 Summer Saturday contest at KPP 3 saw the visiting Johners squaring off against the home side Z's. The weather was warm and the skies were clear which can make right field an adventure. Or perhaps the high sun best serves as an excuse for shoddy play (the author of this missive shall leave it to the reader to choose). The teams played nine on nine with three outfielders, a lot of room out there.

> Z started with pinpoint control and set the potent visitors down without a run for the first two innings. While on the home side, Lou was hawking his wares, delivering a two run double on the way to a three run opening frame. And it would have been more had not Lee made a sensational grab in Center Field.

> The top of third saw the visitors find their groove. Mr. Leder slammed a double which plated a pair and after three, the score was tied at 3. When the visitors plated a solo run in the fourth and took the lead, it appeared the home side, who went three consecutive scoreless innings as the Judge bedazzled by wheeling and dealing (homage to Clyde) was in for a long game. But not so fast. The hitting shoes came on and the home side exploded for five in the bottom of the fifth. You don't score five without balanced hitting and that was the case here. Jon Z., Gordon, Mike G, Lou, Bryan, Jon S., Z and Bobby all contributed to the outburst with the big hits coming from Lou and Mike G.

> Once the hitting began, it didn't stop. The visitors followed the five pack with a deuce and two three run outbursts to salt the game away. The Jon's Z and S were the master blasters and Z got into the act as well with an rbi single and a sac fly.
> The visitors did their best to stay close with Gerbs driving in one and Matt platting a pair. But when Big Bryan went yard, there was little doubt who would win. Final score Z's 16, Johners 8. Kudos to those who lashed three or more hits; Matt R., Jon Z. and Gordon.

Prologue by Gordon:

The July fourth weekend is a wonderful time; barbecues, family time, fireworks, all the trimmings of our wonderful country's glory. Yet that being said, it also is the hottest time of the year, a time that tries men's souls, particularly those that don't sit on the sidelines, which dare to brave the elements and take to the field. In many ways, the July fourth Ironman weekend resembles all the major athletic challenges; Triathlon, Iditarod, climbing Mount Everest. And it wouldn't happen without leadership. It's fitting as we reflect on those who gave their all this independence day, that we acknowledge our own Washington, Grant, Pershing, Eisenhower, the fearless Gary Leventhal who led us through the Pandemic until finally succumbing to the dreaded virus. I am happy to report he is on the mend in large part due to the tender guidance and friendship offered by the gracious Joe Sineno.

Game 36A/B mix SATURDAY 7.2.22 KPP5 by Gordon

Saturday's KPP 5 game was a scalding hot day. The occasional cloud providing but brief respite to the oppressive heat. Taking the hill on this tumultuous day was Z vs. Beck/Leder. And the heroics started early when Gary Ch., robbed the opponents with two wonderful catches while shielding his eyes from the blinding light. If not for that, the onslaught would have been even worse as the Z's preformed heroically with balanced hitting throughout the lineup. This included Jeff, Cliff, Z, Bruce, Gordon, Bryan who went yard, Mike G., Brian,

Hugh, Ryan, Dave G., and Ed R who's slide into second exemplified the heroism of the warriors.

Game 37 SUNDAY 7.2.22 ALLENWOOD by Gordon

Sunday saw a change of venue to Allenwood Park with his Johner facing off against the Leders. The game time mercury was off the charts once again but this didn't dissuade the gladiators. And it was a hard played game with more stellar defense. Gary Ch., Barry and Ed all made great catches. But the heat on the field matched the heat of the day. In a horrible display of poor sportsmanship, the runner on second, I forget exactly who it was (perhaps Vinnie remembers?), called for a short fly pop near the bag and then threw a hip check against the fielder. The umpire at the time failed to control the field but I won't chastise him, as later in the game, he became a wounded warrior after a massive collision at third base. Get well soon sir!

The hero's for the Leder's were the aforementioned Mark L., who blasted a bomb bursting in air for a solo four bagger, and Zig who lashed missiles all over the field like a patriot. Other contributions came from the minutemen; Vinnie, Kenny, Barry, Bruce, Lee, Doug and Gary W.

Ryan, Bryan, Ed I., and Hugh all played valiantly but this fourteen inning defensive struggle went to the Leder's by the count of 6-3. As Mark was able to best the Judge even though between them there were 20 goose eggs! Great job by the side makers; Lee and Bob.

Game 38A MONDAY 7.3.22 KPP5 by Gordon

KPP 3 saw their position vanquished which only left the KPP 5 fourteen to preserve the honor and integrity of the GNSB. And it wasn't easy. Under blistering heat and savage sun, the seven on seven combatants had to man multiple positions with honor. And so they did. The fourteen who belong in this elite class of warrior, the Seal Team Six of Great Neck, the Green Berets of the diamonds, were Brian, Ed.I, Mike G., Ed H., Dave Gerbs, Gary Z., Bobby, Ziggy, Gordon, Vinny, Bryan, Mark L., Gary Ch., and Steve with an assist from Gary W. who escaped the carnage of KPP 3 and courageously joined his brothers in their quest for freedom from oppression.

It looked like the visiting Z's were off and running until Gary Ch., (there's that man again) made a fabulous over the shoulder grab in Right Center field to limit the damage to two runs. The home side responded with a deuce of their own and it would stay that way until the bottom of the third when the fireworks began. Gary Ch. complimented his strong defense with bruising offense and Leder went yard to put the home side up by three. And then the hitting shoes really came out. The home side sent up 10 in the bottom of the fourth and from there it was a Boston Tea Party at the expense of the Red Sox fan on the hill. The home side broke the scoreboard and when the warriors peeled themselves off the field, the final score was a rollicking 24-6.

But the players weren't done. Many stuck around for extra batting practice!!! PRESERVE THE UNION AT ALL COST!!!

Game 38B MONDAY 7.4.22 KPP3 by Gordon

Monday's game was the one that separated the wheat from the chaff. A beleaguered Bruce, left to protect old glory on his own, attempted to make two games. Unbeknownst to him, and what seems to be a curious pattern of late, the 33 signups dwindled to 29. This is a disturbing trend as it was a glorious holiday and the fields at KPP were in marvelous condition. One can only speculate on why the showing was this meager.

Game 38B MONDAY 7.4.22 KPP3 by Mike L

MIKE LEVINE RETURNS AND REJOINS OUR HIGHLIGHT WRITING STAFF. THANKS MIKE! WELCOME BACK.

Pitchers: Scott vs. Ira
Time of Game: 1 hr/15 minutes
14 Players Having Fun!
Final: 13-4
Game Hi-Lites and other notables:

- Bruce doing a Brooks Robinson impersonation @ 3B
- Ira setting down the opposing club in first two innings – 6 up, 6 down. Third time through the order, not so good!
- Visitors racked up 9 runs in third then tacked on 4 more in the fifth before the mercy rule went into effect as 2 players succumbed to their injuries leaving us no choice but to end the game

Hitting Stars (much as I can remember):
Russ with 2 doubles and a 3 run HR to right center
Scott with his own 3 run HR to right
Jason with one-hop-over-da'-fence double
Matt with the highest fly ball to right I have ever witnessed

Finally a Kumbaya moment as Al, welcoming a new player to GNSB, realized it was a friend he hadn't seen in 50 years, Bob Klepner.

How about that sport fans!

COMMISSIONER'S NOTE:

THANK YOU GORDON FOR PICKING UP THE HIGHLIGHT BULL AND THROWING SO WELL ACROSS THE DIAMOND.

Game 39A Saturday KPP5. 7.9.22 BY GORDON

A powerful heat storm plagued the KPP 5 Saturday game warriors. A blistering sun that turned the infield into a dustbowl, wreaked havoc on the beleaguered participants, already reduced to nine on nine as attendance inconsistencies once again plagued GNSB. And it looked as if the game were in further jeopardy when newcomer Tony pulled a muscle. But lo and behold, out of nowhere came Ryan's friend Rob. This unlikely of all events saved the day as the fleet footed Rob allowed the game to flourish with three outfielders.

It looked at the outset that Z would be in for a long day as the home side Leders plated a pair, starting with a leadoff ala Rickey Henderson home run by Elmer. The Z settled down quickly and put up goose eggs over the next five. But the Leder's team fielding complimented Mark's accurate pitching and the home side was stymied for two innings before plating solo runs in the third and fifth. It would have been more had Lee not gunned down Bryan at the plate to end a threat.

And then the home side started picking up steam. A triple by Gordon was followed by a ground rule double to right field by Lou before he was delivered and the Z's were up two through six. The visitors were undaunted and answered back with a pair in the top of seventh. And then the turning point showed up. With runners on the corners, Pat retreated in right field and grabbed a ball off the wall. He relayed to Brian and to the catcher for the final out of the inning (and no, that catcher wasn't Ryan). Instead of the visitors taking a lead and having a man on third, the half frame ended with the game tied at 5. The teams traded a run in the following inning and it was still tied going into the bottom of the ninth.

Bryan, who had been lamenting his batting struggles, decided to take out his frustration on the clincher, driving it deep into left center field for a two RBI double. The visitors were out of answers and when the Z's cranked it up for five in the tenth, it was all over save the dancing. The big late inning blasts were Seth's two run dinger and Bryan's three bagger that also drove in two.

Z ended the game with three scoreless innings and behind his impressive outing, he emerged with a 12-5 victory. A performance that he would savor until…

Game 40 Sunday A-wood 7.10.22 BY GORDO

Sunday's game at Allenwood was played under perfect conditions. 70 degrees, a light breeze and some gentle high clouds. This contest would pair the visiting Z's against the home side Johners. The original 24 that signed up dwindled to 21 by game time, once again bringing into question whether the board needs to address the attendance matter. This obviously appears unlikely, as the board of late seems reluctant to do anything. There have been some cries to Drain the Swamp but I prefer not to digress and instead choose to focus on the events on the field (being the class act that the writer is).

Z, who obviously had violated curfew, struggled with control, walking four in the opening frame including the leadoff man twice in the same frame. He was clearly a different pitcher than the one who had bedazzled his opponents the day before. And when the dust had settled on the top of the first, the visiting Johners had a commanding 7-0 lead. The balanced hitting that complimented the free passes was provided by Ziggy, Joe R., Jack, Ed, Vinny, Matt, Juan, the aforementioned Johner and Bobby. But the major offensive explosions emanated from the bat of (three) Pete who hit for the cycle! His first inning contribution was minimized by his fourth inning three run bomb.

Apart from that, the Z's and most importantly Cousin Brucie who came in and provided much needed stabilization on the hill, held the home side scoreless for 6 of the last seven innings. In that time, the offensiveness of Barry revealed itself with multiple hits/terrific base running and a solo blast of his own. But that wasn't enough to get the visitors any closer than down 4. Final score: Johners 12 Z's 7.

SPECIAL THANKS TOO GORDO FOR DOING FOR 2 GAMES WORTH OF HIGHLIGHTS THIS WEEKEND, DESPITE BEING UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE.

Flip a Coin.
Heads you win!
Tails you Lose!
That is usually the way these “B” games go.
Today, you flipped the coin and we were both winners and losers.
Nineteen men and boys showed up to play on a very dry and dusty day.
After the first 5 innings, it became apparent that this was a perfect day for a double header. Game 1 was 5 innings. The winning pitcher was Andy Paul (who comes all the way from Brooklyn to play with “the nicest bunch of guys”. Taking the loss was Dan & Scott. Game 2 went 6 innings. The winning pitcher was Andy and taking the loss was Dan & Mike Levine.

A total of 36 runs were scored in both games.

This required the hitting ability of Ed R. (2 HR), Barry D (1 HR) and multiple hits from all. We welcomed our newest paid up member Seth Starr who knocked some rust off and began hitting like a youth of 20.
This game brings out the best in all of us.

Game 49B SATURDAY KPP3 8.13.22 BY GORDO

Perfect conditions awaited the GNSB players at Kings Point Parks venerated Field 3. The turnout was a near perfect 19. All signs were pointing to a spirited and enjoyable contest. Yet fate has a funny way of changing that which appears inevitable. Before the game began, a wild warm up pitch blasted Dan which caused the veteran to require medical attention. It was Cliff who stepped up and harnessed his EMT skills to attend to the situation. Well done sir! Later that morning, the wily stylings of Russ were compromised as an awkward motion led to a tweaked knee. We hope that the two warriors recover and return in short order.

As for the game, the home side Z's more closely resembled the bad news bears. They could neither pitch nor hit nor field. Not even the return of the Pirozzis could stem the onslaught. Solid hitting by Joe, Driller, Ch., Hugh, Al, Jeff and Bruce led to steller offensive production. But it was newcomer Seth who blasted hits all over the field like a seasoned pro. The game was so one sided that the affair was called after Z's beleaguered side had given up 18 runs in 3 + innings.

A second game commenced and Gordon took to the hill in the hope of returning normalcy to the game. And it was a much more evenly matched contest. The six inning dual saw the visitors continue their strong attack but then the home side got it going behind hitting from Ed. I., Adam, Cliff, Barry and Gary W. After three the score was deadlocked. But the visitors would not be denied and posted a four spot lead once again by balanced hitting from all quarters. The second game final was a reasonable 8-4 affair.

Game 50 SUNDAY KPP5 8.14.22 BY GORDO

Sunday's Allenwood field provided a most sublime setting for a leisurely morning contest between Bruce's Bombers and Leder's hosens. The game started with some spectacular fielding. In the bottom of the first, a ball was flared over third base for a certain base hit until a streaking Alex came over from his shortstop position and grabbed the sinking pill with his bare hand. Other great catches were made by Mario, Barry, Joe and the Pais.

The scoreless first two frames suggested that this would be a grueling low scoring contest. And for the first eight innings it was. In the third, new comer Chris, clad in sneakers, unleashed a two rbi double. Kenny kept the home side close with a rope down the first base line that plated a pair. The lead by the Bombers was extended when Ryan went yard with a two run blast. The score after eight was 5-3 in favor of the Bruce's visitors. Solid if not spectacular play was exhibited by Ziggy who hit well all game, Gary Ch. who makes it happen week after week, Kono, Mario, Pete, Roger and Bruce. On the home side, Barry, Ed, Vin, Jack, JRo, the G's W and Z and Bobby were stalwarts.

But at the end of the day, it was one man who took over the game. The aforementioned Alex complemented his stellar defense with a three run honey-moonshot (his wedding is just days away) and a grand salami that collected some primes rbis and busted it open for the visitors. This 7 RBI explosion propelled the visitors to a stunning 18-6 13 inning victory. Leder finally gave way to Z and then Vinchenzo but by then the damage had been done. On the visitors side, Roger pitched the final inning in a non save situation.

Game 51A SATURDAY KPP5 8.20.22 SEE ATTACHMENT

Game 51B SATURDAY KPP3 8.20.22 BY GORDO

A delightful late summer day greeted the B field faithful which featured a spirited contest pitting the visiting Becks vs. the home side Cousin Brucies. In the top of the first, Jason, Joe S., Driller and Mr. Beck stroked shot after shot through the bedazzled home side. When the three outs were finally recorded, four had touched the dish. But the home side came right back. Hugh, Ed,John V., and Harlan displayed their own brand of offensive prowess and cut the lead to one.

Defensive play improved and in the second, there were fine plays on both sides. First Ben made a fabulous grab on a certain extra base drive. Not to be bested, Jason made an over the shoulder grab in left that would have reached the fence. The third inning also saw fine defensive play. The fourth frame saw each side plate three. Balanced hitting by Cliff, Steven, Bobby and late comer Mike led the visitors charge. For the home side. Gary Ch., Ben, Roger and Bruce rallied their side and after a scoreless fifth, it was a one run game. The top of the fifth provided defensive heroics by Ed and Ben. While the visitors were treated to a Doug Beck three pitch three out inning.

In the seventh, the visitors found their groove. Led by Mike, who blasted a 2 rbi triple and Joe who followed with his own three bagger, the visitors scored five. The home side tried to keep pace with Harlan lashing a two run double but strong pitching and defense stemmed the tide. Each side scratched a run in the later innings but the final after 10 was Becks 14, Bruces 9.

Game 52 SUNDAY ALLENWOOD 8.21.22 BY GORDO

Perfect conditions prevailed for the Sunday spectacular at Allenwood Park. The 12 on 12 pitted the visiting Leders vs. the home side Erics. The two pitchers were stingy through two until the visitors got going with a balanced attack. Mark L., Jack, Doug, Pete, Steve and Bobby set the table until the Pais belted a three bagger. When the third out was recorded, the visitors enjoyed a four run advantage. The home side responded in the bottom of the fifth. The key hits being an opposite field laser by Gary Ch and Roger's blast that was scored a double as he was out trying to slide? into third. Three scoreless innings followed as the score remained 5-5. The ninth inning saw the visitors get a pair across. Joe S. (who reported that he was 7 for 6 on the day), Ed, the Gerbs and Vin all supplied the amperage. And it looked as if the home side was done. But spectacular defense by Gary Ch. killed the rally. On the visitors side, Joe S., Doug B, and the Pais all flashed leather to discourage the home side. And when Leder grabbed a line drive up the middle with the bases loaded, the home side couldn't help but be discouraged. But did that stop them? Negative. In the bottom of the 11th, the home side lit it up. Zig, Kono, Kenny, Bryan and Ryan, Barry, Mario, Ch., Rob, Eric, and Bruce all supplied offensive behavior and when the frame was over, Eric's home side was up 10-7. The bedazzled home side put up 11 goose eggs through 13 innings thanks to the wonderful pitching of Eric the Red. And when the final out was made, it was "put it in the books" time for Eric and company. A great game under near perfect conditions. And those that were there were fortunate to be part of this fun, entertaining, well played, competitive affair. And a special shout out to the men of Steel who received their price coffee mugs. The euphoria was tempered shortly thereafter however when the Commissioner shared the sad news that our friend Vincent Bove has had a significant setback.

Game 55B SATURDAY KPP3 9.3.22 BY GORDON

A glorious Labor Day weekend saw a slugfest infest the cozy confines of KPP's field 3. Pitching for the visitors was the southpaw stylings of the artful Roger. The home side featured the mighty Brewster.

In the visitors half, Roger complimented his pitching munificence with his own rocket to right which plated a pair. The home side saw that and raised it by three. First, Driller blasted a two run double and then Doug Beck sent a bomb into the stratosphere for a three run homer. The visitors stayed close as Gordon and Johnny V. drove in three but Dr. Ed came back for the home side with a smash to deep center for a two run four bagger. The top of third saw more plate action as Hugh, Scott, Marty, Cliff, Seth and Gordon combined to knot the score at seven. But the home side answered back swiftly with three runs in the next three innings. The big blasts were Russ's three run homer, Gary W. 's and Bruce's clutch rbi hits and finally Big Ben's two bagger.

It looked as if this would be a runaway freight train but the visitors put together a rally of three runs, cutting the margin to 16-11 and filling the bases. And then the play of the game was made by an unexpected source playing an unexpected position. When a screaming liner was launched to right center field, it looked like a Grand Slam was coming and with it a tight score. But Gary W. had other ideas. Ranging far to his right from his right field position, in a full sprint, Gary extended his glove over his head and backhand and snared the line drive in the very edge of the webbing of his glove. The ball was not even fully secured as he pulled it down onto his thigh to trap the pill and end the inning. Although Bobby drove in two the next inning, Ben plated two before Barry went yard and it was all over save the dancing. Other outstanding defense was provided by Dan on a line drive, Barry in Right Center and Seth at second base.

When it was all over, the final score was Cousin Brewsky's Marauders 22 Roger's Merry Band of Misfit Toys 15. As the game ended, little did anyone know that this very field would be the scene of a Vinny like Home Run Derby theft.

EDITORS NOTE: THERE WAS A PLAYOFF ROUND. SO ALTHOUGH VINNY MIGHT HAVE HIT THE MOST HR'S IN TOTAL, HE DID NOT WIN. ALSO THAT YEAR THE DERBY TOOK PLACE ON FIELD 4 NOT 5.

The Zees came back with 7 In the top of the ninth to tie it 12-12 and then Gerber got the hit to knock in Vinny to win it.
Today's defense was very solid all around. Ed H and Seth K made multiple running web gems in the outfield. Jack also made a very fine running catch.

Game 67A/B mix SATURDAY: KPP5 10.15.22 BY GORDON

A glorious autumn morning greeted 23 warriors for this edition of the Saturday KPP5 GNSB game. I say 23 because the game was limited to 24 and one signee failed to show up. If it were the first time for this particular individual it wouldn't warrant mention. This person however is something of a recidivist. Although truth be told, it is not much worse than those who sign up for every Sunday and then frequently cancel. We look to the board to address this epidemic in short order.

(Commishugana's Note: For the past several weeks I've been asking everyone not to sign on for games unless 100% sure of playing. On days when we have to restrict the number of players, because there are too many for one game and too few for two, guys are being closed out when spots are available because players cancel too late or don't show up at all. This is not right. Several have asked me and the board to enact measures and penalties for guys who take their names off at the very last minute or don't show. I'm reluctant, but I think we might have to, since the situation hasn't improved. I'll keep you posted.)

The top of the first saw the visiting Z's plate a pair. The one and two hitters, Ryan and Ed H., provided the offensive production. Each pounded a triple to lead the charge. The home side responded immediately. After two were out, a base and balls and then some timely hitting by Lee and Kono, sprinkled with some seeing eye base hits and the home side Becks were up by one.

Doug B. bedazzled on the hill and threw nine consecutive scoreless innings. Meanwhile, the home side added single runs in the four of the next five innings to pull away. Seth, Bryan, Hugh, Steve F., Matt , Roger, Gary W. and Dan all contributed to the incessant offensive behavior. And it would have been more if not for some outstanding defense by Mike G. who started a 5-2 double play to thwart one rally. And Gary Ch. continued his fine all around play. It should be noted that last week, he was 6 for 6. Somehow that eluded last week's highlight author. Ch. and Ed H made sterling catches in the outfield. And a Bryan to Gordon peg caught a runner trying to score.

Finally Steve F. was brought into the contest to put out the fire. His three inning performance of giving up one run over three innings was good enough to earn him his first save. Final score Beck/Feinstein 7 Z's 3.

Game 68 SUNDAY: ALLENWOOD 10.16.22 BY GORDON

A fine mist hovered above Allenwood Park as the GNSB gladiators took to the pitch. Starting for the visitors was Leder. He was pitted against the always stylish Eric the U. It should be noted that the park staff did a fabulous job of turning the infield into a pristine venue after an evening rain and abuse by BMX bikers. Combining the perfect field with some early morning sun and it was a field of dreams.

After a scoreless first, the visitors deuced the home side. Matt's seeing eye single and a bloop by Gary W. sparked the rally. The visitors added one in the fourth as Bryan lashed a double, one of his many hits.

The home side staked their claim when Kono blasted a drive that barely escaped the grasp of Matt in Right Center. And after five it was a 3-2 game. It looked like it would be a nail biter and when the home side scored two, the game was now one run in favor of the home side.

And then a disastrous home seventh for the visitors who turned from slick fielders to circus clowns. All that was missing was the carnival music. Among the batters who participated in the rally were, Zig, Kenny, Mario, Jack, Gary Ch., Pete, Roger and Steve.

The visitors tried to get back into the game when Barry crushed a drive to deep center field. But the home side responded immediately with Kono blasting a drive down the left field line for a two run double.

When the red dirt had settled, the U's emerged victorious over Leder and the Z (who blasted a couple of hits) by the score of 10-5.

HERE'S ALL THE SNOOZE THATS UNFIT TO PRINT.

Game 69A/B mix SATURDAY: KPP5 10.22.22
WHILE NON-ATTENDESS GET SNUG UNDER THEIR FLEECE BLANKETS AND DREAM OF COUNTING SHEEP JUMPING OVER FENCES, 21 SOLID GNSB PLAYERS, DREAM OF HITTING BALLS, OVER FENCES.

LIVING THAT DREAM, MARK LEDER HOMERS INSIDE THE FENCE, TO GO ALONG WITH 2 OTHER HITS.

ED H MAKES A RUNNING, FLYING, DIVING, SNAG OF A BALL IN LCF, THAT OTHERS CAN ONLY DREAM ABOUT. HE'S ALSO A NIGHTMARE FOR THE OTHER TEAM OFFENSIVELY AS HE CRACKS 3 HITS AND 3RBI INCLUDING A TRIPLE.

STEVE F HONORS ABNER BY PROCLAIMING TODAY TO BE DOUBLE DAY, AS HE SMACKS 3 DOUBLES.

JON SPIEL HAD A SPECIAL DAY WITH 3 HITS INCLUDING A TRIPLE BUT NEVER IN HIS WILDEST DREAMS DID HE TTHINK THAT HE, ALONG WITH BROTHER MIKE, WOULD BECOME TODAYS NY TIMES WORDLE ANSWER. (SPIEL)

HITTING THE HAY OUT OF THE BALL WITH MULTIPLE HIT AND RBI WERE; BRYAN B, VINNY BATTS THE NOT SO "VINOCENT," RICH LUZARDO, WHO IT WAS GOOD TO SEE COME OUT OF HIBERNATION, JOE S, LEE WITH RBI, MATT R, INCLUDING A TRIPLE AND AND SOME SACK TIME (SACRIFICE FLY) AND ZZZZ INCLUDING A DOUBLE.

JEFF B MADE AN EARLY GAME WEB GEM IN RF TO DISTURB THE GOLDEN SLUMBERS OF THE VISITORS IN THE FIRST INNING.

SETH C AWOKE FROM HIS 2 MONTH LONG BEAUTY SLEEP TO CRASH AN RBI BASE HIT. IT WAS GOOD TO SEE HIM HIM BACK.

DOUGBEES STEADY DIET OF STRIKES, WITH ACID RELIEF HELP BY ZEE, PUTS OPPOSING BATS TO SLEEP FOR MOST OF THE GAME.
GIVE HUGH TODAY'S FIRST EVER UG
(UMPIRING GEM) FOR HIS IMPRESSIVE, DECISIVE, CLEAR, DESCRIPTIVE AND ENTERTAINING UMPIRING. HE PUTS THE UG IN HUGH.

Game 70 SUNDAY: ALLENWOOD 10.23.22

THIS IS NOT TO BE BELIEVED! ERIC THE UN-UNIFORM NOT EVEN KNOWING THAT TODAY'S THEME WAS GOING TO BE SLEEPY HIGHLIGHTS, RETIRED HIS USUAL MLB UNIFORM FOR THE DAY, AND WORE PAJAMAS WITH CARPENTER JEANS, SEE PHOTO. AN EXPLANATION WAS HOPED FOR BUT HAS NOT BEEN RECEIVED YET. INEXPLICABLE!

FOR MOST OF THE GAME THE HOME TEAM'S SCORE WAS A SNORE. THEIR BATS WERE SNOOZING AND THEY WERE LOSING. ALL GAME LONG, HIS JOHNER HELD THEM TO JUST 3 RUNS THROUGH THE FIRST 10 INNINGS. IT WAS A REAL SIESTA FIESTA.

BUT IN THE LAST INNING THE HOME TEAM DARED TO DREAM. THE ALARM WENT OFF. THEY REMOVED THE LUMBER FROM THEIR SLUMBER, AND, LED BY A WAKE UP BLAST, OVER THE RAINBOW AND UP THE HILL BY SUPER MARIO FOR A TRIPLE, TO TIED THE SCORE AT 6.
WHEN THE LIGHTS WERE TURNED OUT THE SCORE REMAINED AT 6-6.

DESPITE TODAY'S OUTBREAK OF GROUP NARCOLEPSY, KENNY'S CAFFEINATED BAT, BANGED OUT MULTI-HITS, INCLUDING A CLUTCH RBI DOUBLE. HE WAS ALSO ABLE TO GET SOME SACK TIME FOR ANOTHER RBI.
SWEET DREAMS WERE ALSO MADE FROM:
MATT R'S MONSTER TRIPLE TO RF WHICH WAS A WAKE CALL TO ALL THE "TOO DEEP" ADVISORS.
ERIC THE NONUNIFORM'S SNAG OF A RISE AND SHINING SURE HIT FADING LINER TO 2B.
KONO'S SLIDING GEM OF A LAZER TO CF, WHICH HE'S BECOME SO EXPERT AT THAT HE COULD PROBABLY DO IN HIS SLEEP.

THANK YOU TO BRUCE FOR BRINGING THE HEALTHIER ALTERNATIVE SNACKS FOR HIS BIRTHDAY. HAPPY BIRTHDAY BRUCE.

SORRY FOR ANY HIGHLIGHTS MISSED

Bright Sun but not too bright, warm breezes but not too windy.
And 18 eager ball players ranging in age from the thirties to the seventies.
The weather was so special that we ended up playing an unofficial doubleheader.
Game one saw Nike (the Goddess of Victory) bless the bats of the Dougie's and curse the bats of the Bruce's. The winning pitcher in a four inning rout was Leder, a Pan-like god in his own right. The losing pitchers were an ungodly trio of Z/B & Luis.
The blessed bats were healed by Mike G (HR), Vinny, Rich L. & Alex B (triples) and more singles and doubles than you can shake a scepter at.
Game Two saw Eros (the Goddess of Love) and Athena (the goddess of Wisdom) join forces to create an interrupted (an uncompleted) four and one half inning game that had to be ended in the bottom of the fifth inning as we over-reached our playing time and the losing team did not get a chance at last licks.
As Claudius was heard to say, All's well that end's well.

On a serious note, at 7:59 am, we observed a moment of silence to honor our lost brethren Vinny Bove. Vinny was a ray of sunshine that brightened up every room or field he entered and will sorely be missed. RIP Vinny.

GORDO SQUAWKS ABOUT HIS 3 FOR 4 DAY WITH A WALK AND 4 RBI-RDS
THE TALON-TED LUIS IS LIKE A HUMMING BIRD, HUMMING IN ONE PITCH AFTER ANOTHER TO GIVE HIM A DAY TO CROW ABOUT. HE WINGS A COMPLETE GAME VICTORY AND GETS 3 HITS INCLUDING 2 THAT HE ABSOLUTELY KNOCKS THE STUFFING OUT OF.

STARLING MARK LEDER WAS PUFFIN OUT HIS CHEST AFTER SAYING "BYE BYE BIRDIE" TO A BALL HE HIT OVER THE CUCKOOO'S NEST, AS THE CROW FLIES, TO CF. THEN IMITATED ROAD RUNNER AROUND THE BASES, FOR A HOME RUNNER.

BRYAN BLACK WAS IN FINE FEATHER AS HE IMITATED A FLY CATCHER, MAKING 2 CONSECUTIVE LEAPING WEB GEMS OF FLAMING-O LINE DRIVES AT SS.

BUT THE HIGHLIGHT THAT EVERYONE IS CHIRPING ABOUT COMES ON THE VERY LAST PLAY OF THE GAME. GOOSE DOWN 9-7, WITH 2 OUTS IN BOT TEN, BRYAN BLACK GOOSE STEPS AROUND 1B WITH WINGED FEET, TO HUSTLE A DOUBLE FOR HIS 3RD HIT. NOW IT WAS

HOME RUN DERBY CHAMPION DAVE GERBER'S TURN, TURN, TURN, AT BAT. HIS GOAL WAS TO HIT THE BALL PAST THE GOAL, IN CF AND HE DOES! BRYAN WHIRLEY-BIRDS AROUND THE BASES TO SCORE 9-8. THE COACHLESS, RANGE FREE,DAVE G WARBLES AROUND THIRD AND TRIES TO SCORE THE TIE-ER. MIKE SPIEL TAKES THE RELAY OUT IN MID-CENTER FROM SS. HE SPINS AROUND AND FIRE FLIES A DART TO THE THE PLATE. RICH L , WHO WAS ON DAVE'S TEAM, FILLING IN FOR A DISABLED PLAYER, INTERCEPTS THE BALL IN FRONT OF THE PLATE AND DAVE'S GOOSE IS COOKED. SO THE GAME ENDS 9-8 ON THE VERY LAST PLAY. AS LUIS SAID, "IT WAS A THANKSGIVING DAY CLASSIC." VERY EXCITING, EVEN THE USUAL BOO BIRDS AGREED.

MARIO HAS A DAY TO CROW OVER WITH 4 HITS INCLUDING A 3 BASE BASTING OVER THE RF'S HEAD.

RICH L PROVED TO BE AN ALBATROSS AROUND LEDER'S NECK AS HE BECOMES A BIRD OF PREY CAPTURING A BULLET SHOT DOWN THE LINE THAT WOULD HAVE TURNED ANYONE ELSE INTO A DEAD DUCK. BUT HE CONVERTED IT TO AN OUT AND OUT, OUT AS ALL THE DUGOUT WAS A TWITTER.
RICH ALSO HIT ONE OF THE FURTHEST "FOWLS" THAT ANYONE HAS EVER SEEN AT A-WOOD.

Saturday Game 81 KPP5 12.10.22

There are a few days when you feel that you've gotten away with something. Where the conditions are so unexpectedly perfect that one can only be humbled by the majesty of it all. Saturday's game at Kings Point Park was just such an event. Two evenly matched sides on a field that slowly thawed into perfect conditions under a bright warm December sun. In a word, glorious.

The contest pitted the stylings of Gary Z. vs the tandem of Lou and Steve F. And the visitors didn't waste any time. Early morning fielding woes combined with Rich L.'s torrid hitting and Mark Leder's right field bomb allowed the visitors to plate a handful. The home side responded with a three pack with Jon Spiel providing the key two rbi hit. In the top of the second, Lou pulled the string on Vinny and the befuddled batter could only turn around and wonder what went wrong. In the bottom of the second the home side got it going. Hugh, Gordon with a two rbi double, Lou, Rich C., Lee, Matt, Andy, Steve H and Ed put up a five spot of their own.

In the top of the third, Leder hit a bomb and two crossed the dish. The home side responded but defense took over and when Bryan caught an infield fly with the fly rule in effect, it looked like the bases packed opportunity would go by the board. But J. Spiel caught the befuddled shortstop staring into space and scored. And when Matt made a fabulous backhand catch in the top of the fourth, it looked like it was all systems go for the home side. But the bottom of the fourth saw a 5-2-5-6-2-5-6 double play and a big inning was averted. Further defensive gems followed. Eric made a terrific catch in right field; Andy made a tough stab of a sharply hit ball for a force out. But the defensive play of the year candidate was turned in by Bryan when he took the relay throw and turned and threw a stunning strike from short left field right into Eric's glove at home. When the ball left his hand, everyone was thinking that's an extra base for the other runners. The reality was far different. A stunned Lee was out by ten feet.

The tide started to turn when Adam hit a one hopper off the LF fence and then Brian started to announce his presence. First he made a critical grab in left with the bases loaded and then he drove in two with a triple. But each time the visitors got a couple, the home side would answer right back. So going in the 11th and final inning, the visitors trailed by the slimmest of margins. And it was then that the normally reliable oversized glove of big Lou went on strike. Between Z's sac fly, Brian and Vinny driving in runs, the visitors ended their innings with the same five spot they started with. The bottom of the 11th saw a spirited rally fall short. The final score Z's 16 – Lou/Steve 13.

Sunday Game 82 A-wood 12.11.22

Sunday's game saw the spirited among us convene in near freezing temperatures at Allenwood park. The pervasive dreariness that abounded infested the game from start to finish. It's really hard to pinpoint the worst offender. Was it the team makers who made a last minute switch that turned what would have been a competitive game into a blowout? Was it Frank the Park Commissioner harassing players at the dugout entrance for votes even though he's running uncontested? Was it the lack of interest that, count them, led to 8 double plays through 11 innings? Was it the hapless fielding and wretched hitting that ruined the morning (apart from Rich L. who blasted a moonshot and a laser for homeruns counting for 7 of 16 total runs on the day)? No, dear reader it was none of those things. In fact, it was a deed. One so utterly selfish and against the spirit of Great Neck Softball that all the participants, to a man: Jon and Roy Z., Jack, Brian, Mario, Leder, Eric, Steve H., the Judge, Bobby, Adam, Rich C., Ed, Rob, Gary Z., and the man who had to bare the brunt of it all, Jon Spiel were revolted by the spectacle.

There is a tradition in our game that when someone has a birthday, they announce it to all the participants and buy some sort of goodies to share. It is camaraderie and it is good. And everybody does it and it is good. And if there are but a few remaining items, they are distributed and that is good.

But someone poked tradition in the eye. Someone said, I will not tell everyone what I have brought and if by chance they should see it, then I will quietly tell them. But if they do not, I will slither away early and abscond with the nearly full container. And bring it back to my house to re-gift for the next party. So despite all that happened on the field, Sunday's game will always be remembered as the Sleazing of the Munchkins game.

I assure you dear reader, that it affords me no solace to report this to you. I can only pray that the holiday spirit will embrace those among us who take the miracle of life for granted.

Sunday Game 83 Schoolyard 12.18.22 by Gordon

The final weekend of fall saw the softball gladiators unable to play on Saturday as many of the original signers withdrew from application for services owing to a torrential downpour that started Friday and lasted into the wee hours of Saturday morning. The schoolyard may have been playable but down to 13, the brain trust prudently cancelled the contest. Fortunately, the whole weekend was not washed away. The schoolyard hosted a wonderful and spirited contest that might simply be referred to as Weinstock goes off.

The crowd that had signed up for Sunday dwindled to 15 by game time. One can only wonder why certain people consistently sign up and then bail. It is wrong, discourteous and indefensible. But fate would lend a hand as a schoolyard neighbor, Gary, joined in to make it an even 8 on 8.

The visitors were led by the Z meister who was pitted against the indefatigable styling of Eric the U.

The top of the first saw Pete slam a two run single foisting the Z's into the early lead. The home side struggled to plate one on Gordon's sac fly but a magnificent grab off Rich C. by the irrepressible Mark Leder and the rally door was slammed shut.

The top of the second saw a repeat with (re)Pete lashing yet another two rbi single to left. But it was déjà vu all over again when Gordon answered with a Texas leaguer and two crossed the dish for the home side.

The top of the third saw the power of the scalding hot Bryan. Besides getting five hits, he crushed several about the yard. His third inning 3 bagger drove in one and from there, the teams started to get stingy, as defense became the order of the day.

Rich C. did drive in a run with a powerful blast but innings 5 and 6 saw nothing but goose eggs as Z and U both found their respective grooves. That changed suddenly when Hugh crushed one to right, Bryan crushed one to center and Leder hit a bomb to left center. Three straight triples and it looked like the visitors, who led from the first inning were going to go wire to wire.

That appraisal seemed even more likely Bobby hit a lead off double in the bottom of the 7th but was left stranded there. The visitors, trying as they might to extend their lead, made one fateful mistake. They kept hitting the ball to right field where a certain Gary W. made brilliant catches one after another.

Not to be labeled a one dimensional player, in the bottom of the eight, Rich and Mario went down the right field line for back to back doubles and then Gary W. came to the bat.

"One, one count on Weinstock. Z delivers the pitch. It's a high fly ball. Way back there. Over the left fielders head. A moonshot and the home side takes the lead!"

The visitors responded with Rob and Bruce helping squeeze a run across. But then again, there was that man Weinstock! Assisted by Jack and Steve, Gary W. delivered the game winning hit in the bottom of the tenth.

The visitors did get one last chance. Despite a 1-2-3 11th, the visitors had a man on and two out in the top of the twelfth and final inning. But when Bryan, who had been crushing the ball all day, hit another rocket up the middle, it was snared at deep short and flipped to Cousin Brucie to end a thriller.

Weather looks iffy for the upcoming week, so this may be the final contest of the year. If you were there, congratulations. If you weren't, well there's always next year and next year and next…

Great Neck Softball – to forever!

Thank you to Gordon for providing these highlights and to Bruce and Bobby who've kept me updated.

Sunday Game 1 Wheatley 1.1.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO

A stunning January 1st, 2023 greeted the warriors of the diamond. Although heavy rains did force some adroitness by the men of steel. A creative twist engineered by Rich L. and the opening game of the year was played in the cozy confines of Wheatley High School. The artificial turf was in perfect condition and it was play ball!

The sanguine affair pitted the relentless stylings of Luis who was relieved in the late innings by Fireman Ralph vs. the time tested guile of the Judge. The visitors scratched a run across in the top of the first. Zig, Joe S. (who was 6 for 8 before the game started), Lou and Leder were the culprits. Two goose eggs started the home side's turn but then the bottom of the third and the home side went hog wild, sending 14 to the dish and plating an 8 spot. The hitting went right through the order. Jon P., followed by Vinny, Rich L., Bryan, Gordon, Jon S., Jack, Mike M, Gary W. and his Johner all contributed. But the big blast was provided by the always stylish Eric The U. who crushed a bases clearing three bagger.

The visitors did make a game of it though. Scratching single runs in two more innings and then rallying for four in the eighth. The offensive behaviour was spearheaded by Ralph and Lou who each blasted two baggers. This cut the score to 9-7 in favor of the home side. But this would be as close as it got. The bottom of the eighth saw the home side respond with a four pack of their own. The homies added a couple of more and the final tally was His Johner's homies 15 - the Lou/Ralphs 7.

Monday Game 2 KPP5 1.2.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO

Monday the 2nd saw the diamond dogs back at KPP 5. The field was prepared by the Park staff and the boys played an 11 on 11 contest which saw Mr. Lou leading the visitors against Ralph's Homeboys. Kudos to the side makers who had to deal with multiple controversies. Some players who signed up didn't show. While others had the temerity to simply show up without signing up at all. This led the always respectable Joe S. to play the game under protest (Joe was 6-8 again, before the game started, thereby getting into the highlights). Unfortunately, he protested something else later which negated his earlier protest and rendered the contest unprotestable.

The visitors led by Jon Z., Ed I., Rich, Lou and Mike opened the scoring. The home side answered back with a deuce in the fourth and a four pack in the fifth. The offensiveness was provided by the always offensive stylings of Mark Leder who crushed shots all over the yard. Also adding to the mayhem was Big Rich Connors who smoked clinchers with a vengeance. And when it looked like the home side was going to run and hide, the visitors pulled the proverbial Dikembe Mutumbo and said, not in my house. The valiant visitors opened the floodgates and put up four spots in the seventh and eight innings. The vicious onslaught was highlighted by Jon Z, Rich, Lou and Mike, each of whom hit moonshots all over the field leaving a beleaguered Roy Z. covered in mud as he dove in vain for the projectiles. Roy did make a sensational grab though to put out the fire and keep the visitors within striking distance.

As the home side come up in the bottom of the last inning down by two, it looked like it was all over save the dancing, until:

Runners on first and second. No out, home side down by two. Zig coming to the plate. Here's the pitch. An outside fastball and Ziggy smashes a drive to deep Right Field. He's putting on the afterburners. Will there be a play at the plate? Here's the throw! SAFE! A three run walk of Knock and Ralph's Raiders win! Look at that crowd of happy players swarming Ziggy as he touches home! What a game!

See everyone next week. Or at least those that aren't sitting on their brains in God's waiting room.

Written Highlights by Lee and Gordon. Thanks guys. And thanks to Gary W for filling in some of the gaps.
Also thanks to Mark Leder and Gary W for taking charge of the balls and equipment.

Sunday Game 3 Wheatly 1.8.23 A-Gord-ing to Gordon

Soggy conditions forced a cancellation of Saturday's game but a savvy decision to move Sunday's game to Wheatly proved prescient. The conditions were perfect, low 40's, bright sunshine and no wind. Those that attended could barely contain their glee and good fortune.

The 16 lucky attendees were divided into two groups of eight with the batting team supplying one fielder. The visitors were led by His Johner. The home side's hurler was vexatious stylings of Gary Z. The visitors stranded a pair in the top of the frame. The home side did not, plating a pair. They were led by Jack, John V., Lou and Mario. The two sides each scratched a run in the second and the home side put up a solo run in the third. The visitors finally got it going in the top of the fourth. Leder's opposite field double and Steve F.'s big time blast led the charge and just like that, the visitors were nursing a one run lead.

The home side put up 2 runs in both the fifth and sixth inning and as time started to grow short, it looked like it was going to come down to the wire. But if you took the visitors and got 12 runs, you would have been wrong. In the bottom of the eight, an overpowering display of batting prowess emanated from the home side. The 10 run barrage was a byproduct of unfettered team offense. Lou got it going with a mammoth blast to straight away center. You know it was a moonshot as Lou sauntered around without a throw. Then the jacked up stylings of Gary W. came to pass as he launched a blast over a beleaguered Left fielder in the person of Mark Leder who could only stare in amazement. Pete, Jon S. also contributed and Jack, in the leadoff role, crushed five hits. The only one who didn't contribute offensively was Double Play Z. And a good thing too or the home side might still be batting. Final score: Z's 18 - Judge 5.

So TC up everyone. You're missing some great action.

Sunday Game 8 A-wood A-GORD-ING TO GORDO.

February and the warriors of the diamond found themselves on the battle and weather hardened confines of Allenwood Park. At the outset of play, the field was supplying a multitude of bounces and was eerily reminiscent of the schoolyard in that regard. But thank goodness for the percipience of Captain Bruce and within a half hour's time, it was a field of dreams. The wind abated, the sun shining brightly and the temperatures into the 40's, in short, a perfect day for a game.

Saturday Game 9: 2.11.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO.

A continuation of mild weather conditions afforded the diamond boys to perform their feats of heroism on the sublime confines of Kings Point Park's field 5. The mild air and bright sunshine were matched by the perfect field conditions and it was play ball!

The contest pitted the great leader of virtue, his Johner against the irascible stylings of the Zmeister. And the opposing hurlers bedazzled batter after batter as the first three innings were a series of goose eggs. Of course, this stinginess could not have happened without defensive genius. In the top of the second, the bases were loaded when Rich Connors, playing first base, made a sensational play. He stepped on first for out number one and then pegged home where Gary "the glove" W. made a fabulous grab and tag. And then in the top of the third, Steve H. snarled a sinking line drive in short center field that stymied another potential rally.

The visitors plated a run in the top of the fourth, led by Rich L's triple. But Big Lou said I'll call that and in the bottom of the fourth, he laced an rbi double to tie the score.

With the score tied, the defensive stylings of the Spiel brother who still participates squelched another rally. Jon S made a heroic stab on a grounder, stepped on second and fired to first. 6-6-3 if you're scoring at home. But the visitors finally showed life by scoring single runs in the 6th, 7th and 9th on respective rbi singles by Messrs Gerb, Matty, and Seth. And with the defense and pitching on lockdown, it looked like the Judges were safe. It was that way until the bottom of the tenth.

Barry slashed an opposite field double driving in a run and with the go ahead run now on first, and Gary W. in the box, the play of the game occurred. With a full count and two outs, the runners were on the move. W hit a soft liner that looked certain to drop between short and left when Jon Z. broke the Kings Point Speed limit and made a diving lunge and came up with the catch. Crisis averted (except for the ticket he received from the cops).

With the visitors leading by one going into the bottom of the 12th and final inning, the ball was handed to fireman Eric the U. who coincidentally (?) was wearing a Yankee road uniform with the number 42 on the back. Now I know that many of you might recognize this number as that of the great reliever Lindy McDaniel but I'm sorry, he wore number 40. But if you choose to research, the number 42 belonged to a certain all time great and of course that would be Eric the U who promptly put out the fire and earned the save.

Great game, great fun. See you warriors next time...

Saturday Game 10: 2.18.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO.

The President's day weekend started with uncertainty. Driving rain Friday afternoon threatened the start of the festivities. Volunteers checked the fields on three separate occasions before coming to a decision on if there could be a game and if so, where would it be held.

This is a more difficult task than the layman might understand. One is essentially forecasting the likelihood of the proper absorption in thirty-five degree weather under a darkening sky. On one hand, the field could be come icy. Or the field could be come muddy. The easiest thing to do is cancel the game; the next easiest thing is to move it to the playground. Neither of these options is optimal. So making the final decision rests on the head of one man and that man was Captain Bruce and he nailed it. Damn the real feel skeptics, full speed ahead. Game On at KPP!

Saturday's game was a nail biter pitting the sleek stylings of Ralph vs. the churlish recalcitrant, Gary Z. Z quickly set the visitors down. In the bottom half, the man among men, the man who put the Leder in lederhosen, ripped a drive that took full advantage of the hard outfield pitch. The shoestring attempt by Vinny came up short and a bad bounce and Mark put up a three run four-bagger and away we go. Stirred by this offensive behavior, the visitors plated three of their own. Steve H drove in one with sharp grounder, fielder's choice. Inspired, the top of the order, Lee and Jon S., drove rbi lasers of their own.

In a heroic effort to help his own cause, Zmeister drove in a big run and the home side regained the lead. But now, the visitors were determined to change the directional vector of the contest. And that correctional vector came in the form of John Harris crushing a bomb off the fence in deep left center for a grand salami, a four pack for the visitors and it looked like it was getting late early for the home side. That thought was eviscerated when Leder led the team with another vicious drive that skipped through for a two run triple. Rich C., said I'll handle it from here and the score was tied going into the seventh.

The Presidential debate continued as both sides scored 2 each in the seventh. Harris drove in one on a fielder's choice after Vinny had lashed an rbi single. But that two pack Shakur was matched on Gordon's two rbi single and the score was tied heading into the ninth. Brian was the star with a leadoff double. Leder drove in the run on an RBI groundout and then Mr. Leder took the pill onto the hill and delivered the save. Final score: 10-9

Sunday Game 11: 2.19.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO.

Sunday was funday for the boys of the diamond. The field was now in pristine condition. That didn't just happen: Jack brought the tools and he and Rich L., Vinnie and Bruce made sure the field was in spectacular shape. Play Ball!

This contest pitted his Johner against the always unquaffable Zmeister. The first innings saw goose eggs but the top of the second saw a continuation of the close encounters of the first kind as both teams scored a pair. The big hits were by Steve H., delivering a two rbi rope to right and Mario, Matt and Steve M. aka the Pizza Man, making deliveries. The game was going along swimmingly until controversy reared its ugly head. It's not for this writer to accurately portray the events as they will either be altered or redacted by the editors. Suffice it to say that there seems to be one set of rules for everyone and another for only one if you Z what I mean.

The game got back on track when the Pizza man crushed one with extra garlic to the left field fence. When the ball was finally returned to the infield, the home side had already cleaned the dishes. Three runs across! And when Gerbs drove in one, it looked like it was over and done. But the top of the sixth saw some clutch hits by Jack, Gordon and Pete with a sac fly and it was close once again.

The home side tried to put it away when Rich L., who has regained his true form stoked a two rbi triple. The top of the eighth and Gordon's sac fly cut the home sides lead to a pair. In the ninth, the visitors decided enough was enough and three came home. Ralph went the other way for a beautiful triple and then Barry crushed another triple deep down the left field line. And now the visitors led by one going into the bottom of the tenth. But the home side would rule the day. Leder hit a smash to second, Matt stung a liner to right and Steve M. belted a sac fly.

The befuddled visitors could not muster another rally and the final score was Homie's11, Visitors 9.

Monday Game 12: 2.20.23 A-GORD-ING TO GORDO.

Two days before George Washington's birthday? Not so, history buffs. George Washington was born on February 9th, 1731 or at least that's what he always believed. But fate would turn that into another date as it was during the 1700's the Julian calendar was replaced by the Gregorian calendar. (A public service message by the GNSB editorial staff.)

The final game of the three-day weekend brought the best weather of the surprising February weekend. Temperatures were into the 50's and the field was in spectacular condition. Again, thanks to the diligence of the few, the mighty.

The final of the three games set pitted the visiting Z's with the honor of playing his Johner. The visitors goosed egg out of the gate and the homies go it going by deucing the visitors. Big Lou and Yellow shoes Harris supplied the heavy composite. A single and an rbi by Gordon cut she lead in half before Vinny, full of kind thoughts for the public servant who gave him a speeding ticket, took his vengeance out on the pill and rocked home a third run for the home side.

The fourth inning saw a blast up the middle hit the second base bag and when the beleaguered outfielders finally grabbed the ball, the score was tied. The next two innings saw outstanding defensive plays by Lou at third and Jon at ss…5-5-3 and 6-6-3 dp's if you're scoring at home.

The next inning saw another pair of matching outputs and the score remained deadlocked. Z had an rbi fielder's choice and Jon Z. doubled home another. The bottom of the seventh saw more clutch hitting by the Zig, Jack, Eric and the rest of the home team. And then the top of the eighth and the visitors got down to business. Once again, Mike G. had the big hit with a two rbi single. Roy and Jeff delivered rbi's and Barry had the big hit to give the visitors a five run lead. But the bottom of the eighth saw the wheels come off the mound stylings of the Z as the toll of all the innings pitched caught up to the Z. Vinnie and Harris were a two man wrecking crew and going into the final inning, the score was tied.

In the top of the 11th, with two out, John Z delivered an rbi double. Mark Leder came in for the visitors and shut the door so the visitors prevailed 11-10.

This was a spectacular weekend. The quality of play, the level of competition, the field conditions all lead to a sensational outcomes. In fact, this writer played a total of 32 innings and the cumulative score for his teams was 30-30. A special shout out goes to the side makers!

Sent via your GNSB electronic GN to Delray Fl to GN relay system.

A special thanks to Gordo for job magnificently done, although I might have gotten a hernia while lifting up my dictionary trying to look up some of those words.

Also thanks to the side makers and to those who unselfishly went out at ungodly hours to check out the fields and to groom the fields. That was above and beyond and is greatly appreciated.

Sunday Game 13: 2.26.23 By Bruce and Leder

Part I Bruce

Kudos to the 17 hardy men & boys who decided the weather on the cusp of our cold threshold did not deter them from showing up and playing our great game.
Anti-kudos to those individuals who decided to run for cover and abandon their teammates.
Extra shout out to the grounds crew…Jack, Luis, Rich L., Mario and myself for running on to the field between innings and throwing dirt onto the mud.
Super shout out to those players who filled in the vacant positions for the other team to keep the game moving forward. While we only had 17 bodies, we played a great 10 on 10 game. Even with the chaos of filling in 2 spots & an Umpire (Zs) and 1 spot and an umpire (Ralph's)we completed 12 innings of great softball.

Part II Mark

A frosty morning turned into a cool, 12 inning battle for 17 Hardy weather resistant ball-Bashing leather -flashing wisecracking, softball die hards at KPPs field of dreams.
Zees visitors came ready to play, and Sweet Lou delivered in the top frame to set the tone for an offensive onslaught.
Ralph's homies evened the score with a hard hit Johnny Z ribby but the visitors came up swinging harder in the second behind a lead off 2 bagger blast from the hot hitting stylishly demented catcher 3 Petey Pete.

The Zeeity was all business and with some seamless mid game Relief from Captain BB was quite stingy on the mound and delivered with his bat today as well.
The Homies pressing all game trying to overcome a long running few run deficit with excellent fielding and highlight catches from John Z, Steve, M, Jack, and Mario but efficiently effective and economical defense by the orange crusher Harris (seen streaking across KPP) effortlessly snagging hard hit drives at centerfield helped hold the Homies scoreless in eight of 12frames!
2B was a veritable hotbed of great fielding highlights today. Rookie Steve M continues to astound with an elegant diving stab and solid all around D kept the visitors from running away with the game early and often.
Natures Wonder , Lefty Luzardo raked and showed his boundless range on the right side. He turned a rare 3-4-3 put out with a sweet assist from Steve H's tibia.
Steve F's buttery baby soft hands at shortstop continue to delight his teammates. He is like an octopus (of unspeakable evil) anchoring his teams defense with uncanny consistency week in and week out.
Thank you to our own GNSB animal trainer/team Maker Bruce for his impeccable work ethic and earthy compost. Have a fine week and see you in March!

Mucho thanks to Bruce (Part I) and Mark L (Part II) for providing these magnificent and surprisingly coherent highlights.
I am looking forward to next week's account, as we march forth (March 4th) to a new record breaking, continuous monthly streak of outdoor play. Sent via your GNSB electronic GN to Delray Fl to GN relay system.

A brilliant band of ball players appeared on KPP's field of dreams this morning under cool blue skies amidst dangerous droppings, mud and possibly quicksand.
First order of business here is a thank you to our hard-raking, hoe-shaking, back-breaking, earth-moving, field-smoothing poop scooping crew of Pete, Jack, Mario, Bruce and Mark.
Positions were taken at precisely 9ish and it was warped speed ahead.
It was game on as Zeez visitors came out with teeth bared and put up a quick 2 against the Stylishly sophisticated Eric the uniform. The Zeeity who will tell you that he returned to top parsimonious form exhibiting rare insight understanding and purpose on the mound. He threw hard strikes all morning gave up a paltry 3 runs…mostly unearned in his 5 frames. Eric the nattily clad U maintained tremendous focus and skillfully and deftly pitched out of trouble when the bases were juiced in top 5 making a tough play and getting and out at home along with a key catch by Gary W on the line in right. His skillful and effective outing left the scored tied at 3 with 7of 10 scoreless frames! (to the guy who invented Zero….thanks for nuthin)

Steve F and Ralph took to the mound for notable performances in relief and with the help of 5 DPs and great D from Flash Paisner and ZZ snagging a huge screamer in the 7th Flash making shoestring catches and putouts the homies kept the visitors contained. Ed I had a big day going 4-4 clutch all field hits and Steve H was on fire slapping 3 key hits. Mark had a solo blast into LCF that was the go ahead run in the bottom 6th, but the visitors refused to retreat and battled back til the last frame putting up 5 runs to the homies 7 making it a very tight and dramatic 10-8 finish with runs scored by Jon Zuckerberg and Barry before Eric turned a sweet DP from 3rd base and Steve made a great catch on the hill with tying run at the plate to end a real beauty! Pete was swinging a big bat and has been solid behind the plate as usual making some sweet catches.

Sunday Game 15: March 12, 2023 A-Gord-ing to Gordo

The weekend of daylight savings time came with the result of a torrent rendering a cancellation of Saturday's contest and a move from the cozy confines of the park to the hard surface of the schoolyard on Sunday. Owing to this, attendance for Sunday's affair was tepid. Or perhaps it had as much to do with the time change which can be quite stark now that it occurs in the early/ middle part of March. Nonetheless, the game went on.

The schoolyard is a difficult place to play defense. Bad hopes abound and ground balls roll and roll. There was no clearer example of this then the first at bat for a hobble Mr. Leder who laced one to the right of the shifting shortstop Johnny V. The ball scooted all the way to the fence as Mr. Leder lumbered. Perhaps some of you are questioning how the fleet footed Markus Aurelius could labor? The day before, he ran a cross country 5k. He made the near fatal mistake of trying to keep up with Paisner. The effect of which was abundently clear for all who were in attendance. The home side answered back as Hughmongous destroyed the clincher all day, racking up triples and doubles and and...and after a second inning foible by the pitcher that should have resulted in a third out, the home side went on a tear plating 9! The lineup: Hugh,Gordon, Johnny V., Rich C, Matt, Gary W. and Bruce was unrelenting. The game was called after five innings with the score 14-3.

A few changes were made and another five inning game was played. The trades worked out well and the second game produced a closer game and after three it was 7-5. But the lineup of Ed, Jack, Leder, Mario, (3)Pete, Steve displayed proclivity of a second order and the final was 11-6. In fact, everyone won at least one game except ….

Until next week...

Saturday Game 16: March 18, 2023 A-Gord-ing to Gordo

The penultimate contest of Winter pitted a determined and grizzled collection of veterans and newcomers including the flamboyant stylings of Steve Mistretta. The battle pitted two dynamic pitching combinations. Representing the visiting squad was the jocular and peevish Gary Z. who gave way halfway through to the indulgent and patriarchal designs of Cousin Brucie. Facing them and representing the home side were the bedazzling pair of knuckleheads, um I mean knuckleball pitchers. Of course, I refer to the Zuckerman himself, Mr. Ralph and the rarely irascible Big Lou who both astounded and confounded.

The contest played as tight as a high stakes poker game. When the visitors started the festivities with a pair, the home side deuced them right back. Big Bryan provided the heavy composite with a two rbi two bagger only to be answered by sweet Lee and Ed R. who's blast hit the third base bag and went high into the air. The top of the second saw a rally squelched by the big glove of Steve Hershon as he snagged a laser destined for glory in short center field. The home side scratched one across in the bottom of the inning when Hugh McCool beat out a fielder's choice for an rbi.

The top of third saw Bryan again wreaking havoc with Big Rich Connors joining the fray. It appeared that the home side would call and double until the visitors fizzled the rally with Jack impersonating Roberto Clemente. After snarling a missile, Jack gunned out a runner at the plate assisted by Bryan. It would be one of three putouts at the dish, testimony to the competitiveness of the game.

The top of the fourth was quiet and the home side seized the advantage when the aforementioned Steve blasted a moonshot and when the lunar dust had settled, two were in and the batter stood proudly on third.

But the visitors resolved to erase the one run deficit and it was that man again, Jack "RC" Schonhaut who crushed a triple to dead center field. When Bryan and Connors contributed to the party, four had scored and the visitors had reestablished their dominance. Or did they? The bottom of the frame saw the home side call the four runs to take back a one run lead. The big plows were provided by Messrs Lederhosen and Matt who both mowed the right field lawn with projectiles. Add Lee and Ed R. and it was 9-8 in favor of the homies.

Seven consecutive goose eggs for both sides and it appeared that the combatants had wearied from all the action. Finally, the home side took advantage of the battle fatigue by plating four in the bottom of the ninth. Lou, Eric, Gary W. all supplied offensiveness. And the visitors' attempt at retribution was not good enough despite the valiant efforts of Brian, Jon Z., Rich L., and Barry.

Final score: Homies 13 - Transients 9

Sunday Game 17: March 19, 2023 By Bruce
Seventeen “To play, or not to play? That was the question— Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous cold and wind. Or to take arms and bats against the elements. And, by opposing, end them?”

Play Ball was heard by 17 captains courageous. This was a tale told by a blustery wind and cold. The first at bat of the visitor Z-team was one of outrageous fortune as all but a few batted balls were wind blown into hits with the outcome being 9 to 0 after the top of the first inning.

Once the players realized how to play the weather, the remaining 10 1/2 innings were well played into a 5 to 4 victory by the judge homies.

The day was so windy….how windy was it?….it was so windy that this reporter’s notes were blown away.

We have to thank the GN parks Department for getting Allenwood into playable shape.

Special thanks go out to Rich L. for dragging 2 extra players onto the field to allow us to have a game.

Extra special thanks go out to Z's protective paunch which took the brunt of a wicked line drive. He is fine.

This reporter somehow ended up on first base a record 4 times.

Other players did other things but as was stated previously, the notes were blow away.

Sunday 4.2.23 By Eric the INFORMER?

Hi-Lites 4-2-23

In 1990, a company called ACCUWEATHER registered the term " real-feel. " They used the name to describe how the outside temperature was affected by the force of the prevailing winds.

At game time, the sun was shining and the temperature was 42 degrees Fahrenheit. The winds, however, were gusting up to 30 mph. The "real-feel" temperature was 13 degrees.

Twenty (19) hearty souls assembled at the school yard in Queens, anyway. Jonathan Silver, (a.k.a, "Juan Plata") was among them.

This was his first time back, after sustaining a concussion while bike riding. He "manned up" and played catcher for Gary Z. "

"Welcome back, Jon."

The first inning, no one could make a play in the field. John Hunt's visitors scored a quick five unearned runs.

When it was the Home teams turn at bat, we surrounded John Hunt and reminded him that he had a pretty nice lead and to just pitch strikes.

He did just that and the visitors suffered the same fate as Gary Z's home team. It looked like the visitors were playing soccer with the softball. The only shot that was not mishandled was Mat's ground rule double over the right field fence.

A quick four unearned runs ensued, and there were still no outs.

The visitors approached the mound again. This time we encouraged John to simply strike everyone out.

If he couldn't get them out himself, we might all freeze to death.

John bore down on the next three batters and set a Great Neck Softball record: he struck out all three men to end the inning!! That had never happened before and May never happen again.

The second and third innings were relatively uneventful, offensively. Marc Leder, at short stop, made every play look routine for the Visitors. Lou, at third, did the same for the home team.

Both teams sacrificed their first baseman's eyesight. Steve, for the home team; and Bruce, for the visitors. Both looked directly into the sun, as missiles came hurling their way from short stop and third. They caught them all, without exception.

By the start of the 4th inning, the game was tied at five all. The temperature had begun to rise into the mid forties and the wind started to ease up.

Gary Z. had not walked a single batter. He didn't walk even one batter the entire game!! That may have been how his team slowly began to build its lead. There were no angry calls from his own team mates: "just throw strikes, will ya?" They were a united front.

They had strong hitting from Lou, Seth, Gary C., Mat, and John V. John V. Wore only a tee shirt. If he didn't run around the bases, he was in danger of hypothermia; so he made sure to get on base.

The home team added runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

Before the visitors knew it, they were down 12 to 7.

In the eighth inning, the visitors tried to mount a comeback. They wisely started their lineup with two very "physical" EDs: Ed H. (the doctor) and Ed R. (The power house).

Ed H. Got on base and then Ed R. Hit a monster shot way, way, way over Seth's head in center field. Ed H. Scored, but that was it.

It wasn't particularly wise to hit one that far, not with Lou on the opposing team, watching.

He would match it in the home squad's half of the same inning. It was now 13 to 8. Gary Z's home team gave up one more run in the ninth.

The accuweather "real-feel" temperature was about 40 degrees when, with 12 minutes remaining on the clock, the visitors negotiated an extra, final, at bat.

It was to no avail, Gary Z's home team had secured the WIN.

Honorable mention goes out to Gordon. The "guilt trip" he laid on us all, last week, for not playing on the asphalt, probably contributed to a good turn out this week for the ASPHALT JUNGLE EXPERIENCE.

Two pure breed dogs were spotted during the game: a Bouvier de Flanders and a French Bull dog. Neither took a dump on the field, proving there are no bad dogs, only bad dog owners.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTE
Has our STREAK RECORD become so expected and so routine that it is no longer mentioned or photographed?
I will be there next weekend to restore order.

WE ARE NOW UP TO 139 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS OF OUTDOOR PLAY.
KUDOS TO ALL THE COURAGEOUS PLAYERS WHO MADE THIS HAPPEN.
GAR

of the winter season belongs to one man. Unheralded and under appreciated, Bruce's effort on behalf of GNSB was simply magnificent. First, on Saturday, the venerable one using every meteorological known to science brazenly decided to pull an audible and changed the game time from 8:45 to 7:45. This heroic measure allowed a full game to be played before the 10 a.m. rains arrived in earnest. And while these pages are regularly devoted to the exploits of our humble warriors, it was this precinct move that was the play of the day. For the sake of some semblance of balance, the game pitted Eric the U vs. Mr. Z. Z's side plated through four led by Gary W., who has turned himself into quite a player, Ed R who blasted a triple and Rich Z. But the U's went Gorilla in the Mist and with two out scored 6 in the bottom of the fourth and tacked on 4 more in the 5th. Steve M. squared up and drove the ball around the yard. But it was the entire line up of Lee, Jack, the brother Spiel, CU Leder, Ed I. Brian and Steve H. that supplied the offensive prowess. Hugh tried to carry the Z's back but lack of support hindered his herculean effort.

Sunday however is another story, and a shameful one at that. Once again that man around the diamond, Cousin Brucie did everything in his power to provide a haven for the 22 players who signed up on Team Cowboy. Bruce lives more than 20 miles from Great Neck. But committed to the task, he arose and drove first to Allenwood and then to KPP to see if either field were playable. But alas, the rain had rendered the fields too soggy for use. So he announced that the game would be at the schoolyard. And then the unthinkable happened; rather than appreciate his effort, many of the signees decided to simply drop out leaving too few players to have a game. To those that engaged in that behavior, shame on you. It is an insult to Bruce. He sent out an email the night before explaining the situation. If you, for some arbitrary reason, will never again play on the playground, then remove your name. But expecting Bruce to run around to find a field on an absolutely beautiful Sunday morning and then flake out is pure selfishness.

The writer wished to apologize on behalf of the group, Bruce. You deserve better.

New season starts next week: All games from now through November will start at 7:45.

GAME 20: Saturday 4.8.23

THE LOTS BEAT THE LITTLES 21-9 MAINLY BECAUSE OF LOTSA MATZOH BALLS PASS-ING-OVER, AROUND, AND THROUGH A VERY HOLY DEFENSE ON THIS HOLY WEEKEND.

JACK THE RIPPER TRIPPED THE LIGHT FANDANGO AROUND THE BASES AS RIPS 6 HITS AND CAUSES THE OPPOSITION TO TURN A WHITER SHADE OF PALE!

NOT A GOOD DAY TO HIRE GARY Z TO WALK YOUR DOG BECAUSE HE WALKS NO ONE TODAY. BUT IT WAS GOOD DAY TO HIRE HIM AS A HIT MAN BECAUSE HE BANGED OUT 4 HITS.

HUGH MAINTAINS HIS STANDING AS ONE OF THE TOP PLAYERS IN THE HUGH-NIVERSE WITH HIS QUITE A FINE, QUADRA-HIT DAY.

IT WAS A FINE LINE BETWEEN FAIR OR FOUL, BUT STEVE FEINSTEIN GROUND-BALLERED A HOMER DOWN THE LF LINE, AMONGST OTHER FINE HITS.

GARY W CONTINUES TO AWE AS HE COLLECTS 4 MORE IMPRESSIVE HITS, MONSTER TRIPLES CAME OFF THE BATS OF RICH L AND ROOKIE JOHN L.

VINNIE, RICH C, ROOKIE STEVE M, RALPH, LEE, MATZOH BRI-AN, AND PROBABLY OTHERS HAD SWELL DAYS AS WELL, BUT IT'D BE TOO MUCH TO TELL.

GAME 21: Sunday 4.8.23 Possibly written by a bot.

Today's warriors saw a seesaw battle, as the lead changed hands 5 times. The tying was run left on 1B, and the winning run, in the body Marc Kono, who had 5 hits on the day after taking a 5 month body break was left in the on-deck circle.

We've all met Eric the Met, who met the ball very well for 5 hits today, including a triple. He also made 2 tremendous plays at 2B, including a DP turn, that reminded nobody of Charlie Neal at all.

By far, the MVP goes to, the faster than light Seth K, who ran down several both laserly and lazily hit potentially, dangerous fly balls to all parts of the outfield, including a spectacular comet streaking across the universe-esque grab, that reminded nobody of Jim Hickman. As a result he gained alternating nicknames of the "ERASER" by Gary Z and the "TARP" - for covering the whole field, by Petey I.
In addition Seth banged out 5 hits including a triple and 2 doubles! Wow!

Ed Ip put the ip in rip as he ripped 5 hits. Both Mario and Luis, who were not on LSD trips, rippled triples worthy of being listed in Ripley's Believe it or Not. Rob Wurtzel, shortly after trips to Israel and Vail, went on several trips to the bases via 4 line drive safeties.
Rich Connors, Jack and Kenny also hit the ball hard multiple times, but since its called softball, we're not sure if those were legal. This makes no sense, but neither do I.
Kudos to Bobby for producing another close game.

REMINDER:
DO NOT SIGN UP FOR A SUNDAY GAME UNLESS YOU ARE 100% SURE THAT YOU ARE PLAYING. IF MUST REMOVE YOUR NAME PLEASE BE CONSIDERATE OF OTHERS ON THE WAIT LIST AND REMOVE IT BY 8PM THE EVENING BEOFRE THE GAME. THANKS.

CRACK OPEN THE BOT-TLE OF CHAMPAIGN! CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR PLAY, 140 HAS BEEN ACHIEVED. KUDOS TO ALL

GAME 25A: Saturday 5.6.23 KPP 5 BOT-TOM LINED BY A HUMAN

This was a 9 on 9 game in which all 9 batters in the lineup got up in bot-h in the top of the first and the bot-tom of the first, scoring 9 runs in the first inning in total. But the homies scored another 5 in bot 2 to take a commanding 10-4 lead. The Vizzy 9, chipped away all game but came up short with the tying run at the plate in the 8th inning. The game was an inning shy of 9 innings, due to a bot-ulized atmosphere of excessive crankiness, belligerency, and childishness, which the Board is scheduled to address this Wednesday.

It was extremely hard to take notes and remember events in this setting but here goes.

BOT-H BRIAN STAR AND VINNY BATTERIA, WHO FOR THE PURPOSES OF TODAY'S THEME WILL BE CALLED VINNY BOT-TERIA, CRASHED 4 HITS, RICH L HAD A BOOMING TRIPLE. FLASH PAISNER BANGED 3 HITS, INCLUDING A TRIPLE. BOTH ED R AND SETH K HAD MULTI-HITTERS INCLUDING DOUBLEs. MATT R HAD 3 HITS INCLUDING 2

DOUBLES, MARK LEDER HIT A MOONS-TERUS 3 RUN TRIPLE. HUGH TRICYCLED WITH A SINGLE, DOUBLE AND TRIPLE. JON SPIEL HAD A MULTI-HITTER INCLUDING A TRIPLE. THE ZEE-ITY KNOCKED OUT 3 HITS. JON Z HOMERED, DOUBLED, AND THREW OUT 2 RUNNERS AT SECOND BASE FROM CENTERFIELD FORCING OUT RUNNERS ON WOULD BE BASE HITS. NICE HITTING WAS ALSO SEEN FROM RYAN, STEVE M, DOUG B AND JACK.

GAME 25B: Saturday 5.6.23 KPP 3 Bot-tom lined by Gordo

Awe inspiring beauty greeted the B field com-bot-ants for Kings Point Park in early May resonates with spectacular spring colors, soft sunlight, gentle breeze and nary a single insect to spoil the splendor. If being privileged to enjoy time with friends in such a setting isn't enough to bring good cheer, then how about a friendly game of softball. And so the warriors parked their genteel behavior and took to the diamond.

The visitors were led on the hill by the magnanimous styling of Ralph and his perplexing knuckle ball. Against him for the home side was the ever pleasant even keeled Lee.

A scoreless opening frame gave way to the home side getting offensive in the bottom of the second. Newcomer Ken launched a drive to deep left for a double. Timely hitting by Pete with a sac fly and Nick who rejoined the fun after sitting out most of the winter, driving in another with a laser to right. The home side plated three more in the third after an rbi single by Gordon and rbi two bagger by another returning player, Cliff.

It was looking to be a one sided affair until Ralph picked up the pace for the visitors. His two rbi three bagger highlighted a four run fourth which brought the visitors within one. But it was more than his spectacular play that brought deserved accolades. Ralph was among the masses that searched intently for Juan's hearing aid. And it was Ralph who played the hero by spotting the undersized device along the first base line. Well done Ralph!

The visitors took the lead in the sixth with Juan lashing a drive to left followed by Steve and the score now stood Ralph and co. 6, Lee and the gang 5.

Johnny V. took out his frustration on the innocent clincher and drove in the tying run. His anger justified by the number of line drives that barely escaped his lunges. The visitors tacked on a pair with Ed I. drilling a double and Juan continuing his fine hitting.

The home side seemed to be losing their steam and that is easily understood as Steve H. kept snaring line drive after line drive. Al Z. did squeak one through to drive in a run but Ralph and Juan, a veritable two man wrecking crew pushed the lead to 12-9 as this and one more was called. And it appears that the call was taken as a call to duty as the home side came out of their shell and put up 6. Lee, Kono, V, Gordon, Russ, Cliff, Ken, Pete Bruce and Nick all contributed.

The visitors, despite the best efforts of Joe who was once again 7 for 6, Russ, Gary Ch., Ed, Ralph, Juan, Jeff, Seth and Steve could not overcome the late inning onslaught. The game ended when Johnny V. finally caught a sharp line drive with the final score Lee's fleas 15 – Ralph's gators 12.

A magnificent day, a magnificent game all punctuated with camaraderie and good will. A tribute to the spirit of Great Neck Softball.

GAME 27A: Saturday 5.13.23 KPP 5 "A" field. By ai with some human assistance.

Well, well, well, what a game we had today folks. The battle of the Dougs was truly a sight to behold, and only one could come out on top. Luckily for us, it was Doug Koch who emerged victorious. You could practically hear his triumphant roar echoing through the park.
But let's not forget about Jon Z's majestic home run - it was a real masterpiece, the kind of hit that would make Babe Ruth proud. And what about those three hit performances by the DougBee, Flash Paisner, Steve M, and Vinnie, Sure, they were impressive, but let's be real - they were no match for Doug Koch’s performance.

Of course, we can't talk about this game without mentioning Lee's five hits. That's right, five hits! It's like he had a magic bat or something. And let's not forget about Ed I's spectacular play - it was so good, it made the crowd gasp in amazement.
All in all, it was a close and tight game, but with all the crazy talent on the field, it was clear that something special was bound to happen. And happen it did - in fact, it was so wild that I'm sure people will be talking about it for years to come.

GAME 27B: Saturday 5.13.23 KPP 3 “B” field. By ai with some human assistance.

Ladies and gentlemen, AI can hardly contain my excitement as AI recount the epic Great Neck Weekend Softball Game on KPP#3 "B" field that took place on Saturday, May 13, 2023. The home team may have trailed 5-0 after 3 and a half innings, but boy did they come back in a big way, winning 18-9! I mean, talk about a comeback story. Hollywood couldn't write a better script!
And let's talk about the players, shall we? Super Joe had 5 hits, including a double and a triple. But who cares about that when we have Gary Weinstock with 4 hits and Mark Leder with 4 hits, including a double? Move over, Super Joe, there are some new stars in town!
But let's not forget about Elmer, Harlan, and Driller, who all returned after an 8-month hiatus and killed it on the field. Elmer hit not one, but two home runs and made a "fine running web gem catch" in centerfield, all while throwing out a runner at third base from "fairly deep center field on a force play." Is there anything this guy can't do? And Harlan banged out 3 hits, including a double and a sac fly. But the real highlight of his game was an out that was caught right in front of the left field fence by Super Joe. Wow, I mean, who needs a home run when you can hit it just shy of the fence? And let's not forget about Driller, who had a “multi-hit game" (whatever that means). And then there's Seth Starr, who cracked 4 hits and threw out a runner at second base. But that's not all, folks. He also made a "spectacular circus catch in right field," saving several runs. I mean, move over Elmer, we have a new star in town!

But wait, there's more! Gordo smashed 3 hits, including a double, and drove in 4 runs. Defensively, he was key in 2 double plays, including a "take it yourself to Steve H 6-6-3" and a "6-4-3 to Plata to Steve." And let's not forget about Gary Charney, who blasted a "huge triple." And Nick had a couple of fine hits. But the real defensive hero of the game was Barry D, who made a "nice nab on a crucial play." Move over, Superman, we have Barry D!

In conclusion, the Great Neck Weekend Softball Game on May 13, 2023, was a truly epic, over-the-top, and incredible game. Hollywood, take note, because this game was a blockbuster hit!

GAME 28: Sunday 5.14.23 Allenwood By ai with some human supervision

The Great Neck Weekend Softball game at Allenwood Park was an epic showdown on Sunday, May 1, 2023. The game was a real nail-biter, with a final score of 10 to 7 in 12 innings. Despite the long game, the weather conditions were perfect, much to the delight of the players and fans.

The game was filled with plenty of highlights, including some jaw-dropping home run bombs by Leder and Mario. These two sluggers didn't just hit the ball out of the park, they sent it into orbit! But they weren't the only ones making noise on the field. Lee, Rory, and Ed I all hit monster triples that had the outfielders running for their lives.

And let's not also forget about the sharp double by Mario, who seemed to have a personal vendetta against the third baseman. He hit the ball so hard that it looked like it was on fire!
But even with all the excitement on the field, the fans couldn't help but crack a few jokes and puns. One fan quipped, "If these guys keep hitting like this, we'll have to change the name of the park to Allenwood Home Run Field!" Another fan added, "I guess you could say Leder and Mario really hit it out of the park today...literally!"
Overall, it was a great day for softball and for those who appreciate a good laugh. The only downside? The game was so long that some of the fans will have to call out sick from work tomorrow!

Errata from last week:

Breaking news! The score of last week's Allenwood game has been mistakenly reported. After careful analysis, we have discovered that the actual score was 14-10, not the previously reported 18-9. We would like to extend our deepest apologies to all those who were traumatized by this egregious error.
The guilty party responsible for this mistake will be harshly dealt with. We will not rest until justice has been served and the perpetrator has been brought to justice. They will be forced to watch an endless loop of slow-motion replays of every missed pitch and every botched catch until they beg for mercy.
The impact of this error cannot be understated. Fans who were ecstatic over the original victory are now left to pick up the pieces of their shattered dreams. The players who thought they had won by 4 runs now face the harsh reality that their victory was nothing more than a mirage of winning by 9 runs.

To all those who were affected by this mistake, we offer our sincerest apologies. We know that the pain and suffering caused by this error cannot be undone, but we promise to do everything in our power to ensure that this never happens again.
In conclusion, we ask that you take a moment of silence to reflect on the gravity of this situation. Let us come together as a community to heal and move forward, stronger and more resilient than ever before. Thank you.

THE CALL TO ABORT SATURDAY'S GAME WAS A ROW VS WADE DECISION. PLAYERS WOULD EITHER HAVE TO ROW A BOAT OR WADE THROUGH THE WATER TO GET TO THE FIELDS. SEE ATTACHMENT. NEITHER WAS NECESSARY AS IT WAS DECIDED TO ABORT THE GAME. HOWEVER ON SUNDAY THE DECISION WAS MADE, NOT TO ALLOW THE GAME TO BE ABORTED.

GAME 29A: Sunday 5.21.23 Schoolyard. By Gar-ai in support of writers.

DESPITE 35 RUNS, 13 INNINGS ARE PLAYED AS PITCHERS WHEEL AND DEAL, WHEELY WELL, WITHOUT DELAY.
Oh, what a heroic display we witnessed on that fateful May 21, 2023 Sunday at the Cracked Asphalt Schoolyard! The players who graced us with their presence deserve all the praise we can muster. They valiantly risked life, limb, and the delicate balance of their family lives just to be there on that dry field, under the warm sun, with the luxuriant grass defiantly growing right through the cracks in the concrete. What selfless dedication!

Let us not forget the players who couldn't join us on this illustrious day. They, burdened by the stress on their bodies, particularly their geezer knees, rankled ankles, and chipped hips, chose to stay home and nurse their wounds. How considerate of them to prioritize their own well-being instead of recklessly putting themselves at risk. Truly, they are beacons of wisdom and responsibility.
And oh, how can we overlook the noble sacrifice of Ed I and Gary W, who defied conflicts and other trivial obligations to grace us with their presence? While others were at home, desperately attempting to assuage the emotional wounds they acquired as children, Ed I and Gary W stood tall, ready to conquer the softball field. Their commitment to the game, despite all odds, is truly awe-inspiring.
We mustn't forget the extraordinary circumstances they endured on that fateful day. The dry field, parched and unforgiving, tested their endurance and resilience. The sun, beating down with its relentless fury, challenged their very existence. But due to their unyielding determination to conquer nature itself they showed up. And lets not forget the dance troupe of dancing women in centerfield trying to distract us and hoping to divert our attention away from possible balls striking us in the face.
Yes, we witnessed a display of heroic proportions at the May 21, 2023 Sunday Great Neck Weekend Softball Highlights. The players' dedication to the game, their selfless disregard for personal comfort and safety, and their unwavering commitment to endure the harsh conditions should be commended with the utmost sarcasm. Bravo, players, bravo.
But in this politically charged arena, the players took the field with the determination to make their mark. The game was a battlefield that left any spectator that wasn't there, on the edge of their seats.
Mark Leder, a true embodiment of the American Dream, unleashed a relentless offensive assault with his five hits and five RBIs, including two doubles and a monstrous titanic blast. Leder's performance was a rallying cry for the team, proving that hard work and perseverance can lead to tremendous success but it diidn't, just like in the political arena.
Meanwhile, Gary Charney, the embodiment of a political maverick, defied all expectations with an unprecedented seven hits, leaving opponents dazed and confused. His ability to navigate the field and hit with precision was a metaphorical reflection of a politician skillfully maneuvering through a chaotic landscape.
Ziggy, Gordon, and Ed Ip, who puts the "Ip" in "rip" like a savvy political strategist, unleashed an offensive blitzkrieg with their four-hit games. Their hits were like well-crafted political speeches, resonating with the crowd and leaving the opposition reeling. Each swing of their bats carried the weight of political change and left a lasting impact on the game.
John Vitale, a powerhouse of determination, delivered a stunning five-hit performance that included a mammoth triple. His hit echoed through the stadium like a political revolution, energizing the crowd and propelling his team forward. It was a display of raw strength and a reminder that sometimes, in the game of politics, it takes a mighty swing to make a difference.
Ed H, despite battling an ailing knee, soared through the air like a political idealist, making not one but two incredible web gems. His leaping catch was akin to a politician defying the odds and reaching for the stars, while his outstretched running gem symbolized the tireless pursuit of victory against all odds. It was a visual spectacle that transcended the boundaries of the game itself.

The fielding prowess of Ziggy at shortstop, executing a flawless 6-6-3 double play with Dan, was a political alliance forged on the field. Their coordination and precision mirrored the art of political compromise, showcasing the power of teamwork and strategy.

Leder, Mario, and Dan, in a crucial sort reminiscent of a high-stakes political negotiation, executed a spectacular double play that left the opposition in awe. Their seamless execution was a testament to the power of unity and the art of seizing opportunities.

Dr. Ed, Plata, and Jack added their voices to the political symphony with their multiple hits. Dr. Ed's hits which included a triple and his centerfield field play were like policy proposals, strategically placed to maximize impact, while Plata and Jack's contributions were like grassroots movements, inspiring change and unity among the team.

The May 21, 2023 Sunday Great Neck Weekend Softball Highlights were a battleground of political clichés and puns, a reflection of the fervor and passion that accompanies both sports and politics. The players embraced their roles as political gladiators, using their skills and determination to create a spectacle that captivated the crowd. It was a reminder that even in the realm of sports, politics permeates every aspect of our lives, and the game itself becomes a microcosm of the political arena.

When the votes were cast the visiting dignitaries helmed by Eric the Yankee defeated the homeland favorites in a landslide 22-13 victor although the electoral college had it at 5-5, since each team won 5 innings.

Get your raincoats and umbrellas ready because Saturday, May 20, 2023, was a wet and wild day at Kings Point Park for the Great Neck Weekend Softball game. The evil weather makers did their best to ruin the fun, but the players defied the odds and embraced the rain-soaked challenge with gusto.

Amidst the pouring rain, Leder and Mario unleashed home run bombs that were so powerful, they could've caused a mini tsunami. Not content with just hitting long balls, they also doubled sharply over third base, leaving the infielders swimming in their wake. It's safe to say they made the outfielders feel like they were playing in a fish tank rather than a ballfield!

Not to be outdone, Lee, Rory, and Ed I hit monster triples that had the spectators holding their breath. They zoomed around the bases like Olympic swimmers, creating waves of excitement with each splash they made in the muddy basepaths. It was as if they had fins instead of feet!

The slippery conditions didn't deter the fielders from making jaw-dropping plays. Rory, Brian, and Mike Smolens were like superheroes with their web gems, leaping through the air to snatch the ball out of the rain-soaked sky. Their agility and precision were so impressive that one could swear they were part frog, with webbed feet keeping them dry and steady.

As the game progressed, the rain poured relentlessly, but the players didn't let it dampen their spirits. They were determined to play through the wet weather and make a splash in their performance. It was a sight to behold as they slid through the mud, their uniforms turning into works of art with the finest patterns of mud splatters.

These incredible highlights deserve to be shared with the world, and what better place to post them than the web? So, get ready to see Leder's home run bombs and Mario's doubles on a loop, along with Lee, Rory, and Ed I's unforgettable triples. And don't forget to appreciate the web gems by Rory, Brian, and Mike Smolens, proving that even in the rain, they were the masters of their domain.

Despite the rain's best efforts, the players showed their resilience and made the game a wet and wild adventure. So, let's raise our umbrellas in salute to their determination and skill. After all, it takes more than a little rain to stop these softball warriors from making a splash!

Here's the scuttlebutt for this Incredible Memorial Day Weekend

GAME 29A: Saturday 5.27.23 KPP 5

In the spirit of Fleet Week in the Big Apple, the Great Neck Softball game on Saturday, May 27, 2023, was a true display of seafaring prowess. Our softball heroes, Bryan Black and Rich Connors sent mighty cannon balls sailing through the air, going an impressive 6 for 7 at the plate, with both even adding a double to their fleet of hits. It was as if they were on a mission to conquer the field, leaving the opposing team feeling like they were caught in a storm of hits and runs.

Not to be outdone, Lee, Brian S, and Mike Smolens joined the hit parade with four hits each, showing off their own fleet of foot and leaving the outfielders feeling like they were chasing after mermaids. Ed I, known for his lightning-fast speed, displayed his own fleet of foot, racking up multiple hits and causing the opposing team to wonder if he was secretly part dolphin!

Flash Paisner and Flashy Jon Zweibel were like two captains leading their fleet feet around the bases, showcasing their lightning speed and leaving the opposing team's defense feeling like a floundering ship in a sea of confusion. With at least three multiple hits, they were the wind beneath their team’s sails. They were like torpedoes, racing from base to base, leaving their opponents in a whirlwind of confusion.

But the hits didn't stop there. The Destroyers were out in full force. Hugh, Doug K, Steve M, and Mike G launched their own naval assaults on the ball, sending them soaring through the air like cannonballs.

Mike G, was a defensive rock at third base, making plays that would make even the Department of Defense proud. His performance was so outstanding that he was awarded the prestigious Gold Glove Medal of Honor, a true badge of honor for his defensive exploits.

In the end, the DougKs team cruised through the game, capturing the victory and leaving the opposing team feeling like they had been caught in a mighty tempest. It was a day of heroic exploits, brave plays, and moments that will be talked about in softball circles for years to come. Bravo to our seafaring softball stars, who braved calm seas and sunshine to be there. The day filled with laughter and joy, leaving everyone aboard the Good Ship Softball with memories that will last a lifetime.

GAME 29B: Saturday 5.27.23 KPP 3 . By Gordo

The Memorial Day weekend started off with a bang. KPP's "B" field saw a deluge of bombs resulting in one of the highest scoring games in a long time. The drama pitted the visiting Smithereens against the homies of Lederville.

Joe S. started the game by continuing his torrid hitting and scoring the game's first run. In fact, Joe hit 17 triples over the day and was 13 for 11 overall. However, while Mr. Sineno's offense was exemplary, his defense was abhorrent as he merely stood and watched Leder's blast sail right past him while he remained anchored to his spot. The home side got their mojo working in earnest unleashing a 6 run third inning and it looked like clear sailing on the bright clear Saturday contest. The offensiveness was balanced through the entire lineup as Russ, Harlan, Gary Ch aka the hitting machine, Seth, Gary W., Cliff, Dean the Dream, Dan and Seth all participated.

And just when it appeared over save the dancing, the visitors called the offensiveness and raised. Kono, Driller, Scott, Gordon, the Bashman, Barry, Steve and Cousin Brucie Decorated the field with hit after hit. Over the next 6 innings, the visitors plated 21 runs.

Try as they might, the home side made a game of it by cutting the lead to one in the bottom of the eighth but the visitors crushed clinchers and scored seven in the top of the last. Final Score: Smithereens 22 - Lederhosens 14.

GAME 30: Sunday 5.28.23 Allenwood

Anchors aweigh, my friends! Prepare to set sail on a wacky adventure as we dive into the uproarious tale of the Great Neck Softball game on Sunday, May 28, 2023,
Kenny M, showed off his prowess with three hits and a sea of success. He navigated the bases like a seasoned commander, leaving the opposing team feeling adrift and de-fleet-ed. His hits were propelled with such force that they sailed through the air at warp speed, resembling turbo-props on a frigate.
And speaking of frigates, let's not forget about Super Joe's incredible shoestring catch on the starboard side of the field! It was a true battleship move, leaving spectators in awe of his acrobatic skills. Not to be outdone, Gary Ch crashed two hits and performed a rare naval maneuver for a 60+ year old, a sliding catch that was more like a destroyer torpedoing through the waves, leaving the opposing team's hopes sinking to the ocean floor.

But the real showstopper was none other than Ziggy, who had three hits that shook the sea like a monstrous sea creature rising from the depths. His game-changing, two-run home run was a sight to behold, causing a tsunami of excitement among his teammates. And let's not forget his life-preserving web gem in right field, where he ran with full steam ahead and caught the ball at a very crucial time, as if he were rescuing his shipmates from a watery grave.
In this tale of triumph, Mario emerged as the savior of the day. With the tying and winning runs aboard ship, he made a due or die gem off a land-based torpedo, securing the victory and saving his shipmates from drowning in a sea of defeat. His clutch performance was like a lighthouse guiding the squadron to safe harbor.
The game was a tonnage of fun-nage, filled with remarkable plays and unforgettable moments. where the crew rallied together under the leadership of their skipper, Captain Bruce Fantastic and were steered away from dangerous waters by pitcher John Hunt, as anchored his opponents runs down to below sea levels.
As the final out was recorded, the victorious team celebrated with gusto, their spirits as high as the crow's nest. It was a com-fleet game victory that will be remembered for years to come. The Great Neck Softball crew showcased their skills and comedic brilliance, leaving the spectators in stitches and the opposing team lost at sea. Bravo to all the players who made this game a hilarious and memorable experience on the high seas of softball!

GAME 31A: Monday 5.29.23 KPP 5

Set your course for laughter as we embark on a hilarious journey through the Memorial Day 2023 Great Neck Softball highlights, honoring Fleet Week in NYC. Prepare to be awash with naval puns, nautical analogies, and ship-shaped shenanigans as we recount the epic clash between the Lou-Sea and LederLees!
In this game of battleships on the diamond, 16 brave sailors mustered up their skills to compete for victory. The deep B-Lou-Sea emerged as the victors, sailing to an 18-14 triumph against the LederLees. It was a spectacle that had spectators cheering like seagulls on the shoreline.
Mark Leder, the commander of home runs, delivered a show-stopping performance, smacking back-to-back homers and tallying a total of four hits. He was like a battleship unleashing its firepower, leaving the opposing team's defense in shambles. Not to be outdone, Lee showcased his own hitting prowess with four solid hits, making the opposing team's outfielders feel like they were chasing seagulls in a never-ending loop.
Luis, with his monster double and triple, sent shockwaves through the opposing team's defense. His hits were like tidal waves crashing onto the shore, leaving them drenched in defeat. Arik, with his booming triple off the left field fence, proved he was a force to be reckoned with, leaving the outfielders scrambling like startled jellyfish.

Vinny, the hitting sensation, smacked the ball with such force that it sailed like a speedboat across the outfield. With five hits, including a double and triple, he maneuvered around the bases with the grace of a skilled sailor. Alex, another hitting maestro, unleashed his own arsenal with five hits, including a massive double that left the opposing team's defense feeling adrift.
Bryan Black, the powerhouse of hits, launched his mighty bat like a cannonball, delivering five hits, including a double that disappeared into the horizon. He barely made an out this weekend and everyone on both teams was glad to see this because nobody wants there to be a blackout. Fortunately his power was alway on. Adding to this impressive performance, he pulled off a brilliant play, surpassing second base and surprising everyone, only to toss the ball to Jon Spiel, who barehanded it and fired it to first for a major league double play. It was a play that ranked among the best ever seen, leaving spectators in awe and the opposing team's jaws dropping like anchors.
As the final out was recorded, the Lou-Sea celebrated their victory, the waves of triumph washing over them. It was a game filled with excitement, laughter, and scuttlebutt. The players exhibited skills that rivaled the great mariners of old, leaving the spectators floating on a sea of amusement.
The camaraderie and competitiveness fueled the laughter and merriment, making it a day to remember in the annals of softball lore.

GAME 31B: Monday 5.29.23 KPP 3 by Gordo

Monday's Decoration Day B game was a spirited and closely played contest. Once again, the Smithereens were in the visitors dugout. Their combatants saw Z take the hill.

The top of the first saw two cross the dish on singles by Seth and Al Z., who displayed midseason form at the plate. Mario turned a SS fastball into a blast from the past. His three run dinger put the home side up one. Al Z., drove in another in his next at bat to tie the score but Steve H. lashed a double to lead a three run frame for the home side.

In the fourth, Mr. Smith comes to town and helps his own cause by blasting a two run triple and then comes home when Seth drives him in. Single runs in the fifth and sixth by the visitors put them ahead by one going to the seventh.

In the top of the seventh, the visitors tore it open. Big hits provided courtesy of Al Z. (yet again), Ch (yet again), Gordon (finally) and Matt who was spectacular in the field as well. The visitors plated four over the next two innings and going into the final frame the score stood Smithereens 12 - ZZZ's 10. Outstanding defense by Dan and company shut down the home side and the score stood as time ran out.

Bravo to all the players who attended this weekend's flotilla of fun, particularly the 15 Iron Men, who played all 3 days. They proved that on Memorial Day, the true spirit of camaraderie and competition sails high.
So Kudos to:

CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR PLAY 141 IS IN HE BOOKS!!!
KUDOS TO ALL THE SUBLIME ATHLETES THAT MADE THIS HAPPEN.

Since the writers strike is still alive and since I don't wish to be a scab, I called upon William Shakespeare to help out with these highlights. I mean he's dead after all, what could they possibly do to him?

GAME 33A: Saturday 6.3.23 KPP 5 by William Sh-ai-kespeare ai-ded by your Commishugana G-ai-ry

In the annals of Great Neck's Weekend Softball, pray,
A historic, streak-breaking game unfurled on that fateful day.
On Redbrook Road, in the Village of Kings Point's domain,
A massacre ensued, with naught but havoc and disdain.
The invading army, fierce and unrelenting in their might,
Ravaged the KPP 5 Homies, oh what a woeful sight!
Each soldier on their squad, with prowess unmatched,
Sent forth three devastating bombs, their foes despatched.
Notably, the Kings Point's own, a towering force so grand,
The Marquis de Leder, a King Kong blast did command.
Over castle walls and into Sherwood Forest it did soar,

A home run, a triumph, by none other than he, I implore.
But lo, another warrior, Cristian, the Rook, from the other side did rise,
With a homeric force, he struck the skies.
His bat, a deadly weapon, unleashed upon the field,
Causing the defending army to quiver and yield.
Their hinterlands, laid bare by these heroes' might,
As bombs rained down, both fierce and bright.
The Marquis de Leder and Cristian, the Rook,
Their prowess, a spectacle, like a page from a Shakespearean book.

So, amidst the massacre on that fateful day,
On Redbrook Road, where the warriors did play,
The invading army reigned supreme, their victory sweet,
Leaving the KPP 5 Homies in a state of defeat.
With bombs and force, they shattered all defenses,
Leaving naught but devastation and desolate senses.
A tale of triumph for the invading horde,
With the Marquis de Leder and Cristian, the Rook, adored.

The other warriors responsible for this victorious
Rory the Hartless, Mike the Smiter, Steve the Mistreater, Kono Sono Bono, Vinny the Batterer, Lee the Sidemaker, Steve the DeFiner, and Lord Brian Star.
On that fateful Saturday, the twenty-third of June,
At KPP 5, a stage of grand buffoonery, a softball tune.
The Marquis de Leder, a hero most bold,
Took the mound, his opponents' fate to unfold.
With a fabulous pitching performance, he did sway,
Allowing but four wretched foes to reach home, they say.
His prowess, a conqueror of batts and slings,
A performance fit for kings, and queens.
As arrows flew, his arm proved true,

No mercy given, no reprieve in view.
His opponents, in miserable plight,
Struggled and faltered against his might.
Forsooth, the Marquis de Leder, like a knight in a play,
Defended his realm, his dominance on display.
Baffling his adversaries, with crafty deceit,
His pitches, like verses, a symphony sweet.
In the spirit of Shakespearean jest, we must confide,
That his opponents, their homes left unoccupied.
Confounded, they faced his pitching divine,
Their feeble attempts to score, a woeful line.
So let it be known, in this sardonic refrain,
The Marquis de Leder, a pitcher's reign.
Conquering all, with a skillful display,
Leaving his opponents in disarray.
Batts and slings and arrows, all laid low,
As the Marquis de Leder stole the show.
A fabulous performance, unmatched in its glory,
A pitcher's tale, fit for a Shakespearean story.

For in this game of softball, fortunes twist and turn,
And the KPP 5 Homies shall rise again, one day, we yearn.

GAME 33B: Saturday 6.4.23 KPP 3 by William Sh-ai-kespeare ai-ded by your Commishugana G-ai-ry

Hark, good gentlefolk! Attend, forsooth, to the tale
Of a softball game, a clash of warriors, fierce and pale.
On this fair Saturday, the twenty-third of June,
At KPP 3, where champions oft commune.

The home team, they did march upon the field,
With spirits high and swords of destiny, they wield.
Led by the noble captain, Gary Charney, the sly,
Whose 3 hits, a walk and a sac, did ring true, with nary a wry.
With the first three innings, a story to be told,
The home team did prevail, their prowess bold.
Nine to one, the score stood, a commanding lead,
As they taunted the Visigoths, with fiery speed.
But lo, as is the way in this game we hold dear,
Violent calls were made, cries to slay and smear.
"Off with their heads!" they shouted, bloodlust aflame,
Yet cooler heads prevailed, and all returned to the game.
The Visigoths, determined, set forth a mighty stampede,
Nine runs they did score, a fearsome deed.
The doubters, reprehensible, did change their tunics,
For the tides had turned, as the Visigoths triumphed in this crucible.
After eight hard-fought innings, the score was tied,
Fourteen to fourteen, the warriors vied.
But in the bottom of the ninth, a five-run onslaught did ensue,
The defending army, relentless, their lead they did renew.
Nineteen to fourteen, they now commanded the field,
The Visigoths, wounded, forced to yield.
Alas, the battle ended, the score stood at fifteen,
A testament to the strength of those upon the diamond's sheen.
Many were the heroes who graced this hallowed ground,
Gary Charney, with hits and walks, did astound.
Gordo the Complainer, with a triple of great worth,
And Seth Starr, the Manhasset Mauler, displaying his unearthly 2 hit mirth.
Alan Z, the Manhattan Mauler, second base his domain,
With fine plays and skill, he did maintain.
Steve H, the cleaner, with 2 clutch hits and walk,
His contributions, vital, like a scribe's precious chalk.

The Rook and Dean of the infield, a duo in perfect rhyme,
Delivered scorching hits, for space and time.
Ed Ip, the indomitable, a day of five hits to his name,
A base-clearing triple, a feat of great acclaim.
The Bayside Basher, Pete I, his double struck true,
While Dan the Dantastic, a death ray he slew.
A crucial grab at first base, Super Joe's destiny thwarted,
Changing the course of modern history, fate, contorted.
Yet amidst these many tales of valor, two doth shine,
Ira Levine, returned after a year, his presence, divine.
And Harlan, no relation, the true MVP of the day,
With a fine running snag and a grand slam's sway.
To the realm of the outfield, Harlan did fly,
His mighty swing, the Visigoths did defy.
A massive blow to center field, a grand slam to defend,
His majesty, the King of Kings Point Park, did commend.
Thus, the home team emerged victorious, with hearts aglow,
Their homeland protected, vanquishing the Visigoths' blow.
Nineteen to fifteen, the final score decreed,
And I, in Shakespearean style, have told you the tale, indeed.

GAME 34: ALLENWOOD 6.4.23 By William Sh-ai-kespeare ai-ded by your Commishugana G-ai-ry ark, good gentlefolk, lend your ears this way,

To hear the tale of a softball game played one summer's day.
At the Park of Allenwood, in the Village of Great Neck,
A battle of Revered Septuagenarians, a sight to check.
Sir John Hunt of Queensboro, a knight of great repute, Faced Sir Gary Zee, defender of the Towers of the North Shore, resolute.
But misfortune did befall those protecting the homeland's pride,
And thus, Sir Leder was called upon, to quell the rebellion's tide.
Valiantly he fought, with heart and might,
Yet his fellow knights, alas, struggled in the fight.

Thouest they tried, their defense fell apart,
No match for the overwhelming power of the players' art.
The Marquis of Kono, a force to reckon,
Unleashed four hits, a triple among them, destruction second to none.
Widespread devastation, his bat did sow,
Leaving the opposing army in a state of woe.
Joe, the super one, did cracketh three hits,
With a throw of flame, he eliminated a runner, like a dart that splits.
Turning a hit into an out, a feat so grand,
His defense a shield, protecting his land.
Sir Steve H, with his armor-piercing hits,
Struck fear into the hearts of his foes, their courage he splits.
Three blows, mighty and true,
Leaving the opposition in a quandary, not knowing what to do.
Sir Bobby, of Queensboro fame,
Plundered the defense, with a big 2 RBI blow, a claim to fame.
His bat a weapon, his swing a stroke,
Contributing to the onslaught, like a thunderbolt spoke.
Sir Barry, with a fine running grasp,
Protected his army, from much devastation, an ardent clasp.
A ball in his hands, a savior's touch,
Preventing the enemy from hurting them too much.
But amidst the onslaught, threats did arise,
Return fire from the assassins, a surprise.
Sir Ken of yonder town, with a multihit back,
A 2-run homer, a resounding crack.
Sir Leder, Sir Jon Spiel, Eric the Padre, Sir Gary W, and El Gordo, Drove spikes through the defense, a furious storm they show.
Their bats a whirlwind, their hits a blow,
Challenging the enemy, striking a mighty blow.
Mario, the Super one, with incredible clutch,
Caught a catapulted cannonball down the third, oh, how much!

A play of brilliance, in a crucial moment's embrace,
Securing the defense, preserving their grace.
And in the end, Sir John Hunt, now known as Sir John the victorious, Masterminded a brilliant pitch performance, so glorious.
A doctor of the game, his skills unmatched,
Leading his knights to triumph, their spirits unattached.
So ends the tale of the June 4, 2023 game,
Played at the Park of Allenwood, forever to proclaim.
A clash of knights, a battle fought,
Softball's stage, where heroes were wrought.

AIR QUALITY ALERT IS LIFTED BUT CEREBR-AL-ERT STAYS AS HAZE AND FOG REMAIN IN BRAINS

Writers strike is still alive!
Since I don't wish to be a scab, I brought in some fresh ai-r for help.

GAME 35A: Saturday, June 10, 2023 by an Ai-rhead

Hold onto your fireproof hats, folks, because this game is about to heat up like a Canadian wildfire! We're about to witness an ending that will go down in the Great Neck Weekend history books. Get ready for some smokin' hot action and buckle up for a wild ride. There's no smoke without fire, and boy, are we about to see some flames! This was truly a five alarmer.
In the tenth and final inning, with the home team clinging to a slim 7-6 lead, the tension was hotter than a smoking gun. Jon "Flash"

Paisner stood on second base as the tying run, with just one out. Steve Mistretta stepped up to the plate and launched a hot oven pizza bomb that seemed to defy gravity as it soared to the deepest part of deep space. Holy smoke!

But wait, here comes Jon Zweibel, channeling his inner chariots of fire. He sprinted towards the center field fence, his eyes locked on the ball. It was a smoke screen of dust and determination as he reached up, stretched his glove to the max, and plucked the ball out of the air. Put that in your pipe and smoke it!

Naturally, Flash Paisner, feeling the heat, tagged up from second base, hoping to scorch his way to home plate for the tying run. But his dreams went up in smoke when Jon Z unleashed a perfect throw, like a smoke grenade from the outfield, to the cutoff man, Bryan Black. Bryan, known for his missile-like throws, sent a burning seed to "nothing is too hot to handle" catcher Rich C, who was ready to extinguish all hope for Flash. The tag was made, and in a puff of smoke, Flash was out at home and the game ended. Talk about an extinguished flame!

It was a scene straight out of a Hollywood blockbuster, with smoke alarms wailing like a chorus of pyromaniacs.

This game had it all, folks. It was a roller coaster of emotions, with hopes and dreams going up in smoke at every turn. But in the end, the flames were extinguished, and the home team emerged victorious. The smoke may have cleared, but the memories of this game will linger like the smoky mountains.

So, let's light up a lucky strike and salute the players who gave it their all, leaving it all on the line. Just remember, folks, this game comes with a Surgeon General's warning: it's highly addictive and guaranteed to leave you fuming with excitement.

This was an excellent pitched game by both Gary Z and Doug B but someone had to come out ahead as Zee topped Doug Bee. Kudos to both and to the outstanding defenses, who consistently deployed their smoke detectors to track down fiery comets and extinguish the flames. It's safe to say that this game was truly smoking! And I ain’t blowin’ smoke!

GAME 35B: Saturday 6.3.23 KPP 3 by an Ai-rhead

Put on your fire-resistant gear and get ready for a scorching Saturday in Great Neck! This weekend, we're embracing a Canadian Wildfire theme that will leave you fuming with excitement. So hold onto your fire hoses and brace yourself for an inferno of puns and sarcasm. Holy smoke, this is gonna be a hot one!

The day started with a bang as Johnny V's smoking bat set the field ablaze with four hits, including a scorching double. Talk about a smoking hot performance! Harlan wasn't far behind, igniting the diamond with four blazing hits and a double of his own. Brian Star followed suit, singeing the opposition with three hits. And let's not forget Russell's flaming triple, which drove in two runs and had the crowd seeing smoke.

But the real fire-starter of the day was none other than Smoking Super Joe. He blazed his way through the bases with a single, a double, and a triple by choice. Now that's a tricycle of hits that would make even the smokiest of pyromaniacs jealous. And let's not overlook Ep Ip's four searing blasts for hits. That guy is on fire!

And speaking of fire, Mark Leder launched a home run that left the field scorched and dreams turned to smoke. The offensive wildfire didn't stop there. Cliff, Gary W, Barry D, Eric B, Driller, Gordon, and Seth C all added their own smoldering hits to the mix. The opposing team must have felt like they were caught in a smoke screen, unable to extinguish the flames of our lineup.

Defensively, the highlight of the game was an unbelievable catch by Joe Sineno. He chased down a flaming rocket hit deep into left-center field, leaving everyone in awe. It was like he had a smoke detector in his glove, anticipating the fireball's trajectory. What a play!

Gary W also helped big time to quell the fires of offensive attacks making 2 fine running plays in right field. Had the balls dropped they certainly would have carved fire pits into the earth.
Now, let's take a moment to appreciate Eric B's return to the hot, smokey field. Nothing looks better in the heat than the sight of a Beerman. His presence alone could light up a room, or in this case, a baseball field.

GAME 36: Sunday 6.3.23 Allenwood by an Ai-rhead

Holy smoke! Ziggy is on fire today, with 5 hits in 6 at-bats, including a smokin' double. He's been a smoking gun out there, leaving no room for doubt about his MVP-worthy performance. Talk about lighting up the scoreboard! And let's not forget his two running web gems from second base, right behind first base. Smoke and mirrors? Nah, just pure talent!
But Ziggy isn't the only pyromaniac on the field today. Mario is launching grenades left and right, with 4 explosive hits, including a triple and some RBI fireworks. He's also been making scintillating plays at the hot corner. We've got a whole lineup of fire starters today. Five players are showing off their 3-hit wonder skills: Kenny, Rich Connors, Gordo, Bryan, and Jack. Kenny even unleashed a heat-seeking triple, while Jack contributed a double that could warm up the entire globe. And let's not forget about Smoky Joe, who chose to scorch the earth with another blazing triple. These guys are leaving a trail of smoke wherever they go. Even our pitcher, Eric T, got in on the fiery action with a big-time double. And Gary Z made a fine play on a fiery comet to first base. The smoke detector is going off all around, folks!

Now, let's talk about Kono. He's refusing to cool down, hence the knit beanie. It seems he's made it his mission to have a multi-hit game every time. That's dedication to staying smoking hot!
Jack and Kono are true heroes in left field, making truly spectacular running catches that extinguished all hopes for opposing batters. Those flaming atomic bombs launched into the deserted hinterlands of Allenwood Park didn't stand a chance, almost reaching the top of old smoky. But our outfielders had other plans, and they snuffed out those hopes with style.
His Johner cooled off streaming bats and quelled fires all game long with his mixture of hefty chunks of steaming junk and flaming darts. He gave up just 5 runs, which is way below the national average for this game. That's one way to keep the flames at bay!
So there you have it, folks! Today's game was an inferno of talent, with Ziggy and Mario sharing the MVP title for their explosive performances. Dreams turned to smoke, but the excitement was hotter than ever. These players turned their pipe dreams into reality, and Allenwood Park was the scene of a five-alarm fire. Its been brought to my attention that some think the highlights are too long and that nobody reads them, so the first person who sends me the code IREAD will receive a dollar at the next game.
Surgeon general warning: This level of baseball excitement may cause your heart rate to rise, so make sure to take breaks and catch your breath. And remember, no actual fires were started during this game, although some hopes and dreams may have gone up in smoke.

Have a good week. Sorry for taxing people’s attention spans.

Mario, displaying dad-leticism at its finest, made a stellar play on a scorcher to third. Lee, with the agility of a dad dodging a misplaced LEGO brick, deep in the hole at SS. Garty Ch, the dad with a rocket arm, made a clutch cutoff to prevent a ball from reaching home runville. And Ed H, not content with just one incredible catch, made a diving grab that defied the laws of gravity. The field was a dad-venturous playground of jaw-dropping plays!
👨 Quadruple Hits and Mammoth Triples: 🚀
Mario, Lee, and Barry all had quadruple hitting days, showing off their dad-mazing skills at the plate. Their bats were on fire, leaving the opposing team's pitchers scratching their heads in disbelief. And if that wasn't enough, Mario, Kono, and Gordon unleashed mammoth triples that soared deep down the left field line. The crack of the bat was like thunder, and the dads in the crowd couldn't help but nod and say, "That's my kind of power!"
👨 Clutch Multi-Hit Games: 💥
Rob Wurtzel had a 4 hits game in front of his family dadmidst cheers and chants from his dad-orable grandkids. Members of Pete I’s and Mike Smolen’s family also came to watch and lend support. t was all very heart warming. So much so that Pete suggested we have a family day in the future. A great idea!!!

Ed H and Mark L stepped up in clutch moments with multi-hit games that kept the momentum rolling for the home team. Their timely hits had the crowd cheering and gave the team a much-needed boost. It was a display of dad-titude and precision that left everyone thinking, "Those are some dad-orable hits!"
This game was an ulcerating suspense-filled roller coaster ride that had everyone on the edge of their seats. But in the end, the hometown heroes prevailed, thanks to their dad-mirable plays and unwavering determination. It was a Father's Day to remember, filled with unforgettable moments and the kind of excitement that only softball and dads can bring!

GAME 42: Sunday, A-wood, July 2, 2023 by Gordon, edited by the Comisshuganna to maintain the brotherhood amongst us..

The second of the 4 day July 4th GNSB extravaganza pitted the always stylish Eric the U. vs the antics of his Johner. The visitors greeted Eric and company with a deuce, the big hit coming off the bat of Herr Lederhosen, a blistering 2 bagger. The home side responded in kind when Sam I am displayed offensiveness resulting in two to tie the score at the end of a frame. A scoreless second followed and it was clear to all the combatants that this would not be a walk in Allenwood Park. In the top of the third, the ubiquitous stylings of the Charns put the visitors back up by two, courtesy of a clutch two bagger. Undaunted, Mr. Connors drove in one in the bottom half and it was a one run game heading into the fifth.

The bottom of the fifth saw controversial umpire calls. A retroactively called strike two a ball, negating a Judge's whiff and a questionable call at home, A protest was lodged as three runs were scored. The outcome of the protest to be determined.

In the top of the sixth, Rico's inaugural GNSB game was highlighted by the first of two monster blasts to left field. The second one was so far up the hill on a fly that the left fielder did a faceplant. The ball actually hit the fence.Fortunately, that mishap did not mar the anonymous left fielder's looks. The inning saw justice served and the visitors took a 8-7 lead into the bottom of the eighth. One other highlight of note was the play of Cousin Brucie, who sawed dazzling speed on the paths when he legged out a two hopper to short and followed it with a sensational grab of a searing line drive moments later.

The bottom of the saw clutch hitting of the reliever Steve. Barry, who made a terrific grab in the top of the inning, followed with more of his consistent hitting as he drove in the go ahead run. Mario, Ed, Ziggy, Mike and Juan also made significant offensive contributions.

When the curtain came down, the scoreboard showed the home side ahead by two. However, because of the Z incident, the protest was upheld and the game was declared no contest.

GAME 46: Sunday, Allenwood, July 9, 2023

A REAL OLD FASHIONED GNSB *PRESS*URE COOKER CLASSIC.

After 12 grueling innings the home team had comfortable 10-7 edge. But The Visitors did not PRESS the panic button and answered back with 4 run in top of the 13th giving them an 11-10 lead thanks to Gordon who had the hit of the game up to that point, a double to go along with 4 other hits in the game including 3 RBI and a web gem of a searing liner in tight situation in the bottom of that same inning. Despite this the Home team *PRESS*ed ahead and scored 2 in the bottom of the 13th to win the game! Thanks to a walk off base hit under immense *PRESS*ure, by Mike Smolens, his 3rd of the day. Key to that inning was Joe Sineno's hustling to beat out a ground ball, hit to first base! It was a see-saw game like you'll never see again or ever saw.
Eric the neatly *PRESS*ed, White Sock helped own cause by bashing 3 hits, including a massive RBI triple to CF.
In addition:
Gary Charney ripped 5 hits plus made many fine plays in RF on many scarily hit balls to com*PRESS* the opposition's run production.

Doug B cranked out 5 hits with a couple of RBI.
Matt S back from the PRESSures of modern life, calmly crushed 4 hits including a double and 2 RBI. Plus made a Colavito-esque throw two halt a runner at 2B from advancing.
Barry supPRESSed the opposition's run production big time, with an incredible super fine running catch in LF.
Mario dePRESSurized an offensive threat with an impossible grab at 3B. He also smashed 3 hits including a clutch rbi triple to the deepest depths of RCF. Ed H despite an ailing leg, stole a hit from the batter in RCF, with an incredible catch. No charges were PRESSed however.

THERE'S LOTS MORE, BUT I HAVE MORE PRESSING ISSUES TO INTEND TO NOW.

No apologies for any of these groaners because, as they say, "Any press is good press."

HAVE A GOOD WEEK ALL.

GAME 49: Sunday, Allenwood, July 23, 2023 BY GORDO

THE UNIFORM'S ARM GENETICALLY TARGETS OPPOSING HITTERS NOT TO GET HITS, AS THEY SCORE A MEASLY 6 RUNS IN 11 INNINGS.

A stunning day greeted the intrepid gladiators of the diamond at Allenwood Field. A light breeze, warm and friendly and low humidity made for perfect conditions as His Johner's warriors faced Eric's Youse.

Perhaps distracted by the bliss, the visitors received a gift as a lazy pop fly dropped next to the left fielder who was facing the back of the park.
The game opened up in the top of the third when Rico and then Rich C. both delivered two rbi doubles. In the bottom of the frame, an aggressive base runner was thrown out at third or so the umpire called it. But always the gentleman, Rico suggested that the play may have been called incorrectly. The home team seized the generosity and the score was quickly recalibrated.

A few scoreless frames transpired before Juan, whose hitting has returned, drove in a pair for the visitors. The home side, desperate to stay in the race, received offensiveness from Kono and Barry. But it was a critical baserunning gaffe that proved critical to the outcome. In the bottom of the 8th, an over aggressive runner failed to score when he missed third base. This prevented the Johners from getting a run and perhaps more, leaving the home side dazed and confused.

When Rico blasted a two rbi double in the top of the 9th, it was all over save the dancing. Even Steve H.'s rbi single was not enough to stem the onslaught.

Of note, Gordon had five hits to lead the U's to a hard earned victory. For the home side, Joe Sineno continued his torrid hitting going 8 for 5...again.

GAME 52B: Saburday, KPP 3, Aug 5 CONDESCRIPTED BY GORDO USING ACTUAL WORDS!

A beautiful August morning greeted the 20 gladiators of the diamond. The visitors were led by Doug who Beckoned Andy to the hill in the late innings. For the home side, Juan took full responsibility.

The home side struck first when newcomer Frank joined Juan, Snoop and Jeff to lead a three run attack. The visitors raged back when the angular stylings of the Cliff went deep with a solid double. Answering and raising that blast was Matt who blasted one into the Rice Patties. The top of the third saw Barry crush a drive that led to a short offensive outburst. But the rally was stymied when that man about town, Frank, pirouetted and made a spectacular catch behind third base.

Steve H. got the visitors going again when he roped a liner between right and right center. When Seth, who has been wheeling and dealing with the stick, blasted one of his three hits. Joe S, who again went 8 for 5, lasered a double and the visitors took the lead. But the homies were bloodied but unbowed.

Frank hit a three bagger and then Nick said aloha, sayonara and antio sas to the defenseless clincher. His two run blast knotted the score.

A fortunate bit of defense ended a potential big inning for the visitors when Bobby was thrown out at the plate by the surprised stylings of the Bashman. Jeff quickly recovered and applied the tag a split second before the runner touched the dish. Inspired by the defense gem, the underrated and underappreciated stylings of Gary W. changed the game when he crushed a bomb over the left fielder and when Juan hit a sac fly, the three spot looked all the rage. And Matt added some heft with an rbi triple. But now it was the visitor's turn to come back from the dead.

Cliff drove in a pair and Andy drove him in. Just like that the three run lead was no more and it was tied going into the bottom of the 9th, playing 10.

But a huge at bat by the Danimal kept the inning alive for Gordon who snuck a line drive down the right field line that scored two. The visitors mounted a comeback when down to their last out, Joe drove in one and put runners on the corners, cutting the deficit to a single run. But that hurler par excellence the venerable Juan was Juanderful and his grab of an infield pop secured the win for the home side.

Lots of hits, lots of fun..softball like it oughta be...

GAME 55A: Saturday, KPP 5, Aug 19. based on incomplete notes,

STE-FIENSTEIN DEFINESTEINS FINE PITCHEIN COMPLETELY ASTOUNDS THE OPPOSITION WITH A COMPLETE 4 RUN GAME WINS-TEIN.

On a gorgeous Saturday morn, 19 Great Neck Softballers came together to play a game of ages. Combining for 150 years 2 first basemen set a GNSB record. And once again, the sidemakers were able to balance the talents and foibles of the players as well an an expected early departure 9:15am of a game changer to produce as Bobby W. would say "a fine product".

Sidemakers: Lee T. & Bruce B.
Winning pitchers Steve F & Mark L.
Taking the loss with the help of some less than stellar glovemanship was Doug K.

This reporter would like to note that even with needed player substitutions, lost balls, many foul balls, we played 12 innings in less than 2 hours.

Highlights would have to include web gems:
Pete (catching a foul pop-up behind home plate).
Great glove work by Luis at 3rd base.

Pete went 4 for 5.
Doubles by Leder, Kono & Hugh.
Final score was 9 to 4 although it felt much closer.

GAME 55B: Saturday, KPP 3, Aug 19

THIS WAS A REAL SEE-SAW BATTLE. WHAT I'M TRYING TO SAY WAS THAT THE LEAD KEPT CHANGING HANDS. IT LURCHED FORWARD AND FELL BACK, IT WOBBLED, TEETER-TOTTERED, JERKED AHEAD THEN BACK. IT VIBRATED, FLUCTUATED, ALTERNATED AND VACILLATED. GET WHAT I'M SAYING?

DAN COMPLETELY DISAPPOINTS HIS FOES AS HE DRIVES IN THE TYING RUN IN THE LAST INNING WITH A BASE ON BALLS (R-BB-I)

MARTY, BEN AND GARY C (PLUS A WALK) SEEMED COMPLETELY HAPPY TO EACH SLUG 3 HITS

ROOKIE ROBERT COMPLETES THE 4 BASE CIRCUIT WITH A MONSTER HOMER TO CF.

SCOTT SMITH'S HOME RUN BID IS INCOMPLETE AS HIS BLAST ENDS UP AS A TRIPLE

OPPONENTS CANNOT COMPLETE THEIR MISSION TO SCORE A RUN, DUE TO PLATA'S AMAZING SLIDING CATCH IN CF.

GAME 56: Sunday, ALLENWOOD, Aug 20 COMPLETED BY BRUCE WITH INCOMPLETE ANSWERS

The sky was blue.
The sun was yellow
The grass was green
the clay was red
The game was played
The disputes were unsettled.
The lawyers were called.
The briefs were filed.
The outcomes are pending.

24 Great Neckers came to play.
One remained on the waitlist.
One unexpectedly showed up.
1st dispute: Should an unexpected excess player be allowed to exceed the 24 man roster?
The game began with one team sitting everyone equally while the other team sat players on a random basis.
2nd dispute: Does everyone need to sit once before being asked to sit a second time?
3rd Dispute: When is a strike not a strike?
4th Dispute: When is an out not an out?
5th Dispute: When is a pitcher not a pitcher?

Highlights were plenty but I remember only a few:
Gary Ch went 4 for 5.
Juan went 4 for 5
Mark L. hit a grand slam.
Bryan made the web gem of the day by leaping higher than a person should be able to in order to catch a blistering line drive to end the game.

Side makers: Bobby & Bruce
Winning pitchers: The Judge 11 innings.
The Z 2/3 of an inning.
The Feinstein 1/3 of an inning.
Losing Pitchers: The Leder 11 innings
The Bruce 1 inning.

Big thanks again to the field assigners and sides-makers. This week, in particular, the task was made very difficult.

Also thank you to the guys who pulled their names off the Sunday list, PURPOSELY, for the sole reason that others could play.

Completion of this weekend's incomplete Complete Highlights.

Softball nation,
There was a glaring omission in the Sunday highlights which I apologize for since it caused a head explosion.

The person(s) involved may or my not have complained about it. The omission was one of the following items. I'll leave it up to you to decide.

A. THE OUTFIELD GRASS TURNED PURPLE MID-GAME.

B. LIBERACE THREW OUT THE FIRST PITCH

C. A WHALE WALKED ONTO THE FIELD.

D. GORDON PITCHED 2 PERFECT INNINGS IN RELIEF. 6 UP- 6 DOWN.

E.

WHEN INTERVIEWED LATER ABOUT HOW A NOVICE WAS ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH SUCH A FEAT, HE DID OR DIDN'T SAY, "I JUST THREW STRIKES AND LET MY VERY COMPETENT AND ALERT FIELDERS DO THE REST."

GAME 63A/B mix: Saturday, KPP 5, Sept 16 Notes by Gary Zee
See Attachment and Vinny, if true.

GAME 64 Sunday, KPP 5, Sept 17 by Mark Leder (but conspiracy theorists think otherwise.)

RENEWAL REBIRTH AND HOPE: 23. Ballplaying Bros showed today at scenic Allenwood. All were hopeful for the future, Grateful for the past and present to a naturally splendid day. There was epic beauty here. A wildly chaotic, mind numbingly fun game began at almost 8AM sharp.
14 runs were quickly plated in the first three innings on almost as many errors leaving the sides bottlenecked at 7-7. Before long everyone settled down and next tense nine innings saw only six runs total scored. There were many exciting defensive plays starting on the mounds, Eric and Andy speared balls, and saved runs with impunity.

Grizzled first basemen Bruce and Steve H, scooped, stretched, and snagged throws with style and consistency.
Feinstein's feistiness and Mario's finesse at the hot Corner were a joy to behold.
Lots of Solid strong defense.
Lee's fire and Brian's fanatical fervor at shortstop held the game in balance. Big Black had five hits, including a bombastic bomb for a triple out of and over Leder's otherworldly orbit
Ken sparkled in Left, throwing out a runner for a force at second base. He came through with big hits as well. Paisner's pizzazz was on full display with a solid outing at the plate and in the outfield.
He's so cool. llOutfield play was solid all around with Gary Charney's sprightliness style and strength a standout.
Gary Weinstock reached hi for a big time line drive catch
The always troubled Leder came thru with a timely double plating a few runs. His ebullience and confusion on full display….."when he was born they threw away the mold…but it grew back".
Thanks to behind the scenes wizardry by Bobby, Bruce, and sidemaking slugger Lee. They do an incredible job at managing logistics and pain points of GNSB allowing us to focus entirely on enjoying ourselves stress-free

Thank you Z and Leder for this weekend's highlights.

That bizarre, bogus Teamcowboy email that everyone received a few days ago will be addressed shortly.

See everyone this weekend. Hopefully the early weather reports will be incorrect.

Game 66 Sunday 10.8.23 by Gordo

A robust turnout of diamnonders enjoyed a pleasant early autumn day at the unique and unpredictable stylings of Little Neck's Challenge Park. An early start and a sun angled right into the right fielder's line of sight meant nothing to the warriors, particularly Gary Ch. and Andy Paul. Nor did it dissuade any of the other 20 warriors that braved the cement, wind and glare.

This 11 vs. 11 contest pitted the home side stylings of the voguish Eric the U., decked out in Bob Gibson red on the hill against the always resolute His Johner. The visitors struck for one run in each of the first three innings. First, that man about town, the celebrated bon vivant himself, Bryan laced an rbi single. Not to be out done, the Ralphinator stoked his own. The third inning was highlighted by Super Mario's 2 bag blast and it appeared that his Jonher and his clerks were to have their way. But then the home side got it going.

Steve the Crusher Feinstein blasted a deep sac fly to start the torridity. The next inning Eric decided to take matters into his own hands by lashing the first of his two triples. And let it be said, had he tried for home on either occasion he would have had the cycle. As it stands, two triples, a double and a single and a whole bunch of RBI's. A veritable one man gang. Pete followed with a rbi single which (re)Pete repeated a few innings later.

But the man of the day could have been the Admiral nightmare himself, Andy. With two on, two out and the score tied, a searing line drive was laced to right field. As calm as a riverboat gambler, Andy snagged the orb with the deft touch of a safe cracker and the lead was preserved. Ann"D" to the rescue. From there, the rout was on. First Joe, who continued his hot hitting by once again going 8 for 6 to keep his average above1000, drove in one and then Jack the ripper drove in another.

The game was close until the bottom of the eighth. With two on, one of which was the lumbersome stylings of Steve H., Lee smashed a single to right field. H busted it and made a mad dash for third, USAin Boltlike and drew a throw. It was Phil Rizzuto on Meatloaf's paradise by the dashboard light. Not only did he make it but the throw trickled by and undaunted and undeterred, he reached down into his reservoir of experience and made it home without a throw. The beleaguered visitors were simply the victims of sHock and Awe. Marc finally found a bat that suited him and he crushed another one of his many hits. By the time the rally was over, the score was 10-3. And if his baserunning exploits weren't enough, Steve pulled a Lundquist and snarled a vicious one hopper and made the unassisted putout. Juanderful also added some offensiveness and the final was 12-4, with the visitors going quietly in 7 consecutive innings.

Game 67 Monday 10.9.23 by Bryan Black With some help from CHAT GPT

On this crisp and beautiful Monday, which some folks insist on calling Columbus Day while others prefer to recognize it as Indigenous Peoples Day, a softball showdown for the ages unfolded. Luis "Knuckles" Avila took the mound, toeing the rubber against the crafty Mark "Egg Salad Sandy" Leder. Two titans of the diamond, ready to do battle.

The Knuckles crew wasted no time setting the tone. They came out of the gate like a locomotive with a head of steam and never looked back. By the end of five innings, they had built a lead of at least a dozen runs. But the softball fates had more in store for this game.

After some reconfiguring of the teams, a twist of fate occurred, and the scoreboard saw a lopsided reversal. Baseball, my friends, is a funny old game.

Player coaches Blattberg and Widawsky had their hands full, as there was no shortage of kvetching from nearly every player on the field. It seems that even in this friendly contest, the competitive spirit runs deep.

But let it be known that most folks left the field as literal winners, with the taste of victory on their lips, and those who had to swallow the bitter pill of defeat in both games left as metaphorical winners, having enjoyed the camaraderie and spirit of the game.

Ah, but the highlights of this day were aplenty.

While patrolling left field, which seemed more like a minefield, Barry Schneider found himself picked off by an unseen sniper lurking in the trees. Nevertheless, he managed to make several spectacular plays out there.

And after the sniper incident, Alex Banyasz, bless his heart, smacked a towering triple but was held at third base due to the slow-footed runners ahead of him.

Knuckles, as we've come to expect, pitched two doozies with his patented knuckleball dancing and dazzling on both sides.

Feinstein over at third base was a defensive maestro, making several dazzling plays, though his 46-game errorless streak was regrettably snapped. As for Hugh Colocott, he had a four-hit game, but more importantly, his sweatpants continued to take a beating. A GoFundMe campaign has been launched to secure him a fresh pair.

Matt Rice, with his belt hanging low, launched a high bomb or a triple near the right field fence, leaving us all in awe. More remarkably, he went the other way in one of his at-bats.

We witnessed a fine 3-6-4 double play, executed flawlessly by the law firm of Blattberg, Black, and Spiel. It was a display reminiscent of the Tinker to Evers to Chance trio of yesteryears. Speaking of Spiel, he had four hits and was emerging as the Most Valuable Spiel, or MVS.

Ed Ip and Ed Hartirck hit multiple Eds I mean line drive base hits and Hartirck, never wanting to move more than is necessary, again positioned himself perfectly in the field to make several catches without moving an inch. Nicky Katsellanos and Jon Paysner shone as usual and their talents were critical in balancing the teams at bat and in the field.

Egg Salad Sandy, as expected, hit several ropes and spent the day on the basepaths, dazzling with both his baserunning and his infectious smile. And let us not forget Juan Plata, who delivered the line of the day when he urged the outfielders to respect his shallow outfield power.

Special mention to Jack Schonhaut who played as long as he could despite being able to wrap is hand around a bat or ball…Jack was sent to the clubhouse for imaging…we will keep you updated,

In the end, it was another blessed day for all who attended, and perhaps even better for those who didn't. The spirit of the game, the camaraderie, and the sheer joy of playing softball on a day like today are what make these gatherings special. Until next time, my friends, keep your gloves oiled, your bats cracked, and your spirits high. Softball lives on, as does the joy it brings to all who partake

Game 69 Sunday 10.22.23 by Gordo

A partly cloudy day greeted the intrepid 20 who gathered for Sunday's contest at Challenge Field in Little Neck. An interesting decision was made by that man about town Cousin Brucie. He decreed that there should be 11 fielders on each team, the batting team supplying a catcher. Additionally, the batter would start with a 1 and 1 count. Controversial to say the least but the beleaguered leader's courage proved prescient. Coupled with Lee and Bobby's adroit touch in making the sides, a competitive game ensued.
> The visitors were led by His Johner who elevated heroism by playing with a malfunctioning sneaker that required tape to keep the soul from flapping. For the home side, the two first name stylings from the recently liberated Paul Andy/ Andy Paul handled the hill.
> The mighty Hugh started the game with the first of his two triples. His opening inning run staked the visitors to a quick lead. The home side dug in immediately and plated three on their own, the key hit being Barry's two rbi rope into the right field corner. In the third, Hugh came through again with the second triple and scored on Ed I's deep sac fly. In the top of the fourth, the visitors plated a pair for the third lead change of the game. Gary the hitting machine Charney and Jack the Ripper each drove in a run.

> In the bottom of the fourth, Gordon drove in a run followed by Andy, helping his own cause, driving in another. Another half inning, another lead change! And true to form the visitors came back with two of their own to retake the lead. The big hit was delivered by Leder, the contortionist who hit a ball that was 37 feet inside deep into the right field corner. Another lead change. But guess what? That's right, the home side came up with a pair of their own. Luis and Eric, in a stylish 1860's ABBC uniform, blasted hits and the home side retook the lead. Let us count. Six lead changes through five innings!
> After a quiet top of the 6th, Bruce and Ed R., kept the string of two run innings going, putting the home side up for good. The home side tacked on 1 in the 7th before exploding for 4 in the 10th. Big hits were put throughout the lineup and the final run was supplied by Steve H. who blasted one of the right field wall. And Steve also dazzled with the leather snaring a rope by the Charns with the bases loaded. The final score of 15-7 doesn't accurately reflect the tension of the game.

GAR

Softball nation,
Perhaps I didn't mention it in my last email to you guys which tried to encourage more players to sign up for Saturday's game, but we need more players for this Saturday.
Perhaps the front I chose was too small to read.
Perhaps the front I chose was indecipherable.

Perhaps the grammar I used was so bad that players thought I wanted them to stay away.
Perhaps it wasn't loud enough.
Perhaps I accidentally wrote it in a foreign language.
Perhaps I chose white as the font color by mistake.
Perhaps you weren't able to get anyone to read the email to you.
Perhaps you've been distracted by the great debate as to whether to ban pickleball paddles that are the same color as the balls.
Perhaps your calendar did not alert you about the order of the days of the week.

Whatever the cause, my last email produced the opposite effect of what I was hoping to achieve. So please sign up, reverse this oppo-lar effect and be part of this history making weekend. Month 146 photos will be taken in full color.
Also remember you get a full and free extra hour of sleep Saturday night, to recover in case the Saturday game proves to be too rigorous.

Gar
See everyone this weekend. Please try to get fiscally and physically ready to pay your 2024 dues. Stretch those wallets baby. There could be an increase.

HERE ARE THE HIGH POINTS:

CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR SOFTBALL PLAY 146 IS NOW ETCHED INTO HISTORY. KUDOS TO ALL THE TOUGHIANS THAT MADE IT HAPPY-EN.

LEDER IS THE LEADER IN PAYING THE 2024 GNSB DUES. HE IS THE FIRST PAY-UPPER AND IS NAMED WARDEN OF THE NEWLY SET UP GNSB DEBTORS PRISON. AND HE'S GOT PLANS! SO BE VERY AFRAID. 28 OUT OF THE 104 CURRENT MEMBERS HAVE PAID THE 2024 DUES WITHIN THE IST WEEKEND OF COLLECTION. THANKS GUYS BUT THAT LEAVES 76

ELIGIBLE FOR INCARCERATION. WE HAVE ROOM FOR 77 TORTURE CHAMBERS. HARSH BUT NECESSARY.

Game 72A/B Saturday KPP 5, 11.4.23

26 GLAD-IATORS FOUND THEMSELVES IN 7TH HEAVEN ON THIS ABSOLUTELY BEATIFIC DAY

HUGH MADE HIS TEAMMATES HUGH-PHORIC AS HE BLASTS 3 HITS.

TEAMMATES WERE OVER THE MOON WHEN BRYAN B HIT ONE OVER THE MOON AND STAR IN LEFT FOR A MOONSTER DOUBLE.

TEAMMATES WERE UBERLY EXUBERANT WHEN MATT R RAPT A 3 RUN HOMER TO RF TO PUT TO GIVE THEM A COMFORTABLE LEAD.

BUT TODAY'S EXULTANT OF SWAT WAS MIKE "SULLY" WHO DOUBLED AND HOMERED WITH 2 MASSIVE BLOWS.

VINNY HAD A BALL AS HE HAD A BALL GO PAST OUTFIELDERS FOR A TRIPLE.

NICK DIDN'T JUST NICK THE BALL, HE SMASHED IT FOR A DOUBLE, WHICH MADE HIS TEAMMATES HAPPY AS CLAMS AS HE HELPED MAKE THEM TODAY'S CLAMP-IONS.

THE HAPPY-GO-LUCKY LEDER NEEDED NO LUCK, AND USED ALL SKILL TO BURST THE BUBBLE OF OPPONENTS WITH HIS SINGLE AND DOUBLE, TO ADD TO HIS ALREADY IMPRESSIVE EXTATISTICS.

JON Z, JON P, JON S, STEVE H, GORDO, AND LEE CAN BE FOUND IN THE TABLE OF CONTENTS FOR TODAY'S GAME UNDER NICE HITS.

ED H MADE 2 FINE RUNNING PLAYS IN CF TO EARN GRINS FROM TEAMMATES TO THE CHAGRIN OF NON-TEAMMATES

IT WAS A HAPPY MIRTH DAY FOR SNOOP, GARY W AND JACK WHO TURNED A BEAUTIFUL 6-2-5 DP WITH THE BASES LOADED.
STEVE F, LEE, AND STEVE H WERE HAPPY TOGETHER PERFORMING A 1-6-3 DP ON FELLOW TURTLES.

IT WAS NO LARK THAT STEVE FEINSTEIN'S COMMAND ON THE MOUND WAS VERY CO-MOUND-ITORY, AS HE ONLY ALLOWS 4 RUNS IN HIS 9 INNINGS TO MAKE HIS COMPADRES HAPPY AS LARKS.

Game 73 Sunday 11.5.23

BOTH TEAMS SUBMITTED THEIR 10 RUNS TO A PUNNING CONTEST THINKING THEY'D WIN, BUT A CLEAR WIN WAS UN-10-ABLE.

10-10 WINS NY

THUS BOTH PITCHERS END UP CONTENTED COWS.

THERE MIGHT BE NO JOY IN MUDVILLE BUT THERE WAS PLENTY OF IT IN ALLENWOOD AS BOTH TEAMS WALKED AWAY BEING HAPPY WINNERS. IT WAS A REAL LAUGHER IN THE NON-TRADITIONAL SENSE. ACTUALLY IT WAS THE OPPOSITE.

LOTS OF HAPPINESS AROSE OVER PETER'S (AKA LAWRENCE PETER BERRA) CATCHER SHOW. HE GEMMED 3X BEHIND

THE PLATE. ONE WAS A SENSATIONAL OVER THE SHOULDER SNAG OF A POP UP. BUT THEN HE GUNNED DOWN 2 HAPLESS RUNNERS AT 1B WITH HEAT SEEKING MISSILE-ESQUE THROWS, AFTER GRABBING DIRT SPINNERS BETWEEN THE PLATE AND 1B, DESPITE TEAMMATES ILL-ADVISING HIM TO "LET IT GO." LIKE THE BEATLES SANG, "HAPPINESS IS WARM GUN."

MARC PFIEFFER HAD HIS TEAM SINGING BS&T'S "YOU'VE MADE ME SO VERY HAPPY," AS HE HITS THE BALL A COUNTRY SMILE TWICE, ONE FOR A TRIPLE, THE OTHER FOR A VERY SPEEDY ROUND TRIPPER.

STEVE FEINSTEIN'S TEAMMATES WERE GIDDY OVER HIS 3 HITS DAY.

BRYAN BLACK OBLIGED JUDY GARLAND'S PLEA FOR EVERYONE TO GET HAPPY

WITH HIS SCINTILLATING RUNNING GRAB OF A LINE DRIVE AT SS.

MARIO (WITH A TRIPLE AND 2 RBI AND OTHER HARD HIT BALLS), ANDY, GARY CH, LEE, KENNY, AND NICK, DEFIED JIMMY DURANTE'S PLEA TO MAKE JUST ONE SOMEONE HAPPY AS THEY MADE THEIR WHOLE TEAM HAPPY WITH FINE HITTING PERFORMANCES AND MULTI-HIT, MULTI-RBI GAMES.

THE HOME TEAM TRAILED MOST OF THE GAME BUT MATT R MADE IT A HAPPY TRAIL AS HE BLASTED A FINAL INNING GAME TYING HIT.

HAPPY TRAILS TO EVERYONE UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN NEXT WEEKEND WHEN HAPPY DAYS WILL BE HERE AGAIN

Game 74A/B Saturday KPP 5, 11.11.23 Veteran's Day by GNSB's 98th youngest player.

IN THE VILLAGE OF KINGS POINT, A SCRIMMAGE FOR THE AGES GIVES MUCH SMILE-AGE TO AN ASSEMBLAGE OF 25, AMIDST BEAUTIFUL FALL FOLIAGE!

HERE'S THE COVERAGE:

A SEVERE SHORTAGE OF RUNS EXISTS FOR THE FIRST 6 INNINGS ON THE GNSB STAGE. THANKS TO OUTRAGEOUS PITCHING PERFORMANCES BY RALPH, LEDER AND STEVE F, AS THEY PUT HITTER AFTER HITTER IN BONDAGE, TYING THEM UP WITH BOTH FAST BALLS AND GARBAGE PITCHES, ALLOWING FOR VERY INFREQUENT PASSAGE TO HOME PLATE.
BUT THEN A SAVAGE WAR BEGAN TO BE WAGED.

DR. ED DEFIED HIS HIPPOCRATIC OATH AND ONCE AGAIN DID HARM… TO THE VISITING SQUAD. HE RAVAGED THEIR HOPES BY SMASHING A PUMPKIN THROUGH THE RIGHT SIDE OF THE INFIELD, WITH RUNNERS ON 1ST AND 2ND, IN THE BOTTOM OF THE 13TH, SCORING BRYAN BLACK, WHO MADE A MAGNIFICENT SLIDE INTO THE PLATE, JUST UNDER THE CATCHERS TAG, TO WIN THE GAME. IT WAS A CONTROVERSIAL PLAY, WHICH SOME CALLED A GROSS MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE. IT WAS A WALK-

OFF BASE HIT FROM DR ED. YOU NEVER SAUSAGE A FINISH.

THERE WAS A BARRAGE OF HITS BY:

- STEVE FEINSTEIN, WHO HELPING HIS OWN CAUSE, PILLAGED AND PLUNDERED THE OPPOSITION WITH3 HITS AND 5 RBI.
- WE MUST ALSO PAY HOMAGE TO RICH LUZARDO WHO HAD A MULTI-HIT GAME INCLUDING A MONSTER TRIPLE THAT CARRIED MAJOR TONNAGE.
- STEVE M, WHO DID MAJOR DAMAGE WITH 3 HITS AND A WALK TO DRIVE IN 3 RUNS.
- MIKE "SULLY' WHO WENT ON A HITTING RAMPAGE WITH THE HEAVY POUNDAGE OF 2 HITS RESULTING IN SEVERAL RUNS
- JON SPIEL WHO HAD 2 HITS VOYAGE INTO AND LAND SAFELY INTO THE KPP5 PASTUREAGE TO DRIVE IN RUNS.
- BRIAN STAR WHO SUPPLIED A HEAVY DOSAGE OF 3 HITS FOR HIS TEAM.
- RALPH WHO CAUSED MAJOR WRECKAGE TO THE OPPOSITION BY HITTING THE BALL HARD EVERY TIME UP TO COLLECT A COUPLE OF HITS AT LEAST.

- NICE HITS WERE ALSO BEGOTTEN BY THE AGELESS FLASH PAISNER, THE CAGEY JUAN PLATA, STEVE H THE SAGE, LEDER THE UBER VERBI-AGE-D COMPOST-AGER, THE UNAGE-ING AND ENGAGE-ING HUGH,THE PERPETUALLY ENRAGED AND OUTRAGED, GORDO AND LAST BUT NOT LEAST, VETERAN PETE, THE COURAGEOUS. (THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE).

DEFENSIVELY:

- MIKE "SULLY" SABOTAGED THE OPPOSITION'S BID FOR RUNS WITH AN INCREDULOUS DIVING CATCH OF A BALL IN LCF.
- STEVE FEINSTEIN, WHILE OVERSEEING THE ACREAGE AT 3B MADE A MAGNIFICENT PLAY IN WHICH HE THREW THE RUNNER OUT AT 1B FROM HIS KNEES.
- JACK STOPPED THE HEMORRHAGE-ING OF RUNS WITH HIS RUNNING GEM IN RF AGAINST VERY TOUGH SUN GLARE

- HOWEVER THE PLAY OF HE GAME IS AWARDED TO JUAN PLATA, WHO CAUSED A MAJOR BLOCKAGE IN HIS OPONIES' RUN CIRCULATION, WITH AN UNBELIEVABLE SNAG OF A MISSILE TO SCF, THAT HE CONVERTED TO A DP WITH A LASER THROW TO 2B.

SPECIAL KUDOS TO SIDE-MAKERS BRUCE AND BOB FOR BEING ABLE TO MANAGE UNDER A CHALLENGING SITUATION AND TO MAKE SUCH FAIR SIDES.

Game 75 Sunday Allenwood 11.12.23 by FUTURE PARK COMMISSIONER GORDO - DON'T FORGET TO VOTE.

Sunday the 12th of November saw a spirited group of 15 hit the well groomed stylings of Allenwood Park. That there were only 15 in no way diminished the fun. However, it must be stated that there were 27 signed up to play on Saturday for Sunday's game. That 12 people chickened out because instead of it being 41 degrees at game time, as it was on Saturday when 25 showed up, it was 39 is nothing short of an embarrassment. So Sunday morning's game boils down to 15 people carried on heroically, 12 people disgraced themselves. And now on to the details of the contest. (Commisioner's Note: Not everyone who bailed, did so because of the weather.)

The home side saw the Juanderful Juan on the hill against the contentious irascible styling of the Z meister. The visitors got out of the gates in a hurry, plating five with consistent hitting from top to bottom. Gary W., Herr Lederhosen, Might Matt, Spielage, Nicky Spillane, man from Planet Z, Cousin Brucie all pounded hide with prejudice. And after half an inning, it was 5-0. The homeside plated a deuce but it would have been significantly more if the aforementioned J Spiel and Cousin Brucie hadn't shown incredible defensive prowess.

The visitors went quietly in the top of the second and things turned around when Mario cleared the bases with a monster three run triple. Both sides continued blasting the ball but no shot went further than Matt's bomb to left center. It was nip and tuck through the next five innings until WUrtzel went Wild with a moonship to left. And the rest of the homies also contributed; Charns, Gordo, Barry, Steve H., and Bob strung some hits together and then the day's calamity unfolded. Wurtz hit a bloop that Bruce fielded on a bounce with his left hand while tagging out the runner with his gloved right hand. Bobby, the veteran umpire saw it and called it properly but it was ruled that it was close enough for government work and the 5 run rally ended shrouded in controversy. But all controversy came to an end when Weinstock said enough and blasted a critical two run triple to put the visitors up by 3. The beleaguered homies could nary muster a reply and the final score stood 17-14-0 17 for the visitors, 14 for the home side, and zero for the couch potatoes. If you sign up, show up. Have a nice week.

GC

Don't forget about Hugh's upcoming gig at Finn Macools

Please watch for any Fall/ Winter start time info.

Game 78 A/B Thursday KPP 5, 11.23.23(Thanksgiving) by Future GNPD Park Commissioner Gordon

A perfect day greeted the intrepid warblers of the diamond to the friendly confines of Kings Point Park. The two sides were capably represented by the Bengal Doug vs. Eric the U.

In the top of the first, the happy stylings were set in motion by Rich L., who drove in a pair with a double. His hitting prowess continued in his next at bat when he drove one deep for a solo four bagger. The home side led by the color of Pais and Jon's S&L followed by big Lou stretched together sticks in four of the first five innings. But their efforts to get more than one at a time across was thwarted by the slick fielding of Fran who stopped everything short of the planes flying to Laguardia. His thievery was most emphatic when he dove to his left to stop a smash destined for the fields.

Rich L., continued his one man band as he drove in a pair with a solid single to right. Steve F. joined the fray with a triple deep into the farthest confines. When Gordon, Doug with a double, Gary W., Ed and Z all drove in runs it became apparent that the goose was cooked for the U's. Even Lou's blast was not enough to stem the tide. Final Score Bengalis 11 - U's 6.

Game 79 A/B Friday (Black Friday) KPP 5, 11.18.24 by Future GNPD Park Commissioner Gordon

Friday's game was actually a tale of two. The first six innings saw a defensive struggle between Lou's Blues and The Bengali Kid looking for back to back victories. For the first half of the game, both pitchers and defenses were stingy. Among the plays of the day was Nick's snarling a wicked line drive. But the most incredible feat was performed by Matt who somehow managed to extricate a ball stuck in the vines at the top of a tree. His effort resulted in his landing on the ground but not before the befuddled pill went back to the pitcher.

In the bottom of the fifth, Lee drove in a run only to be answered by Hugh's sac fly. In the bottom of the seventh however, the bats caught up. Rich, Matt, Doug and Steve F., all stroked with alacrity and the home side went ahead by five. With the way the game was going, it looked like that would be enough. But it wasn't. Not even close.

In the top of the ninth, Barry found his hitting shoes and drove a triple to right. Inspired, Lou and Leder hit a double and triple and it was game on. In the tenth, Lou and Jon Spiel (didn't there used to be a brother?) slashed and burned and the score was tied.. Rich L. helped put the Koch Tigers ahead by one but now the visitors started gobbling like Wild Turkeys, scoring 6 in the 12th and 4 more in the 13th. Leder and company including Z, Bobby, Ed, and Vinny all set the Thanksgiving table.

Down by 8 going into the final at bat, the home side responded heroically. John V got it going followed by the Fine stein, Nickers and Juanito and when the Pais got on, the home side had the tying run at the plate. But alas, that is where it stayed and Black Friday went into the books, Lou's legends 16 - Bengal Tiger 14.

Game 80 (Regular Sunday)Sunday, Allenwood, 11.18.26 by Future GNPD Park Commissioner Gordon

Saturday greeted the valiant 20 with perfect conditions. However, the commissioner's office checked the weather at 1:30 a.m. and cancelled the game on account of darkness. Close enough for government work.

Commissioner's Note: I wasn't up at 1:30a.m. Those numbers don't even appear on my clock. Besides I only listen to FM.

The final day of the Thanksgiving weekend saw a shift in venue to Allenwood Park. The field was in superb condition and the weather was worse than Saturday which is why the game wasn't cancelled. Undaunted by the head scratching antics of the powers that be, the courageous and fearless Bruce called "play ball" and away we went.

The home side had the stylings of the Huntsmen on the hill slinging the arrows. Against him was the unstoppable stylings of the great Eric the U.

The visitors scored right away when Zig scooted home from second on a deep fly to left center. Quiet again ruled the early innings and it wasn't until the fourth that the visitors plated some more. Ed and Eric, helping his own cause, both drove in a run each. Down by three, the home side got their feet moving. The big play was the lightning feet of the Pais man who just beat out an infield chop with two out. Hits by Gordon, Kono, Feinstein and Bryan followed and the score was deadlocked.

Jack knocked in a run with a fielder's choice but Paisner's quick feet struck again. A triple followed by a Gordon single and it was tied yet again. The visitors took exception and took matters into their own hands. First an embarrassing single by Barry followed by Rich L. single set the stage for the Ledermeister to go yard and put the visitors up by three. When Ed tacked on a rbi fielder's choice, it looked like it was game set and match. But the unlikeliest of heroes emerged. With two on and down by four, Z smashed an opposite field double which drove in two. Not to be out done the hunted became the Hunter and all of a sudden it was a one run game. Enter Mr. Paisner aka the sandman. His smash plated the tying run and it was to a final inning we went.

The visitors were stymied by the inspired home side and then came the heroics of the bottom of the 12th. Steve F., led off with a rope down the left field line for a double. Bryan hit a moonshot that allowed Steve to tag and that brought the Charns to the plate. First time is a charm as he hit a difficult bouncer to the first baseman. Steve H.'s throw was a hair late as F. snuck in for the deciding run.

A great weekend of fun for all that participated. And a special shoutout to all the Ironmen who played in every game. Of course, with the postponement, many will question whether or not it should count as an Ironman weekend. But what does it matter? If you expect a cup, consider this, so did I from 4 years ago when I played in all four games.

Game 82 Sunday, Allenwood, 12.10.26 by Future GNPD Park Commissioner Gordon. He should have been elected but was done wrong. Hopefully next time though.

Clear thinking at the helm by Captain Bruce and Ensign Widawsky saw a last minute change of time to combat the winds of change that were due to descend on Allenwood park on Sunday. The heads up crew (all except for 2 whose claims of never getting the message fell on deaf ears), tack and come about to the field a half hour early. And it was off to the America's cup GNSB style.

The first inning was a massive display of offensive behavior. The visitors led by Hugh, Ed R., Lou, Ed I., (re)Pete, Gary W., Steve H. and the aforementioned Captain all slashed through the impending storm clouds to put up 4 in the top of the frame. Bloodied but unbowed, the home side came back with a four spot of their own. Gordon, John Spiel (the spiel who actually shows up) Rich L., Mario, Jack, Herr Lederhosen, Charns, Juan, Z, Hunt and the Ensign all brought their swords to battle and the pirates had evened the count. It was Leder's three run triple that did the most damage but Gary Ch. continued his hot hitting with an rbi as well.

The visitors scratched three runs across and the game was getting quite intense. Then Zig and Feinmiester showed up. And in a display of gutlessness that even Gordon was disgusted by, Steve F., (un?)intentionally walked Rich L. to fill the basses for Mario. One rope later and the home side was nearly level. Mighty Lou changed it with a big swat to drive in a run and restore some depth to the charger. And in the top of the7th, the swashbuckling stylings of Gary W. reared their ugly heads as he drilled a double to left field.

A few more runs transpired over the next few innings only to get washed away when the rain finally appeared in earnest and wiped out that part of the scoreboard.

Game 85A/B Saturday KPP 5, 12.23.23 by Gordon, the man who was robbed of the GN Park Commissionership due to unscrupulous shenanigans

With the Winter Solstice behind them, the intrepid diamoneers descended on the winter tundra of Kings Point Park's field #5. The impenetrability of cleat to earth brought back memories of winter classics from another era. It was the Ice Bowl II.

Braving the hill for the visitors was Bengal clad Dougie K. Representing the home side was the Mariano Clad Yankee bonvivant, Eric the U. The top of the first saw the visitors attack with a vengeance. Tough AB's from Hugh, Brian, Rich C, and Frau Lederhause allowed Big Bryan Black (Triple B) and the only Spiel with courage to drive in the opening pair. The Bengali kid set the home side down tamely and when the visitors reemerged, their venom was still juiced. Juan ripped a two bagger down the left field line and Cousin Brucie drove him in with a smash to the right side. And after a quiet bottom of the second, the Begali helped his own cause with a vicious double, one of his many hits on the day.

Down by four, the home side got their act together. Gordon and Rich L., both doubled and then Barry went the other way and it was 4-3. Only an incredible defensive play by Spiderman Spiel kept the floodgates from opening. Play settled down and goose eggs ensued until Rich L. roped a triple to tie the score. On the following play, with two outs, Barry hit a soft ground ball that he beat out through grit and determination and Rich scored to give the home side the lead. Oh no wait. Mr. Softball got caught napping and didn't move a muscle. Instead of scoring from third, Rich watched the geese fly south and the score remained tied. It would have been their first lead of the game but instead they never took the lead for the entire game. The visitors went Bengal wild and plated first one on a Spiel single, then two when Bryan and Connors lashed and crashed and then five more when Doug K., made an incredible dash for the plate and slid into home just ahead of the tag. This show of team commitment which the other side failed to demonstrate, is the reason why the home side led by 6 going into the bottom of the last. But with two outs, Gordon, John V., Rich L,.Barry piled some hits together which set the table for the bottom third. But alas it was Dougie K.'s day and his side enjoyed the spoils of a spirited 13-10 victory.

Game 86 Sunday A-wood, 12.24.23 by Gordon, the man who was robbed of the GN Park Commissionership due to unscrupulous shenanigans

Sunday saw the diamond boys at Allenwood Park. Light rain and poor drainage made for some soggy conditions. But the fearless among us refused to be denied. The visitors were led by the oversized head or undersized cap of His Johner. Against him was the wily Knuckleballer Luis Hoyt Wilhelm Avila.

The visitors were stymied in the top of the opening frame. The home side scored a pair as Bryan continued his hot hitting driving in one before the steady hand of the venerable Rob Wurtzel drove in another. When the visitors came up, Lou was unable to contain the bottom of the order and Bruce and the Judge each drove one in. The visitors were infected with hitting zeal and they added three more in the third and the fourth to take an 8-2 lead. Rich L., John V., Eric and Ed took umbrage with the pill and blasted hit after hit. Not to be outdone, Ch., Connors and Leder added offensiveness.

The home side tried to respond but diabolical defense stymied their efforts two innings in a row. First Dr. Ed made a sensational grab of a sinking liner that would have opened the floodgates. And not to be outdone, Leder flashed leather and made a stunning and lunging grab of a sure extra base hit to keep the home side from getting closer. That being said, the home side showed poise and promise by getting two back and then two more to cut the lead to 8-6. It seemed like the visitors were losing their edge until Eric crushed a bomb over Barry's head in left, driving in a run and then scoring on a Matt RBI.

The home side responded with a deuce when Lou and Bobby made it happen. But latecomer Ziggy just missed driving in the tying run to crush the hopes of the home side. The beleaguered homies could muster nary a response and the final was His Johner's elves 10, Lou's grinches 8.

Game 87 Monday KPP 5, 12.25.23 by Gordon the man who was robbed of the GN Park Commissionership due to unscrupulous shenanigans

Christmas day saw the diamonders return to a much improved conditions at KPP 5. His Johner, nursing a one game win streak went up against the unvictorious stylings of the Orioles, Eric the U. The visitors busted out of the gates. Lee, Gary Ch., Mike, Rich L. set the table for Barry, Dr. Ed, and Steve who each drove in a run to start the visitors with a three run lead. The visitors added a solo run in the third when Gary W., got the first of his two RBI's. But then the home side put their foot down and got three back. Leder crushed a double and Triple B topped that with a triple. When the mud had settled, the lead was cut to one. Stifling defense held the visitors in check for the next three innings and that was all the home side needed. Triple B lashed another double and the Brian became the Star when he drove in two with a superbly hit single. The two sides each put up a candle in the seventh and the count stood 7-5 in favor of the home side. The homies got a pair in the ninth when Leder drove in one with a Fielder's choice and Brian drove in a second. When Zig blasted a double down the left field line, the home side had a five run lead. More tenacious defense and tough pitching left the visitors in the lurch, unable to score for five straight frames. When it was all said and done, it was all said and done for the home side.

Congratulations to the Ironmen, whose wisdom, guts and determination continue to embarrass the Commissioner and the no show board.

Respectfully Submitted,

Gordon

It was an ultimate game on the penultimate day of the year. An epic back and forth contest that ended in walk-off fashion.

Ralph and Doug had the unenviable task of pitching on a day when EVERYONE came to hit.

Ralph's home squad had a 7-0 lead through the first three. Doug's visitors started to chip away over the next five innings scoring 8 runs while Doug held the opponents scoreless.
Four runs would be scored in the bottom of the 8th and Ralph's mates would take the lead back , 11-8. Not to be undone, Doug's hitters would push across three runs to knot the score at 11 heading into the 12th. Each team scored 2 runs in the 12th, and with the 13th being the final inning, 13 was a lucky number for Ralph as he had the walk-off RBI.

There were so many batting and fielding stars yesterday, literally everyone contributed.
Here's a few of the more memorable ones:

-Rich Luzardo - scary power including a blast over right fielder's head for a triple despite the outfielders playing in another zip code. Rich also had a big unassisted DP at second.
-Johnny V's frozen ropes to left. However on one, Brian Star chased the ball down , relayed to Bryan , who threw a bullet to third for the tag out.
-Gary W, Steve Feinstein, Doc Ed, Leder being Leder , and Jack all added key hits at some point during the game. Jack added several fine fielding plays in right, including a great catch on a bomb hit by Matt Rice.
-Bryan Black , Ed H -multiple screaming line drives throughout the game. BB also must have handle at least a dozen ground balls at short.
-Bruce's glove work in short CF - at least four web gems.
-Gary Z - nice double play taking the throw at first and then firing across the diamond to third to catch the runner, ending the threat and the inning.
-Ed Ip - key hit along the way and another one taken away by Luzardo on a great play
-Connors and Rice going against the shift with oppo hits including a nice triple down the left field line for Matt. Connors also went down the LF line for a ground rule double.
-Star Man and Sully (two doubles) doing the job in the 1-2 spots with multiple hits setting things up for Bryan B and Ed H.

-Juan had a key hit/RBI and handled things behind the plate.

Great job by sides-maker Bruce, nailing it with two equal teams.

Kudos to the two GN Parks Department employees who whipped the infield and home plate area into excellent shape after several days of rain.

Game 89 Sunday KPP 5, 12.31.23 by Gordon

It was to be the final game of 2023, a year that was very good to the many participants of Great Neck weekend softball. Today's contest pitted the humble stylings of Mr. Lou vs. the gyrations and permutations of Steve the Dream Fine stein as they squared off on the familiar confines of KPP 5.

The visitors got off first as Big John H. went yard, blasting a moon shot over the left center field fence. Obviously it was just another day at the office as John decided that it wasn't worth his time to run the bases. The ever present and effervescent man about town, Cousin Brucie looked to Fred Merkle him at second base, but the beleaguered umpire rejected his appeal. The home side responded with some offensive behavior of their own, provided by Big Lou and the Charns who was put in the clean up spot and promptly delivered the mail. It would have been a big inning if not for a terrific grab in right field by the recidivist in training, Matt.

The top of the third saw the visitors strike for a pair, Rich Lazer Lazardo slashing and smashing this time. But the home side refused to demur and Mr. Ed, the Charns machine and Lou led the charge and it was tied at 5 after 3. A sac fly by Gordon briefly put the visitors up by one but the home side decided that enough was enough. First John Z., went deep and this inspired a lineup busting ensemble to muddy the batters box. Hugh, Ed I., Jack, Rob/Roy, Gary W., Steve H. and Cousin Brucie all contributed. So verklempt was Fine no more Stein, that he walked the Cousin twice in a row. A kinder manager would have removed him from the rubber earlier but this particular manager obviously left him out there to suffer the indignity. Despite the visitors plating a pair courtesy of Leder, Matt, Juan and Z., the move to bring in a new pitcher did nothing to quell the molten aluminum that kept pounding run after run for the home side. From top to bottom, the home side was merciless and when the final tabulation was read, the home side was not the Lou sers but rather they enjoyed a lopsided 17-11 victory.

KUDOS TO THE CHRISTMAS WEEKEND IRONMEN

BRUCE, BOBBY W, LEDER, STEVE H, BRYAN B, GARY Z, ED R, ERIC, GARY W, GORDON, BARRY, HUGH, RICH L, JUAN.

Please note that the ironman photo sent in my previous email contained some non-ironmen, more unscrupulous behavior. I'm no sure how this could happen in such an advanced softball society such as ours.

Happy New Years guys from our Huntington Pointe Delray Beach Offices.

Game 2 Sunday, KPP 5, 1.14.24 by the man who should be Park Commissioner: Gordo

A gift is nice. An unexpected gift is infinitely nicer. Those who braved the January conditions were treated to something that was described by one of the participants as magical. And it was.

KPP 5 and winter don't mix. The field freezes, puddles ice over and unforgiving wind and cloud cover make for harsh conditions. The decision to even have a game is made at the last minute by the Captain and sundry associates, taking into account all the factors. And the decision was game on but bring shovels and rakes. As the warriors descended on the field, a flurry of activity to render the field playable was undertaken. And the softball gods pitched in too as cloud cover gave way to bright sun and wind gusts were few and far between. If the field warms up too quickly, then it becomes a mud bowl. But Mother Nature was kind and the field with ongoing assistance by the humble combatants, were outstanding. Game on!

The visitors were led by Eric the U., who bedazzled in a Japanese Baseball Uniform from the Lions. Opposing him was the malevolent Steve "Fine"stein. In cold weather, bats and bodies take time to warm so the fielders usually have their way. And this contest was true to form. The bottom of the first saw an outstanding defensive gem by Rich as he snarled a looping ball in right field and then stepped on the bag to double up the runner. A solo run crossed the dish in the bottom of the second as Gary W. drove in a run with the first of his hits. The visitors answered back as BBB (Big Bryan Black) drove in a run with a sac fly followed by Gordon's rbi single.

Things quieted down for the next few frames until the bottom of the fifth when Rich C. and (re) Pete drove in three and the home side surged into a 4-2 lead. More goose eggs against the Malevolent one and the home side added a single run courtesy of Pete, who repeated his earlier exploit and drove in a run with a single.

Finally, the visitors got going thanks to outstanding baserunning by the Zig, who caused panic on the paths. And when the dust had settled, Zig across the plate, Rich L. stood on third and BBB was on second. And then in a stark example of malevolence, Gordon was intentionally walked to load the bases for the Lion man himself.

I hope Mr. Feinstein is reading these words and can recount the blast that Eric hit off of him, deep into left field. The ball don't lie!!! A bases emptying double and the visitors took the lead. The visitors who previously looked vanquished were now spright in step as evidenced by a terrific catch by Mr. Ed I in center field as he lunged and made a shoestring catch on a sinking liner. The visitors were now a few innings from vindication but Bobby had other ideas. Mr. Widowsky, the epitome of a wily veteran blasted a moonshot of Mr. Ed's head and with that, the home side sprung into the lead.

Down to their last at bat, the Lion tamer drove in another run which led to the Riceman coming up with the score tied. His seeing eye Texas leaguer fell just over the infielders head and between the two outfielders. Nursing a slim lead, Captain Bruce made a courageous call and handed the ball to the beleaguered

Gary Z. Anxious moments ensued and with the tying and go ahead runs on base, the play of the game, neigh the year occurred.

A looping shot similar to Matt Rice's hit looked like a sure hit. The only one who had a possible chance was BBB. Will he be able to range back? Will the ball drop? What happened next will be remembered by all that were there. Retreating as fast as he could, it appeared that Bryan might be able to make the catch. OH NO!!! His loping stride coupled with the moguls of KPP's outfield and BBB went down flat on his back. Recognizing the opportunity, the runners sprinted, certain that everyone would score! Bryan, bloodied but unbowed, stretched his frame as far as he could and miraculously the ball fell safely into his glove. A sensational, unbelievable play. And with complete composure after this divine intervention, BBB calmly threw to the base to double off the flabbergasted runner. Bryan's efforts deserve this epitaph:

Out of the night that covers me,
    Black as the pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
    For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
    I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
    My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
    Looms but the Horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
    Finds and shall find me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
    How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate,
    I am the captain of my soul.

OUR CONSECUTIVE MONTH OF OUTDOOR PLAY REACHES 149!!!
KUDOS TO ALL

GNSB HAS NOW HAD GAMES PLAYED IN 170 OF THE LAST ALLOWABLE 171 MONTHS, WINTER, SPRING, SUMMER OR FALL. THAT'S 14 PLUS YEARS

Game 3 Saturday, KPP 5, 2.10.24 by the man who should be Park Commissioner: Gordo

The weekend of February 10th and a number of notable events surrounded the date. There is the Chinese New Year, the Super Bowl, Mardi Gras (Fat Tuesday is this week) and Valentine's day all within several days of each other. Add to all that, February weather and one would suspect that the men of steel would find themselves bested by circumstance. But fear not, once again the brave looked through the abyss and found themselves in a clash of titans.

Mid-week rain rendered Allenwood unplayable (thank you Park Commissioners for not spending the 80K allocated years ago to fix the drainage) so both games were held at KPP 5. Sadly however, the fields were littered with Dog Waste (Thank you Park Commissioners for not providing suitable alternatives for dog owners and to the dog owners themselves who are grotesque in their indifference) and this forced the combatants to pick up in order to make the field playable.

A seasonably warm and overcast day greeted the visitors led by Ralph on the hill and the homies led by Eric who was once again resplendent in Negro league garb. The wind abated and it was, play ball. The visiting side started with a bang. Lee, Ed R., Mike S. Herr Leder, Steve F. all came out slashing but with a huge inning looming, an unbelievable defensive play stopped the rally dead in its tracks when Hugh deftly fielded a line drive base hit and hit the cutoff man, B cubed who gunned a strike to Rich C and the shocked runner was out at the plate.

The home side got the pair back when Brian, Hugh, and Rich drove lasers about the field. Bryan followed with a sac fly and Rich C., who just dazzled in the field, flashed one of his many hits to tie the score. The field went quiet largely owing to a spectacular grab by Cousin Brucie in short right center field. And the game remained quiet until Rich C., drove in another to put the home side up by one.

The undoing of the visitors occurred in the bottom of the 6th when the rest of the home side got into the act. Jack, Eric, Gordon, Jon Spiel, Z and Bruce all contributed to a four run outburst. and for all intents and purposes, it was all over right there. Riches L and C combined for some more offense and the home side led by 7 heading down the stretch. Matt's RBI single was not enough to stem the tide. Nor was the defensive brilliance of Steve F., Nick, Steve F., and Herr Lederhosen. Final count 10-4.

Game 4 Sunday, KPP 5, 2.11.24 by the man who should be Park Commissioner: Gordo

Sunday also saw refreshing warmth for the month of February. And without any wind or even a hint of a breeze, the conditions were wonderful and once again, it was Play Ball!.

This game might as well have been called the Ziggy show. He was on base more times than he batted. Multiple doubles, runs scored, runs driven in, it was 6-0 against the Judge's home side before the ink was dry. And Steve F., who is always hard to hit, is even stingier with the lead. Also contributing for the home side was Leder, Mario, Jack, Gary W., Z., and the venerable Cousin B. The only one who failed to contribute was Barry but we would have been a man short without him, especially after the Judge's knee started talking to him. Apart from Zig, Leder, who came in to relieve Steve F., was smoking and stroking the pill about the yard. Despite the audacious stylings of Eric the Padre, Jon Z. was not able to single handedly carry the load. Despite drilling one to the left center field fence. It could have been a homer if not for certain circumstances.

Two notable plays were turned in. One by (re) Pete who did a corkscrew in the batter's box on his powerful swing which landed for a clutch single. But the play of the game was put in by Roy Buster Keaton Z, who somehow landed on his neck with his feet straight up in the air on Leder's triple. That he was able to get up with only his pride hurting is testimony to the incredible flexibility and overall good health the man enjoys. When it was all said and done the visitors held on to win 11-7 in a game which was not as close as the final score indicated.

KUDOS TO ALL

Game 5 Sunday, The Schoolyard, 3.3.24 by the man who should be Park Commissioner: Gordo

The nattering nabobs of negativity were finally thwarted as an absolutely gorgeous day greeted the intrepid warriors of the diamond. Unseasonably high temperatures followed a significant rainstorm so the festivities were kicked off at the hard top of Challenge Grounds.

The home side were led by Eric The U, resplendent yet again in full regalia. Opposing him was the bionic man with no last name, Andy Paul.

In the top of the first, Rich Connors and Mark, the man who puts the Leder in Lederhosen each smacked RBI doubles. Stingy defense greeted the homies and when the visitors plated two, again courtesy of Mr. Connors, it looked like we might be in for a lopsided affair. But hold on to your hats ladies, The bottom of the third saw an incredibly dynamic and even handed effort with everyone contributing with the offensive behavior. Ed I., followed by Eric (who was on it all game) followed by John V., and Mario, Jack (re)Pete, Snoop, Z and Cousin Brucie all lashed and slashed and when the gravel had settled, the U's boys were ahead.

In the top of the 7th, the visitors regained their swagger. Gordon drove in two with a triple and Ed R. knocked him in. Normalcy restored? Not hardly. In the bottom of the frame V and Mario each drove one in and the home side were in front again. And when the visitors came to bat, came the explosion! First Andy went yard with a two run four bagger. Then Steve F., said triple time and then John L. clutched up with a bases clearing double. In all, six had touched the dish and it looked like clear sailing. I say it looked like it. But it wasn't. John L., traded mid game! came through with a two run double for the home side. Going into this and one more, the score was Visitors 13 Homies 12. Incredible!!! But the top of the tenth saw the visitors pound in four. Connors drove in another one before Leder cleared the fence for a ground rule double. When Steve F. drove one in, it was left to Gary W. to finish the task. The veteran calmly delivered the knockout blow. From there the beleaguered homies had nothing left to offer. The final - Paul's Pups 17 U's Unicorns 12.

March is in the books and from the looks of it, the worst is behind us. It is time to heed the call gentlemen. Play Ball!

Game 6 Saturday, KPP5 3.9.24 by Lee

Mother Nature relented briefly to allow GN softball to get out on the well groomed KP5 (kudos to GN staff for getting it ready for us).

The morning started with Lenny P showing up straight off the red eye to make it an even 22.

The game started competitively with both team scoring 2 in the first, Bryan with a 2 RBI bloop double for the U's and Lee with an RBI single and Rich C with a sac fly for the Ralph's.

The Ralph's jumped ahead in the 4th with an RBI single from Brian S and opposite field 2 RBI double by Ralph.
The U's closed the gap to 5-3 when Bryan knocked in his third run of the game.

The turning point was the unplanned exit of the mercurial Mike Spiel leaving the U's without a big bat. A rare mid-game trade sent the junior Spiel to the U's but that would not be enough to slow the Ralph's as they opened the game up with an eight run 7th and would go on to score a total of 18 runs and allowing only one more run for a final score of 18-4.

The key hits for the Ralph's in the big inning were multiple RBI's for Bruce and John V.

Top Performers
Ralph with a dominant performance on the mound

Jack with multiple web gems in LF.
Bobby threw Lee out from RF trying to stretch a single into a double Cliff with a running catch in RF to stop and sure extra base hit

Bryan Black, Rich C and Brian S with 3 hits and 3 RBI's
Lee had a perfect day going 4-4 with a walk and a sac fly

Sent from Bayside to Delray Beach back to various locals in and around the Great Neck environs.

Game 8: ST. PATRICK'S DAY, Sunday, KPP5 3.17.24 by Gordo

It was the final game of the winter. And there was little doubt that spring was in the air. Pleasant temperatures and a sun, though intermittent, shone with warmth. Occasional gusts served as a reminder that winter was trying hard to stand her ground but it was merely a temporary condition. In short, the field and weather conditions were ideal and the KPP 5 diamond dwellers faced off for the bragging rights of the morning.

The visitors offered the legal stylings of the crafty veteran, Your Johner. Opposing him for the home side was the indefatigable defender of softball fashion, the deferential Eric the U. The visitors scratched a single run in the first courtesy of a Hugh fielder's choice. The home side returned the favor when Big Bryan Black drove in the tying run with a sharply hit sacrifice fly. The visitors called and raised with Gary W. driving one home. A quiet inning for the home side and then the visitors erupted for a four pack in the top of the third.

After another fielder's choice by Hugh, Leder laced an rbi single before Gordon drilled a two rbi two bagger. Rich L. cut the lead in half when he roped a two out two rbi single of his own. From there on, stinginess became the order of the day. His Johner and Eric combined for 4 1/2 scoreless innings. Resplendent and bedazzling in their control.

In the bottom of the eighth, the home side put a rally together that tied the score. First Ed R. blasted an rbi single and then Rich L. put the game on his shoulders with another two rbi hit, this one a double. The home side went ahead in the bottom of the tenth when Ed R. continued his big time hitting with a sac fly. But the top of the 11th saw this see-saw affair change its fulcrum. Ralph drove one in and then the big play of the game. With two runners on and two out, Gary W., hit a tricky ball between first and second. And all kinds of stuff started happening including a Christiano Renaldo style header and when the dust had settled, Gary was on first and the two runners had scored. The visitors now led by three. In the top of the 12th, Mario drilled a triple to dead center, driving in one. And he scored on Hugh's huge rbi single up the middle. Down by five, the home side put on their helmets and fastened their seatbelts. And after another rbi by Dr. Ed, Rich hit a three run four bagger and it was a single digit separating the two groups of warriors.

But alas, from that cup no more. And Ralph, in relief, secured the victory for the visitors. Well played and now on to spring!

THANK YOU TO LEE AND GORDO FOOR DOING THESE FINE HIGHLIGHTS. THEY WERE BOTH CLEVER AND CLOVER, OVER AND OVER.

Game 10: EASTER SUNDAY, KPP5 3.31.24 by Gordo

An early Easter holiday corresponded with the final late start of the season. It was a glorious spring day with the budding Cherry blossoms, Spruce and Willow trees all providing pastel splendor. Coupled with the glorious weather, the field conditions were pristine. Gentlemen, start your engines.

Judge and company shut down the visitors in the top of the 1st. The bottom saw Leder's hosen get hosed for three runs. The big hiTs provided by Rich L., who drove in two with a double and Mario who followed by lashing a rope to drive in a third. Down three, the visitors scratched a single run across courtesy of Eric the U., resplendent in style yet again. who drove a shot bringing one home for the visitors. The home side was silenced in their next at bat as the defense started to take on a new form of stinginess.

When the rejuvenated visitors took to the dish, the result was a four spot courtesy of a Sac Fly by Gordon, a clutch two rbi single by Hugh and Ed I's rope for an rbi. The home side responded with a single run courtesy of another Lazardoism, and scored the tying run in the bottom of the fourth thanks to Marc's sac fly. But then the play of the day came to pass. Rich Connors dropped a Texas leaguer into short right center field for a sure hit until Hugh made a head first diving lunging pouncing launch and somehow made a sensational grab. Inspired, the visitors went hogwild.

In the fifth, they scored 3 courtesy of Leder's two RBI triple and Hugh's clutch single. They added 3 more in the 6th. This time (3)Pete drove in one, followed by Gary W., and then Jon Pais. And then in the 7th, they added 2 more. Leder, again with a triple followed by Hugh again. It was now 13-5 and it stayed lopsided until the final bell. The visitors added 5 in the 9th putting it entirely out of reach. Gordon drove in 2 with a single. Leder drove one in on a safety squeeze which brought with it some serious questions of legality but with the weather fair and the game decided, the controversial play went unpunished. The home side did score 4 in the bottom of the 9th, the big hit being Ed R's two run double but by then it was all over save the Easter Bunny egg hunt.

Game time moves to 7:45! Don't forget 7:45!!! Did I mention that all games will start at 7:45?!?!?!?

Sent via a VERY HARE-O-DYNAMIC carrier Easter Bunny who HAPPILY HIP HOPPED from GN to HP, then back to GN. See everyone soon.

TOTALLY ECLIPSING ALL OTHER NEWS - CONSECUTIVE MONTH STREAK OF 151 IS ACHIEVED!

Game 11 Saturday, KPP5 4.6.24 by Gordo

The Great Neck Softball gladiators turned the page figuratively on the winter season as the last game posted was played on Saturday April 6th according to the Gregorian Calendar and March 24th on the Julien calendar. This attention to dates is made necessary by the Monday April 6th eclipse that transfixed so many along its path. And speaking of paths, Numerous blasts festooned our humble environs as the tenacious stylings of Gary Z. faced off against the man of two first names, the always humble Paul Andy. The visitors started the hootenanny off with a solo run in the top of the frame courtesy of Steve F's blistering rbi single. But the home side lit up the visitors in the next two innings. Suspect defense and an unfamiliarity with the strike zone doomed the Zmeister. And after it became 8-1, the pitching change was made. The major offensive offenders were Steve H. and Rich L who pepper sprayed clinchers about the pitch.

In the top of the sixth, Mike S made his presence felt and then Gary W. in the adjacent frame. But the home side said, this party is ours and led by Cliff and Mr. Paul, plated 3 to put the home side up by 8. But then the fur started flying and the home side plated 6 in the top of the eighth. Steve, Gordon and Z all slashed and burned through the home side's defensiveness and it was suddenly a two run game. But the home side calmly plated another and then one more in the 11th courtesy of 3B...Big Bryan Black and it was all over save the victory jig.

Game 12 Sunday, Allenwood 4.7.24 A PRECLIPSIAN ACCOUNT by Gordo

Sunday's game marked the beginning of the new season, at least as it appears on team cowboy. Of course, the fact that Allenwood was taken away and there were fence problems at KPP really points to the lack of control the do nothing board should be accountable for. Instead, the new year starts off the way the old one ended, plagued by controversy and dubious claims of a consecutive months streak. Nonetheless, those selfless souls that actually play the game were in fine form.

The visitors, led by Eric The U., started off with a big six lead generated by Leder, Lee Mario, Barry and Jack. Ed H got one back but it looked like the visitors were going to carry the day when they scored three in the top of the second. Rich Connors provides the muscle. But the home side led by His Johner aka the cantankerous one, put up 3, 3 and then 4 to springboard past the hapless visitors. Steve H. Hunt, Ed R. all set the table for Big Steve F's three run four bagger.

The home side tried to offset what Steve and 3B did and put together 3 deuces in innings 7-9. Leder, Rich C., Barry and Mario all made it happen. but the home side bent but didn't break thanks to the gutsy play of Steve F, and Pete. When Ed R accompanied Ed I and Ed H. to hitters paradise it was simply a case of too much Mr. Ed. The final score was homies 17 and the visitors 15. A wild contest portending a fabulous season, with or without competent leadership…

OFFICIAL SEASON OPENING WITH 2 SATURDAY GAMES SET FOR THIS WEEKEND 4.20.24

Game 13 Saturday, KPP5 4.13.24 by Gordo

March winds invaded April and the first of the two weekend games were played under blustery conditions. However, the weather was fair and the resolve of the gladiators was unaffected so it was play ball.

The visitors were led by the bedazzling splendor of the knuckleball pitcher par excellence, Sir Ralph. Facing him and leading the charge for the homies were Steve's F and M respectively. The visitors started well. The balanced lineup saw Lee, Leder, Vinny, Ed R. among others slash and crash hits all about the yard. Throw in a shot of Jack, some Cliff and Vinny, it seemed as if the visitors would run and hide. And in fact, they did sprint out to an early lead. But fate would not be kind to the visitors this day as Ralph's fielders betrayed his guile and the home side made some noise of their own. Steve H., Ed I., 3B or B to the third power, all produced a stunning display of offensive fortitude.

Despite the efforts of Leder and company, the home side were too tough. And when Barry crushed the ball with an angry swing, it seemed all over save the dancing. But the top of the ninth saw a spirited effort. Lee, Gordon, Vinny and Jack led the charge and suddenly it was a close contest. But that would be the visitor's solace as the homies escaped with a hard fought victory. The play of the day however would be turned in by the visitors. With Bobby on first, John Z. sent a moonshot over the right fielder's head. Gary W., finally chased down the pill before relaying to Jack, who throw home to Mr. Connors. Jon Z. looked set to score but the express was held up by the local and tags were applied to each runner. Double Play (except there were already two outs, but this goes under the cover of literary license).

Game 14 Sunday, Allenwood 4.14.24 by Gordo

Sunday saw the first contest at Allenwood. And as the day progressed, the field conditions became better and better until it was simply majestic. For the visitors, it was the beleaguered purveyor of Justice, the honorable his Johner. Against him was the man who elevates class and style with every game, resplendent once again in dashing threads, this time of a Pittsburgh variety was Eric the U.

The bottom of the first saw Gordon and Ed H., drive in a couple and then the bottom of the second saw the pitcher help his own cause, followed by G.W. and then Rich Z., the following inning. Left to his own devices, the Judge drove in the first run for the visitors. Steve F. answered back but Connors went deep up the hill, Leder slashed to parts unknown, Big Bryan Black aka B cubed, also drubbed the unwitting clincher and suddenly it was a dog fight. It was not enough. Just like the previous day, the comeback faltered and the lead was simply too much to overcome.

Game 20A Saturday, KPP5 5.4.24

AWAITING INVESTIGATION, BUT DON'T HOLD YOUR BREATHS. YOUR SUBSTITUTE HIGHLIGHT INFORMATION TEAM OR (S.H.I.T) IS APPARENTLY ON STRIKE.

Game 20B Saturday, KPP3 5.4.24 By Gordon

AWAITING RESULTS FROM SAT-ELLITE SURVEILLANCE CAMERAS

BUT DON'T HOLD YOUR BREATHS.

The most perfect of days greeted the intrepid warriors of the diamond this May at KPP's iconic Field 3. Pitching for the visitors was the prospector Juan Platta. Against him was the always affable Gary Z.

The game started with a three run burst. The hearty visitors plated through when a plethora of line drives got the runners running. Seth K., Brian, Connors, Al Z., Glenn and Juan all slashed and bashed. A few innings later it was the two Seths, K and C who, along with Barry and Cousin Brucie staked the visitors to a six run lead. There were grumbles of who made these sides when the beleaguered home side found their hitting shoes and scored a touchdown and a PAT, to take the lead. Gordon started it with an RBI single and then El Ledersky drove one hither and thither and when Dr. Ed launched a howitzer, the lead had changed. Inspired, the home side went further in the eighth when Seth S (the s for smoked one) followed by Steve H, Gary W. Bobby, Z., and the Bashman kept the visitors dancing and prancing all over the field. Not even Juan, Brian Bruce and Barry D's heroics could change the trajectory of this massive comeback.

When it was all said and done, the home side took this 10 inning contest by the score of 17-11.

IN THE MEANTIME, WE HAVE A RECORD CORRECTION FOR YOUR RECORD COLLECTIONS.

IT WAS RECENTLY REPORTED THAT GAME 17'S, SCORE OF 3-1(Sunday, Allenwood 4.28.24) WAS THE LOWEST RECORDED SCORE IN GNSB HISTORY. THIS WAS INACCURATE. THE LOWEST SCORE WAS 2-1 WHICH HAPPENED A DECADE AND A HALF, AGO. THANKS YOU TO HIS HONOR FOR POINTING THIS OUT, WITH PHOTOGRAPHIC EVIDENCE. (SEE ATTACHMENT) HOWEVER, ONLY ALLOWING ONE RUN BY A SINGLE PITCHER IS STILL THE RECORD, WHICH JOHN NOW SHARES.
ALSO:
THERE WAS A GLARING , ALMOST SAT-ANIC OVERSIGHT IN LAST WEEK'S HIGHLIGHTS. THE HORMONE PUMPED, HIGHLIGHT WRITER FORGOT TO INCLUDE:

SETH COHEN'S MAGNIFICENT SNATCH OF A SPINNING, SWERVING, SLICING, FOUL POP, OVER HIS HEAD A HOME PLATE. IF THAT WASN'T INCREDIBLE ENOUGH, 10 SECONDS LATER ON THE NEXT BATTER IT HAPPENED AGAIN!!! THEY WERE NOT EASY PLAYS. THAT DEFINITELY WAS A GNSB FIRST! WAY TO GO SETH. THAT MUST HAVE BEEN SO SAT-ISFYING.
